Centennial . . .

sang the "Canada Song", receiving hearty applause. A pageant was next presented by grade 3, depicting the history of Canada from the early explorers to the present time. Grade 3 pupils presented "The Indian Medicine Man", giving an outline of how they cured their sick

A Choral Description of Canada was presented by grades 3 and 4, with grade 4 also presenting a delightful "Virginia Reel". A Parmade of Canadian Historians was presented by grade 5 students, and a Choral Recitation and Acrostic by grade 6.

Skits, Yells and Songs by grade 7 was next on the item, and a most enjoyable Centennial Revue by students of grades 9 to 12 was enjoyed, with many various dances being demonstrated, from old time dances—Charleston, modern square dancing, Ethnic and Ukrainian dances—with the performers in traditional costumes Old time songs were sung, with Mrs. Lars Olson as accompanist in modern-day styles. These many items drew enthusiastic applause from the audience

It was most pleasant to see many adults and children in Centennial costume, making it a colourful sight.

The program came to a close with the Centennial Queen presenting Centennial Medallions to the pupils and the singing of "God Save the Queen"

Hearty congratulations are due to all those who were in any way concerned with this concert, which was one of the most ambitious and noteworthy events ever held in Holden by any organization.

Conditions ideal for seeding and germination

Even although seeding was late, the crops are coming on well at Bardo and Holden. Reports from both places indicate that wheat was three inches above ground last week.

Around Shonts about 80% of the oats, barley and rapeseed were seeded, but a few farmers needed another week of good weather to complete the seeding of coarse grains. Wheat was about the same height above ground as at Bardo and Holden.

Warm weather in general last week provided ideal conditions for the completion of seeding at Ryley and helped germination of the crops. The only area that had a slight rainfall was around Shonts.

Handicrafts wanted for July 1 display

(Grace Phillips)

If you have been engaged in making a Centennial heirloom, whether it be a quilt, a cushion, a rug or a picture, Mrs. Hazel Patterson and Mrs. Mabel Boyles invite you to enter it in the handicraft display in Centennial Showcase '67 on July 1.

Dolls, especially those of ancient vintage, dressed in Centennial costumes will also be most welcome.

If you have been painting, quilting or embroidering Canada's Centennial emblem on a personal Centennial project which will become a treasured keepsake in your family and if you are willing to have it displayed on July 1, please phone 662-4936 (Mrs. Patterson) or 662-4092 (Mrs. Boyles). Centennial collections are also welcome.

School staff honors departing teachers

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Mrs. Marjory Everitt was hostess on Thursday, June 1, when the staff of Tofield School held a tea in honor of Mrs. Edna Bowick and Miss Roberta Cumming who, after eight years on the Tofield staff, are leaving for other appointments.

Mrs. Mollie Conn, on behalf of the teachers, presented Mrs. Bowick and Miss Cumming with sets of matched trays. Mrs. Conn recalled that Mrs. Bowick had first taught in Tofield in the Primary grades as Miss Shaw. On returning to staff, Mrs. Bowick became Tofield's first full time teacher-librarian, and has set up and administered two libraries in the school.

Mrs. Conn also recalled Miss Cumming's work with the French classes, as well as her long and valuable services to the C.G.I.T. groups.

The game of basketball was invented by a Canadian. Dr. James Naismith of Renfrew, Ontario, invented the sport in 1892.

Modern etiquette

Q. Someone has told me it's not good manners to use the handkerchief while at the dinner table. Is this true?

A. This is not so much a matter of "good manners" as of necessity. Certainly, if the handkerchief is necessary, use it, — but do so as inconspicuously and as quietly as possible.

Q. Is it proper to typewrite the names on place cards for a wedding dinner?

A. No. The names should be handwritten in ink. If legibility is a problem with you, you may hand-print the names.

Q. When a man who doesn't smoke takes out a girl who does, is he supposed always to help her light up when she takes out a cigarette?

A. It would probably look more thoughtful and courteous if he made a practice of carrying a book of matches with him on these dates, and when she takes out a cigarette light it for her. Or even if he doesn't have matches with him, he can use one of hers.

Q. Is it all right, if more convenient, to mail out the marriage announcements a few days before the wedding itself?

A. No — and for the simple and logical reason that the couple is not really "married" before the wedding has taken place. These announcements are properly mailed out immediately after the ceremony.

Old elevator retires to Calgary park

On Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. in Heritage Park, Calgary, a dedication ceremony will take place at which time officials of the Alberta Wheat Pool will formally turn over the old Shenta No. 2 grain elevator to Park officials.

This elevator was built in Shenta in 1910 by the Security Elevator Company of Winnipeg, at succeeding years it was owned by the Northern Elevator Co. from 1929 to 1934 and by the Northern Grain Company from 1934 to 1947 when it was purchased by the Alberta Wheat Pool.

Delegates at the 1966 Wheat Pool annual meeting recommended that the Wheat Pool donate an elevator to the Park and during the year Shenta No. 2 which had outlived its usefulness in respect to modern grain handling, was selected as the oldest and most typical of the early days.

It is of 25,000 bushel capacity. It was equipped with a 5,000 pound, 14 foot scale and hand-cranked leg wagon dump. Although this type of equipment has been replaced over the years to handle bigger loads, the old original equipment has been taken from the Post warehouse and installed in the elevator. Blue plans and grain line diagrams will be displayed in the driveway. It is planned that next season, visitors will be able to see the elevator in operation.

The first agent at the elevator was J. F. Bradley, followed by Alex S. Bissett, who in turn was followed by Ted Grafaas of Ryley.

For its move to its final home, the old elevator was dismantled and shipped to Calgary in sections, there put back together again on the foundation of its new home.

(6) Novelty pistol event—Kimbles Arms.

(7) Traditional Muzzle Loading Rifle Event One shot at wooden targets placed by the contestant at a specified place. Paul Fung.

(8) Mini and out shotgun. Baldwin and Johnstone.

Raise wage minimums

The Minister of Labour, the Hon. Raymond Reierson, has announced changes in the Minimum Wage Regulations in Alberta.

The order provides a new minimum wage of $1.15 per hour for employees over the age of 18 years effective on August 1st, 1967 with a further increase to $1.25 per hour on the 1st of January, 1968.

Student swap all set despite date changes

Plans have been largely completed for the County of Beaver's participation in the Youth Travel Program '67, a project of the Centennial Commission.

The County of Beaver will play host to 54 students and two chaperones from Rue de Madeleine, P.Q., commencing upon their arrival at Edmonton Airport at 11:10 a.m. on Monday, July 24th.

Originally the students from Quebec were to have left their own province on June 26th, and the change in dates has resulted in some hosts being unable to keep some of the visitors over, despite the changes, the County of Beaver Travel Promotion Committee reports that everything is under control, and all is ready for the visitors when they arrive.

Twenty-four County of Beaver students, along with two chaperons will leave from Edmonton on August 1st for Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. This date has been changed from July 30th.

Mercury to re-print story of canoe trip by 'Gray' brothers

The trip of the Centennial Voyageurs to Expo this year has brought back memories of the 1908 Black to 1912 two Gray brothers, then of Tofield made a canoe trip to the 'Barren Lands', a trip of over 600 miles.

Upon returning to Tofield, they were prevailed upon by the Mercury to write an accon of their memorable trip, and this was done by J. W. Gray, and subsequently published by the Mercury.

Commencing next week, the Mercury will again run Mr. Gray's account of his tour into the 'Barren Lands'.

Mr. Gray is now residing in Summerland, British Columbia.

Former Tofield couple marks 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Weatherill celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at St. John's Anglican Parish Hall, Edmonton, on Sunday, June 4th at a family dinner with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Weatherill was born in Wales and came to Canada with her family in 1911, and settled in the Tofield area. Mr. Weatherill was born in Peoria, Illinois, and was raised in Chicago. He came to Canada and farmed at Tofield. Mr. and Mrs. G. Weatherill were married in Edmonton in 1917 and farmed at Tofield until 1946 when they moved to Edmonton. They have four children, 14 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Congratulatory messages were received from Governor General Roland Michener, Prime Minister L. B. Pearson, Lt. Governor Grant MacEwan, Premier E. C. Manning and Mayor Dantzer.

Among those attending the reception from Tofield were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, W. C. Lancaster; Mrs. Earl Rose; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson; Mrs. J. A. L. Smith and Harold Weatherill (brother of the groom); Jim McKenzie, formerly of Tofield, now teaching in Edmonton was master of ceremonies.

Centennial Showcase

What does your group, club, district or organization have to present in the Showcase?

What achievements are you proud of? What ethnic origins should be honored? What have you to advertise? Which pioneer do you wish remembered? What does your youth group stand for? What services do your club offer the community? Centennial Showcase '67 will demonstrate the answers to these questions.

OES has 'farewell' for minister and wife

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Prior to their departing for Victoria, Rev. and Mrs. W. Hammett were honored at a social hour following the June meeting of Ionic Chapter, OES.

Neil Phillips, Worthy Patron of Ionic presented Mr. Hammett, a member of Ionic Chapter, with a set of Centennial cuff-links and tie pin. Mr. Hammett thanked the Chapter for the gift and for the fellowship he had enjoyed in Ionic. Members of the Chapter wished the Hammetts bon voyage and happiness in their new home in Victoria.

Province to honor all centenarians

The provincial Centennial Committee plans to honor citizens who have reached 100 years of age or more during Canada's Centennial year.

Although the committee is using both federal and provincial records, they do not wish to overlook anyone, and are requesting the assistance of anyone knowing any person who has reached the century mark during 1967.

The committee is asking that the names of anyone reaching 100 years of age or more between January 1, 1967 and December 31, 1967, living or deceased be forwarded at once. Information should include full name, address, date and place of birth, and, if deceased, date and place of death.

Information may be sent to: Alberta Centennial Committee, Department of the Provincial Secretary, Government of the Province of Alberta, Legislative Building, Edmonton, Alberta.

War amp key tags ready for mailing

This week, from a small workshop in Toronto, 48 war amps will start mailing close to eight million miniature metal car license key tags to Canada's car owners.

This service was started in 1946 and since then 123,436 sets of lost car keys have been returned to their owners.

Funds from the sale of the key tags are used in helping war amps get jobs, and for specialized recreation and benevolent work, along with aid to war amp widows, orphans and other dependents.

Tags are mailed without payment to car owners, but recipients are asked to send back 60 cents for a double set, and 35 cents for a single set.

TRIP TO EAST

George and Ida Niemetz returned to their home here June [illegible] after having been away a week. They left June 1st by plane for Ontario where they picked up a new car which they drove back. While in Ontario they visited Ida's sister [illegible] and family in Toronto and [illegible] [illegible] Niemetz at [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

[illegible] there will be no meeting of the Lakeshore UCW.

25TH ANNIVERSARY

On Saturday evening Emil and Martha Tiedemann were among several relatives and friends who attended the silver wedding anniversary supper and dance of [illegible] brother, Henry (Hank) and Helen Tiedemann. Also there from a distance were Hank's sister Mrs. Ella Waack of Claresholm and their brother Bill and Mary Tiedemann of Deville. Ella returned home with her brother Bill and Mary and was a guest there. On Sunday Emil and Martha motored to Deville and [illegible] [illegible]'s sister Ella Waack [illegible] Sunday and Monday at [illegible] home.

Morley and Marjorie Jacobsen attended the wedding reception of Morley's cousin Julius Miller and Bernice Barnhard in Edmonton Saturday afternoon. Later in the evening, Mary and Morley and family attended the wedding dance at Hastings Lake.

On Monday Hank and Helen Tiedemann of Holden, Bill and Mary Tiedemann of Deville and Fred and Anna Tiedemann and son Elmer gathered at the home of Emil and Martha Tiedemann for a family get-together while their sister Mrs. Ella Waack was there.

Miss Kathleen Wood of Calgary arrived at the home of her parents John and Mary Wood on Sunday. On Monday Mary and Kathleen motored to Viking to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Lorene Francis for a few days.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

Mrs. Ethel Wood returned home Monday evening from a trip to Expo and on to England where she spent a month visiting relatives and friends. She returned to Canada June 8th and spent 3 days with Mrs. Bertha Seale in Toronto and visited Stratford.

Modern etiquette

Q. Would it be all right for me to wear an evening gown to a dance even though my date will be wearing a business suit?

A. Oftentimes the women in a party will wear evening gowns to such affairs where the men are dressed informally. However, no one girl should do this on her own without first checking with the other girls.

Q. I'd like to wear an emerald instead of the traditional diamond engagement ring, but have been told this is not proper. What do you say?

A. I say you may wear any kind of ring you wish. In fact, even if you wore no ring at all, you would be "just as properly engaged."

Q. Is one supposed to leave the spoon in the sherbert glass after one has finished eating this dessert?

A. No, place the spoon in the saucer under the sherbert glass.

Q. If a girl is being married in church wearing only an afternoon dress and having only one attendant, is she then supposed to invite only a very few friends and relatives to this type of wedding?

A. There is never any limit to the number of guests at any wedding — provided of course, there is ample room for everyone.

Q. Is there any rule as to who should make the introductions at an informal home gathering, the host of the hostess?

A. No: either may do this.

Q. Is it all right for a man in the rear seat of a car with two women to sit between them?

A. This is the proper place for him.

Q. Would it be proper for me, the bridegroom elect to be present at a shower that is being given for my fiancee?

A. Since these are usually all-female parties, it would hardly be appropriate for you to attend. You may, if you wish however, put in an appearance towards the end of the party to help your fiancee home with her "loot".

Q. May one pour gravy from the gravy pitcher, or must one always use a gravy ladle?

A. If there is a ladle in the pitcher, by all means use it. If, however, no ladle has been provided, then it is quite proper to pour from the pitcher.

FROM THE SCRAP BOOK

It is easier to keep peace, than to make peace. J.W.R.

July 1st or July 3rd, that is the question

One of the more confusing issues to be raised in recent months is "Will July 3rd be a holiday?"

The Federal Government has apparently declared the day a holiday although the actual holiday occurs on July 1st. All Federal offices across the country will be closed including federal offices in Camrose.

The local Post Office normally open on Saturday will close for the holiday on July 1st although this hasn't been officially confirmed as yet according to a local postal official.

All banks across Canada will be observing the holiday on July 3rd.

Premier E. C. Manning has announced that all provincial government offices will be closed on the 3rd although he made no mention as to whether or not his government would officially declare the day a 'Holiday' in Alberta.

Locally, Bob Jones secretary of the Camrose Retail Merchants Association said yesterday that at the moment plans are that [illegible] businesses in Camrose will be open on July 3rd.

[illegible] the July 3rd holiday the federal government [illegible] all provincial governments to follow suit and declare the day a holiday.

EVACUATED FROM WAR ZONE

Dr. D. W. Bray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orva Bray of Palmer Earl [illegible] was evacuated from Beirut, Lebanon to Athens during the recent [illegible]. He has been a professor for five years at the American University there.

Health plan benefits extended

Extension of limitations on hospital benefits and elimination of limitations on drug benefits under the Alberta Health Plan were announced yesterday by Hon. Donovan Ross, Alberta Minister of Health.

Effective with the commencement date of the Plan July 1 hospitalization benefits offered under Option A are extended to include unlimited days of care in a public general active treatment hospital; payment of the admission charge levied in Alberta hospitals; payment of the daily co-insurance charges when occupying a standard ward bed; payment of differential charges when semi-private rooms are occupied; payment of hospital out-patient charges remaining after appropriate government hospital credits have been applied; and a maximum of 180 days of care during one or more admissions to an Auxiliary Hospital during a 12 month period July 1 to June 30. These benefits do not apply to out-of-province hospital care.

Limitations in drug purchases under Option B have been removed completely, and 80 per cent of all charges will be paid, with the purchaser assuming payment of the first 20 per cent. These benefits do not apply to birth control or contraceptive pills.

The Minister also announced that persons covered under the Basic Alberta Health Plan, but who do not have all the optional coverage may add those options desired to the original contract but only on October 1, January 1 or April 1.

At the same time MSI announced it has completed arrangements with an insurance company for the provision of supplementary hospital and ambulance coverage to non-group subscribers. This action was taken after Blue Cross found it necessary to cancel non-group contracts for supplementary hospitalization as of June 30 this year.

Hotel association offers centennial scholarships

The Alberta Hotel Association has announced two special centennial Scholarships worth a maximum of $[illegible] each to qualified students, for entrance to the University of Alberta, University of Calgary, University of Lethbridge or affiliated junior colleges.

Applications on regular university matriculation scholarship application forms may be made to the Administrator of Student Awards, University of Alberta, Edmonton by August 1st, 1967.

Most crops normal but weeds rampant

At Shoal's last week the wheat crop was six inches above the ground and the first seeded was beginning to stool. Some of the barley, oats and rapeseed weren't up out of the ground, but with the slow, soaking rain on June 9 and 10, the moisture conditions were good. With the warmer weather prevailing, the crops should be away to a good start.

From the Bardo area comes the report that the wheat, oat and barley crops were in normal condition and all above ground in varying degrees of height. At Holden the wheat was four inches high, not quite up to normal condition for the time of year, but oats, barley and rapeseed were at the usual stages of growth. All crops at Ryley were normal, although the wheat was not as far on as in the other areas mentioned. Wild oats and weeds were springing up rapidly and it looked as if a lot of spraying would have to be done.

Baerg-Johnson wedding solemnized on June 3

On June 3rd at the Calvin United Church, Ryley, a lovely wedding ceremony took place when Marian Johnson, second daughter of Bud Johnson, became the bride of Allan Baerg, son of Mr and Mrs Baerg of Tofield. The matrimonial rites were performed by Rev. John Danaiel.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white lace over satin taffeta. Her chapel-length veil was held in place by a crown of seed-pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Attending the bride as bridesmaid was Helen Smith of Edmonton, who wore a street length turquoise nylon dress, and flower girl, Debbie Nordstrom wore a dress of yellow lace, and carried a basket of pink roses.

The groom was attended by Lonnie Davies. Ushering the guests were Douglas Baerg, brother of the groom and Kenneth Johnson, brother of the bride.

The groom's mother chose a one-piece dress of navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Legion Hall catered by the Ladies Auxiliary. The bride's table was centred by a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake. Miss Halverson, aunt of the bride said grace.

Art Baerg proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. Following the reception, a dance was held in the Community Hall, when the gifts were opened and displayed.

Costume contest to be held July 1

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Mrs. George Christensen has reported plans for a special centennial feature of July 1 — a Centennial Costume Contest.

This will occur at 3:00 p.m. in the skating rink where spectators may line the walls to watch. Judges have been secured to choose prize winners in the following categories

1. Family in Centennial Costume.
2. Best authentic costume (a) lady (b) gentleman
3. Best fancy (Klondike type) costume (a) lady (b) gentleman.
4. Best Centennial costume for children under six years (a) girl (b) boy.
5. Best Centennial costume for children 6-12 (a) girl (b) boy.
6. Best Centennial costume for ages 13-18 (a) girl (b) boy.

Mrs. Christensen, Mrs. Arnott and Mrs. Noreland are in charge of this unique event for Tofield's Centennial Dominion Day, so plan to be on hand at 2:00 p.m. at the skating rink area to be preferably, a contestant or spectator of Tofield's Centennial Fashion Show!

Memorial Service held for former Tofield minister

A memorial service was held at Avonmore United Church in Edmonton on May 28th, in tribute to the late Rev James Thom Gordon, a former minister of Tofield many years ago. Rev A B Simpson, the minister of Avonmore Church officiated at the service.

Coming from a Christian home at Merrenberg, Ontario, Mr. Gordon went on to win an Honors Bachelor of Arts degree at Mc Gill University, Montreal, and took the Theology course at the Presbyterian College there, ex-

Cubs have weekend camp at Floating Stone Lake

On Saturday, June 10 about 6:00 a.m., the First Tofield Cub Pack and their leaders left for a camping trip to Floating Stone Lake. Upon their arrival there the tents were erected and the cubs were assigned to boats and all went out on the lake for an afternoon of fishing. Fishing was good and one boat did so well that it was with considerable difficulty persuaded to return to shore so that its occupants could be fed.

After dinner the remainder of the tents were put up and assigned, and all went fishing again. After getting in off the lake, the cubs gathered about a large bonfire to get and keep dry until it was time for the boiling and watermelon supper. They sang for a while and heard the story of Rikki-Tikki-Tavi.

Around 9:30 p.m. the boys went to their tents and were bedded down for the night.

Next morning, a big breakfast of cereal, flapjacks and bacon was served, accompanied by chocolate milk to drink. This was all devoured with great gusto.

Out went the Bellies of boys again, intent on making further inroads on the fish population. Fair success was again encountered and all the boys were able to carry home catches of various sizes.

Pack up time was next with great problems of sorting out gear and relocating clothes and fish for each boy (about three times each), followed by a big dinner of ham, cold roast, potato salad, pie, etc. While the tents were being taken down and packed the cubs all took part in three fast and furious games of "cowboys and Indians." After final policing of the camp site, all embarked on the vehicles and were homeward bound, arriving back in front of the Tofield Legion Hall at about 5.30 p.m., tired but happy.

The Cub Leaders wish to express their thanks to the people who had a part in helping with the hike and fishing trip, without which wholehearted and active support this event could not have taken place, namely Mr. and Mrs. Godwin, Mr. and Mrs. J Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. A. Klassen, (plus junior partners), Mrs. Don Hardy, Walter Neufeld, Stan Glover, David Price, Ken Appleby, Claude Gallinger and also to the other kind people who loaned their tents, stoves and boats for use on the occasion.

TUG-OF-WAR

Arrangements were made for the old fashioned tug-of-war contest for July 1. Rules for the game are: Each team consists of five members. Entries to be sent or phoned to Andy Heberg by June 25. Prizes for the winning team to consist of leather poles made by Esther Anderson with materials donated by Larry Wilson.

The Mercury's Historical Quiz is now over. Awards will be made on July 1. Time will be announced later.

The Tofield Historical Society reported that Jim Francis is hard at work at its centennial project, a comprehensive history of Tofield. On July 1 the Society will again be hosts to the Old-Timers and on behalf of the Society, the Ketchum sisters will serve coffee to the Old Timers.

A shelter outside the Curling Rink is being built so that senior citizens may have a place to sit and remember while still being able to watch the crowds.

21-GUN SALUTE

Two 21-gun salutes will mark Tofield's Dominion Day celebrations different from all others. Reports as tentatively planned, the first salute will occur at midnight, June 30 to usher in the 100th birthday of Canada; the second will be heard later in the day. The Gun Club members will be in colorful uniforms when will add to the occasion.

Mrs. Georgia Christensen reported on plans for Centennial Costume Contest. Details will be found elsewhere in the Mercury.

Banner proclaiming "Welcome to Tofield and Canada Centennial" are to be erected on Main Street in the near future.

Mary Warren will be in charge of merchant floats for the Centennial "Showcase '67." Interested merchants are planned to her at any time, the sooner, the better.

Tribute to Shonts No. 2

'Houses' correct form

A tribute to the old Shonts grain elevator, being dedicated at Heritage Park in Calgary on Saturday afternoon has been written by an oldtimer of the district.

In his poem, he refers to the grain elevator as 'house'. This is the correct term. Grain men usually refer to their elevators as houses.

THE OLD HOUSE

This old house once knew big hailings,
This old house once knew the strife
This old house once had the chain hoist
Used to dump the old Red Fife

This old house once weighed the Marquis
Thru an automatic scale
Now it trembles on her crib wall
In any kind of gale.

This old house is getting shaky
This old house sure chateus tan
She has crib wall bulges plenty
Her braces way back when her pan is leaking badly

And the rain sets in one rain
Her bins are all flat buttoned
And the leg is spilling grain

Ain't a'gonna need this house no longer
Ain't a'gonna need this house no more
Ain't got time to fix the garber
Or the bin spouts or floor
Ain't got time to oil the Fairbanks
Nor to fix that window frame
Ain't a gonna need this house no longer
Gettin' ready to wreck the same

This old house will go to Heritage
This old house has run its race
And nineteen ten will still show up
In all Centennial grace.

This old house has done it's duty
This old house with all it's lore
It will be seen by thousands
Antiquity to the fore.

Guides and Brownies have banquet and awards night

(Mrs. G. Taylor)

The Holden Girl Guides, Brownies and their mothers held their annual banquet and award night, May 29 in the Holden Community Hall with the OORP Lodge, the sponsoring organization of the packs, catering to a turkey supper. About 30 people attended. Honored guests were Mrs. H. F. MacInnes, Girl Guide commissioner of Camrose and Mrs. M. McLean, captain of the Camrose Guide Troop.

Mrs. Leona Koetke, president of the Mother's Association welcomed the guests.

Presentations were made to Mrs. MacInnes, Mrs. Marie Malick and Mrs. Beverly Manchur, the Brownie Leaders, to Mrs. Jean Lemko who had acted as baby-sitter for the Brownie leaders, and to Mrs. June Cooper and Mrs. Helen Slecyk, the Guide Leaders.

Mrs. McInnis had much praise for the Holden Brownie and Guide movement, also thanking all for the gift given to her and expression of appreciation of the invitation to attend the banquet and evening program. Mrs. McLean also thanked the group for their kind invitation.

Guides and Brownies were then presented with various awards and pins by their leaders which they had earned for their achievements during the year.

A program of two short skits was enjoyed, one given by the Brownies and the other by the Guides.

Do You Remember ?

Do you remember that according to the Mercury in Aug. 1926:

The Misses Hazel Sears, Lillian Carlisle and George Williams of Ketchamoot school successfully passed their eighth grade examinations. This was the first time that all the pupils passed who wrote the examination, which speaks well for the teacher, Miss Jean Dickson.

Mrs. Fannie Jackson and children of Merrit, B.C., came last week to help care for Mrs. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Rickner at the Appleby home.

From the Tofield School, successful candidates in the Grade VIII examinations were: Bertha Lee, Ambrose Yakabowski, Jean Baptist, Viola Smith, Iva Clutterham, Kenneth Miller, Nancy Hingley, Reginald McCarthy, and James McKenzie.

Mr. Russel was appointed principal of Tofield Public School.

Patricia and Mary Burnett were holidaying in Wainwright.

Bread, owing to the increase in the price of flour was 10c a loaf.

Men's suits were on sale for $24.95.

Guides and Brownies have banquet and awards night

(Mrs. G. Taylor)

The Holden Girl Guides, Brownies and their mothers held their annual banquet and award night, May 29 in the Holden Community Hall with the OORP Lodge, the sponsoring organization of the packs, catering to a turkey supper. About 50 people attended. Honored guests were Mrs. H. F. MacInnes, Girl Guide commissioner of Camrose and Mrs. M. McLean, captain of the Camrose Guide Troop.

Mrs. Leona Koetke, president of the Mother's Association welcomed the guests.

Presentations were made to Mrs. MacInnis, Mrs. Marie Malick and Mrs. Beverly Manchur, the Brownie Leaders, to Mrs. Jean Lemko who had acted as baby-sitter for the Brownie leaders, and to Mrs. June Cooper and Mrs. Helen Stecyk, the Guide Leaders.

Mrs. McInnis had much praise for the Holden Brownie and Guide movement, also thanking all for the gift given to her and expressed appreciation of the invitation to attend the banquet and evening program. Mrs. McLean also thanked the group for their kind invitation.

Guides and Brownies were then presented with various awards and pins by their leaders which they had earned for their achievements during the year.

A program of two short skits was enjoyed, one given by the Brownies and the other by the Guides.

Do You Remember ?

Do you remember that according to the Mercury in Aug. 1925:

The Misses Hazel Sears, Lillian Carlisle and George Williams of Ketchamoot school successfully passed their eighth grade examinations. This was the first time that all the pupils passed who wrote the examination, which speaks well for the teacher, Miss Jean Dickson.

Mrs. Fannie Jackson and children of Merrit, B.C., came last week to help care for Mrs. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Rickner at the Appleby home.

From the Tofield School, successful candidates in the Grade VIII examinations were: Bertha Lee, Ambrose Yakabski, Jean Baptist, Viola Smith, Eva Clutterham, Kenneth Miller, Nancy Hingley, Reginald McCarthy, and James McKenzie.

Mr. Russel was appointed principal of Tofield Public School.

Patricia and Mary Burr[illegible] were holidaying in Wainwright.

Bread, owing to the increase in the price of flour was 10c a loaf.

Men's suits were on sale for $22.50.

G. L. Harrold, president of the Alberta Wheat Pool, presents the symbolic broom and shovel to George L. Crawford, chairman of the Heritage Park Society, Calgary, to officially turn over the old Shonts #2 elevator to the park. Others in the picture are officials from the Wheat Pool and the Park Society. —Tofield Mercury Newsphoto.

'House' changes name at Calgary ceremony

The Shonts No. 2 elevator, now known as the 'Heritage Park Country Elevator' was formally turned over to Heritage Park by the Alberta Wheat Pool in a dedication ceremony in Calgary on Saturday afternoon.

E. S. Marshall, President of Heritage Park acted as Master of Ceremonies and introduced all government and park officials in attendance, while A. T. Baker General Manager of the Alberta Wheat Pool introduced pool officials.

Then a symbolic broom and shovel were presented by G. L. Harrold, President of the Alberta Wheat Pool, to George L. Crawford, QC, Chairman of the Heritage Park Society. This symbolic presentation officially turned the old Shonts elevator over to Heritage Park, and Mr. Crawford announced that in the future it would be known as the 'Heritage Park Country Elevator'.

Then Alex S. Bissett, who had been in charge of the Shonts elevator in 1911 accepted delivery of a load of grain, which he weighed and unloaded for future use.

For the ceremony, the old elevator has received repairs, and a brand new paint job.

About two hundred people attended the dedication ceremony, and toured the old elevator.

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Reid Burchard, charter member of, and enthusiastic worker for, the Tofield Community League, won the $100 ball in the May "100-club" draw, and generously returned the entire $100 to the League, thus making the May draw the most profitable ever held by the League.

The League is grateful to Mr. Burchard for both this donation and his willing efforts on the League's behalf on many occasions.

Cannon booms salute centennial

The Tofield Gun Club is making a unique 3-fold contribution to Centennial Showcase '67.

With their home-crafted cannon, the Gun Club will usher in Canada's 100th birthday at midnight, June 30 with a 21-gun salute.

At 12:30 p.m. July 1st, a second 21-gun salute will precede the opening ceremonies for Centennial Showcase '67.

The members of the Gun Club are proud to present their display of valuable modern and antique firearms in their club house on July 1.

Their third contribution will be the note of color their buckskin costumes will add to Centennial Showcase '67.

Ryley 'Centennial Day' hosting all-girl band

The Edmonton All Girls Drum & Bugle Band will be featured in Ryley's Centennial Sports Day Parade on Saturday morning. The parade, which starts at 10 a.m. will officially start activities for a full day's fun for everyone from 3 to 103.

The 100-piece Edmonton Band has indicated that they will be able to fit the Ryley Centennial event into their crowded schedule; other points they have attended, or will attend include the Calgary Stampede, Klondike Days in Edmonton, Hinton, Edson and Vegreville.

Ryley and Tofield Pee-Wees will commence the busy day's baseball games at 11 a.m., followed by Round Hill vs. Ryley senior men's baseball at 1 p.m. and Tofield vs. Bardo following. Tofield and Ryley Pony League play at 4:30.

The barbecue pit opens at 4:30 for mouth-watering food for all, and the big day will wind up with a dance from 9 to midnight.

This special centennial day is planned for every member of the family and a welcome is extended to everyone to take part, or just sit back and enjoy the activities.

Community League sets up schedule for July 1st

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

One more week! Tofield is a buzz of activity in preparation for next week's Centennial Showcase '67. Floats are being prepared, ball teams are practicing, meat is ordered for the barbecue (buffalo meat is being tried for), the handicraft display is being assembled as is the exhibition of school work, costumes are being refurbished so they will be at their best on July 1.

At a recent executive meeting of the Tofield Community League, a time table was worked out for the day's events. Of course, some attractions go on all day; the displays are on view at all times as is the Civil Defence trailer. Old Timers will be welcomed and given coffee all day long, by the Ketchamoot ladies, on behalf of the Historical Society.

The Tofield Community Centre will be in use on July 1. During the afternoon, a show will be presented, and in the evening Shellast's Melody Kings will play for the traditionally gala dance which will be the wind-up of Tofield's Centennial Showcase '67.

Gate prize is a 'first' for July 1

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Something new has been added! This year, at Centennial Showcase '67, a gate prize will be awarded to the winner of the lucky ticket. When a ticket is purchased at the gate, the purchaser will deposit half of the ticket in a drum placed there. Later in the day, these tickets will be thoroughly stirred before the winning one is drawn.

A transistor radio will become the property of the owner of the lucky ticket. To be eligible for the gate prize, the purchaser must deposit his own ticket.

Parade 'kicks off' July 1 celebration

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Marie Worton and Ruth Krause are happily accepting entries in Tofield's Centennial Parade and passing the glad news on to Art Francis, parade marshal of many years' experience.

The following categories have been chosen:

1. Best Country Float (non-commercial).
2. Best Town Float (non-commercial)
3. Best Commercial Float (Town or Country).
4. Best Decorated Horse or Group of Horses with costumed rider(s).
5. Best Decorated Car.
6. Best Novelty, judged for originality.
7. Best Decorated Bicycle with child rider in costume.

The home-town band", under direction of Staff-Sgt. Coates, will precede the floats in the parade. It is hoped to have the local RCMP detachment lead the parade.

The parade route will be the same as last year. Judging will be done as the parade reaches its stopping place. Winners of prizes will be notified at that time and will appear at 1:00 o'clock on the ball diamond to claim the prize they have won. Queen Petra will assist in giving out the prizes, since she herself declared July 1 a holiday in Tofield.

Centennial Citizen of the Year

Bill Backschat, recently named as Tofield's Citizen of the Year, dressed in the styles of one hundred years ago, is shown with his wife Kate, and son Billy.

'New look' in money markets

It might be wondered if Ottawa had very much notion of what would be the result when it made major revisions to the Bank Act earlier this year. There's hardly been a week pass since the revisions were announced that there hasn t been a new look in some area of borrowing and lending money, and it looks as though banking may never again look anything like its old picture.

Of course, it may be just as well, but we'll bet many a banker, and many an ordinary customer must be scratching his head and wondering what will come next.

For instance, who could have looked for banks to get into the business of life insurance on depositors" Who would have expected to hear the "double - your - money" appeal from staid bankers" It's all very reasonable, of course, with guaranteed interest over long-term periods, but it does seem a far cry indeed even from last year.

By next year, no doubt, the banks will have learned enough tricks to compete with the supermarkets in putting on special sales efforts to attract the customers and their money

In the long run it may be the best thing in the world for the health of the Canadian money market, and the market may have an excellent chance to adapt itself to changing economic conditions. Nonetheless, Canadians will all want to be certain the stability of these highly regulated banking system, and with it the entire economy, is not being sapped and weakened. It's an old axiom in business that a strong market for a commodity in short supply forces prices upwards and logically the same can be expected from the money market. At the same time, it's an equally accepted truism that higher interest rates always accompany higher risk.

No one wants to place much emphasis on the latter at the present time.

Growing strength

Rome wasn't built in a day, says the old maxim, and neither is any really effective cabinet department of the provincial government. One that many Albertans have been watching without too much confidence, really, is the newest department, that of Youth, headed logically by the province's youngest cabinet member, the Hon. Robert C Clark.

His department has been growing steadily, if slowly, without making too much apparent impression of marked changes in the treatment of youth in the province, until now it has built up a moderately capable staff of senior officers

But its most dramatic move came recently, with the announcement of a new seventeen member advisory committee, whose task is to recommend courses of action for the social development of all young people in Alberta, and assist in exploring new areas of youth needs. Other committees are to follow, a youth committee and a technical committee.

The membership of this new committee presents a surprisingly broad cross section of the population, and even though lists of names are often dull, the list is so fascinating, we'll take the risk of being boring in order to share this

Former chairman of the Youth Services Division of the Edmonton Welfare Council, and a member of the Vanier Institute on the Family, is J W D. Betty Buchanan is chairman. She is is assisted by Dr B Y Card, associate professor, Sociology of Education, University of Alberta; Judge N. G Hewitt, Juvenile and Family Court, Department of Attorney General; R. E J Hingston, Special Reconsentative, Commercial - Industrial Development, The Royal Bank of Canada; J. G Paterson, Director of Counselling Services, Edmonton Public School Board; A. V Pettigrew, Assistant Superintendent, Parks & Recreation Dept.; Sister St Frances-Cabrini, a.m., Pineview home; George Lewins, Edmonton businessman, active in youth affairs for many years; G. D. O'Brien, Director of Public Information, Canadian Utilities Ltd., all of Edmonton; Dr Lou Goodwin, Director, School of Physical Education, University of Calgary; J. E Ness, Director of Field Services, Alberta Wheat Pool, Miss Leone Wellwood, Executive Director, Young Women s Christian Assoc.; Doug Kyle president, Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, all of Calgary Reverend Harold G Coward, Blairmore; Dr A R Kempton, Leduc; Harold J. Hall, Superintendent of Schools, County of Red Deer and W C. Thomas, Principal Ground School Ground

Here's that for a hand-packed list of stars' Our compliments to Mr Clark for his success.

Synthetic milk?

In the dairy cow becoming obsolete, asks the Wheat Pool Budget, in a recent issue The Budget points out that milk and its by-products, cream butter and cheese, form an impressive part of the human diet, but asks if the cow's production techniques has become too antiquated and costly.

Dairy farmers all across Canada are complained because they cannot get their products to the consumers for sufficiently low prices to pay them a fair return for their labour. Many dairymen are going out of business because they cannot afford to keep up with the ever increasing costs of production.

Margarine is a nourishing substance that fills the role of butter effectively and sells for a fraction of its price. Manufacturers have done an excellent job of making it almost indistinguishable from butter.

Synthetic cream is another example of the latest in modern food technology. Research is everywhere at work to find substitutes for the real thing, and we are told that the day is not far distant when we will be able to buy synthetic milk for much less than the cost of the real thing.

MacDuff Ottawa Report

HEAR KNOCKOUT

OTTAWA — Previous reasons for the withdrawal of the United Nations Emergency Force from Egypt was a near knockout blow to Canadian policy.

But now after picking itself up from the floor and shaking the stars out of its eyes, the Canadian Government's advocacy of United Nations peace-keeping is stronger than ever

Prime Minister Pearson and External Affairs Minister Martin were at first almost flattened by Nasser's order. They could see the undermining of Canadian foreign policy, based so extensively on the United Nations, being swept away.

They viewed with almost equal alarm the blow to Government policy of creating a single defence service, a force organized primarily for peacekeeping duties under the UN.

Just as cautious headquarters was working out final organization plans for unification, the UNEF in Sinai, and especially the Canadian contingent, was handed its humiliating 'about'.

"The Minister of Defence based his policy on sand and Nasser has pulled it away". Conservative senator Diefenbaker scornfully told the House of Commons.

And certainly the United Nations seemed useless, both on the ground and at the Security Council, in those days before Israel struck and established its right to exist.

But since then the United Nations has regained some prestige, mainly because the two big powers, the United States and the Soviet Union were able to agree on a cease-fire resolution which was unanimously passed by the Security Council.

Canada and others are now working hard at the UN to make sure that the mistakes of 1956 and 1957 are not repeated in 1967.

Nothing less than a comprehensive political settlement fully backed by the big powers will preserve in the Middle East. That is going to be a tremendously difficult chore which will take a lot of patience and a lot of time.

In the meantime, what has the crisis done to UN peace-keeping and to Canadian foreign and defence policy"

Not as much as first seemed. At the least, however, the Conservatives will no complete y justified in subscribing unification to the cosmic punishment which the future Exam through the defence organization has been passed the Middle East war proves there are still questions to be raised about unification and peace-keeping, namely the basic one of whether it is the right policy for Canada.

But the Government could have done, at most, one small thing to improve its position in the first week. It has always contended that the main purpose of unification was to create a flexible, peace-keeping force for the UN. The Chiefs of Staff, under Charles Jones, kept at the head of this organization. The Government has always insisted that the Chiefs of Staff are the best qualified to judge the military requirements of peace-keeping operations. Yet the Government could not bring itself to say one word of fight criticism of the Chiefs of Staff for their failure to foresee the withdrawal of UNEF.

Canada along with others, knows of course that some lessons have been learned from the failure of the UNEF. If another force is to be established in the Middle East, its basic assumptions would have to be carefully laid down in advance as has been done for the force in Cyp ia

There would have to be full force by Control headings and complete understanding of how and by whom its existence could be terminated

Israel's refusal to accept any UN forces on her territory was another weakness of the Peace operation. Mr Pearson has said he thinks Israel should change this policy, accepting UN observers on both sides of the Armistice lines, perhaps in exchange for stronger guarantees of her security.

The Canadian government recognizes that UN peace forces can't remain in a country forever. Political settlements must follow peace preservation and this is what has been lacking in the past.

Mr Pearson still hopes this can be done Just a few days ago in an exchange of letters with UN Secretary General U Thant, the Prime Minister reaffirmed Canada's full support for peacekeeping in spite of "the disturbing experience we have just gone through in the disbanding of UNEF"

"Recent events show that the work of the United Nations in the field of peace-keeping is more difficult and more important than ever", wrote Mr Pearson

That, of course, needs familiar. It's been the policy — Canadian governments for a long time for 20 years at least — and always though it is true the policy for some time to come.

I haven't exactly worked out what I would either say or do if I were given the best anyone can expect in a world organized the way it is today

Gray's canoe trip remembered

This past week a letter has been received by Mrs. Neil Phillips from J. W. Gray of Summerland, B.C., enclosing an account of a canoe trip Mr Gray and his brother took to the barren lands in this year, when the Centennial Voyageurs are making history, as well as retracing it, this account, published in The Tofield Mercury in 1935, is of special interest

Mr. Gray was given a Mercury to read by Ray Herndon, also a former Tofielder. This issue of The Mercury contained an account of the life of pioneer Jim Francis and sparked Mr. Gray to write of his early memories of Tofield He says "I went to school with Roe and Emery Phillips, Bunny Harriman, Wilmer Gohl, Jesse and Paul McMullen, Earl Wilson, Clara Rogers, Susie Isaiffs. I also knew Steve and Rube Phillips but not as school chums,

I was moose hunting once with Dave North of Vegreville.

My father and mother came to Tofield in 1907 and took homestead 2 1/2 miles south of Beaverhill Lake. At that time, Beaver Lake was twice as large as now and the noise from geese and ducks during migration was tremendous

We got our school by having to walk 4 miles, first to Amisk Creek and later to Tofield. My late father had a side-line to farming. He was a market-gardener and supplied the village of Tofield and the early Grand Trunk Railway camps before the now! CNR.

My late mother was a nurse and for a number of years had a nursing home and brought many of the later pioneers into the world She was also active in the Women's Institute, the Curling Club, often walking 4 miles to curl over snow blocked roads.

My sister, Mrs. D. M. Morrison lives in Edmonton. My brother, who took the canoe trip with me is head contractor in the Palliser Hotel in Calgary.

I was a veteran of the two wars and later settled in British Columbia where I was City Fireman for the Village of Salmon Arm and upon retiring moved to Summerland where I do a little placer mining as a hobby."

EXTRACT FROM THE TOFIELD MERCURY, AUGUST 15, 1935

Editors Note: Some months ago, while reading a paper published in London, England, we read of two brothers who had made a log trip from Tofield to the barren lands. We knew of course that the London paper referred to the Gunn brothers of Tofield and immediately approached them for a story of their trip for publication in the Mercury After some persuasion the Gray brothers consented to write a record of their trip for Mercury readers.

MR. GRAY'S ACCOUNT

By special request of the Tofield Mercury, I have at last consented to give an account in brief of our trip which was taken into Northern Saskatchewan close to the edge of the barren lands.

My brother and I after a year of careful preparation, which is essential in selecting the right articles in equipment, especially to those who have never undertaken such a trip previously, left Tofield July 10, after having purchased an 18-foot trapper's freighting canoe, including grub stake, traps, rifles and other necessary articles. This outfit was portaged 175 miles to Beaver Crossing on Beaver River arriving July 15.

The next day the canoe was launched loaded down with 1200 lbs. and the canoe trip of about 700 miles started. The Beaver River is a small stream except at high water; at this time it was a mere sluggish stream. Between sand bars and low water, we were wading for the first few days. Deer were plentiful and hardly any day passed that several deer or moose were watching the canoe also while paddling around a bend, a bear and family were often surprised. They would give us the once over, then scramble up the bank into the tall timber of full open Coyotes were plentiful — one could hear them playing a tune almost every hour of the day; at night it was the only. Other fur-bearing animals were not numerous.

Later, rapids became out next difficulty and our first experience after passing Green Lake in Saskatchewan 35 miles occur. Here one enters into the unsurveyed territory or the land of no law in regard to the killing of birds and animals for food. The first stretch of about 100 miles at the end of which the Churchill River flows out eastward to Hudson's Bay. Here is situated another village.

The Churchill is one of Canada's largest rivers and is made up of about stretches of rapids, river and lakes, Rapids in the Beaver River are nothing compared to those of the Churchill owing to the volume of water and the nature of the rock formation.

We shot what rapids looked safe and took chances on some that didn't look just right. This was done once too often; the loaded canoe struck a rock, whir-

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

Mr and Mrs. Fred Halberg and Mr and Mrs. Ellsworth of Edmonton spent the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. S. Halberg.

Mrs. Ester Chapman of Seattle, Wash., was visiting with her brother, S. Halberg, and is leaving by CN to Superior, Wisc., then on to New York to visit with her son. From there she and her son will go to Montreal and see EXPO.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Seniuk, Mr and Mrs. A. Patrie and Mrs S Kolodychuk attended a wedding of their cousin in Willingdon. They report that Willingdon got their first rain last Saturday which was needed very badly.

FAREWELL PARTY

An enjoyable evening was held at the home of Mrs. T. Erickson, when friends and neighbors of Mrs. G. Brown held a farewell party for her. Mrs. Brown will be leaving soon to make her home in Vancouver, B.C. The evening started with games and sing-songs, and Mrs. Sharon Dobson presented Mrs. Brown with a record player and a toaster for which she thanked them. Lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. S. Unason, Mrs Kline, Mrs. V. Roth and Mr. M. Pooke.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients in Tofield hospital are Mrs. J. Kropielnicki, Mr. F. Nordwaski.

A Sr., baseball game was played in Ryley Tuesday, June 20, Tofield vs. Ryley with Tofield winning the game.

Ryley is taking on a Centennial air as banners and flags are put up for the coming Sports Day and parade Saturday, June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Ainslie of Lynn Lake, Man., flew by plane to Edmonton where they will visit with relatives for three weeks. They are now visiting with Sharon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kolodychuk.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

A lovely pre-nuptial shower was held in the Lutheran dining room in honor of Miss Cheryl Adams eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Dueck. A corsage was pinned on the bride by Mrs. Phillips. A few games were played. At the beautifully decorated table seated with the bride-elect was her mother, Mrs. P Dueck, the groom-elect's mother, Mrs Gre-ger and bridesmaids Lucy Dis-erials and Isla Hjelter. Mrs. M. Kope presented the bride-to-be with many lovely gifts and wished her many years of happiness in her forthcoming marriage to which Cheryl replied her thanks. A delicious lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. R. Rakus.

Former Principal receives degree

At the June 15 Commencement of the University of California, Berkeley, Arthur Elliott, former principal of the Tofield High School, was awarded the degree, Doctor of Education. His dissertation involved a study of conditions which are associated with innovations in education. While at Berkeley, Dr. Elliott held a teaching fellowship and served as president of the Educational Administration Club. In September, Dr. and Mrs. Elliott and daughter, Elizabeth will be returning to Burnaby, B.C. where Dr. Elliott has accepted a position as Associate Professor in Professional Foundations Simon Fraser University.

Mennonite Conference scheduled for July 5th

The 65th Annual Sessions of the Conference of Mennonites in Canada will be conducted July 5-9 at Leamington, Ontario.

Highlighting the Sessions will be a program report and response to the 1967 Debt Retirement Drive which has as its objective to raise $200,000 over and above the budget.

The membership totals 21,000 adult members. During 1966 the Conference treasury processed $3,600,000. These funds were applied to Overseas Relief and Missions and Education programs and institutions.

The 150 congregations applied 30% of the funds to the support of local projects.

One of the significant features of the Conference program is its educational program to Canada's natives, the Indian-Métis citizens in Manitoba. The Conference will need to consider resolutions concerning expanding work to the urban centres such at Selkirk. Last year a resolution encouraged Mennonite homes to adopt into the family setting homeless Indian-Métis children.

Conference Moderator is Rev. H. P. Epp, St. Catharines. Conference offices are located in Winnipeg with Rev. D. P. Neufeld its Executive Secretary.

The Tofield district has been chosen for this year's Northern Alberta Hereford tour which will start Saturday at 9:00 a.m., at the farm of Joe Brown. The 4-H judging contest will be held at Howard Brown's at 10 a.m. Anyone in the district interested in seeing the Hereford herds and farms is welcome to join the tour anytime during the day.

Elmer and Vi Geoglein spent from Thursday to Monday at a cottage at Boyne Lake resting and fishing.

80TH BIRTHDAY

Martha and Bill Tiedemann entertained approximately 80 people on Sunday in honor of Emil's brother, Fred Tiedemann's 80th birthday. Friends and relatives attended from Edmonton, Deville, Tofield and districts, among whom was Mrs Ellen Giffin of Washington. Fred also received a telegram of congratulations from his sister Mrs. Alma Campbell of Montreal.

Leroy and Shirley Eaton and two children were Sunday guests at the home of Leroy's mother, Mrs Ellen Eaton.

Carl and Mavis Jacobsen motored to Edmonton Sunday and were guests at the home of Carl's parents, Hans and Martha Jacobsen, helping celebrate Father's Day. Mavis's father, Mr. Julius Jacobsen was also there for the gathering.

Jean and Russel Jones and daughters, Debbie and Cindy of Czar were Father's Day guests at the home of Russel's sister Marjorie and Morley Jacobsen where Russel's parents, Joe and Ellenor Jones were also guests of their daughter Marjorie.

Mrs. Marjorie Jacobsen and Mrs. Mavis Jacobsen attended a bridal shower in honor of Miss Sherril Adams held at the Lutheran Church kitchen in Ryley on Friday.

Quite a large number of people filled the basement of the Baptist Church Friday evening to attend the bridal shower for Sharon Francis. She received many lovely and useful gifts for which she thanked everyone. Her wedding will take place on June 24th in the Baptist Church in Tofield and she will be making her home in Ontario.

Kennie Jones of Czar, grandson of Joe and Ellenor Jones had the Champion calf of the Czar 4-H Club and it was also judged the Grand Champion of the combined 4-H Clubs of Czar, Cadogan and Stainsleigh.

Kenny is the son of Russel and Jean Jones and all were former residents of the Lakeshore district north of Tofield.

Kathleen Wood returned to Calgary on Saturday after a week's holiday with her parents, John and Mary Wood. While here Kathleen and her mother motored first to Viking to spend a day with Kathleen's sister Lorene and Jim Francis and family, from there to Vermilion where they spent two days before returning home Thursday.

25 Scouts leave on adventure trip to Expo

After months of planning and several money-making projects, everything is in readiness for taking off July 1st on a three weeks' thrilling Centennial Adventure Trip to Expo by 21 local Scouts and four adult leaders.

Although the final destination is Montreal, where the group will spend five days taking in the fabulous attractions of Expo, they will also be stopping at various locations en route and return, meeting and exchanging greetings with Scout groups across Canada.

The local group has experienced marvellous co-operation by provincial and scout councils and plans for campsites, receptions and entertainment have been carried out with minute detail.

For instance, at Saskatoon, their first port-of-call, a composite scout group of the city will be on hand to meet the bus on the highway west of the city limits and escort the group to a campsite for a fire-side get-together and where tents have been set up to accommodate them for the night's stop-over. This is just a sample of the fine treatment being accorded the group right across Canada, according to correspondence received.

Sponsored by 3rd Camrose Troop, the group is comprised of the following personnel: Wm. A. (Bill) Steen, scoutmaster; Chuck Greig, assistant scoutmaster; Pastor H. O. Haugen, troop padre and financier; Ed Klewitter, Ryley, bus driver; Brent Andreassen, Cliff Coon, Kevin Harberg, Bobby Ness, Keith Olsen, Dennis Olsen, Verlyn Olsen and Shelly Servold, all of 3rd Camrose; Doug Armstrong, Robin Elliot and Nathan Nashund of 2nd Camrose; Elmer Berke and Ralph Berke of Ryley; Colin Bowick, Tom Christensen, Dennis Murray and Don Swift, all of 1st Tofield, Dan Christensen of 1st Kingman; Loren Krukowski, Wayne Schultz and John Thackray, of 1st New Sarepta.

The boys have been advised to have their equipment at the Scout Hut on the Fairgrounds, Camrose, by 7:00 o'clock in the evening of June 30, and attend a general meeting at 8:00 p.m. There will be a farewell breakfast at Messiah Lutheran Church parlors Saturday morning at 8:00 o'clock, to which parents and guests are invited. It is also hoped that several prominent Scouters might be present at this time. The bus is scheduled to leave Camrose at 9:00 a.m.

Dairy Princess hunt underway in Alberta

The 1967 Alberta Centennial Dairy Princess Competition is now underway to select an attractive and talented representative of the provincial dairy industry. The finals will be held during Edmonton's Klondike Days, scheduled for July 24 to 29.

Young ladies from 17 to 25, married or single, are invited to compete for the honor of being Alberta's Dairy Princess. The main qualifications are a pleasant personality and a basic knowledge of the dairy industry.

Application forms can be obtained from district agriculturists, dairy plants, and A. A. Hughes, Secretary of the Alberta Dairy Princess Committee, Alberta Department of Agriculture, in Edmonton.

Last year's winner, Miss Janet Olesen of Daysland (above) will compete with other dairy princesses from across Canada for the title of Canada Dairy Princess at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto in September.

The Holden Lutheran Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday, June 3rd when Margaret Ann Grube, eldest daughter of the late Fred Grube and Mrs. Lyle A. Grosland, was united in marriage to Robert Homer Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Mason, all of Holden Rev. Stanley Rude officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, Lyle Grosland, wore a beautiful floor-length sheath gown of white silk organza. The bodice and long lily-point sleeves were trimmed with lace applique, the long train which fell from her shoulders also being trimmed with applique. Her fingertip veil of French Illusion net fell from a pearl and crystal crown and she carried a bouquet of yellow tinted roses and carnations.

Her only jewellery was cultured pearls, a gift of the groom

Miss Patty Grube, sister of the bride was maid of honor and Miss Veronica Kalinsky bridesmaid, who were identical floor-length, empire style, sleeveless dresses of yellow crystalline with shoe length white gloves. They carried bouquets of yellow and white roses and lily of the valley with white satin streamers

Little Bonnie Grosland, niece of the bride, was flower girl wearing a floor-length dress of white crystalline with gloves and carried a nosegay of yellow tinted roses. Little Darren Mason, nephew of the groom was ringbearer.

The groom was attended by his brother Don Mason and his cousin, Stanley Jackson, and ushers were Grant Grosland, brother of the bride and Mr. George Mason, brother of the groom

Mrs Lawrence Harum was soloist and sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register. Mrs Harold Gabelhaus, cousin of the bride was the organist.

The mother of the bride wore a green sheath dress with jacket and white accessories. The groom's mother chose a pink and beige dress and matching coat with brown and beige accessories, both wearing corsages of yellow roses and lilies.

A reception was held in the Holden Community Hall for 100 relatives. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with silver leaves, yellow roses and candles, surmounted with an ornament of doves holding silver wedding rings, and a revolving table. Bridal colors, yellow and white tapers and yellow mums completed the table decor.

Sid Handley, uncle of the bride was master of ceremonies; and Walter Grosland proposed the toast to the bride. Miss Perne Johnson, cousin of the bride was in charge of the guest book.

Following the reception, a dance was held in the Community Hall. Out of town guests were from Saskatoon, Wainwa and Eston in Saskatchewan; Medicine Hat, Taber, Calgary, Edmonton, Hinton Bruderheim, Vegreville, Ft. Mcmurray, Viking, Bruce, Kingman and Camrose, Alberta, and Kinaird, B.C.

For her going away costume the bride chose a navy blue crepe suit, with white accessories and wore a red rose corsage. The happy couple are making their present home in Edmonton.

Gray's canoe trip

led sideways and filled with water, having had one of its ribs broken However, it stayed partly on the rock. After struggling for hours in the rushing current which was only waist deep, we managed to get the craft straight with the current, bailed out the water and rode through the rapids safely As all provisions were in waterproof bags, a loss was avoided.

At this time an aeroplane passed along the Churchill mapping out the first accurate map by aerial photography. Upon arrival at Prince Albert, the plane had a number of bullet holes in it, one having grazed the fuel tank.

A the foot of the rapids where we had our mishap, known as the Deer River which we had intended to ascend, but on the advice of others we decided to go further down the Churchill. In the letter mentioned rapids, two accidents had been lost just previously. We had many other dangerous ones to go by, one called Pelican Rapids which could be heard 15 miles away no one had ever shot the Pelican Rapids and come out alive When one gets near them it is time to paddle for shore owing to the great suction. We made a good many portages some being a mile long, an average load of 180 pounds was carried by each of us.

On or about the first of September we reached Sandy Lake which was to be our destination. In previous years the place had been noted for good catches of furs but owing to the periodic movements that fur bearing animals make, it is often more a matter of luck to get one right loss especially to get the fox, the most valuable fur.

By this time we had travelled by water about 700 miles and during this period, much time was lost owing to heavy winds. In all, about 30 days actual travelling.

The country in this part was mostly solid rock and muskeg The rock is the outcropping of the Laurentian highlands that go on in a south-east shape around the Hudson's Bay. The rock is lacking in mineral deposit so far as is known. The muskeg is covered with spruce, birch and tamarack, the latter ground having peculiar, jackpine and birch, but all timber is scrubby and not fit for lumber, Deadfall were numerous and so thick that one could not penetrate them, fires in previous years were the cause.

We built a log cabin at once, During this time about 18" of ice fell, making the task of fishing most disagreeable. Fish are plentiful but of no great variety, Jackfish and Whitefish were the only ones though there were some yellow pike also Jackfish would take a hook everytime one was cast into a likely place. Some of these fish would reach 25 pounds and put up a battle worth while The Whitefish are the main food of the north for all who live there. They are caught at spawning time in September and October, at this time the roe and belly with wholesome.

The Indian travels by canoe in summer and dog team in the winter, also by snowshoe We found the Indian to be absolutely honest A Hudson's Bay trader told me that in 12 years of continuous living with them he never knew one to steal. Few can talk a word of English.

A good dog is worth $80 but in most cases money won't buy them. A dog can pull about 75 pounds at about 4½ miles an hour and can go 60 miles per day. One team of huskies travelled 126 miles in 36 hours last winter through bad weather, no stop being made.

In the early fall we made a trip eastward farther down the Churchill to the nearest post; the trip occupied five days, one way During this trip one rapid called Snake Rapid was encountered; it was one mile long and about a two-minute ride. They are fast and noisy, and many sig-sag courses must be taken to get through safely and after getting through, one feels his nerves should have a rest.

After our return to our log cabin much time was spent hunting moose and deer. After days of patient hunting, two moose were shot, being killed about a rod apart. One weighed about 1300 pounds and provided enough meat to last for a time. This was to be our main food. The meat had to be packed out a distance of 2 miles and transported a rod at the way by canoe. At this time of the year, the sand flies were very severe. Moose and deer were usually scarce in this locality, an Indian camp not far off heard we were hunting and said it was no use; and were very surprised when they heard we had got four deer. They did not try to hunt as the timber is so dense that it is seldom a person can see 50 yards. At the end of January the Indians still had no meat but fish.

At the end of October winter set in with a foot of snow; the climate being a little different from here. Chinook winds could be felt. When it got down to 40 below, travel was impossible. When winter set in, the snow white ptarmigan came down from the Barren country, These birds are about the size of partridge and have a black feather in their tail and wings. The barren land caribou and deer were about three days' travel by snowshoe from where we were camped.

By this time we were busy getting traps especially for the fox, during our short stay we managed to get a nice collection also of other small furs.

Deciding not to stay owing to the lack of a lasting supply of fur for the winter and not being able to return till the first of July, we sold our outfit for a big price, except for about 300 pounds of personal belongings which we did not care to part with.

We had ahead of us a three hundred mile trip. This took over 14 days and we encountered many blizzards with weather as low as 60 below

Our trip in all was a success and an experience that few have the privilege of taking. Nothing would be better than another canoe trip. A canoe trip is filled with the nameless thrill of discovery that is a man to new scenes and places for you never know what lies just around the bend.

Wins math prize

Ruth Ann Stauffer of the Ryley High School won the prize for District 3, in the mathematics competition sponsored by the University of Alberta.

A special examination was set and marked by the Department of Mathematics of the university. It was written on May 18, 1967 by 681 students from 132 schools.

The three main prizes, (first, second, and third) for the whole of Alberta were awarded to students in the Drumheller, Medicine Hat and Salisbury High Schools, respectively.

The province was divided into six districts, excluding the cities of Edmonton and Calgary. In each of these a prize was awarded to the best candidate (other than a main prize winner)

Smoke belched 'black' at Tofield gun shoot

Sunday June 18, dawned clear and cool after two days of rain, a great relief to Gun Club members, as clouds and more rain had been forecast.

Present for the match were shooters from Camrose, Ryley, Edmonton, Slave Lake, Calgary, Edmonton, Bluffton, Tofield and even one from Arizona. In all a turnout of 43 participants.

The first event of the day was a traditional muzzle loading rifle event. Arny Klassen of Tofield won this one, a handsome Dixon powder flask donated by Paul Fuog. Next came a match fired with pistols at balloons anchored with strings and bouncing in the breeze. Paul Fuog of Edmonton took this event and the trophy given by R. D. Cottle. Then a shotgun event, a trophy supplied by Baldwin and Johnstone, taken by Arnold Bugge of Ryley.

After a dinner break the main events in Rifle, pistol and shotgun were run off. In the pistol event, Paul Fuog won the .36 cal. percussion revolver put up by the Gun Club. This event also got Paul the trophy for the best shot of the day given by Arnold Bugge. The second prize in this event, a powder flask donated by Edmonton Sporting goods, was won by Warren Werner of Bluffton. Warren did better in the main rifle event taking the club's .45 H & A underhammer rifle. Another powder flask, given by the Custom Gun Shop as second prize went to Roy Lewis of Hinton. The club's 14 ga. flintlock fowling piece was taken by Arnold Bugge in the main shotgun event — Arnold could not be beaten with a shotgun this day. Baldwin and Johnstones powder flask, second prize in this event, was won by Gordon Warner of Sherwood park.

In the other main event of the day, the Northwestern Utilities Ltd., Stake cutting trophy [illegible] to competition by four teams, the club had the biggest entry so far experienced. Nine teams were entered. The trophy was won in a record one minute and nine seconds by a team made up of Don Holmes and Bill Carlson of Edmonton, and Lars Rude and Larry Foshaug of Tofield.

After the main events were finished some specialty shoots were held. In the Running Deer event (moving target) Gordon Garford of Tofield showed the way winning the trophy given by Claude Gallinger and Ray [illegible] rickson. The clubs [illegible] black bear was resurrected once more and had its gong heart re-installed for the next event, the poor old thing is now without arms but still rings if properly hit. Bob Backman won this on being able to ring the gong farther than anyone else. The next items on the agenda were special bench rest events for two knives made and given by Bo[illegible] these were won by Warren Werner and Bob Backman. Bob was also the recipient of the trophy for the best dressed shooter, given by Ron and Fern Oto. Bob was chosen as best dressed by three judges selected from the [illegible] was chosen as best dressed by spectators.

The weather stayed good all day and the club was very pleased by both the large turn out of shooters and the large gallery of spectators. The Tofield Boy Scouts ran the concession on the grounds and did a thriving business in hot dogs, coffee, soft drinks and chocolate bars.

More pies needed

(Mrs. O. Phillips)

Mrs. Joyce Swift, convener of the Women's booth on the Exhibition Grounds at Centennial Showcase '67, would like to remind the excellent cooks of Tofield and district that many pies are needed to feed the crowd. Mrs Swift will welcome donations to the booth at any time during the day.

Holden couple observes 25th anniversary May 31

Mrs. G. Taylor

The Holden Community Hall was filled the evening of May 31 with relatives and friends, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kushnerick on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Seated at the head table with the guests of honor were bridesmaids at the wedding 25 years ago: Mrs. Stella Mazeppa, Mrs. Mary Ogrodnick and Mrs. Mabel Wynnyk; the best men: Art Kushnerick, Nick Strilchuk and Bill Holowaychuk; the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Prokip Faryna, and the groom's father Mike Kushnerick. Special guests were an old family friend, Rev. McCarty of Vegreville and Rev. Fr Adams.

Michael Zowtuk was a very capable master of ceremonies. Centering the table was a beautifully decorated 3-tiered wedding cake, flanked by arrangements of white and yellow chrysanthemums. A delicious supper was served, with a dance following.

Their children, Jerry and Bob presented them with a rocker recliner chair, and a set of stainless steel cookware was received from the groom's brothers and sisters. A beautiful china dinner set was the gift from the bride's parents, sisters and brothers. Many other lovely gifts were received, as well as two beautiful Missals from Rev. Fr McCarty. Garnet Burnstad, on behalf of all the guests, presented Mr and Mrs Kushnerick with a purse of money.

Out-of-town guests were from Swan Hills, Calgary, Thorsby, Edmonton, Vegreville, Camrose, Round Hill, Evansburg, Viking, Ryley and Smoky Lake.

Holden, Viking 4-H'ers have achievement day

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN. — The 4-H Clubs of Holden and Viking held a successful Sale and Achievement Day on June 6, with the calves of Viking district being judged at Viking Carena and the ones from Holden at the Beaver Co-op Livestock Yards.

In the Club competition the winners were: Champion Calf, Marion Stuart; Reserve Champion, Richard Komarnisky; Showmanship, Gerald Ozubko; Grooming, Richard Komarnisky; Judging, Marion Stuart; Best Gain, Marion Stuart.

Pee-Wee Class—Champion Calf, Lawrence Stuart; Reserve Champion, Larry Jansen.

Inter-Club competition—Grand Champion calf, Betty Klein of Viking; Grand Reserve calf, Allen Minchau, Bruce.

Pee-Wee Class—Grand Champion, Danny Klein, Viking; Grand Reserve, Gordon Klein, Viking.

Auctioneers for the sale were Mike Zowtuk, Jack Lawes and [illegible] Sheets.

In the evening, about 170 people attended the banquet held in the Holden Community Hall, which was catered by the Holden Greek Catholic Ladies' Group. Miss Patty Grube, president of the Holden 4-H Club, presided over the banquet and business. Honored guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, Holden's Centennial Queen, who gave the blessing; Lars Olson, Mayor of Holden, who brought greetings from the Village, and Mrs. Olson.

Guest speaker for the event, Oleh Shykora, grade 9 teacher of Holden school, spoke very inspiringly of the assets of young people belonging to such a worthwhile organization, the training being useful during one's lifetime, in school, community, at home and the church.

Trophies and awards were presented to Viking and Holden members. The Champion and Reserve calves of Viking and Holden will be shown in Edmonton at the Klondike Days in July.

Tourist promotion group organized for this area

Camrose, Forestburg, Stettler and Wetaskiwin were the only communities from Etsale in Central Alberta represented at an organizational meeting to form a Tourist Development Board, held in Camrose on Thursday.

Dr. W. J. Swaik of Camrose was named to head a three man committee charged with the responsibility of getting the organization functioning. Hel- Merle mick, also of Camrose, was appointed as secretary.

Representatives of both the Alberta Travel Association and the Alberta Government Travel Bureau attended the meeting and assured the group of their full support.

The next meeting has been scheduled for Camrose on June 29, at which time the group hoped to have representatives from the 13 absent communities in attendance.

Days of yore

In the front seat of this surrey-type buggy are Lars Rude, Tofield and Miss Louise Hansen, Camrose. Beside it are Mrs. Van Carr and her mother, Mrs. Madsen in centennial costumes. The vehicle was sold on June 21 for $300 to an Edmonton buyer at Jack Hirsch's sale of antiques, first of its kind in Camrose and conducted by Fred Brown and Elgin Brown. Once an RCMP wagon at Cold Lake, it was repainted and carried centennial signs on seats and 1867-1967 on the hook.

Group 3 (Grades 6 to 9)—Rosalind Kolodychuk, Linda and Audrey Lyons (duet), Carol Manderson, Sandra Klawitter, Audrey Lyons, Linda Lyons, Linda Cross, Mrs. Cross and Linda (duet).

At the close of the recital, Carol Manderson presented Mrs. Cross with a gift from all the students in appreciation.

All crops coming on well in area

At the end of last week, crops at Tofield and in the surrounding districts were reported to be coming on well. There was ample moisture and only warmth was needed to help growth make up for the late season.

Spraying was general. There was some frost at Ryley early on the morning of June 23 but it did no apparent damage.

Holden has had the highest rainfall, 3.46-ins since May 1. Bardo and Ryley received slightly less, while Tofield had a total of 2.75-ins. and Shanks, 2.60-ins. in that period.

Hay crops were reported to be in excellent condition, but later than usual.

All is ready for July 1st Showcase 67

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

With the weatherman's blessing, July 1, Tofield's Centennial Showcase '67 should be "one for the books".

Main Warton reports that at least 25 floats will be in the parade — everyone is making a special effort to make Canada's 100th birthday an event which everyone, and especially the children, will cherish in memory.

It is hoped that as many children as possible will participate in floats, as marchers in the parade, in the Centennial Costume Contest, and in any other way possible. Let's give them a day to remember!

The bleachers are again borrowed from Mr. Golden so that spectators at the horse show may have a good view of these exciting events.

The barbecue is planned and ready to go. Look for a special pioneer item on the menu this year.

Remember

—a gate prize this year;
—the handicraft display;
—the school display;
—free coffee for Old-Timers provided by Community Leagues.

Contennial service by Lutheran Church held in Edmonton

On Sunday, June 25, a Centennial Service was held at the Jubilee Auditorium in Edmonton, sponsored by the Churches of the Lutheran Church of Canada.

Special attraction for this occasion was the Reverend A. M. Rohrdobal, LL.D., of St. Louis, Missouri.

The Lutheran Hour, Rev. Fred Schulz, President of the Lutheran Church of Canada, Rev. A. H. Showermann, D.D., and Rev. A. J. Mueller, Rev. Schulz resided for a time in Tofield.

Three Tofield couples journeyed to Edmonton for the Centennial Service. They were Anna and Fred Thomasse, Viola and Ed Tiedemann and Mary and Bill Tiedemann.

and served by Kalsbeek Ladies;

—merry - go - round and ferris wheel;

—and, of course, the ball tournament.

Petra's Park is a beauty!

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Petra's Park is a beautiful addition to the town. The flowers are blooming in their Centennial emblem shaped bed. The gaily-painted by the employees of Northwestern Utilities is very decorative. The lilac trees and the rich dark earth promise a cool, shady beautiful area of green on Tofield's Main Street.

The restful park complements the Lions' playground just opposite, where active games are always in progress.

Heads $1,000,000 program to extend colleges, ministries

Well known Director of Development at Camrose Lutheran College, Rev. Arther W. Holmes, has been named this week to head the new Lutheran Academic Mobilization Plan (LAMP) for the Western Division.

The program has been initiated by the Evangelical Lutheran Church to raise more than $1,000,000 for the capital needs for the four educational institutions sponsor ed by the church, and for campus ministries at the provincial universities.

The program foresees Camrose College being one of the largest recipients of the program as it expands its affiliation with the University of Edmonton.

Pastor Holmes will be responsible for co-ordination for the program in Alberta and British Columbia. He will devote all his time to the new program, having been given seven months leave of absence.

H. Schultz to emcee Showcase 67

Harold Schultz has kindly consented to be master of ceremonies for Tofield's Centennial Showcase '67. Those who saw him in action at the Folk Festival will look forward to seeing him taking charge on July 1. He will conduct the opening ceremonies and the Centennial Costume Contest, to mention just two of his activities.

Out-of-town judges have been secured for both the Parade and the Centennial Costume Contest, report Marie Worton and Georgia Christensen, who are respectively in charge of those two events.

THURSDAY MORNING FLASH

Major Frank Pace, RCP, will on hand July 1st for opening ceremonies of Showcase '67.

Need to rest? Try new benches

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

Two commodious newly constructed benches, painted a restful shade of green, have been placed on Main Street by members of the Ladies' Bowling League for the comfort and convenience of Tofield shoppers.

This thoughtful gesture in the Centennial project of these ladies and one which adds to the friendly atmosphere of the town and which will be much appreciated by all one bench is near Robinson's Store and the other near the Super A.

Centennial service is well-attended

An Ecumenical Centennial Service of Thanksgiving last Sunday evening was well attended. Large [illegible] was a musical [illegible] the [illegible] of Tofield and district as well as [illegible] of the "household of faith".

The Lutheran, Anglican, Roman Catholic, Salem, Conference and Bethany Mennonite, Baptist and United Churches shared in the service of thanksgiving. T. Grainger led the massed choir and the hearty congregational singing.

MacDuff Ottawa Report

Pocket picking

OTTAWA — For 25 years the taxpayers of Canada by digging into their own pockets or perhaps, to be more accurate, having them picked, have been subsidizing at a day that was as unprofitable as a Greek tragedy. The House of Commons, with only the formality of opposition, has approved the establishment of a corporation to administer a slow death to the Cape Breton coal mining industry. The Cape Breton Development Corporation, a new federal crown corporation, will take over the very doubtful assets of the Dominion Coal Company, a subsidiary of the DOSCO empire, and will gradually close down four mines which have been operating on a subsidy that now totals $300 million. More than $100 million of this amount has been paid out since 1960. The estimated cost of subventions and other aid next year is $27.6 million or about $4.90 for each man, woman and child in Canada.

The plight of coal mining in the Maritimes and now Nova Scotia in particular is a conversation piece as the weather with as much done about it. There have been three Royal Commissions brought on the subject since the war in addition to the study made by the Royal Commission on Canada's Economic Prospects. As chairman of that last Commission, Mr. Walter Gordon was only one colleague planning out this things and warning the population. Years before, Armand Tavelbee in an historic survey of the Atlantic Provinces, had said much the same thing. But if the Pearson Cabinet Minister had been personally responsible a second expulsion of the Acadians he could not have encountered more hatred and bitterness.

Mr. Gordon in those days had no inclination to become a cabinet minister or enter politics but for the St. Laurent government his report, appearing on the eve of the 1957 election, was more embarrassing. It may have played its role in electing the first Conservative government in 22 years. In any event the Tories reversed the party positions in Nova Scotia taking 19 of the 11 seats, 18 seats that would have held the Liberals in power.

Liberals, now back in power, have never regained their position in Nova Scotia and when Mr. Gordon himself, now a politician, plumped the province in 1963 he found that the Acadians had neither forgiven nor forgiven.

So much for a history which persons at least that the Pearson Government has been ready to make a major issue of its political life in its hands. It was not decided overnight in 1961 a Royal consultant was asked to report on the situation. Dr. J. R. Donald had some advantages over his predecessors. Before he reported he knew, for example, that DOSCO intended to get out of the coal business. He knew that, subsidy or no subsidy, the Cape Breton coal mines had a limited life of about 15 years. Coal is being mined at a depth of 2,000 feet and four miles under the sea with shifts using an hour to an hour and a half of their time getting to the seam. The choice was not one of continuing or not continuing coal mining in Cape Breton.

Nevertheless ministers must have spent some sleepless nights over his recommendation to give the coup de grace to the coal mining industry because the report by its release from May until October last year. When it was released it created far less furore than expected. The reason lay in the fact that it recommended

Perfect choice

Tofield, June 27, 1967

Dear Sir:

One tends to become contemptuous of all the modern choices as "man of the week", "man of the hour", and what have you. Constant such awards have robbed the phrase of much of its meaning. In many cases the title is awarded for reasons other than merit.

Then, unexpectedly, comes an announcement which is truly an inspiration. Not the wealthy citizen, or the one most often in the news—but one who is sincerely appreciated by all who know him as the "perfect" choice.

Bill Backschat, Citizen of the Year, deserves this recognition as few people could hope to and the whole community joins in proclaiming his appointment.

Congratulations, Bill, and Kudos and Billy!

—From All of Us.

Exciting Pages From Canada's Past

Lizzie is a French word derived from the Latin misereo—to mix. The name was given to the offspring of the white fur traders and the native women of Canada —it was satirical for these men, living among the Indians and far from their own fashionable society to smile with the Indian women.

The Metis developed as a separate culture. They were proud of their mixed blood, and being mixed from white settlements but more than a nuisance, they received an independent way of life that was neither Indian nor European. Physically they combined the best characteristics of those two races, according to Southesk, they were "tall, straight and well proportioned, lightly formed but strong and extremely active and enduring". Another observer wrote: "They are a merry, light-hearted obliging race, recklessly generous, incredible and extravagant".

The Metis were as free as the wilderness they were born in. They loved the excitement of the hunt. Many of them descended on the buffalo for their livelihood, while others would leave their annual farms to join in the chase. On occasion they would use the original Indian method of hunting down a herd and stampeding it off a cliff or creek bank. They would dry the meat and grind it with crushed berries to make the pemmican for the winter. The buffalo robes also provided skins for leggings and leather and the rugs was used as Red Fullgrown buffaloes were up to six feet high and weighed a ton or more.

Concentrating in the Red River area, the Metis gradually built up a base on their farms to follow the dwindling herds farther and farther west. These hunting expeditions were well organized. The Metis used carts, travelled in brigades, chosen leaders and had to abide a code of rules and regulations. Often they were accompanied by priests who celebrated daily mass, taught the children and visited the sick. In winter many of the Metis camped out rather than return to Red River.

As the buffalo grew scarcer, these camps became permanent villages and eventually the villagers had to fall back on farming and fishing to make a living.

This historical feature is one of a series which we hope may wish to clip and save.

There oughta be a law

Somewhere there must be a law that says you can't move in on a man's property without permission, even if you own a bulldozer or a whole string of them. But time and again nobody bells the dozer operators.

The whole ridiculous picture is being repeated again in the case near Fort Saskatchewan, where a railway is being built to terminate at the Redwater plant of Imperial Oil.

Apparently the government was in the process of expropriating the land, but nobody thought to inform the farmers.

Once the railway is built, it's too late for the farmers to do very much about having the survey changed to make a more desirable use of available land. This may be excellent from the point of view of the railway builders and the construction crews, but it's a mighty shoddy picture from the farmers' point of view.

Not many years ago a southern Alberta rancher made headlines by promising to shoot at construction crews endeavoring to work on his land without first getting the necessary permission, even though he knew the permission was only a matter of form in the end, and would be granted automatically.

And we recall it wasn't many years after Confederation that a lot of farmers started a shooting war a few hundred miles further east when unenlightened surveyors moved in on their land. Don't we ever learn?

Can't spend it

There's a good deal of misunderstanding about recent news announcements that the initial wheat price would increase 20 cents a bushel, says Farmers Union president Paul Babey. The increase doesn't mean the total price paid to the farmer will increase a bit, he says.

While the initial price will be higher, he cautions, the final price would be that much less, after the wheat has been sold by the Canadian Wheat Board. And the increased supplies in exporting and importing countries expected for this year could mean there will be no increases, and possibly even lower world prices than last year.

Mr. Babey suggests the farmers should tell their story to the consumer public, so the true farm picture is clear, rather than just talk amongst themselves.

Time for nominations

Closing date for nominations for Junior Citizens of the Year is nearing, and anyone with nominations to suggest should get them in to The Canadian shortly. Sponsored for the past several years by a number of provincial power companies, the awards have gone far to recognizing some of the splendid achievements of young citizens up to the age of 16. Naturally not everyone can be selected, but let's hope no-one in this area will miss out for want of being nominated.

two crown corporations, one to close the mines and the other to promote alternative job opportunities for the miners. The legislation is a little less ambitious. There will be one crown company instead of two with initial capital of $45 million instead of $135 million. $27 million is to phase out the mines and $30 million to provide new industries. The province of Nova Scotia is to supply another $10 million to the economic development fund.

Within a year the new Corporation must come up with a definite plan for the phase out. For some Cape Breton miners there will be new jobs, assuming that the plan is successful. Others will look forward to early retirement on pension. The target date for the final phase out will be another 15 years and for that period of time Nova Scotia will issue no further coal permits or leases without the approval of the Corporation.

One pitfall the Government is avoiding. Pressures have been strong to have the Corporation also buy out DOSCO's steel assets in these fields there have been lay-offs and there will be more lay-offs. The Company would like to move its steel-making out of the Maritimes into centre it on Quebec. This would probably be a $50 million investment with the money used for the purpose of setting up steel mills to compete with the Crown company. Political pressures on far have been resisted and will continue to be.

As it is, the take-over of the Dominion Coal Company is the largest nationalization scheme since the formation of the Canadian National Railways. Another was the war-time take-over of Eldorado Mining and Refining Ltd., an imminently profitable deal for the taxpayer. There is no profit in Maritime coal but unlike the railway nationalization which put a new burden on the shoulders of the taxpayer the Cape Breton scheme gives some promise of relief.

CAPITAL HILL CAPSULE

Canadians don't appear to be doing much better in avoiding the wastage of labour disputes than last year. In 1966 there were five million man-days lost cutting Canadian productivity to a gain of less than one per cent. Early in the year the strike record showed signs of improvement but in May there were 97 work stoppages involving a loss of 480,000 man-days, considerably above the record for May 1966.

Ministik news

Mrs. J. Roddick

At the United Church on Sunday Jim McClintock, student minister, announced that communion services would be held on Sunday, July 9th, the minister conducting to be announced at a later date.

Several people from Ministik were guests at the lovely basement and social evening held at Hastings Lake on Friday when the new section and kitchen of the hall were officially opened. This is an accomplishment of 15 years planning and work with several setbacks included.

Mrs. Helen Hennessy spent four days with the Keith Francis and George Francis families in Tofield making the acquaintance of many relatives who had come from afar to attend the wedding and reception Saturday of Miss Sharon Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seabry announce the arrival of their first granddaughter. The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Seabry of Smith, Alta.

MOTHER'S DAY

Deepest sympathy is extended from Ministik friends to Mrs. Jim Holmes on the loss of her mother, Mrs. C. Ray of Tofield, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roddick and family enjoyed a barbecue lunch and the day at Miquelon lake on Sunday.

Beverly Loeb spent the week-end with Linda Holmes, her chum.

It was inoculation day Saturday when 11,000 turkeys received their "shots" at the Hunchuk Jenks turkey ranch.

A beautiful day made the annual community picnic a most successful one. Girls working in the new modern booth enjoyed their tasks. This was assembled by men of the community club and will prove itself a real asset to the community. The dance following in the evening was also enjoyed by all in attendance. Many of the girls were attired in ceremonial dresses.

Mrs. Andrew Ferguson spent part of Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. J. Pauls, and also visited her other sister, Mrs. R. Inglis who is a patient in the "Royal Alex" hospital in Edmonton.

Ross Creek news

Mrs. L. Van Slochteren

A very large crowd attended the wedding reception of June Motuik and Ronald Small at the Mundare National Hall on Saturday, June 24th. June has spent most of her life in the district, and both she and her husband are graduates of Lamont High School.

The Northern Alberta Hereford Association held their annual tour on Saturday and called at several farms in the district.

Willie Van Slochteren and Morley Jacobsen made an overnight trip to Waterton Park, to pick up equipment for Elk Island Park.

Joe Lazaruk was a patient in the Lamont Hospital for a few days.

A 1947 power penny is worth a lot more these days.

While the buying power of an ordinary 1947 penny has disappeared into near oblivion, the buying power of a power penny has doubled over the past 20 years. Today a power penny buys a 'houseful of happiness'! Just look at how little it costs to enjoy the convenience of electric appliances.

Your barbecue spit turns happily for 5 hours for one power penny.
Keep your estate manicured. One power penny mows a whole acre.
A power penny and a dishwasher clean a sparkling load of dishes.
118 eggs fried sunny side up or over for one power penny.
A home supermarket for 5 hours for one power penny.
Play it cool! One power penny, an air conditioner - "the heat's off".

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

You are entering a shot in the office of your chief friend, Police Chief Andy Lewis, when suddenly the door of his own private private in the main floor is open and a man with a gun in a handkerchief enters. The man has never set foot in this office before but has a long memory and has come to get even with the police chief.

There was one of those long moments when the unexpected happens and you are powerless to act. Slowly the man with the gun moves forward, his face twisted in a snarl of hate. Then he speaks:

"Chief Lewis, you remember me. You sent me to the penitentiary for ten years. Well, I've served my time and I'm out. I've been thinking about you all the time I was in there and I've decided to kill you. I'm going to shoot you right between the eyes."

Chief Lewis looks across the desk at the man with the gun and says:

Dunnock played two sets of tennis with one of the prisoners and won the morning. The father is in Alberta's cousin and they drive up together to the same correctional Edwards at a Correctional Centre collector is not only a fine tennis player but was formerly a pro-Dominion basketball player. The Edwards prepared an for a tennis on three new French Canadian prisoners for the first time in three years and Albertans were temporarily separated from his wife and family. Dunnock left Canada ago and are now living together again. Dunnock was in the case of manslaughter of Montreal and served with a prison term. Business and Correspondence were done by letter.

County of Beaver School Committee news

Minutes of the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee meeting Tuesday, May 30, 1967. Re-being Acting from the minutes

In regards to the ventilation system, the committee was in for rectifying certain changes had been made in the system by Mr. Pearson and that payment had been made to him. A letter from Mr. Pearson to the Public Works Department concerning further changes in the system at a proposed cost of $261.00 was referred to the Committee.

A representative from the Workmen's Compensation Board, Mr. D. J. Gibbs, was inspecting the installation to see what modifications could be made to have the system actually remove the odors and fumes from the shop.

The assistant Sec.-treas. accepted Mr. Gibbs and reported that in the opinion of Mr. Gibbs by installing a couple of small fans towards the ceiling of the shop, it should be possible to remove the fumes without further modifications.

Moved that the report be accepted and the action in paying the account concurred in. Cd

In regards to Councillors Accident Insurance the Sec-treas., advised that the requested additional coverage could be obtained at a premium per person would be $15.00 annually. Moved that the report be accepted and additional coverage obtained. Cd.

Cr. Weatherill stated that he was unable to go to Banff and it was moved that Cr. Kropielnicki be appointed to attend the Refresher Course at Banff during the week of June 4th in place of Cr. Weatherill. Cd

The Committee was advised that the position of Supervisor of Libraries for the County's schools had been appointed for grant purposes by the department of Education. Moved that the report be accepted. Cd.

Inspection report by Inspector H. D. Shuttleworth of the Fire Commissioners Office in regards to the Ryley School containing a number of recommendations were referred to the committee. Although it was felt that many of the recommendations were of such nature that they should have been taken care of when the school was constructed, it was felt that it would be of no value to protest the recommendations and it was moved that the report be accepted and the recommendations complied with. Cd.

Apprentice Course Report for Derek F. Tiedemann was referred to the Committee. The report was very good indicating a school rating of 81 per cent and 90 per cent out of a possible 100 per cent on the examination. He had been awarded his 2nd year technical credit.

Moved that the report be received and filed. Cd.

Letter from the janitors and mechanics be directed to take their holidays during this month of July Cd.

The Sec-treas., informed the Committee that he had received word from Pioneer Bus and Body Ltd. that the two Chevrolet 36-passenger school buses would be ready for delivery in Windsor, Ontario on June 7-8.

He also referred to information from the Bus Supervisor that some of the County's drivers were prepared to bring them back safer the school term is over. The Chairman stated that he did not know whether the drivers that he had lined up in Viking would have time to do at this time. It was felt that if the County's own drivers wished to make this trip they should be given the opportunity and it was moved that preference be given to our own school bus drivers for this opportunity to go to Windsor for the 2-36 passenger school buses and to Brantford for the remaining 48-passenger Blue Bird bus Cd.

Superintendent's Report

Moved that the following resignations, effective July 1967 be accepted: Rebecca R. Cummins, Samuel Chelliah, George T. Lowe, Gordon J. Pittman, Earle Wayne Baillie, Myr.le Baillie, Carolyn Shields, Edward Shields, Beverly McRae, Pieter W. A. Grobler, J. H. Hemphill. Cd.

Moved that the appointment of Miss Nola Watts as Librarian at Ryley and Mr. Douglas Leigh as Social Studies in Jr. High School at Ryley be confirmed. Cd

Robert Wiley, teacher at the Viking school, had forwarded an application form for taking driver training in July. Moved that Robert Wiley's application be accepted. Cd.

It was mentioned that a power pole was located in the backyard of the duplex teacherage at Ryley and that the Superintendent had requested that the Calgary Power move this pole in a different location, however, no action has been taken.

Moved that the Sec-treas., contact Calgary Power in this connection. Cd.

Moved at 6:30 p.m. that this meeting now adjourn. Cd.

County Council notes

Minutes of the regular meeting of the Council of the County of Beaver No. 9, Wednesday, June 14th, 1967

Mr. Allan Strome, Branch Supervisor of the Dept. of Water Resources and Robert Wagner, Engineer with the Dept. attended the meeting at this time in connection with the various drainage problems in the County. Mr. Strome advised that the Dept had budgeted an amount of $15,000.00 for Flood control under the 1967 provisions for the County of Beaver and he inquired if the Council was prepared at this time to make any definite commitments as to what work might be undertaken during the 1967 season. He advised that his Department had submitted an overall proposal to ARDA including the Kropielnicki and Shanks Flood Control Scheme and he was quite hopeful that the scheme would be approved by ARDA

In regards to the Amisk Creek Scheme Mr. Wagner stated that the survey had been finished and that the plans should be completed in a couple of weeks time. As service was a big factor in this project Mr. Strome was doubtful that this would be eligible under the ARDA provisions.

In regards to the Waskwei Flood Control Scheme which was considered to have a chance in being approved under the PFRA regulations, Mr. Strome stated that if this was not the case, the Dept. of Water Resources was quite prepared to handle this flood control scheme under the 80-20 arrangements.

The Amisk Creek Flood Control Scheme had originally been surveyed by the Dept. of Water Resources in 1958 and at this time the estimated cost had been $700. Mr. Strome was of the opinion that this would not be quite in keeping with the present

Moved that the Council pass a resolution in favour of the ARDA Amisk Creek project to be dealt with in 1967 Cd

In regards to the sale of the Dr. and Cooper, the Secretary-Treasurer stated that a farm had been leased from Dr. Parks for a period of two years and that the Council had been requested to sell this property. Moved that the report be received. Cd

In regard to the proposed sale of Lot 1, Block 2, Plan 1487W was referred to the Council. Moved that he be sold to Mr. Culbert for the sum of $150.00. Cd.

Letter from E. M. Fitzmaurice, stating that he would like to lease the road allowance west of Camp Lake be west S.W. 13 and N.W. 18-48-11-W 4th, was referred to the Council. Moved that the Council has no objections to the proposed lease. Cd.

Letter from the District Engineer requesting the County to undertake the weed spraying on Highways 14 and 26 was referred to the Council. The Sec-treas., advised that he had talked with the District Engineer that our crew would look after this work. Moved that the letter be accepted and the Sec-treas.'s action concurred in. Cd.

Letter from the Licensing Branch of the Dept. of Industries and Development advising that Robert John Williams Pay-N-Save Petroleums on Pt. S.E. 14-49-16-W.4th a Holden had made an ap-

'Master Farm Family' contest closes July 14

Nominations for the Alberta master farm family award close July 14 and nominations should be sent to the district agriculturist or home economist in your area.

This year's master farmers will receive an all-expense paid trip to Expo 67 for themselves and the wives or fiancees. The winner under the "by a narrow" system of five farm families will win the award.

To be eligible for nomination, the family must be Canadian citizens and the farmer must be an owner-operator of a mixed operation of the farm. The farmer must have spent at least 20 consecutive years running his operation. If no film served in the Canadian Armed Forces, this will count as time spent farming.

Nominations must be made on the forms provided and be signed by at least three neighbors who must accept the nomination.

Forms can be obtained from district agriculturists and district home economists.

At present Canada's forests are growing about twice the volume cut each year.

Over 150,000,000 trees are planted in Canada each year.

White pine was the species which most attracted early lumbermen and was responsible for settlement of many areas in Eastern Canada.

Taking pride of place in the parade of 80 wheelchair residents of Bethany Home & Hospital on June 21, was Mrs. Alice Rorem, guided by her distinguished nephew, Chester Ronning. This grand old lady reached her 100th. birthday on July 7th, of last year. The parade of gaily decorated wheelchairs with occupants in old-fashioned dress and 54 more on foot was the Centennial Day celebration at Bethany and marked a highlight in the lives of many pioneers of the country in the residence. —Camrose Canadian Newsphoto.

Dairy 'field day' set for Vegreville on Wed., July 5

The Dairy Branch and Extension Service of the Alberta Department of Agriculture are co-operating with the Cattle Breeders' Section of the Alberta Dairymen's Association and local committees in holding a dairy field day in the Vegreville area on Wednesday, July 5.

Chairman for the day's program, which gets underway at 1:00 p.m., will be N. A. Cherwk, District Agriculturist in Vegreville.

The program includes discussions on such topics as "The Canadian Dairy Commission—Policies and Plans", "Haylage and Silage", "From Cream Can to Bulk Tank", "Dairy Herd Improvement", and "Quality Milk and Cream Production".

Cash awards for a dairy cattle judging competition will be provided by the Cattle Breeders' Section of the Alberta Dairymen's Association.

Site of the field day is the Dale Cole Farm, located three miles west and five miles south of Vegreville.

Forest cover delays and extends the period during which snow melts in the spring and in this way helps to regulate water supply.

Modern etiquette

Q. Is it necessary that marriage announcements be sent out immediately after the ceremony, or is a certain amount of leeway permissible?

A. Much better to mail the announcements out as soon as possible, on the day of the wedding if practicable. Otherwise, friends may read of the wedding in the papers or hear of it from others, and feel slighted for not having been personally notified first.

Q. Should a woman walk on a short distance, or should she wait with her escort while he pays the taxi fare?

A. She should wait with her escort.

Q. Should one leave the spoon in the sherbet glass when one has finished eating his dessert?

A. No; place the spoon in the saucer.

Q. When is the introduction "Messrs" used in addressing an envelope?

A. When addressing brothers—never a father and son. It is an abbreviation of the French word for "Misters". It may be correctly written in two ways: "The Messrs. Jackson", or, "The Messrs. Paul and James Jackson".

Kindergarten class promoted to Grade 1

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY—The Bethel Lutheran Sunday School children received their promotional certificates from Superintendent Ivan Jacobsen at Sunday morning service, June 25.

Graduation exercises were also held when seven Kindergarten students, dressed in white mortar boards and capes were promoted to Grade 1, and each was presented with a Bible by the Cradle Roll secretary, Mrs. Jean Knudslien. The Bibles were gifts from the Church Women.

The little graduates were Jack Murray, Billy Knudslien, Treva Nordby, Vance Vikaren, Kent Wickstrom, Ralph Steinwandt and Tom Littlechild.

Following the morning services, tables were set up in Wickstrom's field and a bounteous pot luck dinner was enjoyed followed by a ball game, races, peanut scramble and lots of ice cream.

ALBERTA HEALTH PLAN

Lakeshore-McKenzie

Emil Tiedemann accompanied Eddie Ferguson and Roy Williams on a motor trip into the north country Thursday. Emil went as far as Dawson Creek, B.C., then returned to Edmonton by bus on Sunday while Eddie and Roy continued farther north. They intended to go on to Fort St. John and visit the big dam at Hudson Hope before returning.

Robert Goubault and daughter Judy of Drayton Valley were last Wednesday visitors at the home of Judy's grandparents, John and Mary Wood.

Roy and Ruth Wickenberg left on Friday morning on a motor trip to Olive and other points near there where they will visit relatives and attend some of the Centennial celebrations being held there.

Sunday visitors at the home of Emil and Martha Tiedemann were Martha's brother Robert and Dede Goubault of Drayton Valley, her sister Adele and Cliff Gosnell of Edmonton and their father Emil Goubault of California who is at present staying in Edmonton and had come to the farm with Adele and Cliff.

On Sunday Emil's cousin Karl and Marvel Reese of Edmonton motored here and brought Emil Tiedemann (home from his trip) with them and they were guests of Emil and Martha.

On Monday Mrs. Ila Walker, Mrs. Isabel Rudacki, Mrs. Lillian Fairholm, Mrs. Edna Jones, Mrs. Mary Schroeder, Mrs. Katie Boergen and Mrs. Mavis Jacobson called at the home of Mrs. Rose Walker to help her celebrate her birthday. Also there was Rose's mother, Mrs. Sadoski of Edmonton who is visiting Rose for a few days.

Billie and Sylvia Serochin Johnston and children of Edmonton were Sunday visitors at the home of Billy's father Jack Johnston.

Ollie and Verlyn Moss motored to Calgary Sunday and brought their daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Langille and three children home with them Sunday for a short visit. Also visiting at the home of Ollie and Verlyn are Ollie's two nieces, Lorene and Al Ott and Lorene's sister Doris from Portland, Ore., who arrived Monday for a few days visit.

Holden and district news items

(Mrs. G. Taylor)

Mrs. Ida Mason left Saturday for Saskatchewan where she will visit her father for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Shekinski of Vegreville were visitors in Holden last Thursday.

The United Church Board met at the church parlors for an official meeting with members from Ryley and Bruce also attending.

TO EXPO

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cooper and family left on their holidays Sunday for eastern Canada where they will be visiting various points. They hoped to visit Expo and on the return at Niagra Falls. Mr. Cooper built a trailer for his truck as their accommodations on their trip. They expect to be away for four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Armstrong and daughter of Prince Edward Island are visiting with his parents at Holden.

The village of Holden is installing water and sewer in the Holden fire hall. Other services being done at this time are at the John Laskoski and Tony Lapino homes, the Masonic Hall and the County teacherage. Diachuk Construction from Vegreville were doing the ditching.

Mrs. Beth Campbell addressed the ladies group of the United church at Tofield one day last week. She also visited with Mrs. Richardson while at Tofield.

E. Najdziak, sanitary Health Inspector for the Vegreville Health Unit was a business caller in Holden last Tuesday.

Heard about another small church farther south. It has had so many shotgun weddings take place in it that it has become known as Winchester Cathedral.

An added ad. produced the following: "Registered Hereford bulls with garage; landscaped . . . ." Some millionaire looking for a novelty might like landscaped bulls with their own garage.

Don't despair, advertisers! Printing errors, like banned books, always attract the most attention.

Centennial Egg laid yesterday

Seems even hens have centennial projects this year. A downy bird laid her Dominion Day egg for Gordon Downey Tuesday.

The egg measures 8¼ inches around one way and 6½ ins. the other and was laid on Mr. Downey's farm, two miles west and a half mile mile south of Highway 13. The producer is a Light Sussex yearling hen who was hoping for centennial twins. But they'll be sunny side up on somebody's breakfast table any day now.

Although less spectacular than forest fires, insects and disease probably destroy more timber.

(Mrs. L. McGinitie)

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fraser and boys from Ribstone were Sunday guests with Peter and Yvonne Brown and Daniel.

Mrs. Lelia Ray passed away suddenly Sunday in the Tofield Hospital.

Jim Ratigan of Calgary spent the past week visiting at the Bill and Jim Ingram homes, and also with relatives in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown were in Edmonton Saturday to see the RCMP Musical Rides.

Mrs. John Wecbets and two girls of Edmonton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams and with other relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Froese and Eric of Mission City, B.C., were Monday evening callers at the Isaac Froese home when other relatives from town and Ryley were also there. On Sunday the family attended services at the Mennonite Church at Didsbury when Vern Froese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Froese was ordained into the ministry.

Roy Williams, Ed Ferguson and Emil Tiedemann returned Tuesday from a trip to the Peace River area.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGinitie and Raymond were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McGinitie at Viking Sunday, the occasion being Henry's birthday.

Holden OORP Lodge has installation service

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN. — Holden Lodge O.O.R.P. held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, June 14, with a good turn-out of members. Visitors attending were D.D.S.H.R.L. Schukster, P.H.R.L. Vivian Gares and Lady Hill, all of Viking Lodge. Semi-annual reports of the Secretary, Treasurer and Finance Committee were given, also reports of the Guide, Brownie and Mother Banquet on May 29, and the Chamber of Commerce Supper.

D.D.S.H.R.L. Shukster, assisted by P.H.R.L. Gares and L. Hill, installed the new slate of officers, as follows: Irene Strilchuk, HRL, Ida Mason, PHRL; Mary Semotuik, assist. RL; Helen Bilyk loyal lady; Marilyn Shykora, lec lady; Irene Taylor, secretary; Olga Bilyk, treasurer; Kathleen Hurum, chaplain; Elizabeth Campbell, historian; Stella Sorensen, conductress; Hazel Armstrong, 3-year trustee, Elizabeth Keith, 1-year trustee, Katherine Nichols, inner guard, Patricia Lindberg, outer guard; Blanche Olson, pianist.

D.D.S.H.R.L. Shukster was presented with a gift from the Lodge, and a Lodge emblem spoon was presented to P.H.R.L. Doris Story as a memento of her membership in the Lodge.

It was with regret that members heard that L. Story would be leaving Holden district in the near future to make her home in Edmonton.

Lunch hostesses were Ladies Kay Chupka and Beverly Manchur.

The Lodge will be closed for July and August, and re-convene in September.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Tiedemann celebrate 25th anniversary

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN.—On Saturday, June 10, a large crowd of relatives and friends met in the Holden Community Hall, when Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiedemann entertained at a Smorgasbord supper on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. The hall was decorated in the Centennial theme, and Mrs. Alfred Sorensen was in charge of the guest book.

Seated at the head table were the bride and groom of 25 years ago, their attendants, their sons, Alan, David and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison (father and mother of the "bride"), Rev. and Mrs. Heinemann of Vegreville and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hardy. For the occasion, Mrs. Tiedemann wore a lovely shrimp pink two-piece dress and corsage of roses.

The table was centred with a beautifully decorated cake, a gift from their son Alan, flanked by candles and pink roses and a plaque of 25 silver dollars, a gift from the "bride's" parents. Earl Hardy was the very capable master of ceremonies. Dancing was later enjoyed, with music supplied by relatives of the Tiedemann family, and all enjoyed a program of various selections.

The Tiedemann's youngest son Robert, played piano selections and Pat and Gerald Wenn, children of a niece, played two selections. The United Church choir then sang with the choir from Bruce Lutheran Church, entertaining with two selections. Mrs. Morrison, mother of the "bride", gave a reading, which was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Hardy, in his usual capable manner, gave a resume of Helen and Henry's life since they had resided in Holden, with many humorous stories of their fishing trips. Pastor Heinemann gave a short resume of the first wedding ceremony, and on behalf of those present presented the guests of honor with a purse of money. They also received many other lovely gifts from relatives and friends, which were on display.

Henry and Helen extended gracious thanks to all for their kindness and good wishes.

At midnight a delicious lunch was served, bringing to a close a very memorable evening and joyous occasion.

'Showcase 67' a huge success

Riding in style The Town of Tofield walked away with first prize in the float competition in the 'Best Town Float' competition. Showing Canada's flag, along with the Centennial symbol, the float was further enhanced by the presence of four attractive young ladies. —Tofield Mercury Newsphoto.

"Showcase 67" in Tofield on Saturday, July 1, was a huge success.

Over three thousand people, many of them from far-away Alberta spots, attended the annual Dominion Day celebrations, viewing with a great deal of enjoyment the many outstanding attractions offered during the day.

A huge parade got the day's events underway, leaving the CNR depot, to Main Street, and then to the Fairgrounds. The parade was headed by the RCMP, followed by the Tofield Majorettes and Tofield Band under the direction of Staff/Sgt. Coates.

Floats of all makes and descriptions followed, along with cars containing guests, decorated bicycles and other attractions.

At 12:30 p.m. a special 20-gun salute was fired by the Tofield Gun Club, using their own handmade cannon.

The ceremony officially getting the day started was held on the ball diamond, with Harold Schultz acting as master of ceremonies.

Dr. W. H. Freebury, Mayor of Tofield, extended a welcome to all the visitors and, on behalf of the citizens of Tofield, extended a "Happy Birthday" to all the citizens of Canada.

Tofield's Centennial lady, Queen Petra spoke briefly before declaring the day's celebration officially opened.

Major Frank Fane, MP, who travelled from Ottawa especially for this occasion, spoke briefly, and extended thanks on behalf of himself and his wife for the opportunity to be with "his people" on this special day.

Dr. Freebury then presented to Bill Backschat the "Citizen of the Year" award. Mr. Backschat spoke briefly, thanking everyone for this great honor

Chief Ketchamoot and his squaw were then introduced The Chief told the crowd that he was retiring from public life after a long and successful career of appearances. As a farewell gesture, he once again demonstrated his famous "ki-yi".

Mr. Schultz then announced the winners of the various parade winners.

P. E. (Ed) Clinton of the Tofield Mercury then presented the awards to the winners of the Centennial Quiz, sponsored by The Mercury. The winners were: Junior division, Janice Halverson; student division, Marlene Stauffer; senior division, Mrs. Bert Clark.

Appoint new dairy commissioner

R. P. Dixon has been named to the position of provincial dairy commissioner. He succeeds D. H. McCallum who retired on June 14th.

Mr. Dixon joined the Alberta Department of Agriculture in 1940 as Supervisor of the Cow Testing Program He served in the RCAF from 1942 to 1946 when he returned to the Department as supervisor of Dairy Cattle Improvement. He held this position until 1966 when he became assistant dairy commissioner.

Judging very close in costume contest

Girls, under 6 years—1, Melody Hendrikson; 2, Diane Tiedemann and Cindy Rude; 3, Teresa Hisey and Kathy Hisey.

Boy, under 6 years — Donnie Hendrikson.

Girls, 7-12 years — 1, Tannis Shaw; 2, Ivy Mosby.

Boy— 7-12 years—Dane Rude.

Girls, 13 - 18 years — 1, Vicki Wall; 2, Janice Halverson.

Boys, 13-18 years—No entries.

Fancy adult, ladies—Miss Bernice Syvrud.

Fancy adult, gentlemen—Harry Mosby.

Authentic lady—Vi Gauglein.

Authentic gentleman — Larry Willson.

Family—Lars Rude Family.

A special award was [illegible] to Diane Tiedemann for most authentic child's costume

Sacred auxiliary says 'farewell' to Mrs. Story

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — The Social Credit Ladies Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting, at the home of Mrs. William Rurka, June 20th.

During the afternoon a farewell gift of four centennial coffee mugs was presented to Mrs. Arthur Story who will soon be leaving to make her future home in Edmonton. Mrs. Story, who has been a member for many years, has also been president of the Ladies Auxiliary for the past 11 years, and was also given a hearty vote of thanks for her efforts and work with the organization She thanked the ladies for their gift and good-wishes and extended an invitation for them to visit her when in Edmonton.

The group will recess for two months and have their next meeting, September 19 h

Showcase 67 jottings

There was something for everyone, young and old alike, at the "Showcase 67" celebration in Tofield on Saturday.

Attractions for the kiddies included rides, with both a ferris wheel and a pony ride competing for attention.

The Tofield Gun Club had a display of firearms, many of them quite old, on hand to attract considerable attention.

A Civil Defence display, with equipment, pictures, and sound effects attracted a steady stream of visitors.

A bar-b-que starting at 4:30 p.m. drew a long line of hungry people, and as late as 7.00 o'clock were still serving a line-up. The beef had been placed in the pit early in the morning, and was served with generous helpings of beans and potatoes.

One hundred and eighty oldtimers (1917 or before) were registered in attendance by the Tofield Historical Society, 45 of whom resided in Tofield in or before 1905.

The handicraft display aroused much interest. An old wedding dress and veil were special attractions.

Linda Lehman of Ryley was winner of the gate prize, a transistor radio. Linda was declared the winner when the holder of the first ticket drawn failed to show up in the alloted time.

A MAJOR CHALLENGE

By 1975 the demand for Canada's wood and fibre products will have increased by 50% and by 2,000 about 400% compared to today. This means that a higher degree of forest management must be practiced now if we are to meet the demands of the next 33 years.

Floats had appeal

Visitors to Tofield on Saturday, and there were many of them, certainly enjoyed themselves in the day long celebrations There was a bit of something for everyone, starting with the big parade in the morning.

While most of the entries in the float contest were excellent, three in particular stood out. The Town of Tofield's was easily the most pleasant to the eye, while the Tofield School float was the nicest to the ear, as it was loaded with young children singing. The float that attracted quite a bit of attention, along with many laughs was the one entered by the Municipal Hospital.

Entitled 'Birth of a Nation', this float depicted the work of the midwife at the turn of the century. That it was done in a humorous fashion added to the appeal of the float. A float such as this does much to dispel the notion that hospitals, and the people working there are drab and colorless. You may recall last year's entry by the Municipal Hospital, showing the results of the 'pill'. It was also portrayed in a humorous vein.

A very busy day

While the cutting horse and jumping sweepstakes attracted large crowds, easily the most popular attraction offered was the senior baseball tournament, with teams entered from Tofield, Round Hill, Camrose, Viking and Bardo. To make it even more appealing for the home town fans, their Lions roared mightily and emerged the champions of the day.

About the only fault one could find with the day's celebrations was that it was too busy. With so many events taking place, some of them over-lapping on each other, it was impossible to fully appreciate or attend them all. For instance, we never did get to see the tug-of-war contest, because it simply couldn't be fitted in. Many displays were on hand, but, because of the events scheduled, they couldn't be seen unless one gave up one or more of the various activities going on. It might be advisable in the future, to have a little less scheduled.

Queen of Queens

One of the pleasanter aspects of 'Showcase 67' was [illegible] meeting Queen Petra. The Town of Tofield is to be congratulated on their selection of a centennial queen. The fact that she is a little older than the usual queens selected for such honors make her appeal even greater.

Probably one of her biggest triumphs since becoming Queen was a tour she made of Bethany Nursing Home and Hospital in Camrose. Comments such as "She's wonderful", "A real queen in every sense of the word", "She's real", floated from one end of Bethany to the other. Probably the most appealing came from a little old lady in a wheelchair who said with wide eyes and a touch of awe in her voice "I never thought I'd ever meet a real queen. This is the happiest day of my life." A fine lady and an excellent good-will ambassador for Tofield.

Clean up the abuses

While Ottawa is busy scheming ways to extract more tax dollars from us, it seems at least some of the army of bureaucrats would be well advised to spend a bit of time figuring out how to avoid some of the abuses which run away with the tax dollars now

We're thinking of unemployment insurance at the moment, and wondering why there couldn't be, and if there should not be, some level of annual income which would disqualify a man from collecting unemployment insurance.

Indications are that too many workers in seasonal occupations put in six, seven or eight months at more or less premium rates of pay, then take the slack season of the year off, in a more or less contrived lay-off, enjoying an extended holiday while collecting unemployment insurance

If there were a basic exclusion above, say, four or five thousand dollars a year, the fund probably wouldn't be raided so severely, nor would long-time, and full-time workers have to pay in so much to keep the loafers going. There are many stories current from time to time, but one which offends us most is that of a seasonal worker who picked up more than seven thousand dollars last year during a seven or eight month season then "whiled away" the winter on unemployment insurance

The original concept was to provide a fund for relief of the distressed workers, not a holiday savings plan

Lions win 'Showcase 67' tournament in Tofield

Tofield Lions whipped Camrose Cubs 11-7 on Saturday in Tofield to win the Showcase '67 baseball tournament, going undefeated in three games.

Larry Murray went all the way for the Lions, giving up a total of 15 hits, while walking only one and striking out 13.

Harvey Adamson was the starting pitcher for the Cubs, being relieved by Lorne Kendall in the third inning. Kendall was charged with the loss. Between them they gave up a total of 12 hits, walked eight and struck out three.

The only home run of the day came in this game, as Ed Williams of the Lions and Wally Reynolds of the Cubs connected for circuit blows.

Earlier in the tournament, Tofield whipped Round Hill 7-1, with Williams picking up the win. Fidler paced the team at the plate with two hits in three trips.

Camrose Cubs blanked Ryley 8-0 as Wilson tossed a neat two-hitter while striking out 16 and issuing no free passes. He struck out the first ten batters he faced.

In the semi-finals, Tofield doubled Bardo to the tune of 8-4. Ed Williams and Larry Murray each had two hits in three trips to pace the winners' attack.

'Pinnacle' still tops in jumping sweepstakes

The jumping sweepstakes and cutting horse competitions were held during "Showcase 67" with a large crowd on hand.

Lena Joe, ridden by John Vent of Millet, finished first in the cutting horse competition with a total of 290 points.

Second was Royal Tate, ridden by Len Perry of Edmonton, with 287 points, while Tex, ridden by Dr. Hugh Harrys of Edmonton, finished third with 285 points.

The Tofield Cutting Horse Trophy was presented to John Vent by Horace Seller.

The jumping events were divided into two groups, intermediate and open. Charlie Brown, ridden by Phillip Ross of Evansburg, finished on top in the intermediate group, while Pinnacle, an 18-year-old veteran, also ridden by Phillip Ross, finished first in the open group.

Mischiefmaker, ridden by Eleanor McGowan of Edmonton, finished second in the intermediate group, while Gold Sir, ridden by Sharon Gray of Edmonton, finished in third place.

Although finishing first in the open class, Pinnacle was pushed hard by Brown Sir, ridden by Sharon Gray. Both finished in a tie for first place with no faults at the conclusion of regular jumps. It was only after the bars were raised the third time that Pinnacle managed to finish on top.

Irish Mist, ridden by Jim Kline of Edmonton, and John Peel, ridden by Peter Swailes, finished in a tie for third place.

The Tofield Jumping Sweepstakes Trophy was presented to Phillip Ross by Horace Seller.

Master of ceremonies for this occasion was Len Gray of Edmonton, and judges were Ray Allard and John Swailes.

Tofield & Ryley win honors in minor ball

Tofield and Ryley split the minor ball championships played in Tofield as part of "Showcase 67" on Saturday.

Tofield won both midget titles as they outslugged Viking 24-20 in Midget "B", and whipped Holden to annex Midget "A" honors.

Ryley won the titles in the Little League and Pony League playoffs by beating Tofield in the finals in both groups.

The oldest trees in the world are the Bristlecone Pines of California, a few of which are 4,500 years old.

Lakeshore - McKenzie

(E. Wood)

Mrs. Ellen Eaton left on [illegible] day for Tomahawk after receiving word of the sudden death of her brother, Ed Campbell who resided there.

Visitors early this week at Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ferguson's home were his parent, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Ferguson of Devon who attended the centennial sports days in Tofield and remained to stay until Tuesday with Ed and family. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson of Lethbridge drove them here from Devon.

Another old-time Lakeshore resident who was here for the July 1st celebration was Bunny Harriman from Everson, Washington. He and Mrs. Harriman are visiting relatives in the Tofield area.

Mrs. Edith Cartledge, formerly Edith Riley, arrived by plane last Friday from Spokane to visit with the Melvin Rileys until Tuesday. On Sunday afternoon she and Mrs. Riley were visitors with Mrs. Eaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ball Sr. of [illegible] celebrations and stayed over to visit this week with the Elmer Googleins.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Moss drove to Calgary on Monday to take their daughter, Mrs. Langille, and children home after a week's stay here with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Goubault and Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Goubault arrived at the John Woods home on Sunday. They continued on to Calgary and points south planning to go into the United States before returning to Drayton Valley after holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Eaton and children were visitors with Mrs. Eaton on Monday. They stayed until Tuesday and Mrs. Eaton went back with them to Edmonton on her way to Tomahawk.

Sharon Rudzki came home from University Hospital in Edmonton on Tuesday and is feeling much improved. She will be returning to hospital for surgery in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jacobsen of Edmonton motored here to visit the Carl Jacobsens on Tuesday afternoon, bringing Donna and Clarice with them. The girls spent a couple of days at home.

Several neighbors called at the Verlyn Moos home on Tuesday to wish Ollie a happy birthday, and have tea with her.

Enter the Tournament of Roses by July 10

Entries for the Tournament of Roses at Victoria Golf Club on July 15 should be submitted to the secretary-treasurer of Camrose Chamber of Commerce, not later than Monday, July 10. This was stressed by vice-president Dr. Hambly at the Chamber of Commerce meeting on Tuesday night.

Two trophies have been purchased and inscribed, one for the ladies and one for the men. All ladies taking part will receive a rose, and a smorgasbord will be served. The tournament is open to non-members of the club.

Wood rot is most common where wood becomes alternately wet and dry. Wood kept continuously dry, or completely emerged in water resists most decay.

The Ryley Times

Legion auxiliary has new members

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY — At a very impressive ceremon at the Ryley Legion Hall on June 15th, five new members were installed into the Legion Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion, Ryley Branch No. 192. The new members are: Mrs. G. Teske, Mrs. P. Hall, Mrs. K. Murray, Mrs E. Chappell and Mrs. F. Whitham. Still to be installed is Mrs. P. Smethurst.

Also at this time, past president pins were presented to Mrs. J. Robinson, the charter president, now in New Zealand, Mrs W. Somerset, Mrs. G. Kirkeland, and Mrs. N. Reid. Mrs. H. Hjelmer was unable to attend, and will be presented with her pin at a later date.

Mrs Kay McKenzie, district Commander of District 2 for the Ladies' Auxiliary, acted as installing officer, as well as presenting of pins. A delicious lunch at was served.

District news items from Ryley

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

Mr. and Mrs Rich Alastie took their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kolodychuk and sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Pollak to dinner at the Beechcomber in Edmonton before returning to Lynn Lake, Manitoba.

Visiting with Mr and Mrs. S. Kolodychuk on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Mel Kolodychuk of Camrose and Mr and Mrs. Ed Chandler from Bentley.

Eric Larson was taken to the Tofield hospital after he had the misfortune of injuring his elbow.

Mrs. A. Mamas, a long-time resident of Ryley, passed away after a lengthy illness. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, and one son in Edmonton, and five grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Krupelnicki and family and Mr and Mrs. Joe Bilyk were holidaying at Banff and Radium for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rokns and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rokns and families spent the weekend fishing at Moose Lake. They reported abundant rainfall there.

Mr. and Mrs E. Mishio and Mr and Mrs. Raymond Krupelnicki of Edmonton visited with their parents, Mr and Mrs. Frank Krupelnicki, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kondrowiski and son, Lyle, are visiting with Mr, and Mrs. John Kondrowiski.

Visiting at the Hans Neraasen home are Mr and Mrs. Doug Down and family of Athabasca and Kenny Neraasen of Billings, Montana.

Mr and Mrs. Hans Neraasen and Mrs. T Bruner motored to Drayton Valley for a family reunion in honor of Mrs. Minnie Hutcheon and family. Some 67 members of the Hutcheon family attended the dinner party.

A family re-union was held at the home of Mr and Mrs. Beottcher when their eight children came to visit at it their parents. It is the first time in 33 years that all the family has been together. They were Wilbert and John Beecther of Hamilton, Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beecther of Kingston, Ont. Mr and Mrs. Walter Beecther of Nanaimo, B.C. Albert Beecther of Ft. St. John, B.C. Art of Lac La Biche, Mr. and Mrs. L. Berthold of Hay Lakes, Mrs. M. Tanner and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tillapaugh of Edmonton. The 38 members of the Beecther family had a wonderful time at this re-union.

RAIN WOULD BE WELCOME

All th east of last week farmers in Tofield and surrounding districts were hoping there would be more rain before long. Warmer weather had brought the crops on and the grain was shooting out well at Ohnota and Ryley.

The anticipated yields of wheat were estimated at from 25 bushels to the acre at Ryley to 35 at Tofield. Highest yield of oats, 65 bushels, was expected at Ohnota, 60 at Tofield and 55 bushels at Bardo and Ryley.

There's nothing like a band

The Tofield Band under the direction of Staff/Sgt. Coates wend their merry way along Main St. in Tofield on their way to the Fairgrounds, leading the big parade as the town celebrates Canada's birthday and the start of 'Showcase 67'.
—Tofield Mercury Newsphoto.

Former Tofield son wins world's guitar marathon

Keith Knutson, formerly of Tofield, broke the world's record in a guitar playing marathon, when he played his guitar for 60 hours, 6¼ minutes.

Last year, the world's record was held by a group in Illinois, U.S.A. Keith beat this record by 10 hours, and was awarded a beautiful $360 Fender guitar.

Keith is Rhythm guitar player for Tofield's "The Rock Foundation" teen band, other members include Ken Kushnir (drums), Lawrence Selkich (bass guitar), Larry Tiedemann (lead guitarist and vocalist) "The Rock Foundation" played at the Tofield exhibition grounds on July 1st and their music was enjoyed by a large audience

Keith is residing in Edmonton now, where he is employed but still comes home to the Walter Tiedemann residence on weekends.

Keith will be playing with "The Rock Foundation" at Kingman tomorrow (July 14).

Colorful parade opens Ryley's 'Sports Day'

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY.—A large crowd gathered on the streets of Ryley on a beautiful morning, June 24, to watch a very colorful and entertaining Sports Day Parade.

The 26 entries were led by a 100 - piece - All - Girl Drum and Bugle Band, with six majorettes, from Edmonton. Their leader was Bob Nagel.

Upon entering the sports grounds, judging of the floats took place. Winners of the floats and other entries were, Commercial—Vern's Enterprizes of Bawlf; Non - commercial—Ryley 4-H Dairy Club, Best Costume—Peter and Lottie Cardinal; Best Junior Entry—Kevin Buggo and Billy Maaren.

The Girls' Band, majorettes and their leader entertained a large crowd with skillful drills, marches and band music, which was very much enjoyed.

The first ball game got underway at 11:00 a.m., when Ryley Pee-Wees defeated Tofield, 11-10. In senior baseball, Tofield defeated Bardo and Ryley defeated Round Hill.

In other games played, results were as follows:

Midget "A" — Ryley defeated Tofield 9-3.

Midget "B" — Ryley defeated Tofield 33-8.

Pony League—Ryley defeated Tofield 4-3

A concession booth served by ladies of the Rebekah Lodge was kept busy serving refreshments to the large crowd.

The barbecue operated by Ed Dorin, G. Tucke and N. Hoglund was most successful

A dance was held in the Community Hall to climax the day's activities.

$4500 Fellowship to Shirley Stinson

Miss Shirley Stinson R.N., M.N.A., B.Sc. in Nursing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stinson of Tofield, has been informed that she will receive the "Dr. Katherine McLaggan Award".

The award, presented in honor of Dr. McLaggan who was the President of the Canadian Nurses' Association, is a $4,500 Fellowship from the Canadian Nurses' Foundation.

Miss Stinson will use the Fellowship to aid in getting her Doctorate in Education which she is working on at Columbia University.

Miss Stinson received her early education in the Tofield School system before getting her R.N. at University Hospital in Edmonton. Following this she worked for four years at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto

She then returned to Edmonton, and the University of Alberta, where she earned her Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing. Following this, she went to Minneapolis where she obtained her Master's Nursing Association Degree

Quebec pupils arrive for visit in Beaver

County of Beaver Student Exchange program swung into action on Monday at 11:15, Edmonton, with the arrival at the CNR station of 12 girls and 12 boys in grades 10 and 11 and two escorts, coming from Iles de Madeleine, a group of islands on the east coast of Quebec.

Twenty-four boys and girls, accompanied by two chaperones from Iles-de-la-Madeleine, P.Q., are presently spending a week in the County of Beaver as part of the Federal Centennial Commission's Youth Travel Program.

The group, all French-speaking, arrived in Ryley on Monday afternoon prepared for a full schedule for their week-long stay.

Mr. and Mrs Jack Lampitt met the group and they were brought to Ryley by Coachways, where Ryley Lions Club were hosts for a dinner and get-together of host parents and corresponding family, served by four ladies' organizations of Ryley About half of the visitors could speak English, although Father Langry was linguistic.

On Tuesday, they toured Elk Island Park and then, on Wednesday, they attended a barbecue and gymkhana in their honor at the village of Bruce.

A program of sight-seeing and entertainment has been mapped out by County School Superintendent M. S. Bruce, and committee The students will leave for home July 17th

Tonight the Holden Elks Lodge and the Holden Teen Club are holding a dance for the visitors. Tomorrow they journey to Viking for a tour of the area and a chance to view the "Don Messer Show".

Prior to their departure on July 17 the group will tour the Alberta Game Farm and be guests at a going - away banquet in their honor.

During their week - long stay, the students will be guests at homes in Tofield, Ryley, Holden and Bruce.

On August 1st, the County of Beaver will send 24 youngsters to Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Burke of Tofield.

Lad wins award at St. John's Festival

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN.—Mrs. N. L. Campbell's grandson, Jimmie Campbell, youngest son of Mr and Mrs. Ken Campbell of Leduc, who attended the recent National Centennary Festival held at St Johns, New Brunswick, was awarded second prize of $500 in the Clarinet competition in which he was a contestant, Friday, July 7th.

Jimmie was the only contestant from the Prairies between Vancouver and Winnipeg to be able to compete in this festival, and was the youngest in his classes. He was to stay there a week and was one of the performers at a concert given for the Queen Mother on [illegible]y, July 11 Jimmie is hoping to attend Toronto University this Fall, where he will take Music.

Salesmanship sold to sellers from Tofield, Ryley and Holden

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you". Murray Bradshaw of Canadian Media Services included the quotation of the "Golden Rule" in his talk last night to over forty guests at the banquet given by the Tofield Mercury at the Tofield Community Centre.

The dinner was held as a preliminary to the "Bazaar of Values" which starts in this week's Tofield Mercury Sales staffs from businesses in Tofield, Holden and Ryley were in attendance

Mr Bradshaw told the group that any sales program can be killed by sales people. They must be able to give information about the products they sell; show loyalty to employer; like people and show interest in customer; answer questions specifically; [illegible] and points of view; inspire confidence in customers, especially in dealing with complaints and never argue with a difficult [illegible].

The "Bazaar of Values" program started today in Tofield, Ryley and Holden and will run for eight weeks. It is designed to promote better and bigger sales in these centres, and those taking part will display posters in their store window and be supplied with a publication, "Sales Pointers to Remember".

Camrose, Alberta.

Dear Mr. MacLean:

I wish to again express my thanks to your newspaper for the award I received in participating in your Centennial Quiz. I am also indebted to Mrs. Freebury and the Tofield Library in supplying the necessary research books.

Thanks again for conducting such a contest. I can honestly say I learned a great deal about this Canada of ours.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Bert Clark.

District news items from Ryley

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Alf Oas were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Petryshen Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Petryshen from North Surrey, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Petryshen Jr. of Ohaton, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kochan of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kushnerick of Camrose.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Seniuk motored to Saskatoon recently, stopping en route at Prince Albert and Lake Waskesiu National Park. They reported a lack of camp sites for camping tourists in the province of Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bareg were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Davick.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Seniuk, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kolodychuk and Mrs. A. Seniuk recently attended the funeral of a cousin in Mundare.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Manderson have returned from their holiday trip to Vancouver, B.C. They had good weather and an enjoyable trip.

Carol, Michael and Glenn Pollak of Edmonton visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kolodychuk, for a few days, while their parents took the IGA float to the Calgary Stampede. The float won first prize in the commercial class and first for the best float in the parade.

Handa and Brenda Brinker of Camrose are spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Seniuk.

Bethel congregation has quarterly meet

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY. — Bethel Lutheran Church congregation held their quarterly meeting on July 6th at the Parish Hall, when 16 members were present. President Geo Knudslien conducted the meeting and Pastor S. Rude led in devotion.

The Parish Council reported good progress in the building of the parsonage, and expressed thanks for the co-operation in the volunteer labor.

Hasting Lake Bible Camp is now in session. Harold Johanson and Ole Hagen were nominated to act as delegates to the Association meeting to be held July 19 at the lake. All members of the church are welcome to attend this meeting.

The members of Bethel Church would like to offer the services of its facilities and Pastor to the community. They would appreciate if Pastor Stanley Rude, President George Knudslien or Vice-President William Maaren be contacted in this matter. A donation for the use of the church facilities would also be appreciated.

Next meeting will be held in the Parish Hall on October 16th.

Holden and district news briefs

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brekstad of Winnipeg arrived Tuesday evening of last week to spend a two weeks' holiday with Leslie's parents, Mr and Mrs. Hans Brekstad. He is stationed with the RCAF at Winnipeg.

Mr and Mrs Robert Taylor and two children were Sunday visitors with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs G. H. Taylor.

Mr and Mrs. Alex Harris and family and Ralph Brekstad, all of Edmonton, were visitors for the holiday weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Brekstad.

Mr. and Mrs. David Andrews of Calgary visited relatives here during the holiday weekend and were overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanson. They also visited with David's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Andrews, who was a patient in the Viking Hospital.

Mr and Mrs. Lawrence Komarnisky spent the Dominion Day holiday weekend visiting at Banff.

Albert Jober and son were also visitors at Banff during the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Smorlie are away on a two-week holiday trip to Vancouver, making the trip by bus.

Visitors during the holiday weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Sizer, were Lorne Sizer, Mr and Mrs. Ronald Sizer and family and friends, all of Rycroft. With Lorne was Gary Olson of Rycroft, who visited with his family at Round Hill.

Mr and Mrs. Sam Black and family spent the holiday weekend visiting at Weyburn, Sask.

Lloyd Clark and his sister, Miss June Clark, left a week ago to spent the summer holidays visiting with their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Scott at Dawson Creek, B.C., and visiting other points in the north.

Mr. Rasko, formerly the accountant at the Royal Bank, left for Edmonton the end of last month, where he will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Story left for Edmonton on Thursday afternoon, after holding the auction sale of farm and household goods, July 5, and are getting settled in their home in the city. Arthur, who has retired from farming, recently sold the farm to Maurice Ruskenveld.

AT FUNERAL

Mrs. Helen Stecyk and her sister, Kay Semko of Edmonton, returned home June 27 by plane from Concord, California, where they visited with their sister, Mrs. Amelia Hall, and attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Harold Hall, who was drowned in a boating accident. A nephew, Lance Hall, returned with them and is visiting with relatives in Holden.

Miss Anne Appleby and Bruce Appleby spent the weekend with the Bert Applebys.

Lakeshore -

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

Mr. Whiting of Calgary, father of Mrs Joey (Eva) McLennan of Lakeshore, passed away suddenly on Monday afternoon. He and Mrs. Whiting had been visiting their daughter and family the past week or more and he was only taken to the hospital on Sunday.

Tom and Dorothy Campbell [illegible] sons of Tofield were Sunday visitors at the home of John and Mary Wood. Afternoon callers there were Doug and Vivian Murray of Tofield and Doug's sister Marjorie and Bill Kenny and two children of Rimbey.

Floyd and Louise Norton of Rocky Rapids motored here Sunday, bringing Ellen Eaton home from attending the funeral of her brother, Ed Campbell, there. Floyd and Louise went on to Ryley to visit relatives there.

Vi and Elmer Geoglein motored to Edmonton on Monday to take Vi's sister, Mrs. Lil Ball, home after she had visited Vi from July 1st to July 10.

Mr and Mrs. R. Burchard and Mrs. Alice Warner, all of Tofield, were Sunday visitors at the home of Elmer and Vi Geoglein.

Approximately ten ladies of this district were guests of Mrs. Ethel Wood on Monday at an afternoon farewell tea party in honor of Mrs. Joey (Eva) McLennan who, along with Joey and family, are leaving soon to make their home in the U.S.A.

Johnny and Gloria Wood and daughter Cathy motored to Glendon on Sunday to spend the day with Johnny's cousin Jimmy and Donna MacDonald.

Geo and Ida Niemetz motored to Edmonton on Sunday afternoon and were guests at the home of their daughter, Gail and Bob Ozubko, there.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Ernie Collins returned to his home Monday, after spending ten days in the Tofield Hospital.

Call for generous rain in all areas

At the end of last week, Tofield and surrounding districts were in need of a good rain if crops were to continue as well as they started. There were only scattered showers in all areas.

At Ryley, some late crops seeded on stubble were showing evidence of lack of moisture. South of the town, hail caused slight damage on July 6.

Holden reported .75-in. of rain during the week, but showers varied throughout the district from 1-in. to none at all.

Crops appeared to be most advanced in the Shonts area where they were all in normal condition, but farmers were needing rain to take care of the heavy growth. The same situation existed around Bardo.

'Farm Safety Week' July 23rd to 29th

One to a customer

Mrs. Archie Corliss, Holden, takes some sheets with 'sales tips' from Eugene Th'rsk of The Mercury while her husband smiles in approval. The 'tips' were passed out during a sales clinic in Tofield, held in conjunction with the 'Bazaar of Values'. —Tofield Mercury Newsphoto.

Next week is Farm Safety Week in Canada. The National Safety League suggests that this would be a good time for all farm people to check and correct the numerous accident hazards that are a constant threat to their physical and economical well-being.

P. G. McLaren, the League's General Manager, declares that, "The best insurance against the disastrous effects of farm accidents is to get rid of all possible hazards, both the obvious and the more subtle ones".

Listing some of the more obvious and subtle hazards to watch for, he included fuel tanks too close to buildings, menacing "jaws" of equipment, a mean bull, cracked ladder rung, broken floor or steps, oily rags in a closed space, toxic chemicals, and overloading electrical outlets.

In 1965 Canada had 281 fatalities due to machinery. Of this total, 126 of these accidents occurred on farms, with the remaining 88 taking place on industrial premises.

One piece of machinery that causes 50 deaths annually is the farm tractor.

National Safety League officials point out that it takes a tractor only two seconds to tip. Mr. McLaren reports that when a tractor has reached the point of no return, only seven-tenths of a second are needed to complete the roll-over. Thus, the operator's chances of jumping clear are very slim. Mr. McLaren strongly recommends the use of safety belts on all tractors.

Remember, the life you save may be your own. Observe "FARM SAFETY WEEK" all year long.

Quebec students return after a week in Beaver

Twenty-four students from Iles de la Madeleine, P.Q., left for home on Monday following a week of tours and entertainment in the County of Beaver.

The students, accompanied by two chaperones, were part of the Federal Centennial Commission's Youth Travel Program for 1967. On the first of August, the County of Beaver will send 24 students and two adults to Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

The students had a busy week; arriving in Ryley on Monday, July 10, where they were guests of honor at a dinner, and got acquainted with their "host parents" for their stay in Beaver.

During their stay, they toured Elk Island Park, attended a barbecue and gymkhana in Bruce, and were guests of honor of the Holden Elks Lodge and Teen Club for a dance in that community.

Then they toured the Tofield area and visited the Alberta Game Farm, where they attended a going-away banquet held in their honor.

The students from the County of Beaver who will be going to Sault Ste. Marie, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rurka of Tofield, will be: Roland Balzer, Ronald Foshaug, William Sears, June Christensen, Karen Davison and Marjorie Moore, all of Tofield; Garry Kropielnicki, Thomas Annabo, Sharon Mizera and Linda Cross, all of Ryley; Jerry Lozynsky, Marvin Semotiuk, Donald Kondrat, Theresa Kawiliak and Judith Rurka, all of Holden; William Stambaugh and Stanley Koppel, of Bruce; Blaine Greenwood and Betty Oakes, of Kinsella; Harvey Stroeder, Judith Hill, Monica-Ann Slavik and Darlene Ottoson, all of Viking; and Lorraine Mast, of Vegreville.

Freak storm wallops Tofield on Tuesday

A freak hailstorm on Tuesday evening caused heavy damage to gardens and trees in the Tofield area.

The hailstorm was accompanied by high winds and heavy rain. Over one-quarter of an inch of rain fell in the few minutes the storm lasted. Although the rain may have been beneficial to crops, early reports did not state whether the hail and wind did any damage.

The hail stones that fell were said to be quite large, with some still being visible between buildings on Wednesday afternoon.

No damage to buildings or other property was reported.

Drought continues, rain need 'urgent'

Rain fell in all areas except Tofield last week, although most rainfalls were reported to be light.

Conditions in all areas remain the same. Rain is urgently needed. Crop loss due to drought ranges from about 4% in Shonts to about 10% in both Tofield and Bardo. It is reported that unless a good rain falls within the next week, crop yields will drop considerably.

Haying is going on in all areas, with reasonably good crops being reported. Conditions for haying are ideal.

Frances Schultz wins trip to Expo

Frances Schultz has been awarded a three week trip to Ontario and Quebec through her previous attendance at the Gold-eye Camp. She, along with twenty-three other boys and girls from Alberta left Edmonton July 19th, spending four days at Expo, as well as touring Ontario and Quebec farms and returning August 9th.

Certain citizens to be honored during this year

The Government of Alberta Centennial Committee plans to honor citizens of 100 years of age or more who reach those years in 1967, or posthumously if they are deceased.

The Centennial Committee is also desirous of acknowledging outstanding contributions made by certain individuals and organizations in communities during this year.

Any person knowing individuals falling into the 'century' age group are asked to submit names to the Government of Alberta Centennial Committee.

With regard to those contributing greatly to centennial year, they should be chosen on a highly selective basis in each community. A brief description of the part played by them was requested for adding to the achievement scrolls which they will receive.

Join as 'individuals' says Health Director

Though the Alberta Health Plan is now in effect throughout the province, Alberta residents may still register as individuals. Dr. J. A. D. Paul, Health Plan medical director, says many people are under the impression that registration has been closed since July 1, the plan's effective date. However, anyone can register at any time in the Alberta Health Plan with benefits becoming effective immediately the application is filed.

Dr. Paul adds that if optional benefits are not taken out at the time the basic coverage is purchased, or if additional options are desired, they may be added on October 1, January 1, April 1 and July 1.

Pensioners are supplied by the Alberta Health Plan with basic health services along with certain options, if these are not otherwise provided, and they continue to use their Hospitalization and Medical Services card to obtain certain additional services.

'Mr. 79' to iump at Pan-Am

A horse born and raised in Camrose has the distinct honor of being the only horse in Western Canada nominated for Canada's Nation's Cup high jumping team to compete in the Pan American games at Winnipeg, beginning next week.

Hal Yerxa's "Mr. 79", a beautiful fine-limbed horse, and a real athlete, has won laurels in jumping at many events in Canada and the United States, including Toronto, Buffalo, New York and Detroit. On the basis of these championship wins, the horse was nominated for the Pan-Am competitions.

In the games at Winnipeg, "Mr. 79" will be ridden by Jimmy Day of Toronto, North American jumping champion. The Nation's Cup competition is the main event, featuring high jumping, with finals on August 6. The event is virtually a world championship event, as many countries, including Germany, Mexico, United States, Canada and others are competing for the Cup. A win in the Pan-Am jumping would mean "Mr. 79" would be eligible to go to the Olympics in Mexico in 1968.

Originally named "Gerry-John" after the Yerxa's two sons, the name of the pony was later changed to "Mr. 79", the frequency of the local radio station.

Know your country

A visit to Beaver County by twenty-four French speaking students from the Province of Quebec, coupled with a visit next month by County of Beaver students to Sault Sainte Marie, Ontario, should do much to help our younger Canadians understand their own country.

Canadians often laugh at the answers Americans give to questions about Canada. But instead of laughing, we should take a long hard look at our own knowledge about this vast country of ours. We would find that our learning has not been as extensive as we thought.

This lack of knowledge is prominent to Canadians moving from one part of the country to another. We find our ideas about different areas to be vastly different to what we expected to find. The Canadian Tourist Association really has a good idea when they say "See Canada first".

Adding speed

For the first time in forty years, reports an eastern financial writer, the federal government has had to pay more than six ... a bond. ... to anyone ... interest rates, ... better terms than can the government. If the government pays more, then obviously the rest of us must follow suit.

The $175,000,000 issue, attractively priced, was quickly sold out. Not only were the price and interest good, but there has been a lack of new bond issues for several weeks.

In the face of a ... market for ... to help keep the cost of borrowing down.

No time to think

It takes less than two seconds for a tractor to tip.

Does this sound startling? Then listen: When a tractor has reached the point of no return, only seven-tenths of a second are needed to complete the roll-over. The operator's chances of jumping clear are very slim.

Some production model tractors are currently offering protective frames as standard equipment, and it is felt that competition may soon force all manufacturers to offer them.

But we predict the big pressure won't likely come until the farm wife insists on this extra precaution to protect the breadwinner in what is recognized as one of the more hazardous fields.

Shown above are Lieutenant Governor Dr. J. W. Grant MacEwan at Boy Scouts Camp Woods on Sylvan Lake, as he spoke to the boys and assembled crowd.

Nearly 1400 boys representing the Territories and every province in Canada, and the United States at a signal came from the wooded area surrounding the platform, and gave the Lieutenant Governor a tremendous welcome. The clearing where this event took place was made during the past year. A surprise for the Lieut. Gov. was the naming of the area 'MacEwan Landing'. During the week each boy will contribute one rock and from these a cairn will be erected to permanently mark the special occasion.

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

Services continue at the United Church with student minister Ian McCullough in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Peterson were pleasantly surprised last week when Mr. and Mrs. Don McIntosh of Cooksville, Ontario spent five days with them. Pat and Don were Air Force buddies in World War Two.

A large bonfire and wiener roast, sponsored by the community club was enjoyed by many on the Jim Holmes farm last Sunday evening.

The skating rink took on a new look on Saturday morning when those who were free to wield paint brushes gave it a coat of paint. Unfortunately they ran out of paint but will obtain more and finish the job at a later date.

FRACTURES ARM

Mr. and Mrs. Baden Bowerman and boys spent the week end at their farm home here. The visit was marred, however when young Brent fell from his pony fracturing his arm.

Kelly McIntyre of Westward Ho' and Stephen McIntyre of Devon spent a week with their grandparents at the store, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre.

In a ball game between Hastings Lake and Ministik on Sunday, Ministik were the victors by a score of 15 to 6. In the rained-out game played Monday evening, Ministik was again the victors with a tally of 16 to 4.

Gordon Kiltoyle has sold his farm and will be holding an auction sale in the near future. The new occupants are Mr. and Mrs. Claus Bobke, recently of Kitchener, Ontario.

Edna Roddick is spending a few day's vacation at the home of her parents, the Jim Roddicks.

Grant Pearce was flown to Rainbow Lake last Tuesday by PWA, where he will be working for the company for three weeks.

(Intended for last week)

Communion services were conducted Sunday at the United Church by Rev. E. Thompson of St. Stephen's College, Edmonton.

Recent word has been received of two former students in our parish. The Rev. Roger York was married in Newfoundland last week; and Tom Powell, who conducted services last winter, will be united in marriage to Miss Betty Mae Birch of Hudson Bay, Sask., a girl whom we met at services through the winter.

Mrs. Annie Oliver, who had been a patient in Tofield Hospital for several days, returned to her home on Wednesday.

Alex Ross and his sister Bella, of Edmonton, spent three days at the weekend in Calgary, visiting relatives and attending the Stampede, with a side trip to Banff and vicinity. It was a most enjoyable weekend for both.

Several people from here attended the annual Hastings Lake picnic, and although no races could be run due to the heavy rain, nevertheless those in attendance had a most enjoyable day.

Mrs. Andrew Ferguson was in Edmonton on Thursday visiting her sister, Mrs. R. Inglis, in hospital.

Melvin Loch enjoyed good fishing last weekend at Moose Lake, near Therrien.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

By Roberta Lee

Q. Is it proper to mail birth announcements to all one's friends even to those whom one has already phoned the good news?

A. Seems rather unnecessary to mail announcements to those who already know the news—except perhaps when you have an especially "cute" or novel sort of printed [illegible]

Q. What are the most proper forms of introducing a man and a woman?

A. Either, "Miss Gray, may I present Mr. Ford?" Or, "Miss Gray, Mr. Ford." Observe that in both forms the woman's name is mentioned first.

Q. When refilling waterglasses at the dinner table, should they be lifted or left on the table while pouring the water?

A. Left on the table.

Q. Just what is expected of the parents of a newly engaged couple?

A. The man's parents should call immediately within two or three days if possible, on the girl and her parents. Should they live in another city, a letter usually from the mother of the man, should be written to the girl to welcome her into their family.

Q. May a formally engraved invitation be properly acknowledged on the typewriter?

A. Never! Always answer formal invitations by handwritten note.

Former district woman, Mrs. Nettie Moen dies

Mrs. Annette (Nettie) Moen of Camrose, formerly of the Tofield district, passed away in Camrose on July 4 at the age of 74 years. She was born in the U.S.A. and came to Canada with her parents to the Tofield district in the early 1900's. She was married to Einar Moen in 1911. They farmed in the Tofield district until 9 years ago, when she moved to Camrose, where she resided until her passing.

She is survived by two daughters, Edna (Mrs. Gjerde) and Myrtle (Mrs. Murray) both of Camrose; and by two sons, Hilmer of Vancouver and Marvin of Camrose; 12 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; three sisters, and six brothers.

Funeral services were held Friday, July 7, at 2:00 p.m. from Messiah Lutheran Church, Camrose, with Rev. G. Ostrem officiating. Interment was at the Amisk Creek Cemetery. Burgar Funeral Home, Camrose, is in charge of arrangements.

Holden and district news briefs

(Intended for last week)
(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Postmaster Gene Bilyk is on holidays, and Mrs. Irene Strilchuk is assisting at the post office during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hurum and their son and family, the Lawrence Hurums, have been on holidays, returning home the end of last week. They drove to various points in British Columbia, visiting with relatives and friends at Vancouver and White Rock. During their trip they called on Mrs. Lamb and family at Penticton, former Holden and district residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hardy with Mrs. Hardy's sister, Mrs. Margaret Phillips of Viking, left the end of June for a holiday at points in Eastern Canada. They planned to stop in Ottawa to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lew Rushenvold, former Holden residents, and possibly spend a few days at Expo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Olson were home over the weekend. Mr. Olson is in Edmonton marking examination papers, and Mrs. Olson is staying and visiting with her family and friends in the city.

Mrs. C. Hammer and children of Viking were visiting at the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Mabel Sizer.

Visitors at the home of Chris Hovland and sons Ray and Reuben, on July 2nd, were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bray and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hoveland of Camrose.

Pastor and Mrs. Heinemann and children of Vegreville were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiedemann last Thursday.

Art Siegal and his sister, Mrs. Martha Hurum of Edmonton, were visitors last week, calling on friends in the village and in the district.

PIONEER GROUP MEETS

The Pioneer Group held their monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. L. Campbell, with Mrs. Peter Jakabow being hostess, and ten members and visitors present. Mrs. Campbell was in charge of devotions. They were sorry to lose one of their long-time members, Mrs. Arthur Story, who has left to make her future home in Edmonton. The next meeting will be held on September 7th at the home of Mrs. Mary Hooper.

Clyde Afseth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Afseth, left a week ago to visit with his grandfather and uncle at Outlook, Sask., for several weeks.

WINS BUTTER TROPHY

Francis Olson, manager of the N.A.D.P. Creamery at Andrew, and his staff, won the championship trophy for highest score for butter at the recent exhibition held at Brandon, Manitoba. Mr. Olson is a former Holden resident and worked in the creamery here.

Gene Bilyk and the older boys left on a fishing trip Sunday, to the Edson and Erith district, for a few days.

Joe Knudson of the south Ryley district and Emil Jensen of Washington, D.C., called on Ray Hovland one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are presently visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knudson.

Mrs. Waunita McLennan and children of Powell River, B.C., who spent a week's holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kennie McLennan, returned home the end of last week.

DRAINAGE TRUSTEES MEET

The Holden Drainage District No. 1 held their regular monthly meeting on June 30th. Trustees Oscar Afseth, Hans Huseby and Nick Laskoski, and the secretary-treasurer, Ray Hovland, were present. The trustees discussed cutting brush along the drainage ditches, and the date for the annual inspection of all ditches by the trustees was set. This was held July 3rd. Next meeting will be held Friday, July 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Zuzak, who will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, July 23, are holding open house at their home in Holden and will be very pleased to see friends from the district during the afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 5:00.

Shades of the good old days

Centennial costumes are to be seen at every social event during 1967, but the cream of the crop were on display in Tofid when 'Showcase 67' was celebrated. These are just a few of the many costumes worn during the July 1st celebrations. — Tofield Mercury Newsphoto.

County Council briefs

Following are the minutes, in part, of the regular meeting of the Council of the County of Beaver No. 9, held Thursday, July 13:

Business Arising From Minutes

In regards to sale of Lot 13, Blk. 8, Plan 1587W, Kinsella, a letter from the Director of Tax Recovery was referred to the Council indicating that the sale price of $10 was considered too low. The Director felt that the sale should be equal to the appraised sale value of $30.

Cr. Johnston was of the opinion that the purchaser might increase his offer, and it was moved and carried that Cr. Johnston approach Ronald W. Culbert with the request that he increase his offer.

Concerning the Canadian Utilities Limited and the moving of power poles on the special contingency road north of Holden, the Council was advised that the poles had been moved, and that the old poles had been offered to the County for approximately $2 apiece. The secretary-treasurer had, after consulting Cr. Kropielnicki, agreed to pu chase of these poles by the County.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and the action concurred in.

In regards to the Centennial Grant, that the Town of Tofield was unable to use, it appeared that this grant could be used by the Holden Board of Trade and Kinsella, and the secretary-treasurer stated that he would get in contact with the Centennial Officer, and arranges for a meeting with representatives from the Kinsella and the Centennial Officer to see how this matter could best be handled.

In regards to Henry Field's complaint, Cr. Kropelnicki stated that he had instructed his grader operator to investigate this complaint, but that as yet he had no report on the situation.

In regards to the complaint of the Diesel Fuel oil supplied by Texaco Canada Ltd., the secretary-treasurer referred to the Council a letter from Mr. Markland, District Supervisor. The letter indicated that the proposed project would affect the unused road allowance between N.W. 28 and N.E. 29-49-13-W4th and the Council's approval was requested for this project. The letter stated that, should the road be opened in the future, Ducks Unlimited would build up the grade sufficiently high and install necessary culverts. The explanation given by Texaco Canada Ltd was not considered quite satisfactory, and it was moved and carried that the report be accepted and tabled for further consideration at a later meeting.

Correspondence

Correspondence from Ducks Unlimited concerning Wendmil Project No. 316-29, was referred to the Council. The letter indicated that the proposed project would affect the unused road allowance between N.W. 28 and N.E. 29-49-13-W4th and the Council's approval was requested for this project. The letter stated that, should the road be opened in the future, Ducks Unlimited would build up the grade sufficiently high and install necessary culverts. The explanation given by Texaco Canada Ltd was not considered quite satisfactory, and it was moved and carried that the report be accepted and tabled for further consideration at a later meeting.

Ryley pioneer passes at 88 yrs.

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

Mrs. K. H. (Kittie) Levi, 88, a pioneer of the Ryley district, died July 19th at the General Hospital in Edmonton.

Born Kittie Sykes in the United States, she married Joseph Levi in 1893 and came to Canada in 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi originally settled south of Ryley but moved into the town itself not long after coming to Canad.

Mrs. Levi lived in Ryley about forty years prior to moving to Edmonton. Her husband died in 1935.

Mrs. Levi is survived by two sons: Wendell of Los Angeles and Kenneth of Edmonton; five daughters: Mrs. Mary Doherty, Mrs. Nancy Jenkins, Mrs. Bertha Comer, Mrs. Edith Bryce, all of Edmonton, and Mrs. Anne Leslie of Wainwright; 25 grandchildren; 52 great-grandchildren; and a brother and a sister in the U.S.A.

Graveside funeral services were held July 25 at the Ryley Cemetery.

4-H boys serve tourists as centennial good-will

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

As a good will and courtesy to the tourists of Canada, the Ryley 4-H Boys Club dressed in centennial attire and having the campsite decorated with centennial flags and pennants served coffee, cold drinks and lunches to tourists free of charge.

The campsite is situated 12 miles east of Edmonton

Much credit for this good will measure is to be given to Brown's Store, Roth's Groceries, Verner's Bakery for their donations of food and the Variety Store for the centennial flags and pennants.

The boys had a guest book for the tourists' signatures.

A great deal of enjoyment was had by the boys serving and conversing with tourists from California, Michigan, Yukon, Prince Rupert, Ottawa, and many states and provinces of the USA and Canada.

Some rain in area, more still needed

Rainfall last week ranged from 40 inches at Ryley and Bardo to 2.4 inches in Tofield, improving the crops slightly, but still retarding the urgent need for more moisture

The estimated crop will probably be below average even if more rain falls in the next few days, but rain should insure a better yield than had been expected a week ago.

What in the Tofield and Ryley areas stands about 20 inches high, while in Bardo and Shonts, the height has reached 24 inches. Oats are ranging from a low of 18 inches in Shonts to a high of 36 inches in Ryley.

Barley has a low height of 18 inches in Bardo with a high of 13 inches in Tofield. The range in the rapeseed crop is even more pronounced, with a low of eight inches in Tofield and a high of 34 inches in Shonts.

Most areas report some loss to the drought, with Tofield having the heaviest loss at about 20%. In addition, Tofield reports a loss of about 3% due to hail damage.

Ryley 4-H Dairy Club has Achievement Day

(By Carolyn Hawkins)

On Wednesday, July 12, 1967, the Ryley 4-H Dairy Club held their Achievement Day. The judges, Ken Self, Nick Chomick and John Money, did an excellent job of placing the animals. The District Agriculturist, Frank Kehoe, was also in attendance.

In the Calf class Roger Oslund came first, Ken Hillerud second and Barry Sumbo third.

Placing first in the Yearling class was Roger Oslund, Barry Sumbo second and Don Chappell third.

Bob Dueck won first in the Two-Year-Old class, Ken Hillerud second and Jean Booth third.

Placing first in the Herd class was Ken Hillerud, Bob Dueck second and Jean Booth third.

In the Progeny or Dam class, Bob Dueck won first, Ken Hillerud second and Jean Booth third.

Lorne Booth came first with his steer calf, Ken Hillerud second and Jean Booth third.

In the Pee-Wee class, Barry Wegmanesan second and Marlene Magneson third.

A new feature this year was the Ex-Member Class, in which ex members showed calves. Dale Winsness won first, Brian Westmancost second and George Knudsein third.

Ken Hillerud had the best set of records and was also the efficiency winner.

In the Judging competition, Bob Dueck placed first, Roger Oslund second and Lorne Booth third.

Master Showman was Ken Hillerud.

The Ryley Dairy Club would like to thank the U.G.G. for paint, the donors of trophies, the ladies who helped in the booth and anyone else who helped make the day the success it was.

Gwen leaves on Sunday for Expo 'prize' trip

Gwen Jacobsen, 15 - year - old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Jacobsen, R.R.4 Tofield, will be leaving for her "prize" trip to Expo on Sunday.

Miss Jacobsen won a trip to Expo in an essay contest sponsored by the Dominion Stores Limited and will fly by Air Canada, leaving Edmonton airport on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

On her arrival in Montreal, she will be met by officials of Dominion Stores Limited and the lady who will be her chaperone for her stay at Expo. And then the fun and excitement of Expo is her's for five days.

All too soon, on Saturday, Aug 5, to be exact, Gwen will return home, landing at Edmonton airport at 7:30 p.m.

The Tofield Mercury's readers will be able to share in some of the excitement of Expo as Gwen has agreed to keep a diary of her stay in Montreal and this will be printed in The Mercury.

Beaver students go to Ontario Tuesday

Twenty-four County of Beaver students, accompanied by chaperones Mr and Mrs. Leo Ruka to Tofield, leave for Sault Ste Marie, Ontario, on Tuesday of next week

Their trip is part of the Federal Centennial Commission's Youth Travel Program for 1967. Just last week, students from Beaver had hosted a like number of visitors from Belle de la Madeleine, P.Q

The Beaver students leave on Tuesday, arriving in Sault Ste. Marie on Friday, where they will be met by students from senior high schools in the Ontario center

A fast-paced week of entertainment and tours has been arranged to keep the Beaver students on the move, so that they'll have plenty of memories to take with them when they leave.

John and Mary Wood, Johnny and Gloria Wood, Mrs. Ethel Wood and George Abernethy attended the wedding of John's nephew, David Rollans to Elaine Lake in Edmonton on Saturday afternoon. They were also guests at the reception later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kleen of Salem, Oregon and Mr. and Mrs Earl Cruikshank of Botha were Thursday guests at the home of Mrs. Ethel Wood.

The Lakeshore - McKenzie Community picnic has been postponed due to other events falling on that day, which would hinder several of the local families from attending. If possible a later date will be announced, or the picnic may be cancelled for this year.

Mrs. Elmer Jones was a Saturday afternoon visitor at the home of Roy and Ruth Wickenberg.

Glen Bailey of Golden Spike was a Saturday evening visitor at the home of Roy and Ruth Wickenberg in Tofield.

Ernie Collins was rushed to the Tofield Hospital Monday evening and from there to the University Hospital in Edmonton almost immediately.

Carl and Mavis Jacobsen and young daughter Karen were Sunday evening visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Arnold Nelson.

Hans and Martha Jacobsen of Edmonton were Sunday guests at the home of their son Carl and Mavis Jacobsen. Later in the afternoon they visited at the home of their son Morley and Marjorie Jacobsen before returning to the city.

Sunday guests at the home of Howard and Mae Ferguson were Mae's sister Marguerite and Don Bailey and son Brian of Edmonton and her mother Mrs. Roberts of Tofield. Brian stayed on the farm for a few days visiting with his cousin Nelson.

Emil and Mratha Tiedemann and two daughters, Lucille Tiedemann and Yvonne and Peter Brown and little son Daniel of Ketchamoot and Darrel Burtch of Edmonton motored to Drayton Valley where they were guests at the home of Martha's brother Robert and Dede Gouboult. During the afternoon they enjoyed a motor sight-seeing tour to the Brazeau Dam and area.

Larry Wickenberg of Lloydminster, who had been spending the weekend in Edmonton was a Monday visitor at the home of his grandparents Roy and Ruth Wickenberg in Tofield.

Mrs. Gloria Wood and Mrs. Mary Wood motored to Viking on Monday to the home of Mary's daughter Lorene and Jim Francis. Jimmy is a patient in the Viking Hospital, following a heart attack. Mary remained in Viking with Lorene and family for awhile.

Vi and Elmer Geoglein, Mrs. Alice Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Reid Burchard of Tofield were Sunday visitors at the home of Vi's sister, Mrs. Lil Ball of Edmonton. While there they enjoyed seeing the finish of the finals of the Klondike raft race from the river bank across from Lil's home.

HOME FROM CAMP

The several members of Holden Scout Troop, who attended the Scout Jamboree at Camp Woods, Sylvan Lake returned home Saturday after each having had a very enjoyable and instructive experience. Scouts from across Canada attended the Jamboree, with one from Inuvik and also a bus-load from the United States.

Mrs. Campbell's grandson, Jimmie Campbell of Leduc was the featured clarinet soloist at the Sunday afternoon concert at the Bordon Park Bandshell in Edmonton, given by the Edmonton Musicians Association, conducted by Ernest Dalwood. Jim is a pupil of Mr. Dalwood.

Duane Huseby has recently purchased his grandfather, Hans Huseby's farm and he and his wife will be making their home here when they return from holidays at Edson where they are visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Sena Fjelstrom was called to Edmonton a week ago when her mother, Mrs. Kjosness became very ill, but is now recovering slowly. Mrs. Kjosness is over 90 years old and resides in one of the nursing homes in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cooper and children are expected back the end of this week after holidaying for the past month at points in Eastern Canada and at Expo.

NEW BANK MANAGER

W. G. Langford of Halkirk, who has been appointed the new manager of the Holden Royal Bank, arrived last Thursday to acquaint himself with the duties and staff. Mr Langford will be taking over his new duties as manager the beginning of August when H. S. Beveridge will be retiring from the Royal Bank. Mr. Langford and his family moved into the bank residence over the weekend.

Mr and Mrs. Beveridge plan to stay in Holden for a year while Mrs. Beveridge will be teaching at Holden school until the end of the term of June 1968. They will be residing in the R. Lutz residence.

Mr. and Mrs Dennis Shavchook and young daughter, returned home Thursday after spending a two week holiday at Waterton Lakes National Park.

Ross Creek news

Several couples from here attended the wedding of Lillian Diduck and Donald Jabow at Mundare on Saturday.

Delores Schacher spent a few days with her Grandma Schacher in Edmonton and the weekend with Judy Franklin in Sherwood Park.

Allan McLachlan spent a few days in the city with his sisters, Maureen and Gayle.

Mrs. Bessie Pedersen, Freda and Robin Olsen of Edmonton visited relatives here on Saturday en route to Vegreville, to visit Bessie's daughter, Mrs. Doris Kushnerie who is a patient in the hospital.

To the Editor
Tofield Mercury
Dear Sir

According to statistics reported recently in magazines and newspapers across the country, the consumption of liquor in Canada had risen to an all-time high, with an average per capita of over 600 bottles of alcoholic beverages, not including wine, consumed last year.

An announcement of this kind is certainly an eye-opener, but is I think an affirmatory to the millions of people in the country who do not drink alcohol at all and some who drink very little — to be honest, the average puts the onus for indulging on every citizen, instead of where it properly belongs, on the persons who drink to excess. For every non-drinker in the country, it means that someone else is drinking his "share" and thus the true average of the drinking public is in reality much higher than statistics indicate; and it is with these higher figures that the community and country should deal in any measure to correct the alarming situation.

In the meantime, please, don't call those "average" who did not consume over 600 bottles of alcohol last year.

Yours truly,
—"Not Average".

THEIR OWN WAR. In this war there aren't any bullets or bombs, but according to farmers in Western Canada, it's a bitter battle. Temperature is in the high nineties and lack of rain has created a disastrous drought. Although the wheat crop will be down considerably this year there will still be enough to prevent any serious problems to the western economy. However, the "fifth guys" will suffer as their carryover from last year's record harvest will not be enough to carry them through the winter. — TMS Photo

County School Committee news

Following are the minutes (in part) of the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee meeting held Tuesday, July 11:

The Secretary-Treasurer reported to the Committee an account from Kinella Welding for a flag pole at the Kinsella School in the amount of $182.30.

It was moved and carried that the account be approved for payment.

Correspondence

Letter from Garry Krupienicki President of the Ryley 4-H Beef Club, thanking the County for having allowed the use of the bus garage at their achievement day and sale.

It was moved and carried that the letter be received and filed.

Letter from Mrs. Annie Burka of Holden, requesting that she be given a bus contract for the 1967-1968 school year, was referred to the Committee.

It was moved and carried that the request be approved and that if Mrs. Burka so desires, she be given a 3 year contract.

A list of buses for sale as compiled by the Bus Supervisor was referred to the School Committee at this time.

1954 G.M.C. - 30 passenger
1955 I.H.C. - 36 passenger
1956 I.H.C. - 42 passenger
1956 I.H.C. - 36 passenger
1956 I.H.C. - 36 passenger
1954 I.H.C. - 36 passenger
1957 G.M.C. - 42 passenger
1957 G.M.C. - 42 passenger

In this connection the Secretary-Treasurer mentioned to the School Committee that the Ryley Lions Club was very interested in obtaining a school bus to be used for transporting minor hockey teams, pee-wee baseball and other similar groups to and from games at various points in the area. He stated that at the present time it was often necessary to use five or six units for transporting hockey and baseball teams and that it was very difficult to obtain sufficient cars. If a bus was available it would be the intention of the Ryley Lions Club to take full responsibility of the bus, to make it available, with the driver and the gas and oil being paid by the organization using the bus, to any organization in the Village of Ryley and surrounding area. It is requested that the 1957 - 42 passenger bus be sold to the Ryley Lions Club at a nominal price. In this connection it was realized that, no doubt, when examinations at the various points within the County would be altered to similar arrangements, a bus would be required in the 1967 - 42 passenger school bus be sold to the Ryley Lions Club for $1.00 and that one or more units in each of the Towns, Villages and Hamlets within the County may receive similar consideration if they so desire.

The motion was carried unanimously.

The Secretary-Treasurer informed the Committee that the Department has now served notice that it will be necessary to have a new school bus for the Ryley district in operation by the commencement of the 1968-1969 school year.

The Superintendent's Report

The following resignations were noted: Mrs. Margaret E. Robertson, Mr. Jack B. Heistad, Mr. Howard J. Bleik, Miss Jane Keats, Miss Balvinder K. Panna, Mrs. Julia Chilbeck, Mr. Robert D. Land, Mr. Randy Nesa.

It was moved and carried that the resignations be accepted effective in July, 1967.

It was moved and carried that the following appointments be approved: Mr. Alexander Pawlenka, Mr. Ronald Keith Taylor, Miss Carol Ross, Mr. Herbert Lees.

It was moved and carried that the appointment of Mr. Harold U. Ross, as principal and high school teacher at Ryley be confirmed.

The Committee was informed

Southern 4-H'ers visit in district

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY — A bus load of 30 young people with chaperones from the vicinity of Taber will visit in the County of Beaver next week. Several of the southern Alberta 4-H'ers will be billeted in local homes for three nights.

Trips are planned to the Kinsella Ranch and the Alberta Game Farm. Sherrit Gordon Mines are sponsoring a banquet in Holden on Thursday, followed by a dance. Friday morning the group will be homeward bound.

Consumer gains offered in "Bazaar of Values"

The merchants advertising in the "BAZAAR OF VALUES" pages in this edition of The Mercury have long been aware of the value of the consumers of the Tofield Area.

They have known of the buying habits and skills of local consumers that have caused other communities to cast envious eyes in our direction. The merchants are even more aware of it, when they compare sales receipts and bank deposits with other communities.

Consumer knowledge keeps the Mercury Area merchants constantly on the alert looking for bigger and better values to attract the consumer into their places of business. Because of this alertness, they feel that they can offer to their customers, merchandise that would stand in other shopping centers for higher money.

You, the consumer, can shop in The Mercury Area with confidence. The merchants here are your friends. Their purpose is to supply you with the best quality merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

Shop the "BAZAAR OF VALUES" pages for your family needs be in The Mercury Area this week, for the tremendous savings offered by the merchants taking part in the "BAZAAR OF VALUES".

Crafts of Alberta to show in Holden

Mrs. G. Taylor

The Arts and Crafts Division Cultural Development Branch of the Alberta Provincial Government will be holding an exhibition of "Crafts of Alberta" in Holden, August 10, between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. This will be held in a large trailer on Main Street between 48th and 49th Avenue on the parking lot east of the hotel.

This is a free show and is well worth seeing. Many different arts will be shown, such as batik work, pottery, weaving, leatherwork and other handicrafts. Be sure to keep this date in mind.

Tofield farmers win prizes in Edmonton

Two Tofield men won honors in the steer and swine classes at the Edmonton Exhibition last week.

Harold Weatherill had a third place finish in the market steer class when he exhibited a Hereford steer.

In the commercial swine class, Thomas W. Jobs finished in second place with a Yorkshire entry.

Fourty children attend Vacation Bible School

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY — More than 40 Bible School students sang enthusiastically and well to a delighted audience at the closing program on Friday night at Bethel Lutheran Church.

The children had attended morning and afternoon classes all week in Kindergarten, Primary, Junior and Senior.

Mrs. T. Nordby's Kindergarten class had an interesting activity program. They learned that God gave them five senses, they learned the "stop - wait - go" of traffic lights and went uptown to learn the "stop - look - listen" in crossing streets. The youngsters learned about some helpers in the community namely firemen, and visited the Ryley Fire Hall to see the fire engine. The children learned that God created animals and birds, how a bird constructs a nest and made one themselves with twigs and grass.

The children also enjoyed a visit to the new parsonage.

Bible School teachers were Pastor Rude, Mrs. W. Hansen and Mrs. J. Nordby, assisted by Miss Patty Wood, Miss Carol Sutton and Mrs. G. Kanigan. Miss Monica Kanigan was the pianist.

Following the Friday night program, parents and friends inspected the children's books and crafts. Lunch was served to all present.

Mrs. Stinson unveils cairn at old school

Mr. and Mrs J. F. Stinson, returned Tuesday from a two-week holiday, accompanied by Mr. Stinson's sister, Mrs. R. A. Scott of Winnipeg, who will visit a while. During their trip and on July 16th, Mrs. Stinson assisted in unveiling a plaque and cairn at the site of Kenilo School District No. 6, at Abernethy, Saskatchewan. The School District was organized in 1904 and was the first rural school in the then Northwest Territories. Mrs. Stinson's mother attended the school in 1905, as a child and Mrs. Stinson took her public schooling there, and was a teacher from 1924 - 1925. The two buildings were erected on the site during the period of 81 years, the building now on the site was built in 1946 and operated until 1964.

While Mr. and Mrs. Stinson and Mrs. Scott were having breakfast in a restaurant in Saskatoon, on Tuesday last, they recognized the great hockey player, Bobby Hull of the Chicago Black Hawks in the same room. They have two autographs to memento.

Tofield pair marks 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs J. W. Robinson were guests of honor at a party given for them at the Holy Trinity Church Hall on Friday evening, to commemorate the 50th anniversary of their wedding. Time was spent visiting and reminiscing about life in the Tofield area at the Robinson home 50 years ago.

Lunch was served by the ladies, the highlight being a beautiful wedding anniversary cake, the gift of Mrs Dafoe and Mrs. Newland. On behalf of their many friends, Mrs. Joan Dunham presented a gift of chinaware to the "bride and groom" and expressed the good wishes of all for many more years of happiness to them and their family.

County School Committee news

that Mrs. Jane Wayne had tendered her resignation effective June 30, 1967 1. was moved and carried that Mrs. Wayne's resignation be accepted.

The report recommended that the schools in the County open on September 14, 1967 for the purpose of holding staff meetings and for general organization but that the pupils be not required to attend for regular classes until Tuesday, September 5th, 1967 at 9:00 a.m. It was moved and carried that the suggested arrangements be concluded on.

It was noted that the High School Principals had requested that hours of operation of the schools be altered so as to permit a 1 minute recess in the forenoon and in the afternoon. The report outlined three alternatives: 1 reduce the noon hour, 2 lengthen the noon hour, 3 length on the school day.

It appeared that the lengthening of the school day was the most satisfactory arrangement and it was moved and carried that principals be permitted to timetable in such a fashion that schools open at 9:05 a.m. but that closing time be not later than 3:40 p.m.

It was moved and carried that the following bursary applications be accepted: Thirty John Pullen-third, Sharon Hoovish-second, Vivian Carlson - second, Alec Al-krith-second, Earl Lindal Hilmer-first.

A letter from the Viking High School Students Union for a subsidy of $150.00 for their 1967 Yearbook was referred to the Committee.

It was moved and carried that the 1967 subsidy in the amount of $6000.00 be paid.

The report referred to the I.B.M. typewriters that had been set up in the budget to be purchased on a time payment plan. The Secretary-Treasurer had advised that the rate of interest was 7 per cent on this type purchase and, inasmuch as the County could borrow money at 6% per cent, he was of the opinion that, even if a deficit was incurred at the end of the year, the typewriters should be purchased on a cash basis. It was moved and carried that the recommendation be accepted and the typewriters purchased for cash.

In regards to the construction of the teacherages at Bruce and Viking it was reported that the progress was very satisfactory and that progress payments would be arranged for periodically as required.

Mr. Bruce referred to the purchase of necessary furniture such as stoves, refrigerators and other furniture and it was moved and carried that the matter be given for the purchase of necessary furnishings.

Mr. Bruce, in his report indicated that he had forward-ed a letter to Donald Oslo wi h respect to the completion of the teacherages in Ryley and that he had spoken on the telephone to Mr. Otto recently and Mr. Oto had stated that he would go in Ryley either July 11 or 12 to arrange to complete the work on the teacherages.

In regards to the landscaping at Ryley it was noted that Calgary Power had moved the power pole from back of the teacherages and that Watson Tofield had changed the service Nick Skibinski and his crew would do the landscaping and seeding of the lawn.

In regards to the Supervisor of Instruction Mr. Bruce recommended that Mr. Keith Rehorn commence his duties on August 21, 1967 to enable him to become acquainted with and orientated to his role prior to opening of school.

It was moved and carried that he recommendation be approved and that Mr. Keith Rehorn's term of employment be effective on Monday, August 21st, 1967.

The report indicated that additional office space was required and this was discussed at some considerable extent. The Superintendent as well as the Secretary - Treasurer indicated what was required. It was suggested that the Secretary - Treasurer be instructed to make enquiries as to the cost of erecting a building to meet the requirements and that the matter be brought back to the Committee at a later date.

County School Committee news

ported that possibly some preliminary sketch could be made in time for the August meeting.

In regards to the policy handbook it was noted that the policies and regulations were now ready for printing but that they should have the date upon which they were approved printed on them. The report suggested that all policies, that are now drawn up, should bear the date of the August 1967 School Committee meeting so that they could be adopted at that meeting.

Mr. Bruce's plans were to prepare the policy handbooks to be distributed as follows.

10 - School Committee members

1 - Secretary-Treasurer's Office, one to be retained

1 - Superintendent's office

18 - Teachers

1 - Principal's

6 - School Library

7 - Extra

The books were to be the property of the School Committee of the County of Beaver and would be stamped to that effect.

The recommendations were agreed to.

In regards to the Youth Travel Program the Committee was informed that the 24 students and 2 chaperones from Tees de la Madeleine had arrived at 12:45 a.m. on Monday, July 24th in Ryley; that all the host parents and host students had been present, and that a luncheon had been served in the Ryley Legion Hall for some 100 persons. The luncheon had been sponsored by the Ryley Lions Club with the able assistance of the UCW, the CWL, the LCW and the Legion Ladies Auxiliary.

Neil Reid, the Bus Supervisor, and Jack Stumbo would drive the buses that were being used to transport the students to and from the various activities.

Dr. Weatherill informed the Committee that the Town of Tofield was laying some new sidewalks and that parents had requested that a cross walk by Isaac's also be put in. The Town of Tofield had indicated that, for financial reasons, they were unable to accede to the request and the request had then been made to Dr. Weatherill for the County to install this crosswalk. It was felt that this was not necessary and it was moved and carried that the request be not granted.

The Secretary-Treasurer requested that the next School Committee meeting be held on Wednesday, August 9th as he had some personal business to attend to on Tuesday, August 8th.

It was moved and carried that the next meeting of the School Committee be held on Wednesday, August 9th.

'Farewell' honors A. Story family

Mrs. G. Taylor

On Saturday evening, July 15, a farewell party was held in the Holden Community Hall, to honor Mr. and Mrs Arthur Story who have sold their farm and moved to Edmonton. The Story family were one of the old time pioneer families in Holden district. The only member of the family now left in the district is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Story Calvin.

On entering the hall Doris and Arthur were presented with corsages and boutonnieres. On behalf of their many friends and in remembrance of their years in the Holden district, Lyle Greenwood presented the guests of honor with a purse of money and a set of 12 Centennial spoons with the wishes of all for many years of happiness in their new home.

Mr and Mrs. Koop Spanneburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Story of Edmonton were present at the party for their parents. Mr. Story is their brother-in-law and wife June of Winnipeg who were on holidays.

SUCCESSFUL PICNIC

The annual Spilstead picnic, sponsored by the Spilstead Ladies' Society, was considered to be a huge success. A large crowd gathered to watch several ball games, and races for all ages. A delightful pot luck supper was held in the hall at six o'clock. Many old timers of the district attended; also a number of the younger set, now married and living in Edmonton and as far away as Lac La Biche.

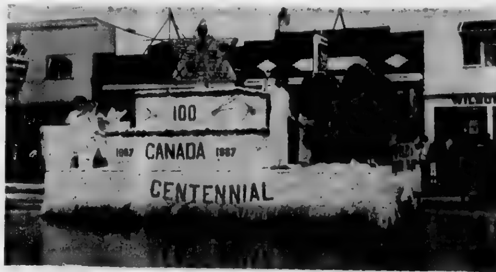
Local lumber company sold to Crown Lumber



Best centennial float The Ryley 4-H Dairy Club's float was judged best in the Centennial Class of the Camrose Fair Parade on Monday, in close competition with some other excellent entries. The artistic effort drew considerable comment on the streets, with the large 4-H crest in front slowly revolving as the members spun it by hand. —Camrose Canadian Newsphoto.

Charles F. Kallal, owner and manager of Kallal Lumber in Tofield [illegible] week the sale of his company to Crown Lumber Company Limited, division of Crown Zellerbach Canada Limited, with 38 branches throughout Alberta and Saskatchewan.

When contacted this week, Mr. Kallal expressed thanks to all his customers for their support over the years, and expressed the hope they would now make Crown Lumber their headquarters for all their building materials and needs.

Crown Lumber has had its own branch in Tofield for many years, General Manager R. P. Weeks of Crown Lumber's Calgary head office said this week, but more showroom and building materials storage was needed, and it was decided to make this purchase. Crown Lumber plans to build a new showroom - warehouse complex on the Kallal Lumber property and relocate their present operation. Construction is expected to begin immediately, and to be completed by early fall. Contractor is Watson (Tofield) Ltd. of Tofield.

Mr. Kallal, son of well-known cattleman, C. J. Kallal, was born in Tofield, and his Kallal Lumber has been part of the Tofield business community for 25 years. He said this week his plans for the future were to continue to operate his other enterprises in Tofield.

Gwen's trip to Expo

I was accompanied by eight girls from Vancouver and Edmonton on my flight to Montreal. The plane landed in Toronto for refuelling, then flew on to Montreal. We were in the air for about four hours. Upon arriving at Montreal airport we were met by our guide who took us to our hotel.

We stayed at Docarie Manor, an apartment hotel with complete dining and recreation facilities, including a heated swimming pool. Our group consisted of 33 girls from all across Canada.

Before visiting Expo, we were put in groups of four. During the week we spent Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at Expo. I'm happy to report that I had a chance to see most of the main pavilions. I particularly enjoyed the Telephone pavilion. This pavilion took its visitors across Canada by way of a movie of which included its viewer right into its picture.

I was, on a whole, very impressed with the wonders at Expo. Expo is one World's Fair that no one should miss since it reveals to us the wonders of the world we live in today.

On Wednesday, Aug. 2nd, as a side trip, we took a bus trip to Plattsburgh, New York. Here we spent the day at the beach bordering Lake Champlain.

On Friday evening, Aug. 4th, we went on a shopping trip to downtown Montreal. After shopping we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. E. O Harvison, Director of Public Relations, who was responsible for our wonderful trip. He flew all the way from Toronto just to have a few minutes with us. Mr. Harvison congratulated us on our achievements of which we had won over 1,000,000 entries. After singing a few old-time favorites and autographing our passports, he waved good-bye as he left to catch a plane home.

Saturday, Aug. 5th, the day I was scheduled to return home, left us free until departure time. One of my room-mates from Edmonton had a cousin in Ottawa who motored to Montreal and took us sight-seeing the city. Some of the sights we saw were McGill University, Botanical Gardens, along with Chinatown, which proved most enjoyable.

The flight home was wonderful as we were lucky to be able to see the scenery below, thus getting an aireo view of Canada.

I'd like to thank Dominion Stores for sponsoring this week-long trip to Expo 67. I had a wonderful time and brought many wonderful memories home with me.

Queen Petra's Party to be held August 18

(Grace Phillips)

Queen Petra is planning a party for her subjects! Anyone who wishes to attend is issued a cordial invitation to Queen Petra's coffee party on August 18th from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Queen's home.

This is to be an informal party. Queen Petra wishes all her friends to come "to have a cup of coffee (or tea) and a bite to eat" with her. She issues a special invitation to those willing workers who planted the trees in "Petra's Park", the project so dear to the heart of Tofield's Queen.

If the weather is fine on August 18th, Queen Petra will hold her party both inside her home and on the lawn. Should the weather be inclement, the party will be held indoors.

This, says Queen Petra, will be an informal, "come-as-you-are" party. So whether you are at work or on holidays, take your coffee break with the Queen. If you prefer to wear Centennial dress, by all means do so, but if you come in coveralls, you will be just as welcome.

Queen Petra is holding her Royal Coffee Party as a token of her appreciation for having had the honor of being Tofield's Centennial Queen. She would like to be able to say "[illegible] you" to all her friends on August 18th, and her royal request is sure to be obeyed by her loyal subjects.

CBC Strikes back

OTTAWA—Geneva Park, Lake Couchiching, Ont.—The publicly-owned CBC spends a good deal of its time, and some of its ample funds, fighting off criticism in Parliament and the press of its free-spending habits and administrative weaknesses in the top

Once a year, in cooperation with the Canadian Institute on Public Affairs, it strikes back with a curious sort of lunch-in of [illegible] to probing the deficiencies of other mass media and the politicians who vote tax money for its survival.

This year's Couchiching confer- ence, the 38th of its kind (the CBC has been a co-sponsor since 1961) attempted to lay bare the reality of politics, so heavily dosed with vice-presidents, producers, directors, free-lance contributors, cameramen, soundmen and head office secretaries to the conference fall presumably, at taxpayers' expense) amongst earnest Canadian flesh?

But the schism, the public relations people, the politicians particularly those of the old-line parties) and the press endured a constant barrage of vituperative assault.

The conference theme was "The Image or the Issue". This soon revealed itself as the dark suspicion that all, or at least most, was not what it seemed to be as presented by the gullible public in the form of advertising and daily news.

EXPOSING EYE

Although commercial television took its lumps for presenting crisis and tasteless, mercenary commercial messages, the cash-in issue was widely credited with exposing political chicanery, warts and all, in a way that the press never could, or would.

Newspapers, on the other hand, were accused of distortion and misrepresentation, of forsaking objective reporting for the more rewarding political cesspool, both in the news and editorial columns.

Not all this criticism came out of the blue. Some of the members of the conference had been collecting ammunition for months, with his own axe to grind for a particular target. Others made gratifying but delight in [illegible] the bandaging of critical wounds and got much of their ammo from their partisan opponents.

OVERKILL

The shrinking industry could

AIM AND DEFEND

Prominent representatives of the media were invited to pontificate and defend themselves from the shafts directed at them by their critics.

As might be expected, the CBC which sent a bountiful array of some 40 vice-presidents, producers, directors, free-lance contributors, cameramen, soundmen and head office secretaries to the con-for radical cervical attention. Rg smouk, two or three of them Barnard and some speakers, were charged with using politicians for the sole of directing rather than building major television campaigns, and of raising the cost of many staples of life by overselling them either in print or by broadcast means.

Only occasionally, and without great enthusiasm, were they also credited with fairness, standards and forcing the introduction of improved products by competition and greater value consciousness.

"If I weren't for automobile advertising," one unconventional housewife [illegible] "I'd still be driving a Model T." The admen on the platform all the time, George Sinclair of MacLaren's agency in Toronto, had the misfortune to appear.

ONLY PART OF THE TRUTH

Several public relations men, including Frank Mackerrow, assistant Robert Kennedy's image-maker in Washington and Don Peacock, Premier Robarts' old Windsor Star pressman, offered the rebuttal that their efforts are frequently only telling the truth about their clients' programs and policies. But many delegates appeared unconvinced.

As one young lady put it, in effect, "Public relations is what Lyndon Baines Johnson has refused to indulge in—but what everyone else in Washington does."

The point might be said, in a more affirmative way, for the Couchiching conference itself.

THE ADVERTISING AGENCY COMMERCIAL

Let's invent something

Someone should invent a new name for what we've come to know as the Centennial symbol, the stylized maple leaf, with five points, and triangles for Canada's eleven regions. In only little more than a third of a year, the Centennial will be over, but the symbol is far too useful to throw away at the end of the year.

Maybe we'll get back to using the conventional maple leaf mess, if we don't have the "centennial" quilt, but the latter offers so many varied treatments not possible with the familiar style. We think these could be ample use for both, instead of forcing an "either-or" choice.

The same thing can't be said of the Expo symbol. Unfortunately, because it is an excellent symbol, the "Man and his World" theme applies only to the world fair, with little application in any other circumstances. The centennial symbol could be entirely different.

Good news for coal

One of Japan's leading shipbuilders will start shortly on two 57,000 ton bulk carriers for a Canadian Pacific Railway shipping subsidiary, the company reported yesterday. The shipbuilding deal here is that they are being built to haul coal to Japan to serve several steel mills under a long-term contract. While the news announcement refers to coal from British Columbia and also the eastern coast of the United States, it would seem likely that Alberta will be among some in for at least some of the shipments to be made, since earlier shipments from the Crows Nest Pass mines proved very acceptable in Nippon.

And even if Alberta mines aren't included in this order, they're bound to benefit from this increased interest in coal. Maybe they can pick up a little bit of the business in other areas now served by the mines with the Japanese contracts.

Theory doesn't always work

In the next this column has been known to support the operation of legalized state lotteries something like the famed Irish Sweepstakes which [illegible] that a great deal of [illegible] would probably be raised for conservation purposes, that very large sections of the population want to take a flyer in any case, and will find a way, or not, to do so, and finally that government-operated would remove almost completely any opportunity [illegible]

Officials in New York State subscribing to the same theory recently introduced legal sweepstakes with tickets at many $1. They conducted monthly sales of $3,000,000 from 4,000 selling agencies. Fifty-five per cent of the take was going to education.

So much for the theory. Now let's look at what happened.

After the first month, officials are wondering where the [illegible] went. Sales were only a fifth of what had been need [illegible] for [illegible] and staff or every [illegible] million of coupons [illegible]

But other cities and possibly better ones [illegible] many reasons operators who says "Numbers players haven't paid up because they now realize the new odds are better. We pay off immediately and there's no waiting."

Another [illegible] would perfectly legal and [illegible] Some ever expected. A report from the government [illegible] to be would from [illegible] supplemental business must add [illegible] one, which shows that [illegible] about 2 cents of the wager is [illegible] to [illegible]

For [illegible] surely not [illegible] some government operators of [illegible] lawful know enough [illegible] equal, or better the odds of the [illegible] And we'd even bet they do.

One last suggestion we wouldn't have thought of in the winner's desire to [illegible] income tax on his winnings. At least the smaller winners have often managed to evade [illegible] It seems worse that we have [illegible] the [illegible] government's [illegible] There are [illegible] ways to take [illegible] Maybe Mayor Lindsay should [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] and staff or every [illegible] million of coupons [illegible]

Due to rain on July 8, the day of the Social Credit picnic, the ball games and races were not held; so the group decided to hold another picnic on August 13th, hoping the weather will be fine that day.

On July 9th, Floyd Bakker unveiled a plaque in the hall, placed there by the local Social Credit group centenary-ating the founding by Mr Baker 23 years ago.

The Ladies Club met at the home of Mrs. A. Glade on July 13th, when it was decided that the Club will serve lunch and supper at the picnic on August 19th. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. Clarke on August 27th

Lillian McLeod attended the wedding of Mrs. Westlake's granddaughter Shirley Hegnar on Saturday, July 22nd.

Mrs. Fenton, who has been a patient in the Tofield Hospital, has returned home, feeling much improved.

Recent guests with Mrs. M. Glade were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lawrence and boys of St. Helen, Oregon; and Mrs. R. Leed and daughter Joni.

Ray Peterson has again gone to the far north where he will be employed until fall.

MacDuff Ottawa Report

CBC Strikes back

OTTAWA—Centre Park, Lake Constitution, Ontario — The pub... lic-owned CBC spends a great deal of its time, and some of its ample funds, fighting off criticism in Parliament; and the press of its free-spending habits and administrative confusion at the top.

Once a year, in co-operation with the Canadian Institute on Public Affairs, it strikes back with a curious sort of march-of press, advertising and public-relations.

AIMS AND DEFENCE

Prominent representatives of the media, every invited to participate and defend themselves from the shafts directed at them by their critics.

As might be expected, the CBC which sent a bountiful array of some of vice-presidents, producers, directors, free-lance contributors, cameramen, sound men and head office secretaries to the conference (all, presumably, at taxpayers' expense), was not in a defensive mood.

But the salmon, the public relations people, the politicians particularly those of the old line parties and the press ordered a constant barrage of vituperative assault.

The conference theme was "The Image or the Lure". This soon revealed itself as the dark suspicion that all, or at least most, of us are what it seemed to be as presented to the gullible public in the form of advertising and daily news.

EXPOSING EYE

Although commercial television came in for lumps for presenting rotten and tasteless, repetitive commercial messages, the evil-odds lure was widely credited with exposing political chicanery, and all in a way that the press never could, or would.

Newspapers, on the other hand, were accused of distortion and misrepresentation, of favouritism, of slanting reporting in favour of their own views, of refusing both to "tell it like it is" and "tell it like it should be".

But all this criticism came from the convention floor. Some of the CBC people who were present with the view to get a reaction from the media performers, such delight in themselves and their efforts as to be completely unaware of the hostility that built around them.

OVERSELLING

The advertising industry came in for critical critical attention. Its angels, then or three of them featured conference speakers, were glowing with selling possibilities the map, of directing rather than blasting major television campaigns, and of raising the cost of living slightly, but by overselling them either in print or by broadcast means.

Only occasionally, and we mean great exhilarating, were they also credited with getting standards and forcing the introduction of improved products by advertising greater safety competition.

It is worthy of note that automobile manufacturers, the traditional housewife's bugbear, were not represented on the platform at the time, Gerald Gardiner of Gardiner's Agency, in Toronto, did the automobile apologies.

ONLY PART OF THE TRUTH

Beyond public relations man, broadcasters Frank Shuman, Senator Robert Kennedy's campaign manager in Toronto, and Len Peacock, gave an award to Prime Minister Pearson, offered the opinion that their efforts are directed only to telling the truth about their subject, regardless of consequences. But many doubted the universal success.

As one would help put it, in Ottawa's political circles, "What they need is something called truth".

The news media, he said, he "the truth, the whole truth, but the images and the stories of the Constitution, sometimes be-

Let's invent something

Someone should invent a new name for what we've come to know as the Centennial symbol, the stylized maple leaf, with five points, and triangles for Canada's eleven regions. In only little more than a third of a year, the Centennial will be over, but the symbol is far too useful to throw away at the end of the year.

Maybe we'll get back to using the conventional maple leaf more. If we don't have the "centennial" cost, but the latter offers so many varied treatments not possible with the familiar style We think there would be ample use for both, instead of foisting an "either-or" choice.

The same thing can't be said of the Expo symbol. Unfortunately, because it is an excellent symbol, the "Man and his World" theme applies only to the world fair, with little application in any other circumstances. The centennial could be endlessly different.

Good news for coal

One of Japan's leading shipbuilders will start shortly on two 57,000 ton bulk carriers for a Canadian Pacific Railway shipping subsidiary, the company reported yesterday. The booming fact here is that they are being built to haul coal to Japan to serve several steel mills under a long-term contract. While the news announcement refers to coal from British Columbia and also the eastern coast of the United States, it would seem likely that Alberta mines may come in for at least some of the shipments to be made, since the agreements from the Crows Nest Pass mines proved very acceptable in Nippon.

And even if Alberta mines aren't included in this order they're bound to benefit from the increased interest in coal. Maybe they can pick up a little bit of the business in other areas now served by the mines with the Japanese continents.

Theory doesn't always work

In the next the column has been known to support the operation of legalized state lotteries, something like the famed Irish Sweepstakes, on the basis that a great deal of money could probably be raised for constructive purposes, that very large segments of the population want to "take a fiver" in any case, and will find a way, legal or not, to do so, and finally that government control would remove almost completely any opportunity for fraud.

Officials in New York State subscribing to the same theory recently introduced legal sweepstakes, with tickets at only $1. They predicted monthly sales of $30,000,000 from 4,000 selling agencies. Fifty-five per cent of the take was going to education.

So much for the theory. How has it look at what happened.

After the first month, officials are wondering rather than gambling spirit went. Sales were only a fifth of what had been hoped — and budgeted for. In defence, they claim distribution and staff problems in getting set up. Which of course, is quite possible.

But other things, and possibly better ones come from one of many reasons operators who were "Numbers players" have quit as because they now realize their odds are better. We are off speculations and there's no waiting.

The second part sounds perfectly logical and familiar source ever expected to result from the government, as readily as he would from every legitimate business man's search for legitimate profit. Which means that illegal payoff is part of the magic in upgrading to people.

But better odds surely not. Surely even government operators of sweepstakes should know enough to equal or better the odds of the bookmen. And we'd even bet they do.

One last suspicion we wouldn't have thought of is the winner's desire to avoid income tax on his winnings. At least the smaller winners have often managed to evade the tax. It seems, when they win from the bookies . . . but when the government is running it, they're afraid even to take the chance Maybe the government should take that into account in fixing the odds, and increase the return to the bookies, on the assumption they're still going to get a great deal of it back a little later on.

CROWN LUMBER

IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE A NEW TOFIELD BRANCH LOCATION

After serving Tofield well for so many years, Mr. Charles F. Kallal has decided to sell his Kallal Lumber to Crown Lumber.

We are pleased to announce the construction of a new showroom on the former Kallal Lumber property. Building will begin immediately, and we hope will be completed by early fall. In the meantime, Crown Lumber will be headquartered in a temporary building on the new property, and all stock from our former location is being transported there.

Come In This Week To Meet Your Crown Lumbermen!

Crown Lumber manager, Jack Whyte, invites all his Crown Lumber customers and all the former Kallal Lumber customers in the Tofield district to drop in at the new location, and to meet the former Kallal employee, Walter Neufeld, who will be serving our Crown Lumber customers. Continuing on duty is George Boese the Crown Lumber branch assistant.

Former Holden resident, J. Tomasheski passes

After a lengthy illness, John Tomasheski passed away May 31 at St. Mary's Hospital, at the age of 65 years.

Born in Austria on May 15, 1902, Mr. Tomasheski immigrated to Canada with his parents as an infant the same year. On January 29, 1928 he married Annie Soloway and they resided on his farm in the Holden district until 1950 when he retired and moved to Camrose.

The deceased is survived by his loving wife, Annie of Camrose; one son, Lawrence of Czar; one daughter, Mrs. Helen Knudsen of Daysland; three grandchildren, Wayne, Terence and Gail; four sisters, Mrs. Tillie Tomshaw of Vegreville, Mrs. Annie Romarniski, Mrs. Julia Romarniski and Mrs. Katheryn Oganaski, all of Holden.

Prayers were said from the Burgar Memorial Chapel on June 2 and funeral services were held the following day with Rev. Fr. Lozensky officiating. Interment was in Camrose cemetery with Peter Oganoski, Nick Romarniski, Mike Chrystian, John Meclak, Tony Zak and Steve Soloway serving as pallbearers.

Burgar Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Wease - Francis wedding solemnized on June 24

Tofield Baptist Church was the scene of a lovely candlelight wedding on June 24, when Miss Rose Sharon Ann Francis, daughter of Mrs. George E. Francis of Tofield and the late Mr. Francis, became the bride of Mr. Neil Lewis Wease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Wease of Apsley, Ontario. The double-ring ceremony was performed by a cousin of the bride, Pastor Garry Francis, of Rosebud.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Glenn, was lovely in a floor-length sheath gown of white peau de soie, featuring a matching lace-trimmed train attached to the shoulders, round neckline and lily-point sleeves. Her chapel-length veil was held in place by a matching ring-band headpiece, and her bouquet was of red roses and white carnations.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Rude, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid, Miss Stella Wenstob, friend of the bride, wore identical floor-length sheath gowns of deep pink peau de soie, with matching head bands, and carried cascades of white gladiolus.

Miss Shirley Rude, niece of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a street-length white dress with pink trim and carried a basket of seasonal flowers and streamers. Candlelighters, Misses Carol and Lois Rude, nieces of the bride, wore dresses identical to that of the flower girls.

The groom was attended by his brother, Benson, and Earl Turriff, both of Ontario. Master Barry Rude, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer, and Charles Rude and Jack Francis were ushers.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Garry Francis rendered three solos, "Wedding Prayer", "Whither Thou Goest" and "Together". Miss Sharon Torbjelm was the pianist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Francis chose a two-piece knit suit with white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a three-piece navy and white suit with black accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement, where Misses Linda Rude, niece of the bride, and Carolyn Wease, sister of the groom, were in charge of the guest book. The three-tiered wedding cake was baked by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Henry McGinitie. Pastor Les Smith was M.C. and Garry Francis proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded. Mrs. Iris Francis was in charge of the gifts.

For travelling, the bride chose a two-piece turquoise and silver knit suit with white accessories, and a corsage of pink roses and white carnations.

After a wedding trip to Jasper, Banff and Rosebud, Neil and Sharon left to make their home in Oshawa, Ontario.

Holden and district news items

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

(Intended for last week)

Mr and Mrs. Allan Owens and youngest daughter Donna, of Edmonton, called on friends Thursday evening of last week. Allan was a former Holden resident for many years, receiving his education here when his parents and brother Oliver resided in the village. Allan's father, Percy Owens, was manager of the creamery for several years and later operated a garage and repair shop in partnership with his son-in-law, Earling Henderson. The Owens family left Holden about 18 years ago to make their home in Edmonton.

Mr and Mrs. Ron Salk and baby, of Edmonton, left for home Tuesday evening of last week, after visiting on the farm with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Jim MacLeod, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Afseth and Mrs. Bob Beattie are back from their trip to Outlook, Sask., and attending the opening of the new Gardiner Dam in Saskatchewan. Aaron and Nadine Beattie stayed to spend holidays with their grandparents.

Sandra Huseby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Con Huseby, is employed for the summer months at Dr. Myer's dental office in Camrose. Sandra is taking a Dental course at the University of Alberta.

Robert Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Harris of Edmonton, has been visiting the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Hans Brekstad, helping on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacDonell and children were spending the weekend at Drumheller, visiting with friends and bringing home their son, Douglas, who had been holidaying there for the past week with friends.

Miss Joan Smith, nurse with the Vegreville Health Unit who has been stationed at the Holden office for the past several months, has been transferred to Vegreville.

Mrs. Geo H. Taylor was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening, July 27, to receive a telephone call from their son Brian, his wife Dineke and eldest grandson, Ernest, in Ottawa, Ontario, wishing her "happy birthday" greetings. Mr. and Mrs. Brian Taylor and family are expecting to spend their holidays visiting his parents, near the end of August.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bateman and family, who have been holidaying for the past month at a lake in Saskatchewan, returned home late Friday evening.

Mr and Mrs. Lawrence Bilyk of Edmonton were visitors over the weekend with their family, the Nick Bilyks.

Miss Theresa Appleby, nurse-in-training, of Edmonton, was a weekend visitor with her family, the Ted Applebys.

Harry Appleby, who was a hospital patient in Edmonton for surgery on his hip, then in the nursing home in Viking, is now back at Vialta Lodge, Viking, and is feeling much improved in health.

Mrs. N. L. Campbell is still a patient in the Leduc Municipal Hospital and her leg is very slowly healing, but has been advised by her doctor that to hasten the healing she will have to have a skin graft on it, and will be in hospital for some time.

Marvin Appleby and Ken Zowtuk of the Holden Sea Cadets are attending camp at HMCS Quadra, at Comox, B.C. Terry Paulson of Ryley and three members from Viking are also at camp.

TRUSTEES MEET

The Holden Drainage District

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Christianson of Kelowna, B.C., arrived Friday evening to visit for several days with Wilfred's mother Mrs. Laura Christianson. On their way they stopped at Camrose to pick up Mrs. Christianson, who is a resident at Bethany Nursing Home in Camrose, bringing her with them to stay at her home while they are here. Mrs. Christianson is closing her home in the village and is planning on putting it up for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Starzko of Bruce who recently purchased the former Hvidd house, will soon be moving in to make their future home here. Mrs. Harriet Sen and family, who have been residing there for the past four months moved into the Stefaniszyn house the end of last week.

Agriculture Committee notes

By Ron Boyles, Fieldman

TREES

We have just received word that three to four feet White Spruce will be available at the Provincial Government Tree Nursery during the week of August 21st-25th. No application is necessary. Salespayers may go directly to pick up these trees and are expected to take a lory to prevent drying on the return trip. A half ton truck will carry 150-200 trees. Farmers are urged to get their applications in early this fall for other trees and ornamentals from Oliver and Brooks Township lists will be out soon and will be available from the D.A. and Ag. Committee Offices.

WEEDS

Our weed inspection this summer has revealed an increased acreage sprayed for weed control. We have found crop damage from spraying in some fields and there does not appear to be a uniform pattern of complaints that we have received so far. The Department of Agriculture has requested us to make a survey of this spray damage and cooperate with other M.D.s and Counties in getting as many reports as possible.

I would appreciate hearing from farmers who have noticed damage that they suspect was caused by spraying.

At this time we are trying to get reports of Perstand Perennial weed patches and expect farmers to co-operate in eradicating these weeds before they spread.

ROADSIDE SEEDING

New roads, ditches and backslopes will be seeded this fall and farmers who wish to work these backslopes are requested to pick up seed as soon as possible or let me know if grain will be needed next year and we will not sow grass and legumes this year. Grass seed is distributed free to farmers that intend to do extra work in order to mow roadsides for hay.

PESTS

Shelterbelts and garden insect pests have increased this year and farmers are making good use of our high pressure sprayer for applying insecticide to tall trees. Contact our office for further particulars.

Our Elston pocket gopher poisoning machine will be available this fall if ground conditions are satisfactory. Please advise us if you feel that will do a good job of killing these pests in wooded down fields.

Maggie traps are available on a demonstrator basis and farmers are requested to return these traps within a week or report when picks them up. The County bounty on magpie feet will be paid as usual the call of duty, allowing tourists fo be photographed with them.

Granted it is all part of a certain chauvinistic showmanship, yet all this visual nationalism means just one thing to me. That is, it is gaining respect and appreciation around the world from visitors who include Ottawa in their travel itinerary, and how the Diplomatic Corps stationed in the various embassies throughout the city. They are vociferous in praise of Canada's beautiful capital city.

It has been said that as a nation, Canadians are not flag wavers. Ottawa, in its metamorphosis, is certainly evidence of our pride in our country and the great progress the nation has made in its hundred years of Confederation.

Local girl injured in CNR train wreck

Nette and Susan Appleby left via Somerset-Universal for Toronto on July 30th to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. Roberts, Patti, Jane and Glynnis, formerly of Edmonton and Calgary. After two days touring and sight seeing which included Niagara Falls, they continued their home on August 1st at 1:15 p.m.

The girls' mother, Mrs. Appleby, from Edmonton with a friend, Betty Jean Irvine, attended the funeral service for Mrs. Appleby's sister-in-law, Mrs. Roberts, who was killed instantly in the train accident which occurred north of Dryden, about 200 miles north of Nipigon, on July 29. Girls are detailed:

"After a two-hour wait at the scene of the accident they were then taken back to Sudbury, and from there sent on C.P. track to Toronto, Ontario, on August 3rd, at 2:00 p.m.

The train was delayed a total of 11 hours, arriving in Edmonton on August 4th at 6:40 p.m. Four engineers were killed one passenger died of a heart attack and others suffered minor injuries, including Susan's bruised knee and hip.

Gallinger - Wells vows exchanged at Tofield

The Tofield United Church was chosen as the scene of the double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Darlene Joanne Wells and Michael Edward Gallinger. The Rev. McDonnold officiated at the candlelight service; Mrs. Simson was organist, and Keith Appleby was soloist.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wells of Mardene, Sask., and the groom is son of the late Wilbur Gallinger and Mrs. Gallinger of Tofield.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor-length sheath with matched train, fashioned of imported lace over peau de soie. The same lace was repeated in the full length of the train, a jewelled tiara held her triple cut chapel veil, and she carried a cascade of yellow orchids.

The bridesmaids were Miss Gail Wells and Miss Betty Lou Porter of Edmonton. They were dresses of yellow imported lace over peau de soie, with matching headbands, and carried white carnations with yellow ribbons.

The best man was Claude Gallinger, and groomsman was Neil Schopher of Chauvin. Ushers were Ken Appleby and Bert Brumwell.

The bride's mother chose a coat of pink lace over peau de satin with matching sheath, white accessories and a corsage of pink orchids. Mother of the groom chose a coral sheath of peau de soie matching hat and a corsage of yellow roses.

The reception was held in Tofield United Church lower hall, where Miss Carol Wells presided at the guest register. Ken Appleby was master of ceremonies, and toast to the bride was given by E. A. McGarvey. Open house was held at the home of Mrs. W. Gallinger, and a dance followed in Tofield Hall with music by Johnny Abre's orchestra.

For her going-away outfit, the bride chose a two-piece pink suit and white accessories.

The happy couple will reside at Tofield.

Churches combine for summer picnic

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY — Ryley, Tofield and Ministik Lutheran Catholic Church members held their picnic on Sunday, August 6 at the Hasbag Lake Community Centre.

Although there were a few clouds the sun came shining through for the picnicers. A lovely dinner was served on the tables which were loaded with the good food brought by the ladies.

The young people took on the men in a soft ball game, with the score 10 to 12, in favor of the young people. The ladies enjoyed an hour of bingo while the children took part in racing. The day came to a close with a weiner and marshmallow roast and ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Carlisle mark 25th anniversary

On Sunday, July 30th, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carlisle were pleasantly surprised at a dinner in their honor on their 25th anniversary at the Tofield Legion Hall, by their family. A lovely wedding cake centred the table, baked by Mrs. Carl White and decorated by Mrs. Earl Jones.

Jim Ingram served as master of ceremonies. Relatives from Edmonton, Lamont and Tofield were present, as well as were their attendants of 25 years ago, Mrs. Belva Craven of Vancouver, sister of the groom, and Mr. Hillmer Anderson of Camrose, brother of the bride. Another guest was Don's mother Mrs. Nellie Carlisle of South Burnaby, B.C. Aunt Mae Carlisle of Gladbrook, Iowa, and two nieces of Don's, Linda and Bonnie Cranbrook, Vancouver. All their children were present: Mrs. Phyllis Wilson of Ross Creek, Wayne, of Edmonton, Wayne of Lamont, Keith, Ricky and Grace, all in Tofield.

In the afternoon, open house was held when neighbors and friends from Ryley Lindbrook, Tofield, Edmonton and Bay Accord called to congratulate the Carlisles.

Elvera Carlisle was in charge of the guest book.

'House' of Ryley

Official opening ceremonies for the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator in Ryley have been scheduled for Saturday, August 26 at 2:00 p.m. Originally, two elevators stood close together, and another was built between them to make one large elevator. – Tofield Mercury Newsphoto.

'Beaver' hosts Taber 4-H'ers

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

An enjoyable time was had by the thirty 4-H'ers from Taber and their hosts in the County of Beaver. The group arrived Tuesday evening August 8th and dispersed to various homes throughout the county.

On Wednesday, visits were made to the Lyons Ranch, the W. Winmess Dairy farm, the Ryley Milk Plant, the Gas Plant, and the Kinsella Ranch, where the evening ended with a weiner roast.

About 16 cars were used to transport the group. The Alberta Game Farm was visited Thursday afternoon, and a banquet for 75 guests, hosts and ladies was held in the Holden Community Hall with the CWL women catering.

Films of Ryley Dairy Achievement Day and the Beef Achievement Day were shown, and that evening concluded with a dance with music played by the "Blue Jays".

Towns, elevators face isolation as CNR seeks to abandon rail lines

The CNR wants to abandon five branch lines south and east of Edmonton, involving 138.4 miles of rail and 17 grain elevators because they are presently operating at a loss.

The five lines that the CNR are seeking to close are from Tofield south to Barlee Junction, 23.4 miles; Haight Junction north to Vegreville, 21.0 miles; Camrose Junction north to Ryley, 24.9 miles; Scapa east to Spondin, 17.7 miles, and Loverna Junction west to Hemaruka, 50.6 miles.

At the present time, in Winnipeg, the Board of Transport Commissioners is holding a pre-hearing conference in connection with the CNR application for abandonment.

One of the areas chiefly involved is Kingman, which has three elevators. Last year ninety carloads of grain were shipped through the Kingman elevators, or about nine train-loads. Abandonment of the line would mean that farmers in the area would have to go to other centres, probably Tofield, to ship this grain.

It is feared by some that farmers shipping through other centres would also do their buying in these centres, thus having quite an economic effect on the areas losing their rail lines.

There is, apparently, no danger of the elevator agents losing their jobs, as it is expected they will be transferred to other elevators owned by the same companies.

Four companies and six grain elevators would be affected by an abandonment. They are United Grain Growers at Kingman, Alberta Wheat Pool at Kingman and Round Hill, Alberta Pacific Grain Co. at Round Hill, and Searle at both Kingman and Round Hill.

Teacher earns diploma in driver instruction

Mrs. G. Taylor

Joseph Lindberg, on the staff of Holden school, recently completed a Driver Education and Preparation Course in Edmonton, along with 30 other teachers from various schools in the province.

Mr. Lindberg was the only teacher in the County of Beaver No. 9 signing to take the course. The course consisted of 44 hours of lectures pertaining to all phases of driving, regulations and rules, etc., at the University of Alberta and an additional 36 hours of driving behind-the-wheel instruction.

The director for the course, Gordon Oswald was provided by the Canadian Automobile Association and the vehicle for the driving instruction by the Edmonton A.M.A. Diplomas were awarded to candidates who had successfully completed the course, Friday, July 28th, at a dinner held at the Mayfair Golf and Country Club, Edmonton.

These teachers are now qualified to instruct Driver Education to high school students desiring to take this course. It is hoped that many will take advantage of this opportunity to receive proper instruction, in 30-hour classroom lectures, learning automobile traffic laws, road history, maintenance and many other factors pertaining to the automobile and the mechanics of operating a motor vehicle. Students also receive six hours instruction of behind-the-wheel and 12 hours traffic observation.

Cost of the course will be shared by the student and the school board.

Local students will attend science seminar in Edmonton

A week-long submersion in science awaits 72 top high school students selected from throughout Alberta and the Northwest Territories to participate in the seventh annual United Nations Science Seminar at the University of Alberta, August 20 to 26.

Two local students, Yvonne Johnson of Camrose and Matthew Eaglesham of Tofield will be taking part in the seminar.

The aim of the seminar is to give Grade 11 and 12 students an opportunity to see the sciences as they relate to world problems, either in creating or solving them.

The seminar, under the direction of Dr. W. F. Allen of the University's Chemistry Department, will have as its theme, "The Earth we share: Geology and Geophysics".

The students will listen to lectures, watch films, tour laboratories, and participate in discussions.

Sorry, Gwen

In last week's issue, we published a story by Gwen Jacobsen of Tofield about her prize-winning trip to Expo. Unfortunately, due to a mix-up, we put a picture of someone else with the story instead of Gwen's. We offer our sincere apologies and present the picture of the real Gwen.

Tourist development

Alberta's tourist industry ranks as one of the biggest in Canada, with visitors to this province spending over $18,000,000 here during 1966. Yet, a great part of the province does little, if anything, to bring visitors to their area.

This area of Alberta during 1966, attracted only one per cent of the tourist dollar, mostly visitors from other parts of the province, with a few from the neighboring provinces of Saskatchewan and British Columbia.

There is an attempt being made by the businessmen of Central Alberta to improve this situation, by way of forming a tourist development council. This council's main function will be to find ways and means of attracting tourists into this area. The council will be composed of representatives from such places as Wetaskiwin, Forestburg, Viking, Stettler, Camrose, Tofield, Castor and other centers in this area.

The council has already met three times for organizational meetings, and it is rather unfortunate, but, the Tofield area was not represented at any of these meetings, although at the last meeting, word was sent that the area was definitely interested in joining the council.

The next meeting is set for Camrose on Thursday, August 24th, and it certainly would be wise for the Tofield area to have delegates sent to this session. If this council is successful in its aims, and there is no reason why it shouldn't be, it could mean a substantial increase in income to the area.

That Nisku death strip

In spite of the claims that it was impossible to do anything about the number of accidents caused on the highway from Edmonton to Nisku, the government deserves credit for imposing a lower speed limit than any other highway calls for.

But the "what can we do" attitude was ridiculous in the first place. Short of completely replacing the highway, there must be many things which could be done, and which would help to reduce the incredible incidence of accidents on this short stretch of road.

The reduced speed limit was only one of them. Another would have been to step up considerably the number of patrol units (and this is essential for control in any case, whatever the speed limit.) Another would have been to nail down those little metal lane markers. You can easily drive over them, but they make bumpy noises when hit by tires, so that sleepy drivers are jolted to awareness that they're moving out of the proper lane. Still another would have been to install a low curb between north and south bound lanes . . . just high enough to deflect a wheel coming at it obliquely, as in the case of a car wandering out of its lane.

Sure these things would cost money, but certainly not as much as construction of an all new highway. And certainly not too much in view of the already incredible property loss, to say nothing of the injury to life and limb.

The simple fact is, there is no good reason why the road could not have been made safer long before now. Actually, it's a much better road, and probably wider, too, than the twenty or so miles directly north of Calgary, yet the record on this stretch isn't nearly so bad.

Why couldn't the lessons from this stretch be used south of Edmonton?

Lesson from Russia

There is probably no time when we can't learn something from someone else, but we were struck recently by the notion that Canadian lawcourts might gain something from behind the Iron Curtain, where we have been led to believe justice is not always the main consideration.

Reading a Russian publication which periodically crosses our desk, we were interested in a discussion of the problem of hooligans in Russia, and methods of combatting them. We'll readily agree there is a strong possibility of the publication being prejudiced, but hooligans are a problem in our own country no less than Russia, and we found the article interesting.

What chiefly struck us was the final paragraph, which reads: "The Decree establishes that if the offence is committed in a state of intoxication it will be regarded as an aggravating circumstance."

We couldn't help but compare it with this country where it is expected the accused will get a lesser sentence if he pleads ignorance of his actions because of intoxication. Possibly, when we adopt the Russian attitude that drunkenness is not a mitigating factor but a further crime, we can reasonably look forward to some reduction in this plea being offered as an excuse for the unreasonable acts that bring us into conflict with our neighbors.

MacDuff Ottawa report

OTTAWA. — For a political meeting that could be the most important of the decade, the Conservative leadership convention next month has generated surprisingly little interest.

Put it down to Centennial madness, or Expo, or [illegible] visitations, or to predictable candidates saying predictable things — whatever the reason, the battle for John Diefenbaker's job has inspired more yawns than cheers.

John Diefenbaker himself has from time to time spiced the flat leadership brew by refusing to say whether or not he'll be a candidate for his own job.

Most Conservative Members of Parliament think he will step aside, but apparently he has confided in no one. His long de-cision will probably be made at the last possible moment—whether to retire gracefully, if not gratefully, or whether to stand and fight his Party enemies, running the risk of being beaten and departing a loser.

CLOUDED CRYSTAL BALL

Trying to read Mr. Diefenbaker's mind has always been a [illegible] occupation. It has become an even more [illegible] sport in recent months, since Party [illegible] Dalton Camp led the successful [illegible] for a leadership convention.

But it's a reasonably safe [illegible] that major influences on his decision will be his staunch Party loyalty, and his assessment of how he personally can be of best use to his Party and his country in the years that remain to him.

It would seem that these influences both point strongly to a quiet retirement, leaving the Party to choose a new leader from among the five or six eminently qualified candidates.

Mr Diefenbaker's own concept of what the Progressive Conservative Party should be may differ from others. But ever since last November's fateful Party meeting he has been declaring that he would not let the Party fall back into the hands of reaction.

AVOID REACTION

He has never defined this danger very clearly, but it's presumed he means to prevent the Party from becoming the Party of Bay Street, St. James Street, the Eastern image makers and manipulators of the ordinary [illegible].

Even now, if he thought a representative of these old and malign interests had a chance to win the leadership, he would no doubt throw himself into the battle, caring little for risks to his own dignity, but hoping to save his Party.

He may not feel he has to do this since there are several good candidates who could scarcely be described as members of the privileged class. Mr Diefenbaker will do what he can, has done what he could, to make sure the Party settles on the right man. His support of any candidate will be an enormous and perhaps decisive factor in the convention's decision.

ROBLIN, STANFIELD, FLEMING

At the moment, it looks as though the new leader to be chosen on September 9 will be Manitoba Premier Duff Roblin, Nova Scotia Premier Robert Stanfield, or former Finance Minister Donald Fleming.

Davie Fulton and George Hees are somewhat longer shots, Alvin Hamilton longer still, and the others have scarcely any chance at all.

Mr Diefenbaker therefore must feel reasonably satisfied that when he leaves the Party will be led by a competent, resourceful man from among these leading contenders. A [illegible] or a Bob Stanfield, even a Don Fleming or some of the others could reshape the Party, lead it down a new road, elaborate new policies, give in strength and con-[illegible]

In a more personal connection, Mr. Diefenbaker must surely sense that he, even if he fought for and won the leadership again, would not unite the Party and could not set it on that new road.

That would not be his most useful role. What would be was likely touched on by Burt Richardson, Mr Diefenbaker's former special assistant, in an interview with a newspaper columnist.

"I was with him at Churchill's funeral in London early in 1965", said Mr Richardson. "I think right then there was some kind of turning point in his thinking. He came back realizing that in this age it is not enough to be a Prime Minister—he should write about it, set the record down, as Churchill did in his career. He can't do that while he's still leading the Party".

AN INTERESTING STORY

John Diefenbaker unquestionably has a great deal to write about, a great deal to tell the Canadian people. Think back over the years—the [illegible]llation of the Avro Arrow, the Coyne affair, the nuclear arms issue, the run on the Canadian dollar and devaluation, the [illegible] revolts, the Cuban missile crisis, South Africa's withdrawal from the Commonwealth, the first British attempt to join the European Common Market.

All these stories have been told many times, in many ways, most of them describing John Diefenbaker's role in something less than flattering terms. Mr Diefenbaker has a right, perhaps even a duty, to give the public his version of these events.

There is another factor involved here which Mr. Diefenbaker, understandably, may not relish the [illegible]. A new leader will [illegible] the Conservative Party a ne[illegible] into the public confidence. [illegible] the prospect of a new leader has already had that effect as the opinion polls show.

Mr Diefenbaker can no longer do that. The new leader may not be able to bring the Party to the heights of 1958 under John Diefenbaker, but he may cause it to rise again, and that would be a hopeful event for all of Canada.

Highway Act [illegible] used cars must be 'roadworthy'

The Honorable Gordon E. Taylor has announced that as of August 1st 1967, every [illegible] motor vehicles prior to [illegible] into a contract to sell a used motor vehicle, shall give to the purchaser a certificate of mechanical fitness of the [illegible] the purchaser is [illegible].

If the motor vehicle [illegible] with the equipment [illegible] as provided for in The Highway Traffic Act, the dealer [illegible] to the purchaser a certification of motor vehicle compliance. In the event that the motor vehicle does not comply with The Highway Traffic Act, the dealer will be required to [illegible] equipment is non-[illegible] and the onus will then be on the purchaser to immediately [illegible] the defective part. In [illegible] a dealer will be required [illegible] that the brakes, [illegible], muffler, horn, tail-lights, turn signals, etc., are working [illegible] not working, or [illegible] working sufficiently to comply with the requirements of The Highway Traffic Act.

Provision has also been made making it an offence for any person to alter the [illegible] of an odometer on any motor vehicle except where necessary for mechanical repairs or replacement of the unit.

Traffic law changes printed in 'Mercury'

This week, The Mercury runs the first of a series of Highway Traffic Laws for the Province of Alberta.

Alberta's Highway Traffic Act was revised in April of this year, and many of the changes in the Act have created a state of confusion for many drivers. To help remedy the situation, The Mercury will publish, each week, the more important sections of the Act, both new and old, with the sincere hope that it will be of some assistance to drivers and owners in The Mercury area.

OPERATOR'S LICENCES

1. No person shall drive a motor vehicle on a highway unless he is the holder of a licence valid for the type of vehicle which he is operating.
2. The above does not apply to a person who is undergoing a driver's examination conducted by an authorized driver examiner.
3. It also does not apply to a person ordinarily resident outside of Alberta—(a) if he does not stay in Alberta more than six months in any year; (b) if he is authorized by the laws of his place of residence to operate a motor vehicle of the type being driven by him.
4. It also does not apply to a person who—(a) holds an international licence issued outside Canada, and (b) does not remain in Alberta for more than 12 consecutive months.
5. Any person who operates a motor vehicle when he does not hold a valid licence is guilty of an offence and is liable, on summary conviction: (a) for a first offence to a fine of not more than $100 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 30 days or to both fine and imprisonment, and (b) for any subsequent offence to a fine of not more than $500 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both fine and imprisonment.
6. In a prosecution for a contravention of (5) the onus is on the accused to show that he holds a valid operator's licence.

1. An operator's licence for a motor vehicle, other than a scooter or a power bicycle, shall not be issued to any person under the age of 16 years.
2. An operator's licence for a scooter or power bicycle shall not be issued to any person under the age of 14 years.
3. An operator's licence shall not be issued to any person under the age of 18 years; (a) unless the application is also signed by a parent or guardian of the applicant, or (b) where the person is self supporting and is liable to obtain the signature of a parent or guardian, unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Minister that he is self-supporting and unable to obtain such consent, or (c) unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Minister that he is a married person.
4. Where a person who is under the age of 18 years has obtained an operator's licence as authorized by subsection (3) then (a) if the parent or guardian, in writing, withdraws his consent, or (b) if proof is produced, satisfactory to the Minister, that the person was not self-supporting or was not married, the Minister shall suspend or cancel the operator's licence and shall not reinstate it or issue a new licence to that person until the person attains the age of 18 years or until a new application complying with subsection (3) is made.

BARDO W.C.T.U. NEWS

(Mrs. Esther Brekken)

The August meeting of the Bardo W C T U was held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Rude.

The clip sheet for this meeting was entitled "The Necessity for Religious Teaching in the Home". Real stress was made on the need of parents taking time for their children, the necessity of family devotions, the harmful effects of today's television programs; the need of discipline in the home; and the harm caused by giving children too much spending money. Everyone enjoyed this informative and up-to-date study sheet.

Stauffer - Garber wedding solemnized on July 15th

The mid-summer marriage of Helen Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garber, and Lawrence Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard G. Stauffer, was held July 15th at 5:30 p.m. in the Holyrood Mennonite Church, Edmonton. Bishop Stanley D. Shantz officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of peau de elegance accented with appliqued lace at the neckline and hem which extended into a train. She carried a mauve orchid on a white Bible accented with white stephanotis streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Sharon Siller, friend of the bride; the bridesmaids, Miss Louise Stauffer, sister of the groom, and Miss Susan Garber, sister of the bride, wore indentical floor-length gowns of mauve chiffon over taffeta. They carried nosegays of white Shastas daisies.

The best man was Douglas Lehman, friend of the groom. Also attending the groom were Alvin Garber, brother of the bride, and Daniel Hart, cousin of the groom. Bryan Stauffer, Gaylord Kauffman, and Dwight Maurer, cousins of the groom, served as ushers.

A quartette comprised of Mrs. Enos Stauffer, Orvin Boettger, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roth, sang four hymns during the ceremony. In charge of the recorded organ music was Fred Martin. Mrs. Ron Watamaniuk sang "Whither Thou Goest". Following the meditation given by Bishop John B. Stauffer, grandfather of the groom, "A Wedding Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Enos Stauffer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Garber chose a jersey dress with shades of pink and [illegible] on white. Her corsage was a [illegible] colored gardenia. Mrs. Stauffer, mother of the groom, chose a shell pink two-piece lace dress and cream colored gardenia corsage.

Those attending are [illegible] of Camrose, [illegible] of [illegible] Hill, Joseph [illegible] of Holden and Lloyd [illegible] of Tofield.

Guest speaker for the Conference is [illegible] West, assistant executive secretary of the National Education Association, Washington, D.C.

Many of the teachers attending the Conference will be taking courses offered by the ATA in leadership, professional development, teacher welfare, and communications.

Ministik news

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

In the local ball leagues the Ministik team, who were the top team and Sollstead, battled it out Friday evening in their first game of the playoffs. Ministik won by a 24-3 score. The second game will be on Sunday.

LADIES' CLUB MEETS

The Ministik Ladies' Club met at the local campsite for its August meeting. After a brief business session, entertainment in the form of a most interesting contest was provided by Mrs. Les Whitford, and winners were Mrs. Jim Roddick and Mrs. Bill Roddick. Birthdays were celebrated by Mrs. Grace Gibson and Mrs. Bill Roddick.

Passing of former Amisk Creek resident, Mrs. Moen

Mrs. Annette Marie Moen was born at Aberdeen, Minnesota on October 11, [illegible]. She came to Canada as a young girl with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence [illegible] and they settled on a farm in the Amisk Creek district. She was confirmed in the Christian faith at Bardo Lutheran church and on December 27, 191[illegible] she married Einar Moen.

Mrs. Moen continued to live in the Amisk Creek community until the passing of her husband in 19[illegible] when she moved to Camrose to make her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Murray. A charter member of the Amisk Creek Lutheran church, Mrs. Moen remained a member until the closing of the congregation some three years ago when she transferred her membership to Messiah Lutheran church in Camrose. She was also a member of the Lutheran Church Women and the Bethany Home Auxiliary.

For the past year Mrs. Moen had been in failing health. She entered St. Mary's Hospital on June 14 and passed away July 4 at the age of 74 years. She is survived by two sons, Hilmar of Vancouver and Marvin of Camrose; two daughters, Edna (Mrs. C. Gjerde) and Myrtle (Mrs. J. Murray), both of Camrose; 12 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; six brothers, three sisters and other relatives.

Funeral services were held from Messiah Lutheran church on July 7 with Pastor C. Kopperud officiating. A long-time acquaintance of the family, Pastor G. Ostrem brought the message. Interment followed in the Amisk Creek cemetery, the pall bearers being Conrad Patterson, Raymond Patterson, Norman Patterson, Albert Haukedal, Erling Sand, and Glen Hillerud.

Burgar Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Modern etiquette

Q. When the hostess at a bridge-club session achieves the highest score, should she keep the prize?

A. A hostess does not take the prize she herself has furnished. If, however, the prize has been bought with money contributed by all the members of the club, then she may accept it if she wins.

Q. The organist and soloist who will play and sing at my wedding are very good friends, and are not asking a fee. Should I give them sort of a gift instead?

A. This would be the appreciative thing to do, and in fact, under the circumstances, it is customary.

ANTELOPE and SAGE GROUSE
HUNTING LICENCE APPLICATIONS

TROPHY ANTELOPE SEASON
October 21st to October 28th

SAGE GROUSE SEASON
October 21st to October 24th

This year a random selection of a limited number of antelope and sage grouse licenses will be made from all properly completed applications received from Alberta residents. "Resident" means a person who is a Canadian citizen and who has resided in the Province for a period of three months immediately prior to the date of application for a licence, or who is not a Canadian citizen but has resided in the Province for a period of one year immediately prior to the date of his application for a licence.

Before applying for a licence it is necessary to have a 1967 Wildlife Certificate. A group of hunters, up to a maximum of four, who wish to hunt in the same vicinity may submit their applications in one envelope. Each applicant is allowed only one application. As there are several areas open to antelope hunting, please indicate on the front of the envelope your first, second and third choice.

The 1967 trophy antelope season is restricted to male antelope only which have horns of a length sufficient to exceed the length of its ears, that is, a horn length of not less than five (5) inches.

The special sage grouse licence is valid only in Wildlife Management Units G 102, G 104 and G 116.

All applications must be submitted on a special form available only at Provincial Fish and Wildlife Offices. As illegible or incomplete applications do not qualify, it is important to read the instructions.

A money order or certified cheque payable to the Provincial Treasurer must be enclosed with each application.

—$7.50 FOR TROPHY ANTELOPE LICENCE
—$1.00 FOR SAGE GROUSE LICENCE

Completed applications should be forwarded to:

Fish and Wildlife Division
Department of Lands and Forests
Edmonton, Alberta

APPLICATIONS MUST BE POSTMARKED NOT LATER THAN SEPTEMBER 2nd, 1967.

Keohane - Kozack vows pledged on June 3rd

The Ryley St. John Vianney Catholic Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on the morning of June 3rd when Geraldine Marie Kozack, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Kozack was united in marriage to Garry Daniel Keohane 3rd eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Keohane of Round Hill.

Father J.L. Scriven officiated. Altar boys were Neil Klawitter and Jerry Rokos. Wedding music was supplied by Teresita Encarnacion and vocalists were Sofia Corrales, Coly Reyes and Eugina Marquez.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white nylon sheer over taffeta embossed with lace appliques around full skirt which formed a long train at the waist. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion net fell from a head-piece of roses, pearls and crystal and her bouquet was red roses.

Attending the bride were Evelyn Kozack, sister of the bride, Sandra Klawitter, cousin of the bride and Gail Kirkelund friend of the bride. They wore identical street-length dresses of turquoise peau-de-soie with chiffon trains falling from shoulders. Their bouquets were white roses with miniature turquoise roses and lily of the valley.

The groom was attended by George Rakowski, Leonard Keohane, brother of the groom and Allan Banack. The ushers were Dennis Patrick and Joseph Kozack, cousins of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a blue lace dress with jacket and white accessories. The groom's mother chose a green lace dress and jacket with beige accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink roses.

A reception for 350 guests was held at the Elks Hall at Round Hill.

A lovely three-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table. Stanley Perka was master of ceremonies and Edwin Klawitter, uncle and godfather of the bride proposed the toast to the bride.

The reception was followed by a dance in the Elks Hall.

For her going away outfit the bride [illegible] a two-piece suit of orange [illegible] for a honeymoon [illegible] the U.S.A. The happy couple are making their home in [illegible] where both are employed.

Triangles for safety ok'd by government

Approval by the Alberta government of two triangular safety devices has been announced by the Honorable Gordon E. Taylor, Alberta Minister of Highways.

Approved was a red hollow triangle as an advance warning for a stopped vehicle on the highway. The triangle may be used in the same way as red flags, flares, lamps, lanterns or reflectors. They must be placed at least 100 feet in front of and behind a stalled or stopped public service or commercial vehicle, and must be visible from a distance of 500 feet.

Approval was also given for the use of a solid triangle as a warning marker for slow-moving vehicles and equipment, or any animal-drawn vehicle or machinery operating at speeds of less than 25 miles per hour on any highway. The symbol may be used now, and will be required on all such vehicles after next January 1.

The solid triangle must be a base-down equilateral triangle of fluorescent yellow-orange film with a base of 14 inches and a height of 12 inches, with reflective red strips around the outside. It should be placed as high as possible on the equipment.

Drs. John Woytuck & K. L. Cullum are pleased to announce that
DR. GLENN R. BARON
HAS JOINED THEM IN THE PRACTICE OF DENTISTRY
Ph. 699-7771 - 400 Evergreen St., Sherwood Park, Alta.
Dr. Baron will be in Tofield for the Practice of Dentistry at Dr. Freebury's office every Tuesday, beginning June 27th. Office hours: 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Please use side entrance.

Each applicant who is not drawn on his "first choice" area has an equal opportunity to be selected in his "second choice", etc. All applications must be submitted on a special form available only at Provincial Fish and Wildlife Offices. As illegible or incomplete applications do not qualify, it is import to carefully read the instructions.

A money order or certified cheque payable to the Provincial Treasurer must be enclosed with each application.

— $5.00 FOR NON-TROPHY SHEEP LICENCE

Completed applications should be forwarded to:

Fish and Wildlife Division
Department of Lands and Forests
Edmonton, Alberta

APPLICATIONS MUST BE POSTMARKED NOT LATER THAN AUGUST 19th, 1967

Recipe box

With the fruit season at its height everyone wishes to enjoy the fresh flavor of fruits as long as possible.

Peach parfait is a dessert using fresh fruit and Freezer Apricot Jam retains the fresh flavor best.

PEACH PARFAIT

- ½ cup sugar
- 2 tbsp. cornstarch
- ⅛ tsp. salt
- 1 egg
- 2 cups milk
- 1 tbsp. butter
- 1½ tsp. vanilla
- Diced or sliced peaches
- Whipped cream
- Maraschino cherries

Mix together in saucepan, sugar cornstarch, salt and egg. Gradually stir in milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture boils. Boil 1 minute. Stir in butter and vanilla. Cool, stirring occasionally to prevent a skin forming.

To serve, spoon layers of the fresh diced or sliced peaches alternately with the custard into parfait glasses or sherbert glasses. Garnish with whipped cream and maraschino cherries. Serves about 8.

Note: If desired, a commercial custard mix may be used in place of preparing the above custard.

FREEZER APRICOT JAM

- 2 cups finely mashed apricots
- 1 tsp. powdered citric acid
- 4 cups [illegible]
- 1 pkt. powdered pectin, OR
- ½ bottle liquid pectin.

Combine mashed fruit, citric acid and sugar. Let stand 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir powdered pectin into [illegible] and bring to a boil. Boil rapidly 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add fruit and stir about 2 minutes. Pour into jelly jars or freezer containers, cover and let stand at room temperature 24 to 48 hours or until set. Seal with paraffin and store in the freezer. If using liquid pectin, omit powdered pectin and NO cooking is necessary.

Bethel LCW meets

(Mrs. S. Koledychuk)

RYLEY — Bethel Lutheran Church women held their regular meeting last week with Mrs. A. Bugge presiding. Borghild Sundlie opened the meeting with prayer. Bible Study was led by Mrs. Alma Adams, and cause of pensions was read by Mrs. Charlie Magneson.

As the new colored glass windows in the church are installed and paid for out of the Memorial Fund, the women decided that the next memorial project will be a new organ. The women also plan to paint the interior of the church and paint the new parsonage.

Several ladies with summer birthdays were congratulated and "Happy Birthday" was sung to them.

The hostess, Mrs. Elvin Knudslien and Mrs. Charles Magneson served a lovely lunch to a large number of friends and visitors.

Modern etiquette

Q. Is it all right to have nicknames engraved on personal stationary?

A. No.

Q. When two married couples attend a dinner dance together, is each of the husbands supposed to dance the first dance with the other man's wife?

A. No, each man's first dance is with his own wife.

Q. I have just become engaged to a young man who is about to enter the military service, and our wedding date is very uncertain. Would it be proper for us to make public announcement of our engagement?

A. Under these circumstances, yes.

Consumers spotlight meat grading

OTTAWA.—The Consumers' Association of Canada in the July-August edition of "Canadian Consumer" takes a hard look at beef grading in the leading article. There are 11 different grades of beef, the magazine points out, and the average meat-consumer only thinks of red and blue brands.

Part of the story, titled "Red or blue? Is it up to par?" lists the 11 grades and the color used to identify them.

An accompanying article, "Cold Turkey (frozen that is)" reports on the problem of spotting a turkey that has been thawed and re-frozen.

The magazine also has the first of two new features—"Consumers speak", which is a letter page, and "The problem column" which highlights questions sent in to the association's consumer problems committee.

"Canadian Consumer", published bi-monthly, is available at $3 yearly from Consumers' Association of Canada, 100 Gloucester Street, Ottawa 4.

(By A. C. Gordon)

You are the Detective

You bend over the body of Tom Simms, operator of the soft drink concession at the [illegible] fairgrounds. The ugly, [illegible] crusted wound over his left temple testifies the cause of his death, but a search of the immediate vicinity has not revealed any weapon.

Two men stand nearby. One of them is Frank Mason, [illegible] of the fairgrounds, [illegible] is Jim Jenkins, one of the workers who discovered the body.

"It was around midnight", Jenkins tells you, "and most of the people had left. I was walking near Tom Simms' place here and I saw a man bent over Tom's body on the ground. I couldn't see in the dark who this other guy was . . . I started towards him, and he took off in the dark. Then I saw Tom was dead! I was really scared! Finally, though, I ran to Mr. Mason's office and told him about it."

"Poor old Tom," Frank Mason mutters. "I was talking with him only about an hour before this happened . . . he told me he had had a good night's business . . . more than $300. All the money is gone now, though. I just checked his cash drawer. You know . . . someone could have been close by and heard Tom telling me how much money he had taken in . . . Tom didn't have the softest voice in the world, you know." Mason pauses to relight the cigar stump clenched between his teeth, then continues. "It was a real shock when Jenkins tore into my office with the news that Tom had been slugged over the head with one of his own soft drink bottles! A terrible, terrible thing."

"How long have you been employed here?" you ask Jim Jenkins.

"Oh, about two weeks," replies Jenkins as he rubs a grimy hand over the stubby growth of beard on his chin. "I work for lots of fairs and carnivals . . . all over the country. I'm sort of a traveling worker."

"And you are going to do some more traveling right now," you say. "You're going to travel with me to headquarters for some intensive questioning on this murder."

Why do you suspect Jim Jenkins of this crime?

SOLUTION

Although you are unable to find any sign of a murder weapon in the vicinity of the crime, Jim Jenkins revealed his possible guilt when, according to Frank Mason's story, he came running into Mason's office with the news that Tom Simms had been slugged over the head with an empty soft-drink bottle.

Postage stamp honors late Governor General

A Governor General Vanier Commemorative Stamp to be issued by the Canada Post Office on September 13 will have a reproduction of a Yousuf Karsh portrait. The issue will be unique among Canadian stamps in that the design elements include a reduced reproduction of the late Governor General's signature.

Issuance of this stamp recognizes the late Governor General as a Canadian who achieved outstanding success as a soldier, diplomat and statesman. He was the first native-born Canadian whose death occurred while serving in the vice regal role. Born in Montreal on April 23, 1888, he died on March 5, 1967. The release date for the new stamp was selected to coincide with the anniversary of the date on which General Vanier took the oath of office as Governor General of Canada in 1959.

Holden news

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Mr. and Mrs. Don McFadyen and children are spending holidays in and around Kelowna, B.C., visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols were visitors in Edmonton on Sunday of last week at the home of Art Siegal and his sister, Mrs. Martha Hurum.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Clara Armstrong, who was a patient in the General Hospital, Edmonton, for several weeks where she underwent Traumatic surgery on her hip, returned home a few days ago, but will have to be on crutches for some time yet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Semotuik and Debbie and Jackie returned home last Sunday evening after holidaying at Jasper, and visiting with friends, and at Banff for a week.

Visiting with Mrs. Bertha Chetney last week were her daughter Helen and two sons, from Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hardy returned home the end of this past week after a five week holiday visiting at various points in Eastern Canada. There were overnight guests with Mr. and Mrs. Lew Ruskenveld in Ottawa, and spent two days at Expo.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bell of Regina, Sask., were visitors in Holden on Friday and during the weekend. Ethel and Dave have been holidaying with friends in several points in Alberta. Dave, a former businessman and later principal of Bruce School, is now with the Dept. of Education in Saskatchewan, compiling a curriculum for Vocational schools in that province.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Coutu are away on holidays visiting at various points in Eastern Canada with relatives, and also planning to spend several days at Expo.

Mrs. Olga Bilyk is taking her annual vacation, and Mrs. Mary Semotuik is helping at the post-office while she is off duty.

HOME FROM BRITAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly have returned home from their six week holiday trip to Ireland and England, where they visited with relatives. Mrs. Kelly in Ireland and Mr. Kelly spent two weeks in northern England around Leeds and at Doncaster, Yorkshire, with his sister and family. They made the trip by air, leaving and returning to Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly and family, who have been on holiday for the past two weeks visiting with relatives at Fort St John and at other points in B.C., returned home at the weekend.

Mrs. Paul Friend (nee Annie Black), of Edmonton, was visiting with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Black, and calling on other friends last Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Hooper and son Melvin, who have been visiting for two weeks with their families in Kimberly, B.C., returned home last week. Debbie Giebelhaus of Edmonton is spending some of her holiday visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Hooper, and with her uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Liten, with their daughters, Audre (Mrs. Harold Giebelhaus) and Ardis (Mrs. Gordon Hafsal), of North Hollywood, California, arrived at Nisku airport on Saturday, after spending the past six weeks on a holiday trip to Sweden and other points, visiting with relatives.

First visit to Canada thrills English guests

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crispin left for Paignton, Devonshire, England, last Thursday, after visiting since July 3 with Stan's brother, Reg and family, in Tofield.

While here the Crispins drove 3,200 miles on a tour through the Badlands of Drumheller, Glacier National Park, through British Columbia and Washington. They enjoyed a tour through the pulp mill at Port Alberni, B.C., and a visit to the Butchart Gardens in Victoria was indeed a thrill. While in the Okanagan Valley, they enjoyed the experience of picking cherries; and Banff was a dream come true for the visitors.

After touring only a small portion of our huge country, the Crispins left with some definite dislikes and likes. The cost of living they found quite high, but the scenery of the mountains compensated for this. Campsites, set up by the Alberta Department of Highways, they thought were excellent. They were amazed at the many huge cars; our paved highways were the best, they thought, but the dusty gravel roads left much to be desired.

A final compliment was paid to Canadian garages for their clean attendants and the kind attention to windshields when one pulled in for gas.

Teachers start on 1st . . .

Schools don't open until September 5

Throughout the County of Beaver, pupils begin classes on Tuesday, September 5, The Mercury learned this week from County School Superintendent Marvin Bruce.

School starts at 9:00 a.m. that day, and will continue in operation for the full day.

While pupils get a break and don't have to report on the 1st, however, the same is not extended to teachers who will all report for duties on the Friday before the holiday. Full staff and sectional staff meetings will be held that day, to help ensure the program gets off to a good start.

Holden couple marks 25 years of marriage

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN.—Mr. and Mrs. Mike P. Komarnisky were honored guests at their silver wedding anniversary celebration held in the Holden Community Hall on August 3.

Before the supper, held in the hall, a blessing ceremony of their marriage was performed by Rev. Father B. Lozynski at the Greek Catholic Church.

The head table was beautifully decorated with garden flowers, centred with a two-tiered wedding anniversary cake, decorated with white roses, silver leaves and a silver figure "25".

A toast to the guests of honor was proposed by their only son, Richard. Mike Zowtuik was the very able master of ceremonies, and he presented the happy couple with a set of silver from all the guests, and many other gifts from relatives and friends. Joe Komarnisky and James Tymchuk were in charge of the guest book.

Mike [redacted] Anne very graciously thanked all their many friends and relatives for the lovely celebration, the [redacted]utiful gifts and all the kind wishes for their future happiness.

The evening was spent in dancing, with music supplied by John Bilyk's orchestra. Many out-of-town guests attended from Edmonton, Mundare, Lamont, Vegreville, Wetaskiwin and Calgary.

B.C. bans tourists from fire-plagued forests

Due to the gravity of the forest fire situation, a recreational ban which went into effect at midnight Tuesday has closed all forests of southern British Columbia. The ban includes the southern half of the Kamloops forestry district, most of the Vancouver forest district and parts of the Nelson forest district.

In announcing the bans, Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston said Tuesday that two aircraft from Ontario and one from Alberta are helping fight the fires in the interior of the province. There are now 337 fires burning in B.C., which are being fought by 3,291 fire fighters, 170 tractors and 19 water bomber aircraft.

Tourists anticipating holidaying in the areas mentioned should contact their nearest travel bureau to learn which places are affected by the ban.

Norton - Fiske wedding solemnized August 19

(Mrs. S. Kolabychuk)

RYLEY, Aug. 22. — On August 19, the Pleasant View United Church was the setting for a lovely wedding ceremony, when Kay Fiske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fiske of Edmonton, became the bride of Mr. Randy Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Norton of Ryley. The matrimonial rites were performed by Dr. Thompson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white satin, with long train. Her chapel-length veil was held in place by a seed pearl band, and she carried a bouquet of red rosebuds.

Her attendant was Miss Darlene Kuhn of Ryley, who wore a long yellow taffeta gown with lace bodice, and a tiara with yellow net in her hair.

The groom was attended by Warren Kushir of Ryley.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of pink, with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride for relatives and close friends.

The happy couple will make their home in Edmonton.

District news items from Ryley

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Klawitter and family have returned from a two-week holiday. They motored to Vancouver, and enjoyed touring Stanley Park; and from there went on to Victoria where they visited the Butchard Gardens. A few days were spent in Washington, USA. On returning, they visited with Edwin's aunt, Mrs. K. Bell in Okanagan Falls.

Glen and Wade Magneson and Bryce Albrecht are attending the Bill Gadsby Hockey School in the Edmonton Gardens for a week. The Magneson boys earned their own tuition fee by working during the holidays.

Mrs. Wilmer Magneson and family are spending a week in Edmonton at her parent's home while they are away on holidays. She will also cook for the boys while they are attending hockey school.

Ludwig Lamdin has been visiting with several relatives and friends here for the past week. He left for Hudson Hope, B.C. to visit with his son Albert before returning to Richmond, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kozdrowski and Lyle were visitors at the John Kozdrowski home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Halberg and Mrs. Fred Loades spent the weekend at Penhold visiting the Halberg's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Seniuk and Mr. and Mrs. George Hunchuk were on a three-day camping and fishing trip to Long Lake. They reported enjoyable weather and fine fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kolodychuk of Edmonton were visiting with relatives and friends on Sunday.

Ministik news

Mrs. J. Reddick

Loris Schwuchow, 14, along with other members of Arlene Webber's Edmonton Klondike Majorettes, performed at Expo in Montreal and at the request of Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, also performed at Parliament Hill on August 7. This was an all-expense-paid trip for these young performers, and an experience none will forget. On her return Lori was met by her parents, Mr and Mrs Karl Schwuchow and sister Edith at Nisku airport, where they started on a motor trip to San Francisco and other western points in California.

WIN BALL TROPHY

In a best two-out-of-three series in the playoffs in the local ball league, Ministik came out on top in their second game against Spilstead, by a score of 8-0. This was played on the Spilstead diamond on Sunday afternoon. Ministik therefore is the proud possessor of the H. Dunham trophy, for a year. A great deal of credit goes to the players, as well as to coach Russell Rowland and manager Ralph Leach.

Murray Rowland, who had been employed with the CNR at Tofield, is now stationed at Viking.

The big bonfire and wiener roast sponsored by the Community Club was well attended on Sunday evening, at the Jim Holmes farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Loch and Avery left last Wednesday for a vacation in Kamloops, B.C., and the Okanagan Valley. Melvin plans to do some deep-sea fishing on the coast with his brother Raymond.

AT FUNERAL

Members of the Ferguson families motored to Lougheed on Tuesday, to attend the funeral of David Love. He was buried beside his wife Maggie Ferguson Love, who was a sister of Andrew, Matthew and Archie Ferguson, Mrs. Annie Oliver and Mrs. Dick Wilson, of this area.

More laurels came to a former resident of Ministik when Mrs. Irene Williams had a fiction article printed in the Country Guide of August. Not only is Mrs Williams a writer but her daughter, Dorothy Dick merited an article printed in the Writers' Corner of The Edmonton Journal, about Charles Russell, the Cowboy Artist.

Several people from this district enjoyed the afternoon at the re-scheduled picnic held at the Hastings Lake recreation park.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector Hamilton of Fort Macleod were visitors last week at the home of Mrs. Hamilton's sister, Mrs. Russell Rowland. They made several calls in the short time they were here to old friends and school chums.

Pool re-opens at Ryley

First of its kind

Part of the crowd at the official opening of the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator at Ryley last Saturday are shown checking the facts on the structure while Ingvold Ness, delegate, itemizes them from the printed sheet.
—Tofield Mercury Newsphoto.

The Alberta Wheat Pool officially re-opened their elevator at Ryley on Saturday. Officials announced it as being the first of its kind in Western Canada. They apologized for closing their elevator at Shonts but hoped the modern house at Ryley would more than take its place. Officials who took part in the opening were Ingvald Ness, delegate from Kingman; Walter Crow, divisional superintendent from Calgary, Jim Thygesen, travelling superintendent; Frank Wilkinson, public relations representative, and several agents from the district.

Ingvald Ness, who acted as chairman, gave the audience a brief history of the Alberta Wheat Pool's activities in the district. He also drew attention to the features of the new building.

Acting Mayor of Ryley Ed Albrecht cut the ribbon. Complimenting the organization on their elevator, he welcomed the service to Ryley.

The Alberta Wheat Pool had been operating an elevator and an annex in Ryley, but during the summer service was suspended temporarily while the two former buildings were joined, making the entire complex a single operation. It now has one entrance, one office, and the complete operation is controlled from a central point. Capacity of the renovated structure is 119,000 bushels. It has 44 bins all fully hoppered. The scale has a maximum capacity of 10 tons, with a 24 by 8 foot platform. Handling capacity is given at 4,000 to 5,000 bushels per hour.

Special guests introduced were: agents, Don Cawsey of Kingman, Llef Foshaug of Bardo and Jim Weir of Shonts; visiting delegate Mike Ropchan of Willingdon, and Ryley agent Howard Berke.

Following the official program, visitors were taken on a tour of the building then for coffee and lunch.

Bazaar of Values in home stretch

The highly successful "Bazaar of Values" in The Mercury Area is in the home stretch, with only one week remaining.

This will be the last week that residents of The Mercury Area will have an opportunity to take advantage of the many savings being offered by the merchants displaying "Bazaar of Values" posters.

To date, the "Bazaar of Values" being offered by the merchants in The Mercury Area has been highly successful, with both merchants and consumers benefiting from the bargains being offered.

This is it! Your last chance! The "Bazaar of Values" is in the home stretch, heading for the finish line. Don't lose out. Shop where you see "Bazaar of Values" posters and SAVE!

Harvest in full swing

Weather at Tofield was warm and dry in the week ending August 25, with a temperature high of 87° F. Swathing had started and was expected to be general this week, although the crops were described as "below average".

Oddly enough considering the late spring, crops in the Ryley district were a week ahead of last year in maturity. Cutting had started and, as in most districts, was expected to be general at the end of this month, and threshing in the first week of sept.

A few of the early fields were combined at Bardo during the week and swathing had started.

School committee meets Aug. 9th

Following are minutes, in part, of the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee meeting, held Wednesday, August 9.

Concerning gas buses for sale, a request for a bus by the Tofield Lions Club and by the Holden Elks Club, was referred to the Committee. The sale to be for the sum of $1.00.

In this connection, Mr. Semeluh mentioned that the Holden Elks Club had asked if they could exchange the bus in a couple of years time for a newer bus. The Committee was of the opinion that such a request should be considered as the case arises.

It was moved and carried that one school bus be sold to the Tofield Lions Club for the sum of $1.00, and one to the Holden Elks Club for the sum of $1.00.

In regards to the Youth Travel Program, a letter from the chaperones, Father Landry and Mrs. Therese Arneneau, conveying on behalf of the Centennial Travel Group 61 of Magdalen Islands, the thanks for the experience of the days spent in the County, was referred to the Committee. The secretary-treasurer referred to the day when the students were leaving to go back home, July 17, and the program that had been followed that day. The students, who had been the guests of families in the Ryley area, had been taken to Jasper National Park on the weekend, and also Father Landry and Mrs. Arneneau. Students from one of the other areas had travelled to St. Paul, where they had enjoyed a pleasant weekend.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

The School Committee was of the opinion that the Youth Travel Program was of great value to the youth of the Dominion and that, if at all possible, the program should be continued.

Moved and carried that the School Committee, County of Beaver No. 9, Ryley, Alberta urges the Federal and Provincial governments to continue the Youth Travel Program since the School Committee is impressed with this means of increasing understanding and good-will on the part of the youth from the Provinces and Territories of Canada participating in this type of exchange.

In regards to the teacherages at Ryley, Mr. Bruce reported that the repainting had been done except for the basement suite in the duplex. It was noted that the lawns around the teacherages had been seeded by Nick Shibinski and his crew.

CORRESPONDENCE

Letter of appreciation from the Viking 4-H Dairy Club, who had been allowed to use the school bus garage and school grounds for their achievement day, was referred to the School Committee.

Moved and carried that the letter be received and filed.

The Committee was informed that the Lamont School Division wanted the County to pick up the bagmen children. These children, up until now, have been attending school at Lamont but

Glenda Patterson wins $800 music scholarship

Miss Glenda Patterson of Tofield has received a $800 scholarship to further her studies in music from the Cultural Development Scholarship awarded by the Province of Alberta.

Miss Patterson is one of 33 persons in the province who will receive the Local scholarship of $400 being awarded in the field of music.

In all, two hundred and twenty-five Albertans shared in the total $47,800 being offered in scholarships in the field of music, drama, dance, arts and crafts, and librarianship.

The 1967 total is the largest in the 12-year history of the awards, announced by the Hon. Ambrose Holowach, Alberta's Provincial Secretary.

Cutting the ribbon

Ed. Albrecht, acting mayor for the Village of Ryley, has just cut the ribbon and officially declared the big elevator at Ryley open. It is reported to be the largest and first of its kind in Western Canada. —Tofield Mercury Newsphoto

MacDuff Ottawa Report

Mr. Pearson stays on

OTTAWA — Prime Minister L. B. Pearson summoned a press conference in mid August to talk about the large amount of legislation that will go before Parliament this Fall. He also spoke of the strenuous efforts being made by the Cabinet to cut government spending, both now and in the future.

Massive cuts in government expenditures have to be made if Finance Minister Mitchell Sharp is going to be able to hold his deficit for 1967-68 under the one billion dollar mark and down to the $740 millions he forecast in his last budget. Mr Sharp took a look at the rate of rise in government spending this year and after examining the preliminary departmental estimates for the coming fiscal year, 1968-69 he blew the whistle.

A series of special Cabinet meetings was called. The ministers were told of the critical financial situation and took on the tremendous task of slashing the estimates. As always each minister vigorously defended his own estimates but agreed with the others that another department's proposed expenditures for the coming year could and should be cut. And so the fact-facing meetings progressed with "tens of millions", in the words of Mr. Pearson, cut out of the proposed spending. More will have to be sliced if the government is to avoid a crisis.

After viewing with some satisfaction the results of his grim warning to the Cabinet, Mr Sharp took off for a two weeks' holiday in Europe. On his return there will be still more cutting sessions.

Newsmen listened to the Prime Minister's recital of the problems with interest. Then one enquired if the Prime Minister's remarks did not seem to indicate that he planned "to be with us for some time to come?"

Mr. Pearson replied, "I certainly plan to be with you for some time to come".

"Will you be here with us long into 1968, sir?" another newsman enquired.

The Prime Minister replied, "I know you'll be very sorry to see me go. I'm having a wonderful summer. I've never had so much to do in my life in a summer; and so many unusual things to do. Indeed, if I weren't young and vigorous and full of zeal and go, I'd never be able to stand it".

Another reporter asked, "Are you surprised to find a leadership race going on in your own party?"

"There isn't any leadership race in my own party, but we have to get an occasional headline, you know", said Mr. Pearson.

This exchange immediately produced a rash of newspaper stories forecasting that the Prime Minister has changed his mind and now plans to stay on in office well into 1968—if not throughout 1968. It certainly seems to indicate that the Prime Minister is now by no means clear in his own mind as to just when he should indicate that he is stepping down from the office of Prime Minister and leader of the national Liberal party.

At one time he had been dropping hints that he might declare his intentions to retire early this Fall and after the Party got a leadership convention organized by January or February of 1968, he would retire. But now he seems to have moved further into the future, the date on which he will definitely call it quits and return to private life.

It is likely that the Prime Minister has heeded the word that has been coming into national Liberal headquarters from across the country. The word coming through loud and clear is that all talk about the Prime Minister retiring soon will be dropped. It does not make for unity [illegible] a political [illegible] for the them [illegible] to be [illegible] the lea[illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] Liberal party [illegible] up [illegible] Liberals in the [illegible] approach [illegible] If Mr Pea[illegible] then there will be [illegible] Minister Paul [illegible] Finance Minister M[illegible] Defence Minister [illegible] Trade [illegible] There [illegible] involved

[illegible] for the Party and the Government.

The message has been received at Ottawa and understood. Hence Mr. Pearson, while not directly declaring that he will not be soon retiring, did say he will be with the newspapermen "for some time to come". That could mean until the Spring of 1968.

Meantime Mr. Pearson is watching and watching with considerable interest the developments with the Conservative party. If that party's leadership convention selects an eager, bright young leader to replace John Diefenbaker then Mr Pearson will definitely step down next year, according to his close associates. But if Mr Diefenbaker is re-elected national Tory leader, then Mr Pearson might just decide to stay on throughout 1968. He is enjoying his job.

The 'Hippie' movement

One of the feature stories in the news lately was the invasion of city hall in Toronto by a group of 'hippies', seeking to have their section of the city closed to traffic, along with the right to decide rules and regulations concerning the governing of that area of the city.

Most of the members of these so-called 'hippies' can best be described as a [illegible] unwashed bunch of beard-growing [illegible] society. They [illegible] have no real goals in life, except possibly to be able to enjoy what the world has to offer, without ever paying for it.

The 'hippie' movement is centered, for the moment, in Toronto and Vancouver, but many other centers are starting to notice the effects of the movement. At the present time, hippie groups are trying hard to organize in Edmonton, and what happens in a city as close as Edmonton, is bound to have some effect on the northern and central regions of the province.

We are fortunate, and let's hope our good fortune continues, in that we do not have in our presence, members of the younger generation who wish to classify themselves as being 'hippies'.

The Posties have a point

It came as something of a surprise [illegible] other day to realize the [illegible] sought to persuade the [illegible] they were entitled to a [illegible] July 1st - July 3rd [illegible] actually have a point, and [illegible] [illegible] joy, so July 3rd was given them. But anyone whose normal day off was July 3rd didn't get a day in lieu.

What this all added up to was that some workers got three days off [illegible] while other workers got one day less. So the Postal Union does have a point.

It was handed to them on a platter by a government [illegible] [illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Globelhaus of Sherwood Park were visitors on Wednesday evening with the former's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Globelhaus, and with his parents. Reuben also attended the Holden Mutual Telephone Co. directors' meeting.

Julian Havres of Calgary was visiting over the weekend with his aunt, Mrs. Rosie Havres.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and children were Sunday evening visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Taylor.

Stephen Jacabow of Kingston, Ontario, visited for several days with his family, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jakabow, returning east on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gorrie and children of Vancouver arrived Friday evening, visiting with his mother, Mrs. Roy Nichols, and Mr. Nichols, leaving on Tuesday for their return trip home. Their eldest son is to be married in Vancouver the beginning of September, and Mr. and Mrs. Nichols are planning to attend the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Padlecki and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Litun and family of Chipman, former Holden residents, were recent Sunday visitors here with friends.

LIGHT POLES TOPPLE

During the wind storm Thursday afternoon, a strong gust blew down the street light onto the sidewalk, outside the post-office. No one was hurt, although someone came out of the office just as the large light and arm crashed down, the pole swaying badly in the wind. The lamp hit Lester Nordstrom's truck parked there, scratching the right hand door. Another light also blew down near Olson and Armstrong's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Beveridge, who have been holidaying for the past month in Eastern Canada, visiting Expo at Montreal and at points with friends in the U.S., have returned home.

Natural gas has been in use in Alberta for more than 75 years, since it was first put into service for street lighting in Medicine Hat.

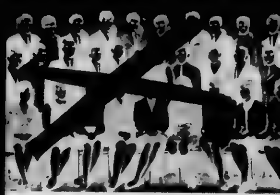
The dead classroom



A startling and proven fact: one classroom of high school students is wiped out every week because of car accidents.

It is an unbearable statistic, but true. More young Canadians are killed in automobile accidents than by any other cause.

Young drivers as a group are involved in more automobile accidents than any other drivers. This is the simple reason insurance rates are higher for them.

We, in the automobile insurance industry, provide training courses, bursaries and technical assistance to high school instructors to help them teach safe driving to their students.

Students who pass approved high school driver training courses earn lower insurance premiums.

At present, only 14% of high schools across Canada have these driver training courses.

Parents, teachers — just ask yourselves: Must a classroom be wiped out next week?

You can help prevent such tragedies by supporting driver training programmes in your community.

The Holden Drug Store which for a number of years has been a landmark in the village of Holden, has been sold to

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Malick

and will henceforth be carried on as a

Variety Store

The standard lines of items that have been available in the past will continue to be available under the new owners.

Prescriptions may be left at the store

Arrangements have been made with Crossroads Pharmacy at Viking to fill these prescriptions, and then they may be picked up again at the Variety Store.

Mr. Malick realizes that there may be a day's delay in this service, and asks customers' indulgence until all aspects of this service are tested.

THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. McDonell, who are leaving to take up residence in Drumheller, wish to thank their many friends and patrons in the district for patronage; and also for their kindness in arranging a farewell party for them. They wish Milt and his wife every success in their new venture; and to the customers they serve

Holden

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)
(Intended for last week)

HOLDEN—NO HED

Mr. and Mrs. Somers of Calgary spent a few days over the weekend with their daughter and family, the Ted Applebys, returning home Tuesday.

WINS $250

Geo H. Taylor was very pleasantly surprised Tuesday to hear that he had been fortunate in winning $250 at the Viking Carena Bingo, held Monday evening, splitting a $500 prize with a second winner. Mr. Taylor's card was played by proxy.

Mrs. Marian Tkaczyk is back in the office of the Treasury office and Drayden's Insurance, after being on holiday for the past month.

COFFEE SHOP HAS NEW MANAGERS

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Spafford, who have been operating the Holden Hotel Coffee Shop for the past year and a half, left Wednesday, August 16, for Wyoming and other points in the U.S., planning to holiday for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Minisa of British Columbia arrived a week ago and are now operating the coffee shop.

Robert Taylor and young son Aaron were visitors Thursday evening at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lemko are holidaying with relatives at Hafford, Sask., where their daughters have been staying with their grandparent.

Mrs. Lily Thygeson of Calgary recently visited for a few days with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kachman were Sunday visitors with their son and family and daughter in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Blair of Taber left Tuesday of last week to visit with their daughter and husband for a couple of weeks. Eleanor was helping at the Liden store for six weeks while Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Liden were away visiting with relatives in Sweden and touring other Scandinavian countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knudson have returned from a two-week holiday trip, visiting with relatives in Idaho and Washington. Eddie Knudson was looking after the farm and doing chores while they were away.

MOVE FROM DETROIT

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ermantroudt and family, who have been residents in Holden and district for the past few years, and farming the last year and a half on the Ruskenveld farm, left two weeks ago for Drayton Valley, where they will make their future home, with Lloyd working there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giebelhaus were callers with Mrs. Campbell at Leduc Hospital on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Campbell had had the graft operation on her leg Thursday evening and is feeling much improved. She was hoping to be able to leave hospital the early part of the week to stay with her daughter Marjorie and family, the Ken Campbells, for several days.

David Sorensen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sorensen, is at home recuperating from recent surgery.

Ross Christianson of Edmonton stayed with his mother over the weekend, helping with the sale and making other arrangements.

Mrs. Laura Christianson, who has been staying at her home in Holden for the past four weeks, held a very successful auction sale Saturday afternoon, there being many antiques for sale. Mrs. Christianson will be making her future home at Bethany Home in Camrose. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Christianson of Kelowna, BC, who have been visiting with her for the past month, left Monday on their return trip home, taking Mrs. Christianson back to Camrose.

Interest is mounting in Camrose gun shoot

Interest is building up in the annual Camrose Rifle and Revolver Club's shoot, scheduled for the Club's shooting grounds on Sunday, Sept., 10, according to club officials.

Shooters entered will be trying for a total of 13 trophies, eight of which were donated by various Camrose businesses, with the other five being presented by the club.

The main event will be a trap shoot, with each shooter taking aim at 25 birds, as they compete for two trophies.

The shoot gets started at 10.00 a.m., with an entry deadline on each shoot except the trap shoot. The club will also operate a lunch booth at the range all day.

Handgun events will include two events of ten shots each at a target 20 yards away, while four rifle categories will be up for grabs, including target shots of 20 yards away, while four rifle categories will be up for grabs, including target shots of 20 yards, and 100 yards, with one or two trick categories among the awards.

WITH CARAVAN

Last week Pat and Jeanie Sears joined the Yellowhead Motor Caravan and motored as far as Kamloops, B.C., then left the group and holidayed for a few days in the Okanagan Valley. There were over 80 cars in the caravan.

Judy Mitchell arrived by plane and surprised her mother Sunday on her birthday. The McLeods of Lindbrook also came and prepared a barbecue dinner and held a birthday party in her honor. Later in the afternoon guests were Kay Coombes and her mother, Mrs. Olson of Holden and Rita and George Williams.

Grace and Herman Lawson recently visited with Miss Mabel Lawson and Roy and Mildred Lee in Edmonton.

Jimmy Runka of Edmonton was visiting with his cousin David Schultz a few days last week.

Ruth Ellen Sears is at home with her family a while before going back to school.

Modern etiquette

Q. Is it necessary to write anything besides your name on the card that you enclose with a wedding gift?

A. You may if you wish, but it isn't necessary.

Q. When there is no one waiting on the table, and the serving dishes are passed from hand to hand, are they passed to the left or to the right?

A. It is more practical to pass them to the right, so that the person receiving the dish in his left hand can easily help himself with his right.

Q. Is it necessary always to answer a wedding invitation?

A. An invitation to a home wedding must always be answered. One to a church wedding must be answered only if it includes an invitation to the reception following.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

Q. I have just become engaged to a young man who is about to enter the military service, and our wedding date is very uncertain. Would it be proper for us to make public announcement of our engagement?

A. Under these circumstances, yes.

Q. The organist and soloist who will play and sing at my wedding are very good friends, and are not asking a fee. Should I give them sort or a gift instead?

A. This would be the appreciative thing to do, and in fact, under the circumstances, it is customary.

Moved and carried that Miss ...Hellestveit's child be permitted ...o attend school at Ryley and ...hat the bus route be continued ...s at present with the provision ...hat owing to changing some of ...he children attending school rather than the Bruce school. This was considered quite in order and it was moved and carried that the request be granted.

Cr. Knudsen stated that Mr. Allan Hellestveit on Sec. 18-48-18-W4th would like to have his child attend school at Ryley. It was noted that the Holden school has given right past the gate and that with the present bus route, the Ryley bus would have to travel an additional three miles per day. It was, however, considered that bus routes as applied at Ryley would need to be changed.

Mrs. Lund carried that Miss Hellestveit's child be permitted to attend school at Ryley and that the bus routes be continued as at present with the provision that owing to changing some of the children attending school rather than the Bruce school.

Superintendent's Report

It was moved and carried that the appointment of Mr. Leland W. Burry for Bishop and other high school subjects at the Holden school be approved. Mrs. Audrey Pratt be appointed as grade two in Bruce.

Nursery Applications

It was moved and carried that the following nursery applications be approved: Maurice Ryan, Peermont; Kevin Wentz, Ebla Acres; Helgelund, Gail Lynn and Bryan J. Stauffer.

It was moved and carried that the Vermilion Health Unit be allowed to use the facilities of the various schools in the County to carry out the Preventative Health Program.

Requests to have their children attend Vegreville Schools were received from Elmer Schultz, Jacob Mast, Albert Eigenauer, Herman Bauer, Barry Gerlach, Alan P. Burka, Nestor Boldyk and Daniel Gerlach. All teacherage be advertised for sale to be moved or demolished by November 1, 1967 with highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

If this and other requests were granted, it could disturb the whole conterminous boundaries. It was therefore moved and carried that the request be refused.

In regards to the disposal of the teacherage at Bruce it was moved and carried that the

Modern etiquette

Q. Should a person apologize for the crunching noise he can't help making when eating hard toast, celery, or something of that nature?

A. This is not necessary, since such noise is usually unavoidable and any apologies would serve merely to call more attention to it. Try, however, to muffle the noise as much as you can.

Q. I am mailing out about 200 wedding invitations. Would it be all right if I typed the address on the envelopes in order to save time?

A. Obviously not! This would be in the worst possible taste. Address them by hand.

Q. Is a bereaved family supposed to provide ushers to seat friends who attend the funeral services in a church?

A. No; this would be very unusual.

Q. If cake is served at a social function and no forks are provided how should one go about eating it?

A. Don't lift the entire slice of cake to your mouth. Break it into individual pieces, much as you would a slice of bread or bun, and then convey each morsel to the mouth with your fingers.

Q. May a knife be used to cut head lettuce at the table?

A. This is not only proper, but very practical.

(Mrs. Jos Knudson)

A lovely lawn party was held August 18 at the George Mosby home, when the fiancee, Mrs. George Mosby entertained on her birthday. Several games and a contest were enjoyed before lunch was served on the lawn. Present were Mrs. Alice Larsen, Dorothy Mildred Pedersen and Joyce and Nana Bergquist, Bisoff, Thelma Olson, Carmen Selma Debreets and Diane Bratrud, Lorraine and Bonny Hellestveit and Emma Knudson.

Marvin Roth has joined the staff of the Bank of Montreal in Edmonton.

Lloyd Bluer, Edmonton spent the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Bluer.

A land-mark, the Lidness School, built in 1904, was moved during the week to the Camrose Museum at the Exhibition Grounds, where it will be kept as a historical school of pioneer days.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holland, of Victoria B.C., Mrs. Devoldre and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pearce of Edmonton were Sunday guests with the Lawrence Pearces.

PARSNELL PARTY

A farewell party was held at Sandstone Church Sunday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Ole Pedersen and family before their departure to Lamont. Lawrence Holland was master of ceremonies for the short program. Suitable readings were given by Ed Knudson, Art Gibson, Lawrence Holland, Sophie Brue, Edna Aker, Geraldine Brown and Cara Payne. The ladies group ordered a hymn by Sophie Brue. Edna Lawrence Holland presented Owen with a purse of money. Carl and Ruby both expressed their thanks. Lunch was served by the ladies.

Older than Canada

Mrs. Alice Rorem of Camrose was honored by the Alberta Centennial Commission on Tuesday afternoon when she was presented with a silver tray honoring her as at least as old as Canada. In this case, Mrs. Rorem happens to be 101 years old. Gathered for the ceremony held at Bethany Nursing Home and Hospital were, left to right, Pastor Haugen, Mrs. Nora Olson of Edmonton, daughter of Mrs. Rorem, Dr. and Mrs. Chester Rorem, Chester Sayers, MLA, who made the presentation, and Jack Hanna, Centennial Officer from Edmonton.

Stewart - Zook wedding solemnized August 12

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN. — A lovely morning wedding was held Saturday, Aug. 12, at Borchie Church, when Charlotte Zook, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Zook of Holden, became the bride of Mr. Bernie Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stewart of Vegreville.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Orest Sobolins. The church was beautifully decorated and the guest pews marked by white satin bows.

The bride was radiant in a gown of white organza over bridal satin, designed in a slim line, with elbow-length sleeves and a long triple train. Her jewelry was a pearl pendant and ear-rings set in silver, and her bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Misses Judy Kelderwerk, Gail Gust, Marilyn Komarnisky and Donna Ogonoski, who were matching dresses of Capri blue lace and carried matching bags topped with carnations.

The groom was attended by Clearnce Pankey as best man. Larry Zook, Alfred Klymochko and Mike Hunka.

The mother of the bride chose a sheath dress of bronzie interwoven with gold, and a matching cape and blue accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue sheath dress, with white lace jacket and silver accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Holden Community Hall. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered, pearl - shaped wedding cake beautifully decorated with white roses.

For their honeymoon trip to California, the bride wore a two-piece coral suit, and a white rose corsage.

The happy couple will make their future home in Edmonton.

ANTELOPE and SAGE GROUSE
HUNTING LICENCE APPLICATIONS

TROPHY ANTELOPE SEASON
October 21st to October 28th

SAGE GROUSE SEASON
October 21st to October 24th

This year a random selection of a limited number of antelope and sage grouse licenses will be made from all properly completed applications received from Alberta residents. "Resident" means a person who is a Canadian citizen and who has resided in the Province for a period of three months immediately prior to the date of application for a licence, or who is not a Canadian citizen but has resided in the Province for a period of one year immediately prior to the date of his application for a licence.

Before applying for a licence it is necessary to have a 1967 Wildlife Certificate. A group of hunters, up to a maximum of four, who wish to hunt in the same vicinity may submit their applications in one envelope. Each applicant is allowed only one application. As there are several areas open to antelope hunting, please indicate on the front of the envelope your first, second and third choice.

The 1967 trophy antelope season is restricted to male antelope only which have horns of a length sufficient to exceed the length of its ears, that is, a horn length of not less than five (5) inches.

The special sage grouse licence is valid only in Wildlife Management Units G 102, G 101 and G 116.

All applications must be submitted on a special form available only at Provincial Fish and Wildlife Offices. An illegible or incomplete applications do not qualify, it is important to read the instructions.

A money order or certified cheque payable to the Provincial Treasurer must be enclosed with each application.

— $7.50 FOR TROPHY ANTELOPE LICENCE
— $1.00 FOR SAGE GROUSE LICENCE

Completed applications should be forwarded to:

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OPEN HOUSE
Open House will be held at the Ellen Lutheran Church on Sunday, Sept. 3, for Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bratrud, in honor of their 25th Wedding Anniversary. Program at 2:30, followed by a lunch. Everyone welcome. 52-35p-3866

IN MEMORIAM

NORDSTROM—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Johnny Nordstrom, who left us September 1, 1965.
The Golden Gate stood open
Just one year ago today,
When farewells left unspoken
You quickly slipped away;
Suffered much in silence,
Your spirit did not bend;
You faced your pain with courage
Until one very end.
You tried so very hard to stay with us—
Your fight was all in vain;
God took you to His loving home
And freed you from all pain.
—Ever remembered and sadly missed by his loving wife Emma and Family. 52c-3814

Recipes . . .

It seems such a short time ago that we brought the barbecue out of storage and before long the season will be over for another year.

For a change, why not try Barbecued Lamb Cubes in Herb Sauce? It's a meal with a gourmet touch and easy for the hostess as each diner broils his own cubes and dips it in the tantalizing sauce.

Have your guests transfer the meat to dinner forks before dipping into the sauce as the barbecue fork will become too hot.

Barbecued Lamb Cubes with Herb Sauce
4 lb. leg spring lamb, cut in 1½" slices
1½ cups French dressing
½ cup butter
4 cups light cream
4 tbsp. dry sherry
2 tbsp. chopped parsley
½ tsp. curry powder
½ tsp. dried sweet basil

Ask your butcher to cut lamb leg in slices; trim fat and bone; cut lean lamb in bite-size cubes; place in a bowl and pour over French dressing. Refrigerate for several hours, stirring occasionally; drain meat.

Prepare sauce by melting butter; add and blend in flour; stir over medium heat until bubbly; stir in cream and sherry; add remaining ingredients and stir and cook over medium heat until thickened and cooked.

Place the lamb cubes on long-handled barbecue forks; brush over glowing coals in barbecue; transfer to dinner forks for eating and dip in hot sauce.

Makes 8 servings.

Sport bodies to meet in Edmonton, Sept. 8th

Athletic and sports governing bodies in the province will gather at the invitation of the Department of Youth, in the University of Alberta, for a meeting from September 8th to 10th.

The meeting is designed to bring together those provincial organizations involved almost exclusively in sports and athletic programs.

The keynote address will be given by W. J. L'Heureux, Chairman of the National Advisory Council on Fitness and Amateur Sport and director of Physical Education, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario.

All athletic and sports governing bodies interested in attending the meeting, are asked to write to Mr. R. Smith, Supervisor of Athletic Recreation, Alberta Department of Youth, CN Tower, Edmonton.

Janet Olesen named as 'Dairy Princess'

Janet Olesen of Daysland and Rosalind returns home today as the Canadian Dairy Princess, as Alberta won the honor for the second year in a row.

Janet is the 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edvard Olesen, and makes her home in Daysland, although her father farms in the Rosalind district.

Last year, at the Edmonton Exhibition, she was named Alberta's Dairy Princess, and as such represented the province in the dominion contest, winning in the finals against four other provincial princesses at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto on Friday

Last year's national princess, Gaylene Miller of Dalemead, crowned Miss Olesen and presented her with the title sash.

CNE President W. H. Evans presented Janet with a bouquet of roses after the crowning ceremonies

Janet will now represent the dairy industry in Canada for a year. Among the prizes she won as Canada's Dairy Princess was a wardrobe, along with a 21-day trip to Spain.

In the dominion competitions, the contestants are judged on appearance, poise, deportment, self-expression and milking skill

Janet has been an active member in 4-H work as a member of the Rosalind Multiple Club for the past eight years, along with taking part in many other community activities.

During the past year, she was employed in Camrose and just recently was named to work with the Department of Youth for the provincial government

Janet was accompanied to Toronto by her mother, and following the dairy princess competitions spent a few days in Montreal visiting Expo, and are both expected to arrive home sometime today

Loyal subjects respond to Queen Petra's invitation

On August 18, Queen Petra's loyal subjects responded to the royal invitation to a coffee party at the home of Tofield's Centennial Queen. The weather man did his sunshiny best for Queen Petra's party and guests were entertained on the lawn as well as in the living room of the queen's home

Queen Petra, dressed in her regal attire, greeted the ten hundred and more guests who came in answer to her royal summons. Mrs. Stinson, Mrs. Boyles, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Greyleth, Mrs. Thirchard, Mrs. Haudsdal, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Eing and Mrs. Yicher presided over the beautifully arranged tea table, and many willing relatives and friends assisted in the serving of the guests.

Patricia Jeanne, granddaughter of Queen Petra, was in charge of the guest book.

Centennial costume was much in evidence as Tofieldites enjoyed the hospitality of their queen.

Hot, dry weather speeds harvesting

Weather at Tofield and surrounding districts was hot and dry last week. Swathing was general and the combines would be working full blast this week. Sixty per cent of the wheat at Tofield was expected in grade No. 3 Northern and 25% No. 2.

At Ryley, except for late oats, all crops would be swathed soon. In many cases the swaths lay three or four days and the grain was combined very dry Harvesting was reported to be going on well at Bardo, with the wheat grading No. 2 or 3 Northern.

Highest temperature at Tofield and Ryley during the week was 93° F., and at Bardo it was 88 degrees.

D.A. leaves Ryley to return to U of A

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

A farewell party was held on Tuesday, Aug. 22, at the Ryley Sportsgrounds in honor of Frank Kehoe, the District Agriculturist, who will be returning to University to further his education; and his stenographer, Miss Carolay Hawkens, who will be taking a position in Edmonton.

A spirited baseball game was played, followed by a wiener roast. Gerde Tack of Viking presented Frank with a lovely coffee table from the people in the County of Beaver; and Victor Romaniuk presented Carolyn with a beautiful crystal ornament from the five 4-H Clubs in the County.

An enjoyable time was had by all.

County Council meets Aug. 10th

Following are the minutes, in part, of the regular meeting of the Council of the County of Beaver No. 9, held Thursday, August 10:

Business Arising From Minutes

In regards to sale of Lot 15, Block 4, Plan 1644 W, Kinsella, C. Johnston info med the Council that Mr. Culbert would not excuse his offer. The sec.-treasurer stated that he would again place the sale before the Dept. of Municipal Affairs with a detailed outline as to why the sale should be approved.

It was moved and carried that the report be accepted

In regards to the Centennial Grant, the secretary-treasurer stated that he had not been in contact with the Centennial Officer but that he proposed to allocate the grant between Bruce and Kinsella on a per capita basis as had been done in the original allocation. Bruce would then be entitled to a grant of $2,238.47 and Kinsella to $1,481.33.

Moved and carried that the secretary-treasurer's proposal be approved.

In regards to fire protection for the County and particularly for the Hamlet of Bruce, the secretary-treasurer reported that he had discussed the matter with the Chief Municipal Inspector and had been advised that the County could pass a bylaw under Sec. 374(b) for the purchase of apparatus and equipment for existing fire and preserving life and property from injury or death from fire. This would then cover the whole County, no advertising of the bylaw would be required if the equipment was purchased out of current revenue.

It was considered that six units should be obtained to be placed in the four Towns and Villages as well as in the two Hamlets and that consideration should be given to possible acquisition of the present additional equipment in the Town of Viking, Village of Ryley and the unit owned by the Tofield Rural Fire Protection Association Ltd

Moved and carried that a bylaw to cover six units at an approximate cost of $100,000 be prepared and that consideration be given to acquiring the extra equipment from the Town of Viking, the Village of Ryley and the Tofield Rural Fire Protection Association Ltd.

In regards to Henry Field's complaint, Cr. Krepsinicki reported that the complaint would be looked after in the fall after the crop has been taken off.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

In regards to the request from Viking Gymkhana Club for a lease on Pt. S.E. 17-48-13-W4th, motion 439 / 67, the secretary-treasurer informed the Council that he had discussed the proposed lease with the Rural Planning Commission and has been advised that the lease would be in order.

Moved and carried that the necessary lease be completed.

In regards to the Amisk Creek Flood Control Scheme, the Council was advised that a letter had been forwarded to the Dept. of Water Resources indicating that the County would share the cost of the proposed project on a 50-50 basis. Cr. Knudsen suggested that, if at all possible, the County should use its own equipment, thereby reducing the cost. Joe

The Mercury

HELLO CANADA This great land of ours has many scenic adventures from Victoria to St. John's as Canadians and tourists alike, flock to the vacation playgrounds. However, as the August sun begins to fade into the horizon, and the surf laps gently against a sandy beach, people can be heard to gasp with pride: "Hello Canada." —TNS Photo

MacDuff Ottawa Report

The grits are tuning up

OTTAWA. — As this is written, the Conservatives are playing out the last act of their great Centennial feature, Dump the Chief. The audience sits, weary but spellbound, waiting to see which of the many braves walks off with the scalp.

But wait. This is only the preliminary.

No sooner than the Tories mop up the blood off the convention floor, the Liberals will be off and running in the next event, to find the successor for Lester B. Pearson as Prime Minister of Canada.

In fact, the race has already begun. Mercifully, it shouldn't take as long as it's [illegible] the Tories to make their choice. By next February or March, it [illegible] be all over.

Party leaders expect Mr Pearson to make the formal announcement in November that he is stepping down as soon as the Party can select his replacement.

He will then remain in office until the convention, sometime early in the new year.

The struggle for succession will be lively, perhaps more so than the gang performance staged by the Tories. There will be fewer candidates—and unless some surprise entries turn up, all will be members of the present Pearson government.

[illegible] in [illegible] of their present standing in Cabinet ranks, Paul Martin, Paul Hellyer, Mitchell Sharp and Allan MacEachen.

There's not much secret about their intentions. Fellow members of Cabinet pin-pointed them months ago. Two of them, Messrs Hellyer and Sharp, have let it out publicly that they are interested in the prize, and will have more to say when the time comes, as soon it will.

It is important that the decision be not too long delayed, for the country's sake. According to Cabinet informants, the long-term planning has long since been abandoned, in anticipation of the coming change at the top.

Mr. Pearson's bag is full of tricks. He is planning a whopping load of legislation, including a number of eye-catching and important items, for the new session of Parliament opening at the end of this month.

But beyond next February or March, the governing party simply doesn't know where it's headed. Blueprints for the future, under preparation in government departments, are being pigeonholed until the leadership question is settled.

Whoever takes the Grit crown will inevitably become Prime Minister. He may not remain one long, unless the Party revitalizes itself and comes up with a solid and appealing program on which it can fight an election.

The Liberals are, as they have always been since they [illegible] to office in 1963, a minority government. A combined force of opposition votes [illegible] throw [illegible] out at any time.

Such a combination is quite unlikely, however, during the period of upset between the Conservative and Liberal conventions. Politicians, most of them, anyway, are gentlemen. A short-term advantage gained by turning the Grits out during a leadership campaign would not bring long-term benefits, even in an early election. And the NDP and Socred-Creditiste rump would not swing in behind a new Tory chieftain, whoever he may be.

The Liberals will therefore, have some breathing space—not much, but enough—to settle their future while Mr. Diefenbaker's successor feels his way into office. Because time is relatively short, and Mr Pearson knows it, the November deadline for his announcement is likely to be met.

Messrs Martin Hellyer, Sharp or MacEachen? It's too soon to seek any meaningful assessment of their prospects. Much will depend on the kind of man the Tories choose to lead the opposition.

Mr Sharp would be an unsatisfactory match for Duff Roblin: they both come from Manitoba and geographical reasons would dictate another choice. The same [illegible] Mr. MacEachen [illegible] Robert Stanfield [illegible] Martin [illegible] are the Tories' George Hees, Donald Fleming and Michael Starr.

[illegible] West for a [illegible] while the [illegible] the East for [illegible] the vote [illegible].

Whatever the outcome within the next few months, Parliament will take on a new character with fresh leaders and policies in [illegible] Canada's second century of Confederation.

And that will be good for all of us.

"Gramma's here!"

Community League nets $1,000 at 'Showcase '67'

(Grace Phillips)

The regular September meeting of the Tofield Community League was held Tuesday, Sept. 5, in the meeting room of the Community Centre, with J. C. Lampitt, president, in the chair. Mr Lampitt was elected at a special meeting during the summer to complete the presidential term of Lionel Borton, who passed away early in July.

It was decided to hold a Thanksgiving turkey bingo on October 4 in the Community Centre. Norman Glover is in charge.

H. E. Christensen, treasurer, gave the financial report. Dominion Day celebration netted the League $1,000. This enabled the League to purchase the bleachers (which G. Golden had loaned on July 1) for $750, and to arrange to repair the roof of the hall which requires extensive treatment. Both of these projects have been urgently needed.

J. A. Whyte, chairman of the theatre committee, reported that the shows are just barely breaking even financially. Under such circumstances, it is questionable whether the shows can be maintained.

Last year's Hallowe'en masquerade was such a success that the League, under the continuing committee chairmanship of Peter Nickel, and the Dance Committee consisting of J. Lampitt, H. Ferguson and F. Langkaas, is planning another for October 31 of this year. The masquerade is being announced at this time so all may have time to plan more of the excellent costumes seen at last year's masquerade.

The secretary, Peter Nickel had received a note of appreciation from Mrs. Yvonne Borton for the League's donation in memory of its Centennial president, Lionel Borton. Mrs. Borton expressed her desire to present the League with a gavel in memory of her husband.

The meetings of the Community League are held on the first Tuesday of every month, and all citizens are issued a cordial invitation to attend.

Modern etiquette

Q. A friend phoned us recently and asked if it would be all right for her and her husband to drop in on us a certain Sunday afternoon. I was compelled to tell her we would not be at home. Should I phone her back now and set a definite date for them to visit us?

A. Surely that would be the courteous thing to do.

Q. Are invitations to an open house informal enough to be phoned, or must they be mailed out on cards?

A. An open house is so informal that you may not only extend your invitations by phone, but by word of mouth. In a very small community, you may even place a notice in the newspaper—provided, of course, your guest list is unlimited.

Q. Is a man always supposed to light the cigarette of the girl he is escorting?

A. When he can do so easily, yes. This does not mean he must run across a room to light her cigarette, or if he's driving his car, he doesn't take his attention from the traffic to perform this service.

Q. Do salad bowls require service plates beneath them?

A. No.

LOCAL BALL TEAM

Mr and Mrs Russell Rowland were hosts Saturday evening to members of the local soft ball club, their wives and sweethearts. Jim Roddick, local umpire and wife Dolly were also present.

Ball team members included Joe Davenport, Grant Penrice, Glenn Ferguson, Clifford Hendricks, Dan Zimmer, Norman Penrice, Wayne Baird, Pat Paterson, Oliver Jones, Murray Rowland and David Crosswhite. Mr and Mrs. Ralph Leach were also in attendance. When bouquets were handed out last week to coach and manager, one should also have gone to the faithful timekeeper Ann Paterson.

Gary, Glen and Mrs. Andrew Ferguson motored to Pigeon Lake last Sunday where the boys water skiied while their mother visited at the Adam Campbell cottage.

Miss Doreen Waller of Victoria and Mrs. Frances Waller of Aberdeen, Washington are guests of Mrs. S. George. They and Mrs. Jim Roddick and Mrs. Doug George of Edmonton enjoyed four days last week at Miette Hot Springs, Lake Edith, Jasper, Jasper Park Lodge and other points in that area.

Mr and Mrs Melvin Leach and Avery returned last week from a most enjoyable vacation spent at Kamloops, Kelowna and other interior B.C. points.

Mr. and Mrs. Baden Bowerman and boys, who have been stationed at Standoff, Alberta, returned to the farm on Saturday. Baden returned to work for the Department of Highways while Joyce and the boys remained.

Mr and Mrs Bill Roddick, Darrell and Leona spent the long weekend fishing at Lake Baptiste near Athabasca.

Roll call for the September ladies meeting is a gift for the Alberta Hospital. The meeting is to be held at the campsite, weather permitting.

People who pay to shop

Most retailers, we suspect, would shudder at the idea of charging customers an admission fee to shop in their stores.

Yet, we do it regularly. Readers buy this paper for the news and features, but they also buy it to see your advertising. They want to know what you are selling, what your prices are, and compare this with what another merchant is advertising.

Readers are shoppers, and people who pay to shop, shop to buy.

Your advertising reaches them as an invited guest. They study it at their leisure, and they will respond if what you have to say interests them.

Who measures this paying audience?

As members of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, we submit our circulation records to regular inspection by traveling ABC auditors. This is an organization of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers, whose sole purpose is to give accurate and factual circulation reports.

ABC measures our circulation audience, in accordance with the highest industry standards.

Its reports tell how many shoppers buy our paper, where they buy it, what they pay, and many other facts to help you know our paying audience.

For full details on the people who pay to shop, ask to see a copy of our latest ABC report.

Road Diversion Cancelled

The Council was informed that Nish Pasnak of N.W 12-48-16-W4 would like to have the road diversion in this parcel cancelled as the road diversion was not being used and not expected to be used.

Moved and carried that the road diversion in N W 12-48-16-W4 be cancelled.

Bylaw No 245, under the provisions of Sec 297 of the Municipal District Act to authorize the purchase of land, constructing, maintaining and operating a water and sewerage system for the Hamlet of Bruce, was referred to Council.

First reading was moved and carried.

It was understood that if the residents in the Hamlet of Bruce did not agree to the proposed change of lowering of the number of services chargeable to the school this bylaw would not be acted upon.

It was noted that it was proposed to mark the old Battleford-Edmonton Trail with metal signs so that the location of the trail would be known to future generations and the small metal signs would be used. It was noted that the Lieutenant - Governor, Grant MacEwan was in favour of this and had made the suggestion.

Moved and carried that the Council has no objections to the metal signs provided that they are put on the fence line.

POOL PET. Whenever Peggy Lou decides to go for a swim or do a little tanning she always goes to a pool. Although she's an outdoor girl she prefers the warm water and a comfortable chair for lounging under the sun's rays. And, quite naturally, she's always the centre of attraction at poolside.—TMS Photo

Ketchamoot news

(Mary Mitchell)

On Sunday, Louise Kyle accompanied Ray and Alice Gould to Erskine and Big Valley, to visit relatives.

Eileen and Angus Mitchell and two sons of Edmonton visited with Grace and Herman Lawson on Sunday afternoon.

Steve Wanger, formerly of Regina, was a visitor last week with his brother Stanley and family.

Early Wednesday morning Florence Ingram and her three daughters Bela, Annis and Susan returned from the east, where they had visited at Expo in Montreal and with relatives in London, Ontario.

Francis Schultz is employed for the next few weeks at the Hathaway Home in Camrose.

Judy Mitchell left Thursday by plane for Vancouver, after spending several days visiting with her parents.

Randolph Pritzner of Calgary called on the Albert Sutton and Gordon Kyle families last week.

Milton Ray motored to Alix to spend the weekend with his son Eldon and family.

Herb and Mary McAdoo of Fort Saskatchewan were Sunday evening visitors with Opal and Donnalley McGinnis.

Due to the grand weather, most farmers are working long hours swathing, harvesting and combining the grain crops, which are showing quite fair yields in this district.

Wednesday afternoon guests of Yvonne Brown at a garden party and to view her centennial project of flower arrangements, were Mrs. Peter Staudler, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. McDermoid, Mrs. Gill, and Mrs. Barger, all of Tofield.

The National Hockey League will start the 1967-68 season with twelve teams. This is the league's biggest growth since it first began.

McKernan - McAfee vows exchanged in Edmonton

At a recent afternoon ceremony in St. Andrew's Church, Edmonton, Miss Irene Claire McAfee, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V William McAfee, of Edmonton, became the bride of Mr. Donald Charles John McKernan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas C. McKernan, of Tofield. Basketsful of pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the double-ring ceremony performed by Reverend Father J. J. Butts.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was radiant in a gown of brocaded satin, styled with a slim floor-length skirt, empire waistline, and flowing train. Her chapel veil of illusion, misted from a jewelled crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses. Her only jewelry was a gold cross pendant gift of the groom.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Carol McAfee, Miss Elaine McKernan, and little Heather McAfee as flower-girl. They were similar floor-length sheaths of navy blue chiffon over pink de-sole, with headbands and bouquets of yellow and white daisies.

Groomsmen were Delbert Lee and Wayne Moore. Ushers were William Danki and William McAfee.

At the reception, held at the House of Humority, the bride's mother received the guests, wearing a turquoise blue silk-knit suit, pink picture hat, white accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mother of the groom wore a yellow linen ensemble with picture hat to tone, honey-coloured accessories and bronze shade daisies en corsage.

Donald McAfee was master of ceremonies; G. Paulsen, uncle of the bride, offered grace and D. McKay proposed a toast to the bride.

For a honeymoon to the West Coast the bride wore a turquoise and white knit suit, with matching hat, white accessories and pink rose corsage.

The couple will reside at 10 Viking Apartments, Viking.

Modern etiquette

Q. When drinking from a long-stemmed goblet, how do you hold the goblet?

A. Firmly between thumb and forefinger at the juncture of the top of the stem and the bottom of the flared part of the goblet. Avoid spreading your whole hand around the bowl and lap of the goblet.

Q. Isn't it proper and customary for a woman to use her maiden name as her middle name after she is married?

A. This is the established custom. In other words, after Anne Virginia Miller marries William Robert Harris, she becomes Anne Miller Harris.

Q. If a man is being entertained at luncheon by another man, should the guest leave a tip for the waitress, or at least offer to do so?

A. Not necessary. This is one of the duties of his host.

Q. Should a guest who is a house guest in a friend's home make any outside phone calls about cancelling her hostess?

A. No. While a good hostess will not object to you doing the best second with her planning, it is only in bad well-bred to discuss any of your own wishes with her before making them definite.

Tofield to pay honor to 1966-67 graduates

For the first time in seven years the Tofield High School graduating class will have a local graduation ceremony. Instead of a joint County graduation as held in recent years, each town will hold its own observance of the graduation of its 1966 Grade XII class. Tofield has 31 graduates to honor this year; 21 of them have obtained senior matriculation standing.

Graduation ceremonies in Tofield will be held on Saturday, September 23, in the Tofield Community Centre, beginning with the banquet at 6:30 p.m. The banquet is in honor of the graduates. Those honoring the graduates will consist of the parents; the head table; a friend of the graduate; and the high school staff.

The graduation exercises, to which all interested people are invited, will follow the banquet. The theme of this year's graduation will be "All the World's a Stage." Appropriately, Mr. C. F. Annis, former principal of the Tofield School and well-known for his interest in drama, will be the guest speaker.

Nominations sought

The Alberta and Northwest Junior Chamber of Commerce has instigated a new awards program to recognize young men for their contributions to society. The program is entitled "Three Outstanding Young Men".

Any permanent resident of Alberta or the N.W.T. between the ages of 21 and 39 is eligible, and can be nominated by a social, business or club.

Nominations must be in by November 1, and can be sent to Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce, 10040 - 106 Street, Edmonton.

Tofield boys will have Apple Day soon

(Grace Phillips)

Something new has been added to the youth activities in Tofield. J. C. Lampitt, president of the Tofield Community League and a member of the Joint Committee for Junior Sports in Tofield, announces that boys in the 6 - 15 age group will be selling apples one Saturday soon. The boys will canvass the town for orders and delivery will be arranged for.

This project has been undertaken to raise funds for sports for the boys of this community.

An organized program of sports under competent directors is a most desirable asset to any community. This is a golden opportunity to ensure such a program in Tofield.

Man dies in head-on collision

(Mrs. S. Koledychuk)

A head-on collision involving two cars near Fort Saskathewan on September 8, claimed the life of Danny Johnson, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of Fort Saskatchewan, formerly of Ryley, and injured his companion, Colin Greer, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Greer, also former Ryley people.

The accident occurred when the young men were driving to Edmonton, and their car collided with one driven by an elderly man, with his son. Both Dan and Colin were unconscious when a passing truck driver tried to take them out of the wrecked vehicle, but the driver's door was jammed and he was unable to get Johnson out until further help arrived, but assisted Colin from the wreckage. Greer and the two passengers of the other car were taken to the Royal Alexandra Hospital in Edmonton.

Funeral services for Dan Johnson were held on Spetember 12 in Fort Saskatchewan.

Both the Johnsons and Greers moved from Ryley to Fort Saskatcheewan about seven years ago, and both boys had their early schooling here.

Tofield Lions meet

Tofield Lions Club held their first September meeting last Tuesday, with President Gabe Pittet in the chair. Guests were Miss Gwen Klassen and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arne Klassen. Gwen gave a short talk on her experiences on a trip to Banff, when she attended a United Nations Seminar on behalf of the Tofield Lions Club. Gwen expressed appreciation for an enjoyable outing.

Mr. Klassen gave a review of what Tofield Scouts are doing, and said that four members of a troop had been able to travel to Expo.

Arrangements were made to take over possession of the bus recently acquired from the County of Beaver No 9.

Matters for discussion were a skating rink for 1967-68, a centennial dance, pools, and the continuation of the Friendship Club in October if enough interest is indicated.

Harvest ending in fine weather

Weather has continued warm and dry, at the end of last week it was anticipated that combining in Tofield district would be completed in another 10 days. Sixty per cent of the wheat was expected to grade No. 2 Northern, 35 per cent No. 3 and the remaining five per cent, Garnet 1, 3 and 3 CW.

Around Ryley many farmers had finished harvesting. By the middle of this week it would be completed, except for some of the later oats. Highest temperature recorded there was 90 degrees F and at Tofield, 85 degrees.

The best shots

New TV season

The new 'Boob tube' season is upon us, and quite frankly doesn't look like any great improvement over last year. Many of the old programs have returned, and there is the usual crop of new features, some of which will last all season, and others that will fall by the wayside in very short order.

Both Canadian television networks end up with about the same number of good shows, as well as the same number of shows you'd choose to ignore. Due to their competitive urges, good shows from each network play opposite each other, with the result that the viewer gets to see only one-half of the 'stuff' that's fit to watch.

Since the good shows are so few, and other prime time so available, it is to be wondered why the sponsors do not insist that these good shows play against poor competition, so that their products will be seen by the viewers. This would benefit the sponsor, in that he is getting his product advertised, while the viewer would get to see all the good shows. Why the networks have to compete in this manner is hard to understand, since both offer so little in worthwhile entertainment.

Little Canadian content

Both of Canada's television networks are sadly lacking in Canadian loyalty, or trust in Canadian talent. This is evident in the total lack of Canadian 'real' content that is shown on both networks.

All of the so-called feature shows are from the United States, while Canadian produced shows consist mainly of sports. A certain percentage of time must be devoted to Canadian content, and the networks use it chiefly, football, and other sport attractions, all time consuming, to pass as the Canadian content, thus satisfying the law.

It is time that Canadian talent got a chance to stay in Canada to make good. The long list of actors, writers, directors and producers successful in the United States and other countries proves that this country could, and should be, producing shows that match, if not top, those received from the American networks.

Since the two networks have no apparent interest in doing anything about the situation, then maybe it is time for the government of our country to step in and take action to stop this discrimination against Canadian talent.

Change in leadership

One of the most colorful of Canada's politicians retired from the 'limelight' on Saturday when John 'The Chief' Diefenbaker lost out in an attempt to retain leadership of the National Progressive Conservative Party.

During the past eleven years much of the color of the political scene was provided by Mr. Diefenbaker, and at the present time, there appears to be none ready to step into his shoes and bring life to politics in Canada. His successor as leader of the PC's, Robert Stanfield is a quiet, shy, retiring man, who may get the job done, but, it will be done very quiecy and with none of the flamboyancy of 'The Chief'.

There is little doubt that Mr. Diefenbaker had reached the end of the line as a leader, and it is rather a shame, that he had to lose in the manner he did, although it was typical of the man, that he would not retire quietly, but preferred to go down fighting. Politics will continue as always in this democratic country of ours, and it will be all the better for having had on the scene, the one and only John Diefenbaker.

The Progressive Conservative Party must now bind its wounds and prepare to do battle in the next Federal election, which may be in the spring of next years.

Rift opened gaping wounds in the party, leaving Mr. Stanfield the problem of starting his leadership almost from scratch. This will not be new to the premier of Nova Scotia, as he took over leadership of the party in that province when the Conservatives were going nowhere. He raised them to the point where they now present to the opposition almost insurmountable [illegible]

The question now is, can he do the same for the party on the national level. Only time will tell.

C. A. MacLean named as CWNA winner of Silver Quill award

C. A. "Chuck" MacLean, publisher of The Tofield Mercury, was named as a winner of CWNA Silver Quill Award at the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association convention held last week in Ottawa.

The award is presented to newspapermen who have been actively engaged in newspapering for an accumulated total of 25 years or longer, either as owner, editor or publisher.

Mr. McLean has been active in the newspaper business since 1908, less four years during the last war.

A former partner and assistant editor with The Tofield Mercury, and now owner and publisher of The Taber Times, George Meyer won three awards for competition on the national level conducted by the CWNA.

The Times, competing in Class 4, for papers with a circulation between 1,001 to 2,000, finished second in best all-round paper, second in editorial page, and third in the best front page competition.

WILL YOU HELP?

Many Korean children must face the biting wind of winter half clothed and underfed their home an unheated shack. Tuberculosis takes its toll of these under-nourished bodies, and Korea has the highest TB rate in the world. Through the Unitarian Service Committee one dollar can supply a child with a bowl of barley for 13 days or milk for three months. Despite enormous strides forward more than 20% of the Korean people still urgently need assistance, particularly the young, the sick and the very old. The USC provides aid with emergency relief and medical help, sponsors scholarships and vocational training, rehabilitates families with small loans, offers a 10-lb barley-bonus to any woman attending a family planning clinic and is pioneering a pilot project to prevent destitute parents abandoning their children. This year the Unitarian Service Committee is appealing for $1,106,000 in funds and gifts in kind. USC Headquarters is at 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa 4.

Centennial committee reviews '67 activities

(Rose Phillips)

The Tofield Centennial Committee were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Christensen on Friday evening, Sept. 8. Dr. W. H. Freebury, president of the committee, was in the chair, and six other members were present.

A letter had been received from the Viking Centennial Committee re the Centennial Caravan which will be in Viking on October 12. The letter stated that it was hoped to provide some entertainment in the Carena during the time the Caravan was in operation, and Tofield was asked to contribute some items to this program. Marie Worton will be in charge of the Tofield contributions to the program.

Father Scriven reported that the play he is directing is ready to go into rehearsal next week. Father Scriven has chosen "The Importance of Being Ernest", by Oscar Wilde, as his theatrical contribution to Tofield's Centennial program. It will be remembered that scenes from this play were presented as part of "The Passing Parade". Several of the same actors, including Jeff Norton and Shari Ast who will come from Edmonton to participate, as well as Mrs. Dunham of Tofield, will be taking part in the complete version of the play. They will be supported by Garry Hardy and Brian Schultz, who have both been outstanding high school drama students. Other competent local actors will complete the cast, a complete list of which will be published later. The target date is set for late in October. All proceeds of the play will go towards retiring the debt on the Community Centre.

Father Scriven reported that special services were planned for all the churches on Thanksgiving. All church bells will ring out. Father Scriven will be playing the record of the provincial carillon over the loudspeaker system of St. Francis of Assisi Church.

Correspondence was received from the Provincial Centennial Committee asking for nominations of individuals or organizations who had made significant contributions to the Centennial program of the district.

Queen Petra reported excellent progress made on her park. Elmer Burkholder and Pete Kuc are constructing and erecting an ornamental fence, perennials are to be planted soon and the Tofield branch of the Canadian Legion are placing an arbor in the park. Plans for opening the park are to be found elsewhere in The Mercury.

Preliminary discussions of future Centennial events were begun and will be completed at a later meeting.

Local man goes to 'Land of Promise'

Word has been received that Colin Freebury arrived at [illegible], Malawi, East Africa, flying via London, England, and Blantyre, Malawi. Colin is with the St. John's Teacher Training College, a Roman Catholic [illegible], with [illegible], principal.

Canadian aid to Malawi is primarily [illegible] on a [illegible] basis, under the special Commonwealth African [illegible] plan. Some basic training assistance (scholarships) are also [illegible] on a private basis through Roman Catholic missionaries from Canada, who are active in Malawi.

During the past two years, Canadians have also served in Malawi under the United Nations Expanded Program of Technical Assistance. Another type of assistance is that furnished by the Canadian Universities Service Overseas (C.U.S.O.), a voluntary body which furnishes university graduates to developing countries. The first C.U.S.O. volunteers to Malawi arrived August 21 this year.

CHRISTMAS STAMPS 1967

The Canada Post Office will release Christmas stamps in denominations of 5c and 3c on October 11.

Principal element of the design is a group of three children singing traditional carols and Christmas songs. Clothed in suitable wear for the mid-winter season, they are flanked on the left by a snow-laden evergreen reminiscent of the traditional Yule Tree. Towering in the left background, symbolic of "Peace on Earth", is a reproduction of the Parliament Buildings Peace Tower in Ottawa.

Receive law course certificates

(Grace Phillips)

Certificates signifying the successful completion of the course in Business Law have been received by the Tofield Community League for presentation to the participants in this course held last winter in the Tofield Community Centre, for which Walter Braul was the instructor.

Those attending classes were George Arnett, John Baergen, George Boese, Hans Christensen, Keith Francis, Marvin Giebelhaus, Rita Halverson Peter Jakubow, George McFadzean, Ralph Mason, Roy Murray, V. C Olson, Merlin Stauffer, Carol Swanson, Arnold Swift and Ed Watson.

This course under the tutelage of Mr. Braul was held on Friday nights and was both enjoyable and profitable for the members of the class.

It was sponsored locally by the Tofield Community League and supported by the Federal Department of Manpower and Immigration in Alberta, this program is under the direction of the Division of Vocational Education.

At the close of last winter's course, interest was expressed in a course in Bookkeeping for Small Business for the winter of 1967-68. Anyone interested in becoming a participant in this course is asked to leave his or her name with George McFadzean at the Tofield Drug Store If enough names are received, an instructor will be requested. The fees for such course range from $10 to $15; fifteen members are the minimum requirement for each class.

Grand Opening of Petra's Park will be held in Tofield soon

(Grace Phillips)

Don't put your Centennial costume away yet! You will be wearing it at the Grand Opening of Queen Petra's Park late in September.

By this time, everyone in the Tofield area must have seen the pleasant park which has been created, at Queen Petra's request and, to a large extent, by her royal efforts. The park is situated opposite the well-equipped children's playground maintained by the Tofield Lions Club.

Many individuals and organizations have contributed trees, shrubs and labor in creation and maintenance of the park. The employees of Northwestern Utilities have contributed a gas-light and the Tofield Legion is ready to install an ornamental arbor.

In late September or October, the Tofield Centennial Committee plans to have a formal opening of Queen Petra's Park. The opening ceremony will be planned for 6.00 p.m. at the park. This will be followed by a community supper—a special supper, since it will take the form of an ethnic food festival—in the Tofield Community Centre.

Members of various ethnic groups will be asked to contribute national dishes to what will undoubtedly be a feast. If you have a favorite national dish, double or treble the recipe, for everyone will want to taste it! Each family will bring its own dishes—this will help solve the table-setting and dish-washing problems.

This will, in turn, be followed by a program, which is being arranged by the Centennial Committee. It is hoped to have guest speakers as well as items from local groups. Queen Petra has suggested that people who have good slides of Tofield's Centennial events might allow these to be shown to the audience. If they are loaned, they should be marked with the owner's name to prevent confusion later. If you have slides which could be used, please contact Queen Petra. Movies of any Centennial event would also be welcome.

Centennial costumes will be worn to this important event in Tofield's Centennial Year!

Treat the family to a special breakfast surprise, Double Cinnamon Breakfast Rolls fresh from the oven. This spicy variation of the traditional favorite has cinnamon right in the dough. Served warm and frosted, they can turn breakfast into a banquet.

DOUBLE CINNAMON BREAKFAST ROLLS

(Cool Rise Method)

- 5-6 cups flour (regular or instant blending)
- 2 tsp. sugar
- ½ cup warm water (105°-115°F)
- 2 pkgs. active dry yeast
- 1 cup warm milk (105°-115°F)
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- 1½ tsp. salt
- 2 tsp. cinnamon
- ¼ cup softened margarine or shortening
- 2 eggs
- ½ cup softened butter or margarine

Combine:
- ⅔ cup firmly packed brown sugar
- ½ cup raisins
- 1 tbsp. cinnamon
- saran wrap

Put flour into dry measuring cup, level off and pour measured flour onto wax paper.

Dissolve 2 teaspoons sugar in two-thirds cup warm water in large bowl. Sprinkle yeast into water mixture. Let stand 10 minutes, then stir well. Add warm milk, granulated sugar, salt, cinnamon, ¼ cup margarine, eggs and 2 cups flour. Beat with wooden spoon or electric mixer at low speed until smooth (about 1 minute). Then beat vigorously with wooden spoon (150 strokes) or electric mixer at medium speed (2-3 minutes) until thick and elastic. Scrape sides of bowl occasionally. Stir in remaining flour gradually with wooden spoon. Use just enough flour to make a soft dough which leaves sides of bowl, adding more if necessary. Turn out onto floured board. Round up into a ball.

Knead 5-10 minutes or until dough is smooth, elastic and no longer sticky. Cover with saran food wrap then a towel. Let stand for 20 minutes on board. Punch down. Divide into 2 equal portions. Round up each portion.

Roll each portion into a 18x15-inch rectangle on lightly greased board. Spread each with 2 tablespoons softened butter. Sprinkle with ½ the brown sugar mixture. Roll up like jelly roll, beginning with 15-inch side. Pinch lengthwise edge to seal. Cut into 15 1-inch pieces. Place rolls cut-side down in greased muffin pans. Cover pans loosely with saran food wrap.

Refrigerate 2 to 24 hours at moderately cold setting. When ready to bake, remove from refrigerator. Uncover and let stand for 10 minutes while pre-heating oven.

Bake at 375° F. for 20-25 minutes or until done. Bake on a lower rack position for best results. Remove from muffin pans immediately. Cool on rack. Frost with confectioners sugar frosting if desired. Yield: 2½ dozen rolls.

Holden CC re-convenes after summer holidays

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Holden and District Chamber of Commerce re-convened after the summer holiday when they held their first meeting of the season September 5, in the Holden Community Hall. The supper was catered to by the Holden Lodge O.O.R.P.

Bruce Budd, past president, was in the chair and then turned the office over to the new president, Stan Robins, who introduced his executive—Jack Stambaugh, vice-president; Dennis Shavchook, secretary; and Paul Lamshan, treasurer.

The Medical Centre, which is of importance to all Holden and district residents, was discussed. A motion was passed by members that all donations which had been made towards this be returned, with thanks to all. This decision was very difficult to make, as many hours of planning and canvassing had been done by Chamber members for this endeavor. However, as a doctor's services had not been obtained and it had been agreed when the canvass was made that if construction of a clinic was not completed, all donations would be returned, the meeting had no recourse but to go along with this decision. The Chamber of Commerce members wish to advise that all contributors to the Medical Centre Canvass should be in receipt of their returned donation by Sept. 15, and anyone who may be inadvertently missed is requested to contact Stan Robins.

A special vote of thanks was extended to Bruce MacDonell for his efforts in trying to obtain a doctor for Holden and district.

Special guests were introduced by the president—members of the Tofield detachment of the RCMP, who gave short talks and answered questions put to them. Cpl. Murray and Const. Butler were thanked for attending and for their informative talk.

New members were then introduced and welcomed, namely: Mrs. Mary Basarabe, Mrs. Helen Smith, Gordon Langford and Leland Barr.

A long-time member and supporter of the local Chamber of Commerce, H. S. Beveridge was nominated and elected as "Honorary President" for the year, and all extended many thanks for his years of work.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 3, in the Holden Community Hall, with supper commencing at 6:30 p.m., and a guest speaker will be in attendance.

Beauty of Lake Louise

Lake Louise, located at an elevation of 5,675 feet and dominated by the majestic Victoria Glacier, is one of the scenic wonders of the world and each year attracts hundreds of talented students who go to hotels in the Canadian Rockies for summer employment. Students this year included Toronto ballerina Wauneen Thompson, left, and concert soprano Brenda Chenier, of Timmins, Ontario. Outside the Chateau Lake Louise, in an off duty hour, the camera caught both girls reading under the rays of a dazzling sun, a practise deplored by eye care experts. Researchers for the Murine company warn that even dark glasses aren't sufficient protection and three words should be applied: "Don't Do It!"

Over 100 apply for entry to CLC Jr. College

Registrations at Camrose Lutheran College are not completed yet, but there is likely to be an increase in the number attending the Junior College. At present, 100 applications have been received for that department, 74 of which have been completed and accepted. Last year the total number in the Junior College was 80 students.

Registrations in the high school are slightly down from last year, with a total of 107 compared with 120. Of the total, 24 are in Grade 10, 42 in Grade 11 and 41 in Grade 12. Seventy-three of them are in residence at the college.

Alberta history 'book' goes on sale tomorrow

A colorful 344-page book on Alberta's natural history, produced as a Canadian centennial project, will go on sale in retail outlets throughout Alberta tomorrow.

Production of the natural history book has been a major publishing event believed to be unique in North America. The editor-in-chief of the book is Dr. W. George Hardy of Edmonton.

The finished volume is divided into 14 chapters covering the fields of astronomy, geology, climate, geography, the flora and fauna of the various regions of the province, study of aquatic life, history of man in Alberta, and the early natural history explorations and the study of natural history. The book is illustrated with 55 maps, 158 drawings, 173 black and white photographs and 172 colored photographs.

Due to financial support given to the project by the patron companies, Northwestern Utilities Limited, Canadian Utilities Limited and Northland Utilities, the first edition will sell for $5.95, considerably less than normal retail price.

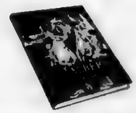
A UNIQUE BOOK ON ALBERTA'S NATURAL HISTORY

BECOMES AVAILABLE SEPT. 14th



Alberta's four major associated gas and electric utility companies are pleased to announce the publication of a book on the natural history of our province, as a tribute to Canada's 100th birthday.

ALBERTA - A NATURAL HISTORY is the centennial project of Natural History and Learned Societies in Alberta, and from the ranks of these societies came most of the 30 distinguished authors and editors who produced the authoritative manuscript. The editor-in-chief was Dr. W. George Hardy of Edmonton.

Here, under one cover is revealed the fascinating story of Alberta's natural environment: astronomy, climate, geology, geography, the flora and fauna of the province, early natural history explorations, the study of aquatic history and the history of man.

Many of Alberta's outstanding photographers contributed color and black and white photographs to complement the text, and artists and cartographers were commissioned to produce maps and drawings.

The finished volume is 344 pages in length with over 500 illustrations. School children will find it a valuable reference, and all who read it will gain a greater knowledge and understanding of Alberta's natural environment and man's relationship to this environment.

In addition to providing financial assistance towards the production of the book, the utility companies, as patrons of the project, have been pleased to set aside over 2,000 copies for complimentary distribution to schools (grades seven to twelve), libraries and senior citizen homes throughout the province.

The patron companies commend ALBERTA - A NATURAL HISTORY to all Albertans and complement the editors, authors, photographers and artists, whose generous contributions of time and talent have made such a publication possible.

Patronage of "Alberta - A Natural History" has been the centennial project of:
CANADIAN WESTERN NATURAL GAS CO LTD
NORTHWESTERN UTILITIES LIMITED
CANADIAN UTILITIES LIMITED
NORTHLAND UTILITIES LIMITED

ALBERTA — A NATURAL HISTORY will be available at Camrose Stationery Ltd., and Gospel Book Mart, Camrose, on publication day, Thursday, September 14th.

Welcome to the 'Hall of Fame'

Premier Manning extends congratulations to Charlie Hayes of Strome on being selected to the Alberta Agricultural Hall of Fame in ceremonies in Edmonton last Thursday. The Hon. H. E. Strom, Minister of Agriculture (center) is reading the citation granting Mr. Hayes admission to the elite group.

Strome farmer enters elite 'Hall of Fame'

Charles P. Hayes of Strome was one of four farmers added to the Agricultural Hall of Fame during ceremonies at the Legislative Building in Edmonton last Thursday.

Only six men had previously been admitted as members of the exclusive honor roll of prominent Alberta farmers.

After being inducted into the Hall of Fame by Premier Manning, Mr. Hayes, Ben Plummer of Bassano, Hugh Allen of Grande Prairie and J. W. Hosford of South Edmonton received certificates from Lt.-Gov. J. Grant MacEwan.

Premier Manning in his opening remarks said that "admission to the Agricultural Hall of Fame is very restricted. Those who are selected are chosen, not only for their own contributions, but also as symbols representative of all the pioneers of agriculture in the province".

Hon. H. E. Strom, minister of agriculture, was present at the ceremonies, and commented on the high calibre of those selected to the Hall of Fame.

Mr. Hayes has a strong record in local municipal government, in the co-operative movement and in livestock circles. He was nominated to the Hall of Fame by District Eight Board of the Farmers' Union of Alberta.

Mr. Hayes moved to Strome in 1912 and has lived there ever since. While at Strome, he raised a family of four, and at present farms with his eldest son, Donald. He was a councillor of the Municipal District of Flagstaff for 33 years, and reeve for 26. He was president of the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts from 1950 to 1959 and vice-president from 1943 to 1950.

He served as a member of the Royal Commission on Metropolitan Development of Edmonton and Calgary, and was also a member of the Hutterite Investigation Committee. At the present time he is the president and chairman of the board of the Alberta Municipal Finance Corporation.

Petra's Park opens Monday

(G. Phillips)

Are the Centennial costumes all ready to be worn again? Have the treasured national recipes been decided on? Is everyone ready to attend the official opening of Tofield's new park?

The Centennial Committee, headed by Dr. W. H. Freebury, is arranging the opening of the park. Much hard work has been done by many people, especially by Queen Petra herself; many donations have been made towards its beauty.

On Monday, Sept. 25, at 5:30 p.m., the Park will be officially opened. A member of the Provincial Centennial Committee will officiate. Members of the local [illegible] Committee will participate, and David Balzer's Junior High School Chorus will sing.

Following the ribbon-cutting and naming ceremonies, the assembled crowd will move to the Community Centre to participate in an Ethnic Food Festival. A short program featuring a speech by the Provincial Centennial Committee representative will follow the supper.

All other Centennial events in Tofield have been extremely well attended, and it is hoped this one will be also.

Harvest is over—let's all celebrate by attending the official opening of the park for which Queen Petra has planned and worked so hard.

Ryley Lions sit in full session

Ryley Lions Club held its first meeting after the summer recess on Thursday, Sept. 15, with President Reg Dyer in the Chair. Two transfer members — Keith Robson, Supervisor of Instruction for the County, from Killam Lions Club, and Harold G. Ross, Principla for the Ryley School, from Clyde Lions Club—were welcomed to the Club.

The Club received second prize for its float in Bruce Stampede parade, in the non-commercial class.

The Club has obtained a 42-[illegible] school bus from the County of Beaver No. 9. This bus will be available to the various organizations in the area under rules that will be formulated at an early date.

During the summer the playground was fenced, making it a safer place for the small children.

Alberta group lauded on leadership 'tour'

Frances Lynn Schultz of Tofield has returned home after a visit to Eastern Canada, sponsored by the Canada Centennial Commission.

Miss Schultz was one of 34 Albertans making the trip east, during which they managed a four-day visit to Expo. While the Albertans were visiting in Quebec and Ontario, a group of 11 students from MacDonald College in Guelph, Ontario, toured Alberta and attended a Teen Camp at Goldeye Lake.

Officials in charge of the Albertan tour reported that the "leadership role and responsibility assumed by each of these young people from Alberta was a credit to the delegation and to the leadership training programs in that province".

The 34 young people were chosen as a result of their participation in youth projects sponsored by the major farm organizations and co-operatives in Alberta. Most of them had attended Farm Young People's Week at the University of Alberta and one of the Teen Camps at Goldeye Lake sponsored by the Farmers' Union and Co-operative Development Association.

Charles Nolan passes away

On September 16, Charles Andrew Nolan of Tofield passed away at 80 years of age. He is survived by his loving wife, Evelyn of Tofield; one daughter (Sherry), Mrs. Bruce McFadzean of Edmonton; five sons, Walter of Shellbrook, Sask.; John Wesley, Patrick, James and Robert Bruce, all of Tofield and Ken Sanderson of Calgary; six grandchildren; one brother, Joseph of Penhold. Mr. Nolan was Past Master of Palestine Lodge No. 47 AF & AM.

Funeral service was held on Tuesday, September 19th, at 2 o'clock from Tofield United Church with the Rev. W. H. McDonnald officiating. Interment in the Field of Honor, Tofield Cemetery. Andrews - McLaughlin Funeral Chapel (1964) Ltd., in charge of arrangements.

ANY ROOM? Whitey was too greedy at supper and [illegible]ered to clean up "every little bit of his food." So, when he went for his usual catnap after a heavy meal, guess what? Yep, his brothers and sisters had taken over and Whitey was left on the outside looking in. Should be a moral here, shouldn't there? — TNS Photo

Youth is the future

The future of any community depends to a great extent on the plans and abilities of its younger generation. If they are interested in youth organizations and community projects while they are young, the chances are pretty good that they will grow up to be community-minded citizens.

In this regard, this area would appear to have very little to worry about, if the past summer is any indication. 4-H clubs are flourishing, and members are making a national name for themselves with their achievements.

Students from this area are winning local, provincial and national recognition for their accomplishments in many areas, be it 4-H, writing, exchange programs or what have you. The future in the hands of these young people looks very secure, indeed.

War on measles

Too common, every-day garden variety of measles which is often accepted as one of the hazards of growing up, is one of the more serious hazards for children growing up today, warns the Health League of Canada, with the hope that National Immunization Week next week can focus attention on the desirability and even the need for thousands more children being immunized against measles, and the complications it produces in all too many instances.

This is the 25th annual reminder that immunization is available for protection against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles and smallpox. Much feared before discovery of the Salk vaccine, polio has been reduced from a peak of 8,676 cases in 1953 to only three last year. Formerly the dread disease of childhood, diphtheria has had a similar spectacular reduction in incidence. In 1943 there were 2,804 cases, resulting in 287 deaths. Last year there were only 37 cases.

The impressive point is that immunization works. We all know what smallpox is, though most of us have never seen a case. There is no natural immunity against smallpox . . . anyone not vaccinated may catch it. Vaccination is the only protection we have against it.

Yet it works.

Don't get married?

Looking at the Caster report from a family point of view, a Toronto lawyer comments that taking the group rather than the individual is not too realistic today when both spouses have almost equal incomes. In these circumstances, points out the lawyer, it would be cheaper from a tax viewpoint to be unmarried.

Shucks, you don't need a legal degree to know that, surely. Any married man knows it would be cheaper from almost any viewpoint to be unmarried.

Worst for farm children

Probably no single group of children in Canada are exposed to as many potential accident situations as are farm children, yet most of the accidents that occur each year could be prevented by the exercise of a bit more common sense coupled with precautionary measures where small children are concerned, advises the Alberta Safety League.

And if the farm is dangerous, probably no season is more dangerous than that facing us right now, harvest time. The modern grain bin, for instance, especially the round bin, with no hand holds, can be terribly dangerous to small children, who can be buried alive while the bin is filling, or he could fall asleep and gradually sink in to the grain in a bin in which he was playing. Adult farmers, who can recall the fun of rolling around in the grain bins of old, need remember today's dangers are far greater.

The modern grain auger, for instance, contributes to the danger, either in filling or emptying the bin. Reports say also that probably no single machine is so dangerous as the combine, with pulleys and belts and gears in a variety of places. Especially at night, color markings can help save hazards. Backing up and driving away from auger, bin or machinery, can also be hazardous.

And from a gambler's point of view the Safety Council urges farmers to avoid extreme fatigue. The one or two hundred bushels of grain that can be harvested during an extra hour of work are not worth the gamble of losing an arm, leg, or a life.

MacDuff Ottawa report

CHANGES PACE

OTTAWA. — John Diefenbaker will not be in his seat when the House of Commons reassembles next Monday. He will be [illegible]. That is an [illegible] occupation for anyone who has been through the strenuous days in Toronto at the age of 72. But it raises the question of how often Parliament is going to see him in future.

He is still the member for Prime Albert. As this report is being written he is still Leader of Her Majesty's Official Opposition. It would be logical to expect an almost immediate resignation from that office and the choice of an interim Opposition Leader until Robert Stanfield's entry into the House of Commons. But logic has not been the primary guideline that Mr Diefenbaker has been following these days. Even if he retains his seat in the Commons the figure that has dominated the House as Prime Minister or Opposition Leader since 1957 will be gone.

In his place before the end of the year will be the 33-year-old son of a prominent Nova Scotian industrial family who has been Premier of the Province since 1956. In background, character and personality Mr Stanfield is a contrast to Mr. Diefenbaker. There will be no prairie showiness to be plagued as a national issue much when he leaves office. There will be no evangelism in the House or on the hustings during his tenure. There will be no necessary longer pauses across this aisle, no studious abstractions of business over issues of secondary importance.

Mr Stanfield in his own way is as tough a fighter when he needs to be as his predecessor. He has a little of the late Angus Macdonald in his make-up. He is also a keen no-earth political realist of the first order. Free from his ill at ease words as Premier of Nova Scotia, he was chosen in December 1956 as the keynote speaker at the Conservative convention which elected Mr Diefenbaker as leader. On that occasion he warned:

"There is no greater tragedy in public life than a politician who becomes entranced by his own propaganda".

He will be quick to recognize the Government's political mistakes, quick to show his Party's strategy according. But he will also be quick to expose ate with Government where an advantage is to be gained by doing otherwise. This is immortal to the Parliament with a legislative budget of 133 [illegible].

It may be assumed [illegible] the second session before Christmas, in which case Mr. Stanfield will scarcely have time to try out the political waters. [illegible] Western Progressive Conservative [illegible] causes rivalries and divisions that have plagued it for the last four years will be busy remaking the image of the Conservative Party and building up its leader [illegible] who before 1968 is too old may be called on to show the Canadian people that he can form a better Government than the [illegible].

In spite of last election's probability there will be fewer political issues than usual arising in the coming months. Few will be found in the Government's legislative program. Most of which are relatively non-controversial and affecting the economy of the country rather than the [illegible] governments and parties of the two can be separated.

Mr. Pearson has divided his legislation into two classes: bills where the leader's stand that should be decided by individual consciences rather than party lines with the [illegible] Government striking down capital punishment, divorce, criminal laws relating to abortion, birth control and marriage. In the other category will be the Patents and Copyright laws [illegible] an industrial attack on drug prices and the [illegible] Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and Canadian Overseas Affairs. The first of these should arouse no issue in the House. The drug industry is [illegible] aware of all the pressure that is on it these days. The Government is not likely to take the [illegible] and the legislation reveals any attempt to interfere or control legitimate business enterprise. Mr. Stanfield could use it as his first battle ground.

Establishment of a Canada Development Corporation seems to stand create a political [illegible] of it should be presented by the Hon. Walter Gordon has presented it in the past, is a measure to put the brake on American control of Canadian industry. It could be [illegible] and the [illegible] bill is on the [illegible].

Also on the program [illegible] Mr Pearson intended to have before Christmas is revision of the Broadcasting Act which will inevitably spark a fight. It will provide for a new [illegible] Board of Broadcast Governors, very different from that created by the Diefenbaker Government.

Between 1945 and 1958 the Conservative Party was led by two former provincial premiers, the Hon. John Bracken and [illegible] George Drew. In this period federal provincial issues were never far from the surface. It was before someone invented the slogan "Ottawa, mind your own business". When a third provincial premier is [illegible] on the Ottawa stage it may be with somewhat the same [illegible] fire as Messrs Manion and Hepburn. [illegible] is no [illegible] for Mr. Diefenbaker to set [illegible] of [illegible] issues to [illegible] into the [illegible] before [illegible] Age, of course, is no [illegible] for Mr. Stanfield [illegible] of finesse. The man who [illegible] "Canada first" is [illegible] a man [illegible] intended by the [illegible] to [illegible] an unsuccessful gimmick to [illegible] Canada first [illegible] a man [illegible] Party that passed the [illegible] and [illegible] new leader will be [illegible] found in the age of [illegible] mean, and explain it they must.

BRATRUD - LOGAN

In a candlelight service at the Mission Covenant Church in Camrose on July 8th, Merrilynn Elaine Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logan of Camrose, became the bride of Ronald Brian Bratrud, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bratrud of Ryley. Rev. Lloyd Alex officiated at the wedding, and pianist was Miss Corrinne Rosberg of Edmonton. Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bonniemay Helleksen; and bridesmaids were Cheryl Bratrud, sister of the groom, Shawn McFayden and Patsy Logan, cousin of the bride. Joyce and Kathy Anderson of Collinton, nieces of the bride were flower girls, and Caroline Stenarud and Eric Mulloy were the candlelighters. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Cox and Bonnie Helleksen rendered numbers in song.

The groom's attendants were his cousin, Garfield Kongsrud; Dennis Logan, brother of the bride; and Gordon Pone and Gary Stenarud. Ushers were Laverne Anderson and Earl Helleksen.

A reception to 170 guests was held in the Elks' Hall, Camrose, where Mr. S. Cox was master of ceremonies and proposed the toast to the bride.

This is the story!

Rodrigo de Jerez of the village of Ayamonte, in Spain, was a simple, pious, home-loving man. His cup of happiness overflowed as he sat at his dinner table with his wife and children for the first time in four years — four long, harrowing years during which he had crossed and recrossed the vast mysterious western sea, as a sailor aboard one of the ships of Christopher Columbus.

After a joyful reunion with his family, Rodrigo's wife brought forth great quantities of delicious food. Rodrigo ate his fill, then adjourned to the shade of a tree beside his house, stretched out on the ground, and sighed: "I shall never again know such happiness."

Rodrigo was right! He never would. Perhaps, if he had thought to explain the strange indulgence he had learned from the natives in that land across the western sea, the fate that awaited him could have been cheated. Perhaps not. In any event, it was while Rodrigo lay under the tree that his good wife noticed the change that had come over her husband—a change that made her shrink away from him, and send her fleeing to the Cathedral as though Satan himself were pursuing her. In her superstitious mind she was convinced that Rodrigo had become possessed of the devil. How else could the strange thing he had done be explained? He must be denounced to the Inquisition. He must be put to death!

Within an hour, Rodrigo, protesting wildly, was thrown into a dungeon charged with heresy. Screaming his innocence, he demanded to know why he was being denounced as a heretic, but the Inquisition did not make a custom of confronting the accused with the accusers or the evidence, and so, Rodrigo was put to death, ignorant of his crime — not knowing that the proof of his heresy was the fact that he had emitted smoke from his nose and mouth. Who but a man possessed of the devil could, or would, do such a thing?

Yes, Rodrigo de Jerez, a sailor from the village of Ayamonte, was put to death, but [illegible] he was the first man, so far as history has [illegible] the [illegible] century counterpart of the modern . . . Cigarette! . . .

September 'Arthritis Month'

Statement by the Honourable Allan MacEachen, Minister of National Health and Welfare Re: "Arthritis Month"—September 1967

September is "Arthritis Month"; but to more than 1,000,000 Canadians suffering due to arthritis and the other rheumatic diseases is a daily aspect of life. Too few people are aware of the dismal toll which these diseases take in both human misery and economic waste. More than 285,000 Canadians are disabled by arthritis and rheumatism, 60,000 of whom are totally or severely incapacitated. Last year, more than 8,000,000 work days were lost in Canada as a result of these diseases at a cost of $100,000,000 in wages alone.

The control of some forms of arthritis is now possible. Many sufferers are today living nearly normal lives. These are the patients who have put their faith in early diagnosis and modern treatment to prevent serious disability due to arthritis. As a result of effective and progressive research during the past few years, it has been demonstrated that such disability can be prevented in about four out of five patients. This is the new hope for all who suffer from arthritis.

Arthritis research has been spearheaded by The Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society which was organized in 1949 with the objectives of improving methods of treatment, and learning the cause and cure of the diseases.

I commend the work of the Society to everyone in Canada and urge you—particularly during "Arthritis Month"—to support its important efforts to bring us relief from this distressing affliction.

Diary of a vagabond

(By Dorothy Barker)

A WARM WELCOME

Montreal, the largest city in Canada, has put out the welcome mat with a gay, warm gesture quickly felt by the thousands of visitors who have invaded its limits.

The mood is so contagious, stranger meets stranger with a smile and even the bus drivers, coping with eager crowds going to Expo, or the weary ones returning, are cheerful and courteous under the most trying mob conditions. I have never seen crowds so well behaved. They are everywhere, in the shops, on the business thoroughfares of downtown Montreal and, of course, in a sea of humanity and constant motion on the acres of two islands devoted to Expo 67.

Something has happened to set this holiday mood. I think it is the exciting aura that seems to have permeated Montreal. I have been there many times and always been thrilled, especially during the past ten years, by its imaginative municipal development. But never before have I felt the warmth of its citizens as I did on my most recent visit.

Even Queen Elizabeth caught the friendly mood when she decided to remain at the fair, rather than return to her yacht, following Prime Minister Pearson's official luncheon. The protocol of her station dropped from her like a cloak and she was just another visitor enjoying the fun of Expo as she road the minirail.

As I watched people in Place du Canada (part of the original Dominion Square) taking part in both round and square dances, I wondered "why we don't do this more often?" Besides the platform where the band thumped merrily away at country music, is a small cottage surrounded by a white picket fence. In its flower bedded yard are tables where refreshments are served.

The next morning, as we left our hotel, a golden chariot was waiting to take us on a sightseeing tour of the city. It is a huge open air vehicle whose chief competitors are glass domed buses owned by the same company, but not quite as popular on a hot summer day.

I wanted the children to see the Sailors' Church in Old Montreal, and ride up the mountain in a caleche drawn by a stodgy old mare with a red tassle bobbing on her forehead. They literally stuffed themselves with the goodies provided for the luncheon buffet in the Panorama Room atop the Queen Elizabeth Hotel. Recharged, we climbed the steps leading to St. Joseph's Oratory. Unfortunately, the organ wasn't playing in the beautiful room beneath the dome as it had been on my first visit.

Reservations for dinner in a typically French restaurant were hard to come by, so we settled for lighter fare at a sidewalk cafe. Most shops were open that evening and we spent the last of our holiday funds in the boutiques along Montreal's amazing thoroughfares beneath Place Ville Marie and Victoria Square.

We had hardly scratched the surface of all there is to see and do in Montreal. Five days, while looking forward, seemed like a lifetime to the children. Looking back, after they were gone, they regretted the hours they had spent sleeping.

When we return, sometime in the future, I wonder if there will be that same evidence of hospitality and joy, or whether Montrealers will have returned to that rather austere attitude peculiar to all large city dwellers.

Yes, Rodrigo de Jerez, a sailor from the village of Ayamonte, was put to death because almost 100 years before Sir Walter Raleigh introduced tobacco to England, he was the first man, as far as history has noted to smoke the 15th century counterpart of the modern Cigarette! . . .

Modern etiquette

Q. If one is on a reducing diet, and is served apple pie at a luncheon, is it all right to eat only the apples and leave the crust—or would this be discourteous to one's hostess?
A. This is quite all right, and often done by diet-conscious guests—and a thoughtful hostess does not question it.

Q. Isn't a guest at a cocktail party privileged to arrive and depart at whatever time he wishes?
A. Yes—within, of course, the prescribed time limits of the party.

Q. Isn't it the lady's privilege to select the table when entering a restaurant with a male escort?
A. No; her escort does this.

Q. Is it considered proper to abbreviate the name of the month in the date line of a business letter?
A. No. Neither the name of the month nor the province is properly abbreviated—even such provinces as British Columbia, Saskatchewan, or New Brunswick. It is considered more polite to write them out.

Q. Is it all right for a bride to make use of the folded type of thank-you cards for acknowledging her wedding gifts?
A. A folded card with "Thank you" imprinted on the face is quite all right—but she MUST add a handwritten personal message.

Q. If a widow is to be married for the second time, would it be proper for her two married daughters to mail out marriage announcements in their names?
A. No. Under these circumstances, the marriage should be announced in the name of the woman and her new husband.

"I'm fed up with being a good sport!"

NOTICE OF NOMINATIONS

Mis - Simonsen vows exchanged July 1st

In a July 1st ceremony at St. Anthony's church in Edmonton, Donna Marie Simonson and Louis Clarence Mis were united in marriage, with Rev. Father McAffery celebrating the nuptial mass. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Simonson of Edmonton (formerly of Kingman) and the groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mis of Edmonton.

The bride's attendants were her sister Mrs. Maureen Kramer as matron of honor, and Miss Cheryl Gawlicki as bridesmaid. Sherry Kramer was the flower girl and Kenneth Kramer the ring-bearer. Walter Mis and Jerry Dmytrus attended the groom, and ushers were John Mis and Bev Kramer.

Reception for 170 guests was held in the Bonnie Doon Hall, where Walt Gabert was master-of-ceremonies and Charles Gawlicki proposed the toast to the bride. Deanna McKenzie of Camrose was in charge of the guest book, at her cousin's wedding.

The newlyweds will reside in Edmonton.

ONE NATION OR TWO? This is the question which is being mouthed across the country as the strife between Ottawa and Quebec heightens to a new pitch. Federally the two nation status theory has been rejected, but Quebec sources say the issue will continually be put forth to Parliament. It is also suspected Quebec will look to France for cultural and economic aspirations. — TNS Photo

Mrs. G. H. Taylor

HOLDEN, Sept 18th. - Mr. and Mrs. John Semotuik were Edmonton visitors Wednesday of last week, taking their eldest son, Bernie to register on Thursday at the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology where he will be taking a course in Business Administration. Bernie will be staying at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Semotuik's sister. Dennis Ogonoski is taking the same course and will be rooming with Bernie.

Bobbie Carlson of Red Deer was a visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Carlson on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols are home from a week's trip to Vancouver, where they attended the wedding of their grandson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gorrie.

Rev. Gesson of Edmonton has been visiting with his daughter Dorothy and family the R. Batemanns, for several days.

Nick Kohut of Edmonton was a business caller in Holden last week and also visited with his mother, Mrs. Mary Kohut.

Frank Stecyk of the NADP staff is taking his annual three weeks' holiday, and is helping on the farm.

Mrs. Don Crutu joined the Royal Bank staff a couple of weeks ago and is working full-time. She was a former member of the staff a few years ago.

Mrs. Hazel Armstrong, who has been employed in the Holden office of the Vegreville Health Unit for a number of years has resigned her position there and is now helping at the Harold Giebelhaus home while Mrs Audre Giebelhaus is teaching at the Holden school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and children were Thursday evening visitors with his parents, the Geo. H. Taylors. Their young son, Aaron was a Friday evening and overnight visitor with his grandparents.

Mr and Mrs. Bruce MacDonell, former Holden residents, now of Drumheller, were recent visitors in Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiedemann and son Robert were in Edmonton on business Monday of last week, also calling on sons Alan and David.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ogrodnick have had their daughter Beverly and children of Edmonton visiting with them for several days this past week, returning home Saturday. E. W. Nord and Ida visited at the Ogrodnick home Friday evening, to see Beverly and children before they returned home.

Mrs. J. A. Giebelhaus accompanied her husband the past week while he was out on his rounds in the Coronation district.

Harry Shehinski of Edmonton is presently in the district with his brother John and family and has been helping with the harvesting.

The Brownie & Guide Mothers' Association held a re-organization meeting on Monday evening in the Community Hall. They hope to start their Brownie meetings in October, with the meetings being held on a Wednesday, right after school.

Mr. and Mrs Alex Shyba of Edmonton were visitors during the weekend with relatives and also called on friends.

Mrs Alice Jones of Edmonton visited with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Olson over the weekend.

Paul Babie of the B. & B. Hotel is having renovations made to the exterior of the hotel and repairs to the side which was damaged when a truck ran into it a short time ago.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mike A. Komarnisky was home for several days recuperating after recent surgery, when his wife was taken to hospital with an infected kidney, and was a patient there for four days. Mike had to re-enter the University hospital this past week and had further surgery on Thursday.

Mrs. Stanley Komarnisky was an Edmonton visitor this past week, to receive treatment to her foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Komarnisky and children of Edmonton visited with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Mike Komarnisky over the holiday weekend, also with relatives in Daysland.

Mrs. Mary Scherger left a week ago to visit for a few days with her family and friends in her old home in Saskatoon.

Mrs. Scherger is a patient in Tofield hospital, receiving treatment to her leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barlow who spent the last ten days with their daughter and family, the Ernie Mertas at Viking where they helped with harvesting operations, returned home Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow were Sunday dinner guests with their sister, Mrs. N. L. Campbell.

Marvin Giebelhaus was away on a fishing trip at the weekend.

Former Holden oldtimer dies

Mrs. G. Taylor

Mrs. Charlotte Houston of 9540 - 151st Street, Edmonton, a former old-time resident of the Holden district, passed away on September 15th, after a short illness. She had been in poor health for some years, after suffering a bad fall, fracturing her hip, and with arthritis, and had been a hospital patient for the past two months.

Left to mourn her loss are her husband John of Edmonton and relatives in Toronto, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston were two of the very early pioneers farming in the Talbot district southwest of Holden. Retiring from farming during the 1940's to reside in Edmonton, then leaving for Easyford where they had land for several years they returned to Edmonton about three years ago, due to Mrs. Houston's poor health.

The funeral was held September 18 from Howard & McBride Chapel in Edmonton, with Rev. Doctor Edwin J. White officiating. Interment was in Westlawn Memorial Park, Edmonton.

Holden OORP meets after summer recess

Mrs. G. Taylor

Holden Lodge OORP reconvened for their first meeting on September 12, after two months holiday. There was a good turn-out of members and they were pleased to welcome a newcomer to the district, Mrs. Langford a member of Halkirk OORP, who is now a resident in Holden.

Reports of activities during the summer months were given, as well as reports of the Centennial Ethnic supper, and the Chamber of Commerce supper held September 5. Ass. R. L. Mary Semotuik was installed in office. Committees were named for the Holden High School graduation banquet, to be held September 23 in the Community Hall, and a rummage sale to be held in October was discussed.

Lunch hostesses were ladies Sorensen and Lindberg.

Highly qualified staff tutors Tofield pupils

(G. Phillips)

The Tofield School opened for the 1967-68 term with 28 full-time and one part-time teachers.

Kenneth R. Eastlick is beginning his second year as principal. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Montana State College and a Master of Science degree from the University of Montana. As well as fulfilling his administrative duties, Mr. Eastlick teaches Biology in Grades XI and XII.

J. C. Lampitt is vice-principal of the Tofield School for the fourth year. In addition to his administrative duties, Mr. Lampitt teaches in the Junior High.

Lloyd Cribb, who has a Bachelor of Education degree from the University of Alberta and a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Calcutta, is teaching English and Social Studies to Grade XII and Science to Grade IX.

Mrs. G. Mollie Conn is teaching English in High School and Art in Grade IX. Mrs. Conn has both a Bachelor of Education and Master of Education degree from the University of Alberta.

Robert Lysle teaches French in the High School, dividing his time between Ryley and Tofield.

Dick Thiessen, who obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Waterloo, Ontario, teaches Social Studies, German and Drama in High School.

Gian Pohar, who teaches Mathematics in High School, has a Bachelor of Arts degree, a Bachelor of Teaching degree and a Master of Arts degree, all from the University of Punjab, India.

Harold Ferguson, who holds a Professional Certificate from the University of Alberta, teaches Social Studies in both High School and Junior High (Grade IX).

Ronald Taylor, beginning his first year on the Tofield staff, is a Science teacher in High School. He holds a Bachelor of Eduction degree as well as a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Alberta.

Floyd Irwin is Tofield's teacher of Commercial courses. Mr. Irwin obtained his Bachelor of Education degree from Colorado State College and his Bachelor of Arts degree from Chadron State College.

Miss Gail Lauber has returned to the Tofield staff, this time as librarian. Miss Lauber recently obtained her Bachelor of Education degree from the University of Alberta.

Leo Rurka teaches Physical Education to High School and Junior High students, as well as to boys in the Elementary School. He also teaches Science to Grade VIII.

The Junior High School is also departmentalized. David Belzer, who previously taught in Ryley but returned last year to the University of Alberta, is teaching Music in the Junior High as well as Science in Grades V, VI and VII.

Robert Hohol, holder of a Professional Certificate from U. of A., is beginning his teaching career in Grade VII in Tofield. Mr. Hohol teaches English and Drama.

Paul Koziol, who recently obtained his Professional Certificate from the U. of A., has one of the Grade VIII classes. Mr. Koziol teaches Social Studies to Grades VII and VIII.

Howard Meger has a Grade VIII room and teaches Mathematics to five classes. Mr. Meger has a Bachelor of Education degree from the University of Alberta.

Mrs. Grace Phillips, holder of a Bachelor of Education degree from the University of Alberta, teaches English to Grades VIII and IX, and is the home-room teacher for one Grade IX class. Jack Lampitt, vice-principal, also has a Grade IX class.

Mrs. Daisy Young and Mrs. Carol Rurka again have the beginning classes. The Grade II teachers also remain the same— Mrs. Eleanor Campbell, holder of a Bachelor of Education degree from the U. of A., and Mrs. Jennie Sears. Mrs. Marjory Everitt and Mrs. Marjorie Astley also have the Grade III classes, as for several years past. Miss Sylvia Nelezko is beginning her first year in Tofield, teaching with Mrs. Helen Tiedemann in Grade IV.

In Grades V and VI, the teachers have departmentalized the subject load. Mrs. Ingram, in charge of one Grade V class, is teaching Social Studies to four classes; Mrs. Cribb, who has a Middle Grade European School Certificate from India, is also in charge of a Grade V class but teaches Mathematics to four classes.

Miss Patricia Hoveland and Miss Margaret Mitchell, both teaching for their first year, have the Grade VI classes. Miss Hoveland teaches English to four classes and Miss Mitchell teaches Physical Education to several classes.

In addition to receiving instruction in the Tofield School, some classes in High School and Junior High travel to Ryley for Industrial Arts and Home Economics classes.

Staff-Sergeant W. Coates of the P.P.C.L.I. gives instruction in Band Music in the Tofield School.

The school is fortunate in having a full-time secretary in the person of Mrs. Faye Dodds.

The caretaking staff consists of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lindsay, with help from Mr. and Mrs. P. Thiessen.

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

Communion services were conducted at the United Church on Sunday by Rev. Jim Elliott of Sherwood Park. Little Ronald Ian Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ferguson, was baptized.

At a recent meeting, members of the Ministik C.W.I. decided to have their annual fall bingo and bazaar this year, to be held at Hastings Lake Hall on October 20.

Members of the Community Club met at the Keith Williams home last Monday, when they decided to have a surprise package bingo on October 13. One of these, held last April 1, proved highly successful. Also, that night the lucky ticket will be drawn on the portable stereo record player that is to be raffled. Donald Grummett, a former club member, was a guest at the meeting. The next club meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davenport on Monday, Oct. 2.

Archie Ferguson is at present a patient in the Col. Mewburn Hospital in Edmonton, where he will have a cataract removed from his eye.

Executives of the Ladies' Club, the Hall Board and the Community Club gathered at the Hall on Thursday evening to hear the P.A. system in operation.

AT WEDDING

Mrs. Frances Waller, Doreen Waller, Mrs. S. George and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roddick attended the wedding on Saturday of Miss Debbie George and Paul Weiss; also at the reception which followed at the Bonaventure Motor Hotel.

Mrs. Frances Waller and Doreen Waller left Sunday morning for Aberdeen, Washington, after a three-week stay with Mrs. S. George. Mrs. George accompanied them on their return journey.

Mrs. Archie Clarke, of Edmonton, and Mrs. Phoebe Graham, of Calgary, were Sunday guests of Mrs. W. C. Barnes. They flew to Vancouver on Saturday, where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Clarke's eldest daughter, Patricia. Mrs. Archie Maclean, Neil and a friend were weekend guests with Mrs. Barnes.

Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood and Mrs. Fuller, of Edmonton, were Sunday afternoon guests of the Bill Roddicks.

Donald Grummett, of Calgary, spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Les Whitford.

Russell Rowland was hospitalized recently after having a nasty accident with a riding pony.

Margaret Roddick and Marcia Munwall, of Edmonton, were weekend guests of the Jim Roddicks.

Grant Ferres has been enjoying a couple weeks vacation at his home here, and has been doing some carpenter work on their house.

Mrs. Andrew Ferguson spent Thursday in Edmonton helping her sister, Mrs. John Potts, pack her belongings after selling her home. She also visited her other sister, Mrs. R. Ingles, who still remains a patient in hospital after a nasty fall in June.

Doris Davenport spent the weekend with her parents and sisters, the Joe Davenports.

Robin Bowerman, who is now stationed at Brooks, Alberta, spent the weekend with his family on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Norman and family, of Calgary, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kleinschroth, parents of Mrs. Norman.

IN MEMORIAM

EATON. — In memory of Owen Richard Eaton, loving husband, father and grandfather, who passed away September 24, 1966:

Like falling leaves the years slip by,
But memories of Owen never die;
Nine years have come and gone
Since she left us here alone;
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear—
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near;
Until memories fade and life departs
He will live forever in our hearts.

—Ever remembered by his loving wife Ellen; two sons and daughter, Walter and Evelyn Eaton and Family, Leroy and Shirley Eaton and Family, and Rita and Herb Niemotz and Family. 3-nc

Memory's Lane recalls WCTU meet

When Dave Schmidt was taking down the old Peter Ingram house this spring he ran across some old newspapers. The Edmonton Journal, 1910, a Winnipeg paper, etc. In a copy of the Tofield Standard, dated May 18th, 1916, the following items appear: ed: "A meeting was held on Friday afternoon, 12th of the month at the home of Mrs. Lewis, some distance south of Ranin, to organize a branch of the WCTU. The following ladies were present: Mrs P B Anderson, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Parker Sr., Mrs. Parker Jr., Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Nelson, with Mrs. Whitlaw, president of the Tofield Union, and the Rev. R. Whitlaw. Mrs Bailey was elected president. Mrs. Nelson secretary; Mrs. Anderson, 1st vice-president, Mrs. Parker Jr., 2nd vice-president, and Mrs. Parker Sr., treasurer. It was decided that the regular meeting be held at 5 p.m. on the first Wednesday of every month, and the name of the society be Iberia WCTU.

CFCW opposes bids of four competitors

Radio station CFCW of Camrose opposed four bids from radio stations proposed for Wetaskiwin, Edson and Westlock, made last week to the Board of Broadcast Governors at Ottawa.

Harold Yorke, president and general manager of the local station, told the Board of Broadcast Governors that station CFCW served all areas applying for stations with agricultural and news broadcasts. He added that any reduction in revenue would lead to a deterioration in service to rural Alberta. He pointed out that CFCW covered council meetings in both Barrhead and Westlock, along with good local service in all areas.

Two of the applications were for a station to operate in Wetaskiwin. J. Donald Miller of Drumheller is proposing one, while the other application came from R. D Stephen of Red Deer. Both men stated they would not seek advertising from either Edmonton or Camrose.

Dr. Georges Whissel proposed the new station for the Westlock area, and told the BBG that the new station would not in any way affect the operation of the Camrose station.

The Edson group seeking a station were headed by Friend Mitchell, who told the BBG that his area was big enough to support a local radio station. He said his group hoped to put a signal into Jasper National Park and that if the mountain proved a barrier, the group would seek BBG permission to use a repeater station.

Ladies' Club has outdoor meeting

(Mrs. J. Reddish)

The Mirror Ladies' Club enjoyed the September meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Hall. It was a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Fay for the Alberta Hospital at Oliver.

Scene of disaster

This was the scene after a raging gas fire was brought under control following two explosions on the Northwestern Utilities natural gas line, three miles east of Ryley on Saturday morning, which killed two men. The front arrow indicates the spot where workmen recovered the body of Richard Osland, 28, of Tofield, who was killed instantly, while the back arrow points to the spot where Elmer Jensen, 23, of Edmonton was when he suffered burns to 60% of his body. He died yesterday at the University Hospital in Edmonton.

Seven other men working on the site at the time of the explosions, almost directly behind the back arrow escaped serious injury, although three of them suffered minor burns.

The small white area near the front-center of the picture is the last traces of the fire still burning from the pipe which is covered by earth.

Two killed in Ryley explosion

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

A natural gas line explosion Saturday at noon three miles east of Ryley killed two men, while three others received minor burns. A nine man crew was working near the scene of the accident when the line exploded.

The damaged line forced Northwestern Utilities to shut off all service to Ryley until 2:00 a.m. Sunday. Vegreville was on limited supply until 8.00 p.m. Saturday.

Richard Osland, 28, of Tofield was killed instantly when the blast occurred. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs Joseph Osland of Tofield and leaves to mourn his wife Donna and daughter Kimberly. Funeral services were held yesterday from the Tofield United Church.

Elmer Jensen, 23, of Edmonton suffered burns to 60 degrees of his body and was taken to University Hospital in Edmonton, where he succumbed to his injuries yesterday.

According to residents of the area, there were two explosions with the second being the biggest blast. Flames and smoke shot over 150 feet into the air, and buildings in the area, shook as if in an earthquake.

According to company officials the explosion was caused from a leak in one of the four main lines from Viking to Edmonton. The gas escaped through a separation in a drawer coupling. Two of the lines were partly uncovered near a valve assembly located just across the highway and railway from one of the company's stations, three miles east of Ryley. The crew was blocking lines and installing sleepers at the valve assembly. Osland was working near the valve assembly on one side towards the lines where the line separated. Size of the lines at this point is 16 inches. The break in the line was about 75 feet from the valve assembly.

According to company officials their last fatality from working on lines was in 1952. A sign at the company's Tofield station shows 2,035 days without an accident.

A wedding truck, X-ray truck, ½ ton truck, construction trailer, car and bulldozer located about 100 yards from the point of explosion were completely destroyed by fire.

31 students honored as Centennial Grads

(Grace Phillips)

Ceremonies for the centennial graduates from the Tofield High School were held on Saturday, September 23 in the Tofield Community Centre with Lloyd Cribb as master of ceremonies.

Before the banquet, catered to by the UCW, Dick Thiessen offered grace, and Mr. Cribb proposed the toast to the Queen.

Following the banquet, the guests at the head table were introduced by Mr. Cribb. These included Marvin Bruce, superintendent of schools and Mrs. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Westherill, Dr. and Mrs W. H. Frysbury, Mr. and Mrs K. H. Eastlick, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Annis, Mrs. Petra Stauffer, Miss Marjorie Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cribb.

The toast to the graduates was proposed by Mr. Eastlick and replied to by Allan Everett. Lois Reid ger proposed the toast

THE ROAD CREW

About the CBC

There seems to be some slight momentum behind the drive to make some changes in the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, and it is probably not before time. Many people seem to think that the CBC is top-heavy, with too many chiefs and not enough indians, although CBC reports of personnel required to flim various events would indicate that there are plenty of indians.

Two of the main criticisms of the CBC is its tremendous budget and its lack of use of Canadian talent. The budget comes under fire for two reasons, one of which is the large salaries for executives for the corporation, and the number of executives receiving these large salaries.

Another item that creates a large dent in the budget is the huge staff that seems to be required to produce programs. For example, the crew numbered in the hundreds for producing the Pan-Am Games, and everyone knows just how little we got out of that.

There can be little doubt about the small amount of Canadian talent being used on the CBC. If all the hockey and football games were removed about the only Canadians left would be the newscasters. It's no wonder that Canadian talent is complaining.

Wild youth gangs

The expression 'go west young man, go west' is an oft repeated one, and following this advice has permitted many a man to make his fortune, while others just making a fortune, have led successful and happy lives in Canada's western provinces.

Yet, we can only hope that two breeds of youth will not heed this advice and come to our area to stay. Members of the hippy generation are not overly welcome wherever they go and this lack of hospitality should extend to members of wild motorcycle gangs that are springing up all over the country.

The former group presents the first problem, as it would appear that a great exodus out of Ontario is in the making, with their destination being Calgary. However, the City of Calgary is not exactly extending open arms to these people, and have stated quite plainly that they would not be welcome there. If life in Toronto becomes too unbearable, then Edmonton would seem to be the next logical place to settle.

We can only hope that this never comes to pass. Should they descend on the provincial capital, they could cast their influence over the younger generation of all Northern Alberta.

Lately, motorcycle gangs seem to be trying to imitate the notorious 'Hell's Angels' in creating riots and disturbances. Just recently sixty-four members of an Ontario group appeared in court on various charges, with the net result that they have now vowed revenge on the police laying the charges.

As pressure is mounted on both the hippies and the motorcycle gangs, they keep moving around, trying to avoid the police, more or less leaving havoc behind them. There are no laws anywhere in Canada that effectively apply to controlling any specific groups of people such as these, but, maybe it is time, for special laws to be considered.

These youthful rioters consider themselves special. They contribute nothing to society in any manner. They are an unwashed, dirty, filthy, ragged bunch that neither work nor wish to.

We, when in Whitecourt, get some of these characters that come through on their travels, and NOW before they become entrenched

Gordon E. Taylor, Minister of Highways, discusses items contained in the new Highway Traffic Act.

"RED LIGHTS—BEWARE"

Red means danger and wherever that color is shown drivers and pedestrians are cautioned to beware.

In an effort to facilitate the movement of traffic at intersections and to achieve uniformity throughout the Province of Alberta, changes involving red lights were made in our legislation by the last Legislature and these became effective July 1.

The new law contains three important sections as follows:

(a) A vehicle approaching a red light may turn right after stopping and after observing that it is safe to turn; previously a turn on a red light could be made only if a sign or graphic permitted it.

(b) A vehicle approaching an intersection, where there is a red light and no green arrow, may make the turn without stopping, providing it is safe to do so, the green arrow is used to indicate that there are no conflicts with other traffic or pedestrians and an absolute stop is, therefore not required, the driver, however, should proceed only with caution.

Where there is a red light and a sign prohibiting a right turn, a vehicle must not proceed until a change of signal so indicates.

A red light flashing has similarly indicates that the intersection is old and immediately and not proceed until it is safe to do so.

"The enactment of the laws is more important than the making of them" . . . Jefferson.

MacDuff Ottawa Report

NO PUNCHES PULLED

OTTAWA — Under the eye of the cameramen of the Centennial session of parliament the Federal Government found itself rapped sharply over the knuckles by its Economic Council of Canada.

The Council in the toughest, most outspoken report of its short existence, was critical of the high rate of spending.

In part the Economic Council has been rather timid in its approach to mounting government expenditures and the increasing inflationary pressures. But this time it spoke out boldly. It was critical not only of Ottawa but of all levels of government for the increased spending.

The suggestion was that the governments — and in particular the Federal Government — appeared incapable of turning off the tap. The Council cautioned that the economy was heading into very serious difficulties if something was not done and done quickly.

Said the Council: "The accelerated increase in government spending in 1966 and 1967 is not pacing the growth of government revenues at existing levels. This raises the possibility of higher taxes and of sharper conflicts in competing claims for the use of resources".

It was said, "Such conflict could lead to sharp rises in price and costs".

John J. Deutsch, Chairman of the Council, and his colleagues on the Council were critical of government spending. Mr. Deutsch has now retired from the chairmanship of the Council but left it on completion of this late review of the economy. He cautioned the present session of next year teaching at Queen's University before taking over as principal next year.

The Council attacked the seemingly unavoidable rise in government spending and called on governments to establish machinery to better control public spending. This was emphasized in their appeal for changing economic conditions. Many experts stated there were considerable of the have-lines points and that because he was an expert or a because minister and should be treated accordingly.

To summarize the economy from [illegible] the Council report found it extremely important that expenditures be regularly reviewed from the standpoint of economic need that the thoughtless augmentation of existing programs and new ones. This was necessary so that spending may not be maximized for the development of new programs. That last year offered a real climate to economic growth and needed adjustment to change.

The Report said it is essential to have more effective co-operation and co-ordination among the three levels of governments in regard to the pace of over-all expansion of government spending; the approval of purpose, costs, returns benefits and consistency of objectives and results; and the setting and reviewing of priorities.

The 20-member council was created by the government in 1963 to help it to fully chart Canada's growth and to make recommendations to the government. In the beginning it adopted the "soft approach" and more than once members of the Cabinet in the past have expressed disappointment at the cautious manner in which the Council tended to answer the questions the government advisor. This time, for a change, the Council took up its sleeves and came out of its corner swinging.

In 1966 it noted purchases of goods and services by all levels of Government in Canada rose by $1.6 billion or 10 per cent, the largest percentage increase since the Korean build-up. Increases in both 1965 and 1966 came as a strong expansion of demand in other sectors of the economy.

This acted significantly to increase demand pressures and contributed to the acceleration of price and cost increases, the Council.

It compared the role of the Canadian government to an economy with the United States. Government in fact, during government spending.

The Council pointed out that despite large increases in U.S. defence expenditures due to increasing involvement in Vietnam, in 1965 and 1966 were restricted pending in Canada's role in or war in the U.S. In 1965 and 1966 total government spending at all levels in Canada rose about 10 per cent compared with 7 per cent in the U.S.

[illegible] non-defence expenditures in Canada now take up about 30 per cent of the Gross National Product compared with only about 20 per cent in the U.S. The [illegible] difference reflects among other things, relatively high spending in Canada for social security, transportation, debt charges and subsidies.

The Council suggested to the government that in the long run international terms the Canadian Government could achieve a smoother growth in its expenditures if were [illegible] economically to the [illegible] member growth in [illegible]. Privately the Finance Minister [illegible] merit publicly were [illegible] the section of the report that suggested that governments should cut down on their spending splurge.

But it is understood that Finance Minister Mitchell Sharp was disappointed that the Council did not deal with the question of psychology that some have taken hold in the [illegible] Minister would have welcomed it if the Council had [illegible] strongly on this [illegible] spelled out ways and means of combatting inflationary pressures.

to the parents and Harold Schultz replied. Following the banquet, the graduation exercises were held. Miss Elaine Baergen played the processional march and Mr. Thiessen gave the invocation. Miss Donna Jacobsen presented the salutation address, which stood and developed the theme "All the World's a Stage" after which Miss Marjo se Moore presented the Tofield School Centennial award at Stella to Douglas Glover for highest standing in grade XII in the Tofield school.

The valedictorian address was given by Douglas Grover, who urged his classmates to accept responsibility for their future.

GUEST SPEAKER

Following two solos by Mrs Melita Wall, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Stinson, the guest speaker, C. F. Annis, former principal of the Tofield School, gave the theme address. After congratulating the graduates, Mr. Annis reminded them that graduation, however successful, was merely the beginning of adult life. While climbing the ladder of success, the graduates should strive to develop compassion and respect for their fellowmen, was Mr. Annis' advice.

Apples for Youth still available

The Junior Sports' Committee reports that the Apples for Youth drive is continuing this Saturday.

The townspeople have all been canvassed thoroughly, but some country residents who wish to support youth sports' activities may pick up a box, or boxes, of apples at Frank Langlaas' business establishment on Saturday, September 30.

Buying the apples is a good way to ensure an adequate sports' program for the boys of the community—both town and country.

Queen 'Bess' to hold open - house on Sunday

Holden's Centennial Queen, "Queen Bess" has planned an 'open house' to be held Sunday, October 1st at her home. The affair is a token of her appreciation for having the honor of being Centennial Queen for Holden and the many kindnesses shown to her during the year and while she was a patient for six weeks in Leduc hospital.

Queen Bess issues a very cordial invitation to all her friends to call and have a cup of tea or coffee and a bite to eat with her. Open house will be held between the hours of 2 p.m. and 5 p.m.

A special invitation is issued to all members of the OORP and UCW, and is also an invitation to the men of Holden and district, too.

Election for Tofield, not in Holden, Ryley

Yesterday was 'Nomination Day' in Tofield, Holden and Ryley as terms expired on County Council, school committee and hospital representatives.

An election to fill two County Council seats in Tofield was made necessary when four men filed nomination papers. W. A. Swift and George Boese, the incumbents will be opposed by Arney Klassen and William Wiens with the election being held on Wednesday, October 18th.

Things were a bit different in Holden and Ryley as all vacancies were filled by acclamation, making elections unnecessary.

In Holden, incumbents Lars Olson and John Semotuik were put back in as County Councillors while Nestor Semotuik was again named as a representative on the school committee.

Elected by acclamation to the County Council in Ryley were [illegible] E. Albrecht and Fred Nordwaski while incumbent Ted [illegible] the hospital committee. Grattan [illegible] was again named to [illegible]

NOTICE

Re: Child Welfare Protection Services

The Child Welfare Act (assented to April 7, 1966), Part 5 section 93, subsection (1), states:

"Any duty, responsibility or function imposed upon a municipality or its employees by this section shall terminate when the Minister, through arrangements with the municipality, provides for the assumption of that duty, responsibility or function by the Government."

In view of this provision, the Municipal Council is requesting that they be relieved of the responsibility of providing Protection Services for Children as of Aug. 1st, 1967. This request is made in view of discussion with the Supervisor of the Department of Public Welfare Regional Office at Vegreville, Alta.

The Regional Office of the Department has agreed to provide these services in line with the intent of the Act and the Municipality wishes to relinquish its responsibility allowing for the following arrangements:

(a) that the Municipality will publish in the municipal area the fact that this responsibility has been transferred from the Municipality to the Province.

(b) that the Municipal authorities, e.g., Mayor, Councillors, Secretary-Treasurer, are agreed to report promptly any urgent situation of which they may become aware of concerning the neglect of children first, to the police authority (who will have continuing authority to act) and immediately following to the nearest Regional Office of the Department of Public Welfare.

(c) that generally, the Municipal Council and its officers will offer the necessary liaison to the Regional Office of the Department of Public Welfare in carrying out the intent of the Child Welfare Act.

Modern etiquette

Q. Must one who is invited to a golden wedding anniversary reception send a gift, and if so, what?

A. There is no obligation regarding this. It depends upon how close your friendship is with the honored couple. You may take flowers from your garden or a potted plant you have grown, or bake a batch of cookies with golden icing. The personal touch adds warmth to your gift.

Q. Is a hostess supposed to wait until all her dinner guests have finished eating before she begins removing plates from the table?

A. Usually, yes. But if one guest is very slow, then it would be all right for her to begin removing the plates of some of the other guests.

School Committee meets September 12th

Following are the minutes, in part, of the regular meeting of the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee, held Tuesday, Sept. 12:

Business Arising From Minutes

In regards to the bus contract for Mrs. Annie Rurka — Mrs. Rurka has indicated that she only wished a one-year contract.

It was moved and carried that information be accepted and the request concurred in.

In regards to the sale of the old teacherage at Bruce, it was moved and carried that this matter be deferred until the Council meeting r.; September 14, with the Council having authority to deal with the matter.

In regards to possible changing of some of the bus routes in the Ryley area, Cr. Knudsen mentioned that some readjustment had been done and that some further changes would have to be made in the future Practically all bus routes in the County ought to be investigated with the view toward improving them.

Bus Tenders

Tenders for the purchase of school buses were dealt with, the following tenders having been received Bus No. 18, 36-passenger GMC, C. G. Hart $408, R. H. Wilson $150, Ed Forial $80; Bus No. 20, 36-passenger 1956 IHC, G. E. Brown $325. Bus No 26, 36-passenger 1956 IHC, R. H. Wilson, $225.

Moved and carried that the tender submitted by C. G. Hart of Viking for Bus No. 18 in the amount of $408, the tender submitted by G. E. Brown of Calgary for Bus No. 20 in the amount of $325, and the tender submitted by R. H. Wilson of Calgary for Bus No. 26 in the amount of $225 be accepted.

Moved and carried that new tenders be called for buses 2 and 20.

A.S.T.A. Re. Annual Convention

The Alberta School Trustees Association 61st Annual Convention was now referred to the Committee. The Convention is to be held November 5, 6, 7 and 8 at the Chateau Lacombe Hotel in Edmonton.

Moved and carried that any School Committee members who are able to attend may do so; also the Superintendent of Schools and the Assist. Secretary-Treasurer.

A.S.T.A. Newsletter No. 67-11, stating that Alberta School Design Workshop 1967 would be held November 1 and 2 in the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium in Edmonton. The Superintendent felt that this would be a very worthwhile workshop and that some personnel from the County should attend this Workshop and that the Supervisor of Buildings should definitely be in attendance.

The Committee felt that the Superintendent of Schools also should attend as well as some School Committee members, and it was moved and carried that the Supervisor of Buildings, Nick Shiblaski, Superintendent of Schools, M. S. Bruce, and two School Committee members attend the Alberta School Design Workshop, November 1 and 2.

Request Children Attend School In Vegreville

Daniel Globelhaus interviewed the Committee at this time in connection with his request that his children be permitted to attend school in Vegreville. He stated that it was economics as well as the fine element involved him to make this request. His children are highly interested in music and three of them are taking music lessons in Vegreville. As the lessons started at 1:30 p.m., he would have to be absent from the farm during the time when he ordinarily would do his chores. If the children were allowed to attend school in Vegreville they could take their lessons during the noon recess. He mentioned the fact that Vegreville is his post office and his trading centre He was not asking for consideration for the 1967-68 school year, but was requesting some consideration for the 1968-69 school year. The Chairman mentioned that this situation, no doubt, applied to many other people in the County and that it would be impossible to satisfy everyone.

The School Committee did not appear very sympathetic, but it was suggested that he place his request before the School Committee at the meeting of 1968 for consideration at that time.

Reference was made to the Automobile Safety Conference at the Chateau Lacombe Hotel in Edmonton, October 13 and 14.

The Committee felt that it should have attendance at this Conference, and it was moved and carried that Chris Doris and Johnston attend this Conference.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Bursary Applications

It was moved and carried that the following bursary applications be approved: First Year, Arthur Nicholas Micklich, secondary; Second Year, Dora Linda Halso, elementary, Lenore Annet.e Vergette, secondary; Eileen Stuart, elementary, Third Year, Floyd William Taylor, secondary; Stephen John Russell, secondary; Leroy Phillip Durand, secondary; John William Rhodes, secondary; Ed. A. White, secondary.

The Superintendent stated that to date 18 bursary applications had been received.

Teacher Appointments

It was moved and carried that appointment of Mrs. Gamblin Anne Berin, as teacher half time in Ryley Jr. High School be approved.

The report indicated that Industrial Arts would not be offered in grade 7 pupils from Bruce and Kinsella this year as a result of organization whereby Industrial Arts is offered in gr 7's & 8 pupils in the same schools. It would not be possible to fit Bruce and Kinsella pupils into a program when they reach grade 8 they would then go into classes with pupils who have no previous Industrial Arts.

Reference was made to the Canadian Caravan which would be in Viking on October 12, 1967, and it was recommended that all pupils from the County of Beaver be transported by

FROZEN SALMON

The dark fruity-blue Prune Plums from British Columbia are still plentiful on the market. Besides being suitable for dessert and jam, this fruit can be combined with onions and apple juice or wine to make a delicious sauce for beef or chicken. It's a sauce to titillate the palate later on when a day may be dreary and dreary, as it can be frozen and used as required.

Prune Plum Sauce For Beef Or Chicken

4 white onions
16-18 small fresh blue plums
1¼ cups red wine or apple juice
4 whole cloves
2 tbsp. butter
1 tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1 tbsp. sugar

Peel and chop onions. Wash, split and stone plums. Bring the plums to the boil with the wine and cloves. Simmer 10 minutes. In a separate pan simmer the onions, butter, sugar, salt and pepper. Add to the plums and continue simmering over low heat about 45 minutes.

Cool sauce. Place cold sauce in a container and freeze. To serve, remove from container and heat over boiling water. (If it's difficult to free from the container, run some hot water over it).

The prune plum finds a place in September Fruit Salad along with Mcintosh apples from the orchards of B.C. this month.

September Fruit Salad

2 unpeeled McIntosh apples, diced
1 cup diced prune plums
¼ cup raisins
1 cup diced pears
½ cup diced celery
¼ cup salad dressing

Combine fruits lightly with salad dressing. Pile on bed of shredded lettuce or in lettuce lined salad bowl. Serves four school bus from each school in the County to visit the Caravan. Mr. Bruce realized that this was an ambitious program, but he was certain that arrangements could be made.

Moved and carried that, if at all possible, all pupils in the County be transported by school bus to visit the Confederation Caravan on October 12.

In regards to the part-time janitor help at the Ryley School, the Committee was informed that Mrs. Arlene Stauffer had been employed as of July 1, 1967.

Moved and carried that the appointment be approved.

At Tofield, the Committee was advised that Jack Louis had resigned on August 25. Mrs. Susie Yelenosi had been hired to replace Mr. Louis as of September 1, 1967, and Peter Yelenosi to replace Doug Grover as of Sept. 1, 1967.

Moved and carried that the appointments be approved.

The report referred to the "Adventures in Music" Concert to be held on Saturday, Oct. 21, at 1:00 p.m., in the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium, with an entry fee of 50c per student. The Superintendent requested that the School Committee agree to participate in this program, with school buses being provided to transport the pupils.

Moved and carried that the request be approved.

Palmer-Earling notes

(Mrs. Jos Knudsen)

PALMER - EARLING, Sept 28 — Rev. and Mrs. Albert Berg, missionaries from Jamaica home on furlough until October, were Tuesday dinner guests at the home of their niece, the Ed Knudsens.

Annette Bjerkseth, home on furlough from South America recently called on her cousins the Rasmus.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hedge were at Saskatoon last week.

The Jack Vassbergs were at Grande Prairie on business last week.

Mrs. Elvoid Aspenes accompanied her brother Martin Bruce of Calgary to Edmonton on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Urlacher and the Arnold Scabars were Sunday guests of the Lewis Scabars of Round Hill.

Overnight visitors at the Den Campbell home on Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Belmer of Langley, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartvig Sorgen, Kelowna, B.C. were Saturday overnight guests at the Jos Knudsen home.

95TH BIRTHDAY

Many people from Earling were in Camrose Sunday afternoon to help their former neighbor, Ludvig Hovelaad observe his 95th birthday, when his children, grandchildren and friends were present for a very joyous occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fernell, Gail and Robert of Edmonton, Roger Thiberts and Clarence Johnson were Sunday guests at the Lawrence Penrose home.

Rev. Aadland appointed 'LAMP' chairman

The Rev. M. B. Aadland, pastor of Bethel, Vang and Zion Churches in Wetaskiwin, has been appointed area chairman for the Lutheran Academic Mobilization Plan (LAMP), designed to strengthen church schools in Western Canada.

Rev. Aadland will be assisted in this area by Mr. O. Millang, of Camrose, who was named leadership gifts chairman, and Alver Person, also of Camrose, who was appointed as publicity chairman.

These three men will be responsible for congregations at Ravell, Hegre, Bhildenese and Zion Churches, Bawlf; Bethel Church, Ryley; Holden Lutheran Church, Holden; Scandia, Artemus; Bethlehem, Dinsdi; St. Joseph, Hay Lakes; Salem, Kingman; Bardo, Tofield; Trondhjem, Round Hill; Messiah and Parkland, Camrose; Bethel and Vang, Wetaskiwin, and Zion, Millet.

It is expected that each congregation will be assuming its LAMP leadership within the next few months so that the entire membership of the church will hear the story of the educational ministry of the church at "kapening ep" scheduled for January.

Some 231 congregations comprise the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Western Canada, which became an autonomous church the first of this year, and whose main purpose in forming LAMP is to provide high academic learning facilities in its educational institutions located in Camrose, Regina, Outlook and Saskatoon.

Lutheran College in Camrose was founded in 1911, and has affiliated with the University of Alberta, and also proceeds beyond the high school level to university courses.

In regards to Driver Education, the Committee was informed that a class of 12 had been registered at Holden, and that arrangements were being made for similar deals from Ryley to attend the course at Holden. Mr. Bruce requested that the matter of tuition fee be decided upon at this time.

Moved and carried that a minimum class of 12 be required in Driver Education with a tuition fee of $35 per student.

Teenagers arrested after car theft

Mrs. G. Taylor

Monday night, Black's Service Station at Holden was broken into, boys taken off the office wall, a car filled with gasoline and the vehicle stolen. RCMP investigators were down from Edmonton Tuesday morning and later in the morning a car was discovered in the ditch east of Holden, near Bruce.

Prints taken from this car and at Black's were identical and it was found that the culprits, teenagers, two being only thirteen and another fifteen, had escaped from Fort Saskatchewan while in custody there, stealing a car and they were covered up in Saskatoon. Mr. Black received the car stolen from his lot, Wednesday.

Lakeshore - McKenzie news items

Mrs. Ellen Eaton

LAKESHORE – MCKENZIE – Kenneth Gossell of Edmonton spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his aunt Martha and Emil Tiedemann.

Doug and Fran Baines and daughter Barbara of Edmonton were Thursday afternoon visitors at the home of Doug's sister, Ethel Wood and son Donald.

Joe and Esther Majesky of Edmonton were Saturday evening visitors at the home of Esther's brother John and Mary Wood.

A killing frost hit the district Monday night, finishing the gardens for this year. There was ice on the water troughs for the first time this fall although some earlier frosts had nipped some of the cucumber and other tender plants.

Harold Bethel of Edmonton was a Sunday visitor at the home of his aunt, Mary and John Wood.

Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Ellen Eaton were her son Leroy and Shirley Eaton and children Margie and Ramsie of Leduc and Emery Phillips and his son Clarence of Edmonton. Leroy and family had been to Lavoy visiting Shirley's mother, Mrs. Vera Hager and family and were enroute home when they stopped at the farm for a few hours. Other supper guests were Louise Mahovich of Poe and Ken Ross of Tofield who were helping Ken's uncle Mervin Ross with his threshing.

Mrs. Blanche Olson of Holden arrived Monday evening and is spending a few days with her friends Ruth and Roy Wickenberg in Tofield.

Roy and Ruth Wickenberg accompanied their daughter Janet on a motor trip to Alix where they were Saturday overnight guests at the home of Ruth's Badlands near Drumheller on a sister, Alice and Art Keeton and eight-seeing tour and enjoyed a daughter Christine. On Sunday pienic dinner before returning to both families motored to the their homes.

County of Beaver meets

Following are the minutes, in part, of the regular meeting of the Council of Beaver No. 9, held September 14.

Business Arising From Minutes

In regards to fire protection for the County, Cr. Hoddick reported that he had attended the Council meeting of the Town of Viking on September 13. The Council was very much in favor of the suggestion that the County supplies equipment for the whole area. The Town of Viking had very recently purchased a new fire truck and equipment at a cost of $22,000. Cr. Hoddick was of the opinion that this was too expensive a unit for the County to take over and had suggested that the County could purchase the old equipment; have it appraised and purchased on that basis. The old equipment consisted of a fully equipped Chevrolet truck.

In regards to Holden, Cr. Krupienicki reported that the Holden Village Council was very much in favour of the proposal. This was also noticed in a letter from the Village of Holden referring to the attendance of Crs. Krupienicki and Knudsalen at the Council meeting.

The Village of Ryley: Crs Krupienicki and Knudsalen had attended the Council meeting and the Council of the Village was also very much in favour of the proposed fire protection for the County as a whole.

Cr. Weatherall reported that he had not yet made any official approach to the Tofield Rural Fire Protection Association Ltd., but he would do so in the near future.

It was decided that an appraisal should be made by a disinterested party of all equipment in question, and it was moved and carried that the report be accepted and that Saskatoon Fire Engine Co. Ltd. be requested to make an appraisal of the various units in the Towns and Villages in the County as soon as the Tofield Rural Fire Protection Association Ltd. has been contacted.

In regards to the Amisk Creek Flood Control Scheme, R. Hilton, Engineer with the Water Resources Division, had called on the Council on Tuesday, Sept 12, and explained the situation. A letter from Allan Skrome, Branch Supervisor, indicated that the estimated cost was now $35,000, partly due to the additional channelling improvement included and also larger structures and additional cost of crossing the road allowance. It was noted that an additional 50-ft. right-of-way was required in certain areas and that easements had to be obtained wherever work was to be conducted.

It was moved and carried that we accept the recommendation of the Water Resources Branch for the work on the Amisk Creek Flood Control Project at an estimated cost of $35,000 and that the necessary right-of-way and easements be obtained.

In regards to the proposed subdivision in S.W. 25-47-12-W4, Cr. Hoddick reported that he had discussed the situation with Mr. Clegg, who had agreed to the conditions requested by the Council.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

Correspondence

The Call for the A.A.M.D. 1967 Convention, to be held at the Chateau Lacombe, November 14, 15, 16 and 17, was referred to the Council.

Moved and carried that the Council, the Secretary-Treasurer and the Public Works Foreman be delegated to attend this Convention.

Letter from the A.A.M.D., concerning the Diamond Jubilee Book dealt with at earlier meetings, was referred to the Council. The letter requested that the material from our area be prepared and in the hands of the A.A.M.D. by November 1.

Moved and carried that the letter be received and filed.

Letter from the Vegreville Health Unit concerning the waste disposal ground at Bruce recommending that the accumulation and waste debris be buried and that several trenches be dug. Cr. Dorin reported that the work had been done, he having received a copy of the letter from the officer.

Moved and carried that the letter be received and filed and the report accepted.

Letter from the Secretary of the Communal Property Control Board, advising that a Public Notice would be published in the Vegreville Observer on Thursday, Sept. 7, and Thursday, Sept. 14, concerning proposed purchase of lands in the County of Beaver and the County of Minburn by the Hutterian Brethren of Pibroch, of Pibroch, Alberta, was referred to the Council.

Moved and carried that the information be accepted and that the County of Minburn be contacted to ascertain what, if anything, they are doing by way of an appeal.

Letter from Gordon W. Barker of Viking, offering to purchase Lots 13, 14, 15 and 16 in Block 7, Plan 4H W, in the Hamlet of Bruce, for $10 per lot, was referred to the Council. Cr. Johnston stated that these lots were at the present time valueless, being under water most of the year. Mr. Barker intended to build the lots up and use them for garden.

Moved and carried that the offer be accepted.

Letter from the Program Development Division of Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, advising of a Municipal Agricultural Fieldman's Conference in the Banff School of Fine Arts, October 24 to 26, 1967, was referred to the Council.

Moved and carried that Cr. Krupienicki and the Fieldman, Ken Boyles, attend this Conference.

Copy of a letter from the Traffic Planning Engineer, Dept. of Highways, to Doug Bell of Viking concerning proposed development —farm house and garage with driveway in S.W. 24-47-13-W4, was referred to the Council. The letter indicated that the County of Beaver No. 9 was required to submit a written approval covering the project.

Moved and carried that the Department be advised that the County approves of the proposed development.

Tenders For Taschereau

Tenders for the old taschereau at Bruce was now referred to the Council as per motion No 340/67 of the School Committee meeting.

Tender in the amount of $100, from Engimar Bensen Tender in the amount of $102, from John Wiersma.

It was noted that Mr. Bensen had indicated that he could not have the building down by Nov 1, but would do so as soon as possible. Mr. Wiersma stated that he would have the building moved by Dec. 1.

Inasmuch as Mr. Wiersma had submitted the highest tender and had also set a definite date for moving the building, it was moved and carried that the out lanterhange, located on Lot 1, Block 10 Plan 5353 A, in the Hamlet of Bruce, be sold to John Wiechnicz for $162.

Poundkeeper's Statement concerning a wandring pig impounded on Monday, July 24, at the pound on N.E 25-51-17 W4 and sold August 8 for the sum of $5, was referred to the Council.The poundkeeper's fees amounted to $11.25

Moved and carried that the information be accepted.

Poundkeeper's Statement, advising of the impounding of a white stallion on the pound at N.W 4-47-13 W4 with the sale on Sept 2 1967, was referred to the Council The impounder claimed damages in the amount of $10. Crs Doris and Johnston had conducted the Council members had investigated the complaint, and in their opinion there was no damage

Moved and carried that Crs Doris and Johnston be confirmed as a Committee to investigate the pound complaint in regards to a white stallion impounded on August 22, 1967, that the report be concurred in, and that the impounder be advised that his claim be disallowed

It was moved and carried that a nomination meeting for the purpose of nominating candidate Divisions 1, 4 and 7, to fill the vacancies occurring in those Divisions on January 1, 1968 be held in the County office on Friday, Nov. 3, 1967, between the hours of 3:00 and 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon

Moved and carried that the Secretary-Treasurer, Olof Monsson, be and hereby is appointed Returning Officer for the County of Beaver No 9 for the forthcoming Municipal Election, as well as for any by-law votes that may be necessary.

The Council was advised that approval of By-Law No 246, providing for authorization of purchasing, leasing, maintaining and operating a water supply and distribution system in the Hamlet of Bruce in the County of Beaver No 9, had been approved by the Public Utilities Board by order No 28349 and that By-Law No 245 providing for authorization of purchasing of land, construcing and maintaining a sewage collection and disposal system for the Hamlet of Bruce, was now referred to the Council

First reading moved and carried

By-Law No 247, authorizing the County to incur an indebtedness for the purpose of constructing a water supply and distribution system for the Hamlet of Bruce, was now referred to the Council

First reading moved and carried

By-Law No 248, authorizing the Council to incur an indebtedness for the purpose of constructing a sewage collection and disposal system for the Hamlet of Bruce, was now referred to the Council

First reading moved and carried

Reference was made to the Fire Permit situation and the very dangerous situation during this dry season Cr. Westbrook had suggested that the Council issue a resolution that no fire permits be issued until further notice, however, this did not meet with approval of some of the Councillors, and it was suggested that each Councillor deal with the situation in his own area.

It was also noted that the Agricultural Fieldman, who also has the authority to issue fire permits, should be informed of the situation, and it was moved and carried that in regards to the issuing of fire permits each Councillor may refuse such permit if, in his opinion, it is not in the best interest of the County to issue such permit.

The '68 Buicks are here... and they're talking your language.

There's bound to be a '68 Buick that talks your language. Special-size Skylark has all-new Riviera-inspired styling and speaks out boldly of low-priced luxury. The 1968 LeSabre says full-size Buick quality and luxury at a not-so-full-size price. Wildcat—sleek and lovely and powerful—speaks of the open road and touring in the grand tradition. Electra makes the luxury sounds. Riviera talks a universal language of luxury, performance and style. No matter what size or price range, there's a 1968 Buick which talks your language . . . fluently.

Every Buick has to make it before we mark it GM

Ross Creek news

(Mrs. L. Van Buskirk)

ROSS CREEK — Tom Ferrel of the Peace River district has been visiting his brothers for the past week.

Doreen McLachlan of Sherwood Park visited Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McLachlan on Sunday.

Ken and Betty Pederson's small son Marty is nursing a badly bruised arm after getting it caught in the wringer of a washing machine.

Grandpa Ford has been in the Lamont Hospital and everyone wishes him a speedy recovery.

The Lakusta family have taken up residence on the old 'Tinkaki' property.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Franklin of Sherwood Park spent the past week helping with the harvesting at the VanBuskirk farm.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Max Schacher and the other members of the Oslund family, on the accidental death of her brother Dick Oslund.

Mr and Mrs. Ossie McDonald of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, visited the McLachlan families last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carlisle and family visited the Maurice VanBuskirks on Saturday evening.

The Ken Pedersons had the misfortune of having their car destroyed by fire when it was started one afternoon. Fortunately no one was injured.

Air Cadets have started in Lamont for the season with seven boys from Ross Creek attending, namely Desmond Bilan, Monte and Blair Malcolm, Craig Saider, Clifford, Allan and Gary McLachlan.

Natural gas from Alberta is carried across Canada by pipelines, from British Columbia to Quebec, and across the border to cities in the northern United States.

Program, food festival highlight park opening

(Grace Phillips)

Another Centennial project was concluded in Tofield on Monday night at the opening of Centennial Park and the community supper which followed.

Dr W H Freebury, chairman of Tofield's Centennial Committee, opened the program by reviewing the highlights of Tofield's Centennial Year and paying tribute to all those who had planned, carried out or participated in the events of this momentous year.

Father Scriven, a member of the Centennial Committee, offered a prayer of dedication on behalf of the assembled people.

Mrs. Grace Phillips introduced Bud Soiloum, member of the Provincial Centennial Committee. Mr. Soiloum, acting on behalf of his committee, cut the ribbon stretched across the gate, thus officially opening Centennial Park.

Escorted by a guard of honor, the Tofield Cub Pack under direction of Larry Willison and Don Hardy, Queen Petra and her son-in-law, Norman Stauffer, proceeded up the walk to the gas-light supplied by the local employees of Northwestern Utilities. Here, the Queen had the honor of turning on the gas light which will illumine the park.

The Junior High School Chorus, under the direction of David Balzer of the Tofield School staff, sang "God of Our Fathers".

Bill Christensen paid tribute to all those who had donated trees to the park and to those who had worked so hard on the community project. Queen Petra added her thanks for help received and for all the honors bestowed on her during her year as Tofield's Centennial Queen.

Mr Balzer's chorus sang "This Land Is Your Land", after which Mayor Freebury invited everyone to participate in the Ethnic Food Festival in the Community Centre.

"ETHNIC" SUPPER

And what a supper this Ethnic Food Festival turned out to be! A committee of ladies had worked during the afternoon setting the tables most attractively and arranging the enticing foods to best advantage. It took quite some time for the long lines of hungry people to move past the food laden tables choosing which national dish to sample.

Eventually all were fed to repletion and settled down to enjoy a short speech by Mr Soilourn and a program of slides depicting events in Tofield's history making Centennial year. The slides were supplied by Norman Stauffer, Charles Kallal, Yvonne Brown and Jim Francis.

'Good' Queen Bess

Not the queen of England, but rather, Holden's Centennial Queen Elizabeth 'Bess' Campbell held an open house at her home on Sunday. She is between her two lovely princesses, Vernica Kalutny and Colleen Appleby, along with a few friends who dropped in for a visit. —The Mercury Newsphoto.

Good Queen Bess has open house

Mrs. G. Taylor

Sunday afternoon, October 1, was a very pleasant and memorable occasion when Holden's Centennial Queen, 'Queen Bess' held open-house, with many friends from far and near calling to pay their respects to this fine Christian and fun-loving lady, who has represented Holden during the year for various Centennial events.

The Centennial Princesses, Misses Veronica Kalutny and Colleen Appleby assisted the queen, all being dressed in beautiful Centennial gowns, in receiving guests during the afternoon. Queen Bess wore a beautiful mauve orchid corsage, sent to her by Dr. Dr. A. R Kempton of Leduc, and the princesses wore pink and mauve carnation and baby aster corsages, from the queen. Charles Zwierschke was in charge of the guest book.

Assisting the hostess in serving refresments were Mesdames Mary Jakabow; Elizabeth Giebelhaus, Rene Taylor, Mary Zwierschke and Edith Carlson.

A highlight of the afternoon was the unexpected and pleasant visit of Queen Petra of Tofield accompanied by Mrs Evelyn Richardson, Mrs. McGinitie, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis, all of Tofield, and in Centennial attire. Many of the ladies took advantage of the event to wear their lovely Centennial gowns. Out-of-town visitors were from Leduc, Edmonton, Camrose and Tofield.

Queen Bess wishes to thank all those who took the time to visit and have a friendly cup of tea or coffee with her; it was greatly appreciated.

Women is injured in car collision

Mrs. G. Taylor

HOLDEN Mrs. Jim Howrish was involved in a car accident Tuesday afternoon of last week and was taken to the Viking hospital by ambulance. She suffered bruises and lacerations; and the car was a total loss. The injured woman was crossing the road near the Don Christianson farm, and Mr Frieling was coming home from the Reuben Giebelhaus farm. He ran into Mrs Howrish's car broadside. Two of the Jansen boys were with him in the car, [illegible] none of them were hurt, but the front end of their car was extensively damaged.

Sea Cadets on parade

Mrs. G. Taylor

HOLDEN. — RCSCC Nootka held its regular parade on Wednesday, Sept. 27th, after summer recess. In attendance were Area Officer CMO. D. Hall and Petty Officer first class L. McLaren from the Area Office of the Sea Cadets, Canadian Forces Base, Edmonton, and Zane Bilyk of Holden, President of the local Navy Branch.

This year, Nootka has an enrollment of 42 cadets from the Holden - Viking - Ryley district, with 34 turning out for the first inspection of this year's training. Area Officer CMO D Hall commented on the number of new cadets joining this year and urged that they maintain the high standard that Nootka has enjoyed over the past few years.

RCSCC Nootka will be the first Corps in Alberta to have its own sailboat and delivery of the boat kit is expected very soon. It will be constructed during the winter months and put into training use this coming spring.

Former local lady passes September 28

On September 28, Katharine Josephine Diserlais, late of 10201 106 Street, Edmonton, formerly of Tofield, passed away at the age of 56 years. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Madeline Diserlais, of Tofield; three sisters, Sarah of Ryley, Mrs. H. (Julia) Faulkner of Ardrossan and Mrs. R. (Myrtle) Thierrien of Edmonton; four brothers, Clifford and John in the Yukon, Pat and Sosi of Tofield.

Prayer services were held Sunday evening, Oct. 1, at 8.30, in Edmonton, and the funeral service was held on Monday, Oct. 2, at 10:00 a.m., from St. Francis Roman Catholic Church, Tofield, Reverend J. L. Scriven officiating. Interment was in the family plot in Tofield Cemetery. Andrews - McLaughlin Funeral Chapel (1964) had charge of arrangements.

Ryley graduates hold 'exercises'

(Mrs. S. Kolodychuk)

RYLEY, Oct. 2. — The success of Ryley High School's Graduation has been talked about for two weeks. Graduation ceremonies were held Friday, Sept. 22, with the banquet being held in the Legion Hall and catered to by the L.C.W.

Banquet chairman was Barry Kropielnicki, president of the Students' Union. Paul Voegtlin asked the blessing, and Robert Cross, Mayor of Ryley, proposed the toast to the Queen.

Seated at the head table were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bruce, Mr. Les Usher, Mr. Barry Kropielnicki, Mr and Mrs. Robert Cross, Mr. Harold Parsons and Mr. and Mrs Paul Voegtlin.

Mr. Paul Voegtlin proposed a toast to the graduates, which was replied to by Evelyn Kozack. A toast to the parents was proposed by Gail Lyons, and replied to by Mr. D. C. Manderson.

The graduation exercises and dance were held in a beautifully decorated gymnasium. The bright orange and white streamers formed in a canopy above the stage was a lovely contrast to the black gowns of the graduates. Below was hung a huge "congratulations" sign containing all the grads' names. In front of them, the graduates could see a mural of a large ship, sailing into the sunset.

The prelude and processional march was played by Linda Cross. The chairman, Mr. Harold Ross, Principal of Ryley School, then called on Mr. Paul Voegtlin for the invocation.

Yvonne Vergeit gave the salutatorian speech, her theme being "Out of the Harbour, Into the Deep". Superintendent's remarks were given by Mr. Marvin Bruce, after which the Ryley Choir, led by Paul Voegtlin, sang a few songs. Two songs, composed by Mr. Voegtlin, included something about each of the graduates and what their plans were for the future.

Dolores Nord then introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Les Usher, Deputy Minister of Youth and former 4-H Supervisor of Alberta. Mr. Usher also used the theme, "Out of the Harbour, Into the Deep", and gave a discourse on a youth's place in life.

Scrolls were presented by Mr. Harold Parsons, Vice-Principal; and pins were presented by Barry Kropielnicki.

Graduation night was also Awards Night. Outstanding athletic awards were given to Gail Lyons for Basketball, Lorna Manderson for Softball, Lorne Lehman for Basketball and Bob Dueck for Baseball.

Warren Kushair, Larry Gardeski, Tom Annabo, Ian Soortheim, Dolores Nord and Evelyn Kozack received honorable mention for Curling.

Marilyn Hoveland received two awards for highest marks in GGrade IX departmentals, presented by the Ryley Sub-Local A.T.A. and Cavell Rebekah Lodge of Ryley. Linda Lyons won the Ryley Junior Award for second highest marks. Since Ann Stauffer was not present, the award for highest marks in Grade XII was not presented.

The J. D. MacDonald Award was the last award given; it was instituted last year by the Sub-Local A.T.A., and is given for outstanding citizenship, and was won by Miss Darlene Kubin.

Preceding the recessional and dance by the Belle Cantons, Ryley Choir sang one final song to the graduates, "Now Is The Hour".

R. J. Park named new Ryley D.A.

Robert J. Park, assistant district agriculturist at High River, has been appointed district agriculturist at Ryley for the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Mr. Park replaces Frank Kehoe, who has resigned from the agriculture department to enter university graduate school.

Born in Vermilion, Mr. Park graduated with a degree in agriculture from Montana State University, Bozeman, in 1966. He specialized in animal science.

Tom Christenson wins Tofield League award

Tom Christenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Christenson of Tofield was announced as the winner of the Tofield Community League $50 scholarship, awarded annually to the grade nine student with the highest marks in the final examinations.

The announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Community League held on October 3rd. The award will be presented at a later date.

The League decided that their copy of the Tofield School Centennial Yearbook would be donated to the Tofield Library.

The meeting was told that 'top' music had been obtained for the Hallowe'en Masquerade Ball to be held on October 31st, as the services of the Sheilasia Orchestra had been obtained. Judges for the costume contest at the ball would be obtained and their names announced later.

The League decided to present a series of monthly bingos during the balance of the fall, and running all through the winter. A special jackpot would be a feature attraction of the bingo. The first bingo will be held on November 15th with Jack White and Bert Everitt in charge.

A delightful 'Queen'

One of the pleasantest things about newspaper work is the opportunity to meet such lovely persons, for example Holden's Centennial Queen, Mrs Elizabeth 'Beau' Campbell.

Most of today's queens are youthful types, but Holden's queen does not belong to this age group, and with her charm and grace, she rises above such minor details as age. A most charming hostess, it made the drive to Holden quite worthwhile. It would certainly seem that Holden and Tofield both were quite aware of what they were doing when they avoided the younger generation in selecting a queen to headline Canada's centennial year.

Earlier in the year, we had the opportunity of meeting Queen Petra of Tofield, and were more than impressed by her personality and wit. It was, then, doubly pleasant, to meet Holden's queen. One cannot help but feel that both of these fine ladies would belong to nobility even without the titles.

Last Holden's two young princesses should feel prejudiced against, let us add that their youth and beauty add much to Holden's centennial year, and that if they are examples of the area's younger generation, then, it couldn't possibly be in better hands.

The 'Adoption' scene

Alberta may not belong to the older group of provinces in this vast country of ours, but it must rank high, if not first, when it comes to 'commonsense' in many areas. A good example of this comes to light when we view our laws on the subject of adoption.

What happened recently in a small Ontario town could never happen here. Our laws are such that such a disgraceful affair could not occur. We in this province might have much to gripe about, but, in this area, we lead the way.

While are adoption laws are good, as well as just, more people should take advantage of the ease in which children may be adopted in this province. There exists a desperate need for homes for many children. The government is holding public meetings throughout the province to stir up interest in adoption, and to obtain homes for these children. It is something we should all think about.

Cornucopia

Generations of Albertans have dreamed of the day which would underlie the oil buried in the Athabasca tarsands, so the ceremony last Saturday when Premier Manning opened the new Great Canadian Oil Sands plant, heralded to answer those dreams.

A Camrose youth who spent several months working on the project emphasized that words practically fail to adequately transmit any concept of the magnitude of the development and we find ourselves largely in agreement after joining the press party of nearly a hundred who toured the plant prior to its official opening last week-end.

Even people accustomed to working in the oil and gas industry find it hard to equate anything with the magnitude of the project which is as big as two St Lawrence Seaways. Tackling unknown problems of development, in labor and construction combination it equalled building another Panama Canal Or coming closer to home where most of us are fairly impressed with the two huge pipe mills in Camrose, it is roughly 25 times as big as both together.

Another way of seeing it is that new material per from the coke which is now a by-product of the refinery operation, and used on the site to make fertilizers, would handle the crop needs of a normal farming area of 45,000 per ple

The new venture, financed, develoed and operated by a subsidiary of Shell Oil, is expected to be only the forerunner of larger things to come. If the main reasons for developing it path r than conventional sources being that well drilling is highly speculative, while the tar sands oil deposits were well known. In fact, while the 45,000 barrel daily quota approved by the Alberta government represents only about six per cent of Alberta's oil production, the one small lease being operated now will carry on with that level of production for thirty years. If the same quota were set for the company for the entire tar sands area it would be enough to keep them producing 45,000 barrels daily for three hundred thousands years.

While a strip-mining method is being used for the present operation, not all of the huge deposits can be mined in this way, because of vastly different conditions of overburden, reaching as much as 2,000 feet in some parts. Similarly, it is expected that temperatures may not remove economic sulphur the same hot water method of oil recovery and other techniques and processes must be found to serve the purpose. Researches of engineers into the fact remains Great Canadian Oil Sands Limited turned the key in the lock to a reservoir of oil that many engineers reserved, would handle the daily needs of a normal community of 45,000 per ple

MacDuff Ottawa report

OTTAWA—For close to half a decade responsible Quebec politicians have been declaring that separatism as a dead issue in La Belle Province But it's corpse won't lie down.

Suddenly, on the eve of the resumption of Parliament's Centennial session, two trumpets sounded, sending shivers down the spines of Quebec's federalists, and the echo could be heard all across the land.

The first blast came from the political right, the second from the political left. They sounded much the same.

Jean-Noel Tremblay, the former university lecturer who served as a Conservative MP under John Diefenbaker from 1958 to 1963, then re-appeared in politics as Premier Daniel Johnson's Minister of Cultural Affairs in 1966, spoke out for the Quebec he envisions as "the national state of the French-Canadian nation".

No question about the semantics this time—to Mr. Tremblay, the word nation in French means just what it does to the rest of us in English: a political, geographical fact, separate and distinct.

THE REPORT

It's easy enough to write off the quotable Mr Tremblay as a politician of little account. Some have pictured him as unflattering terms as Premier Johnson's Dr Goebels, a propagandist chosen to voice the shock statements his government is not ready, or perhaps even willing to endorse.

Certainly Mr Tremblay's past record doesn't mark him as a natural leader of his race Elected to the Commons on Mr Diefenbaker's coat-tails in 1958, he contributed little to the national debate as a Conservative backbencher. And in the 1962 election he returned to obscurity, running third in a three-way race in his riding

Four years later he emerged wearing Union Nationale colours and in the fresh tumult of the Lesage Liberal administration, he was cushioned by his present position in Mr Johnson's Union Nationale cabinet of 21 ministers. He ranks 19th.

Premier Johnson, who is taking an enforced rest, offered no comment on his minister's separatist pronouncement But the next election campaign is shaping up to be a much more spirited affair, packed a bigger punch

MIXED ENDORSATION

Rene Levesque the ideological brain centre of the disbanded Lesage regime produced a blue print for independence for Quebec Liberals in his constituency of Montreal Laurier But he was censured by a national convention—a humiliating setback that also saw Lesage himself flay the meeting as Quebec Liberal Federation chairman Jean Marchand, another Liberal contender, was defeated in the party's new executive

Levesque is a major Liberal contender in the race after the Lesage regime, and defeated Mr Marchand and received a considerable party leader

Leave

But commitments with these latter words—fresh from Levesque's latest confirmed Quebec visit—make Mr Levesque an embarrassment to many Liberals who want to avoid Mr Johnson's Union Nationale Mr. Marchand, Mr Pearson and Mr Trudeau, who knows Premier Ma... and Mr Daniel Johnson himself, should be problems of Quebec today to finance a "New ...

REST OF CANADA

The winds of change in Quebec ... Ottawa. And there were immediate repercussions in Ottawa ... Minister Pearson presided ... Liberal conference caucus ... devoted much of its time ... and concern to the new threat ... to split in the fabric of Confederation The Conservatives, meeting under their new leader, Robert Stanfield, reflected the Government's concern

Mr. Pearson makes no attempt to shield his depth of feeling, declared that every member of the Federal group is looking at the situation very, very seriously".

And so they should. Bar ... there two voices of extremism, Mr Tremblay on the right and Mr. Levesque on the left, representative of Quebec majority sympathy at this time.

Assuredly not. The thing that most worry Mr. Pearson and others in a role of opposition ... and the last public words Mr. Lesage, the Liberal Quebec leader — is the increasing frequency and stridency of the separatist outcries.

Perhaps the forthcoming meeting of Quebec Liberals can help to clear the air by debating the Levesque plan through and pronouncing judgment on it, once and for all. If the Liberals take a firm anti-separatist pose—even at the cost of driving Mr. Levesque out of the party and into the arms of the separatist fringe —Mr Johnson may be forced to declare himself as well And if the Union Nationale should choose the other side, the issue can be decided by the people in a general election.

But meanwhile English speaking Canada must tread warily.

A rash of anti-Quebec statements such as—let Levesque proceed at the Conservative convention in Toronto last month could drive a ... wedge into French-Canadians into the separatist camp.

What Quebec desires, needs and deserves from Confederation is full recognition and equality—something that French Canadians have never received in full measure in the last 100 years.

Separatism would not ... one bit better than the inferior status of which French-Canadians have complained in the past. Economically, it would suffer far more than the rest of Canada. Culturally, it could benefit only minimally.

Pre-nuptial shower honors bride-elect

Mrs. G. Taylor

HOLDEN - On Friday, Sept 22nd a lovely shower was held in the parlors of the Roman Catholic church when ladies of Holden and district met to honor Miss Theren Appleby daughter of Mr and Mrs Ted Appleby, whose marriage to Edwin Albrecht, son of Mr. and Mrs. E Albrecht of Ryley takes place soon. On entering the room a lovely corsage was pinned on the bride-elect and she was escorted to the head table by her bridesmaids-to-be.

Mrs Grace Appleby assisted by Anne and Coleen Appleby were in charge of the registration and a skit depicting the troubles of Theren's cooking and married life was enjoyed by all

Theren's aunt, Mrs G. Appleby made the presentation of many beautiful and useful gifts to the guest of honor with the well-wishes of all for her future happiness and Theren graciously thanked all for their lovely gifts, their kindness and good wishes. A delicious lunch was then served by the hostesses

Sunday School leads service on October 1

Mrs. J. Rodd'ch

MINISTIK On Sunday, pupils of the Sunday School took over the church service. Perfect attendance awards were presented to Linda Paterson and Donna Leach, all other pupils receiving other awards. Two books were presented to the church. Mrs. Andrew Paterson, superintendent, thanked the assistive teachers, namely: Mrs. Pat Paterson, Miss Ann Paterson, and Mrs. Ralph Leach. Mrs. Leach, in turn, thanked Mrs. Ferguson for her help as supervisor throughout the term.

R. Denham was in charge of the service, and Brian Leach was usher.

Ryley holds first place in football league

The Tofield football team under the able direction of Mr. Hohol and Mr. Metger was in full swing until this weather came along.

On September 20th, Viking played hosts to Tofield and Tofield came out on top 37 to 25. Vic Weiss was credited with 3 touchdowns, Ken Pachaug one and a convert, and Roland Balmer and Ken Dodnik each one touchdown.

Tofield played home to Holden on September 28th and won 17 to 13. Quarterback Ron Pachaug threw two long passes which Roland Balmer caught to win the game in the dying minutes. Others to score were Ken Dodnik with an end sweep and Vic Weiss up the middle for a touchdown each. Ken also credited three converts to himself.

The league standing Ryley is in first place, Tofield second, Holden third and Viking fourth. If the weather clears and there are more games this year, it would be appreciated if the public would attend. Future games will be announced.

Confederation Caravan comingto Camrose Oct. 13, 14, 15 & 17

Next week, the travelling history of Canada, the Confederation Caravan comes to Camrose for a five-day stay.

The eight-truck caravan will set up at the Fairgrounds, and will be open Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday, October 13, 14, 15 and 17 from 11:00 o'clock in the morning until 7:00 o'clock at night. Monday is a holiday for the Caravan.

Official opening ceremonies will be held Friday morning beginning at approximately 10:30 when the Rose City Band will commence playing.

At 10:40 a.m. the band will play "O Canada", following which William Orfino, chairman of the Centennial Committee, will greet those assembled, and introduce the platform guests, who will include Cliff Smallwood, M.P., Chester Sayers, M.L.A., Mayor Dr. F. M. Smith and Centennial Queen Irene Eby.

After a short speech by the guest speaker, the Caravan Manager will speak briefly, after which a local citizen will press the "O Canada" horn to signal the opening of the Caravan. The invited guests will then tour the Caravan, followed by the general public.

With over 5,000 children attending city and county schools, the local centennial committee have arranged to have the county children attend in groups beginning Friday morning and running through until 3:00 p.m. The committee is hopeful that city school children will follow after that, as well as on Saturday.

The Centennial Committee is estimating that at least 80,000 people will tour the Confederation Caravan while it is in Camrose. There is also a possibility that while in Camrose, the attendance mark will reach the one-half million, and if so, special ceremonies will take place to commemorate the event.

Guests over Thanksgiving mean the preparation of meals other than the Thanksgiving dinner. As October is Cheese Festival Month, why not include dishes with good Canadian cheese in them? Cheese Potato Bake dresses up the "day after" dinner when you feel like taking things easy, and we include a dessert to serve with coffee when welcoming evening visitors.

CHEESE POTATO BAKE
(Makes 5 or 6 Servings)

- 9 medium-sized potatoes
- 1 (1½-ounce) pkge. dehydrated onion soup mix
- 2 tbsp. flour
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup (¼ pound) shredded Canadian cheddar cheese

Preheat oven to 350° F. Parboil potatoes 20 minutes. Drain, peel and cut into ¼-inch slices. Arrange in 2-quart casserole. In saucepan, combine soup mix and flour; stir in water and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Pour over potatoes. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake in a preheated oven until potatoes are tender, 30 to 35 minutes. Broil until topping is lightly browned and bubbly.

Prokopczak - Ingram vows exchanged on August 5th

Bouquets of white gladiolas and pink carnations and white pew bows centered with lily of the valley decorated Wesley United Church in Edmonton August 5th at 4 p.m. when Donna Ingram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ingram of Tofield was united in marriage to Mr. Lester Michael Lucien Prokopczak, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Prokopczak of Fort Saskatchewan. Rev. Mayne officiated at the double ring ceremony. Soloist, Mrs. Marion Milnes, of Wesley United Church, sang "The Wedding Prayer," prior to the service, and "Oh Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride entered the church covered by a layer of her three-tiered, scalloped veil which was held in place by a headpiece of live pink sweetheart roses, which matched the [illegible] bouquet she carried.

Her floor-length sleeveless gown of white nylon french brocade was covered by a soft overcoat of sheer nylon chiffon. The overcoat was fashioned in an empire line with a full gathered skirt which flowed into a long train. A narrow band of nylon eyelet edging outlined the train, collar and lily-point sleeves of the overcoat. Her only jewellery consisted of a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

The three attendants of the bride included Mrs. Jean Taylor, a friend of the bride as matron of honor, Miss Arlene Prokopczak, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Margie Huff as bridesmaids. They each were identically styled, sleeveless, floor-length gowns of cotton brocade featuring a tiny floral white on pink pattern and fashioned in the same style as that worn by the bride. Their headpieces consisted of a crown of white feathered, pink-tipped carnations, matching those of their colonial boquets of carnations and white mums. They each wore matching long pink gloves.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his cousin Garry Prokopczak. Ushers were Richard Lauria and Wesley Ingram, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ingram chose a green floral amorella silk dress with matching hat. Covering her dress was an avacado green chiffon coat, trimmed with the same fabric as that of the dress. She wore green gloves, beige shoes and handbag, and completed her outfit with an ivory rose corsage.

Mrs. Prokopczak, mother of the bridegroom chose a light jade draplyne, wool and silk blend dress with a heavy lace-work jacket in a lighter tone. She wore matching hat and shoes with ivory gloves and handbag. Her corsage consisted of ivory roses.

A reception followed for 240 guests at the Coral Banquet Room in Edmonton. A beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Prokopczak, mother of the bridegroom, graced the centre of the head table.

Steve Andrais of Lamont acted as master of ceremonies and toast to the bride was proposed by William Lancaster of Tofield. A dance followed the reception.

For travelling, the bride chose an emerald green, saltire crepe suit with tan cobra shoes and handbag. She wore a dark green leather hat and gloves. A corsage of white roses completed her outfit.

Following a honeymoon to the Okanagan and west coast, Mr. and Mrs. Prokopczak will reside in Edmonton.

Out of province guests included Thomas Ratigan and Mrs. Bernard Sauer of Glendale, California, Mr. and Mrs. Burney Huff of Widby, Washington; Mrs. Gertie Ovelson, Wayne and Debbie, Mrs. Wendall Wiley, all of McKenzie of Vancouver, B.C. Terrace, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Mal

Postal changes do not affect first class mail

Despite radio and press reports to the contrary, there have been no changes in postal rates in Canada for first class mail.

An increase in rates has been urged to bring the Post Office out of the red, but this change has not been approved as yet.

Postal officials have said that although the change have been recommended, they have not been approved, and they had no idea when such approval would be forthcoming.

Some rates were changed as of the first of this month, and this could be the source of confusion for many. Changes were made for air parcel post, surface parcel post, printed matter (domestic and international), parcel insurance fee (no free insurance), and C.O.D. service in Canada only.

Tourism group grows after a 'slow' start

After a slow start, the Battle River Tourist Association is starting to grow at a rapid pace. The organization, formally formed last month, began in June as the brainchild of the Camrose Chamber of Commerce.

The basic idea of the association is to promote tourism in this area.

Five communities, Camrose, Wetaskiwin, Forestburg, Stettler and Wainwright have formally joined the new organization, while six other centers, Big Valley, Sedgewick, Castor, Alix, Consort and Bashaw have signified their intention of attending the next meeting with a view to joining.

The next meeting has been scheduled for the Smith Clinic in Camrose on Thursday, October 26, starting at 8:00 p.m.

Committees are meeting at the present time to draw up budgets (expected to be around $8,000) and to arrange for assessments for financial income.

Holden man killed in highway mishap

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

A 53-year-old Holden man was killed Thursday in Vegreville in a single-vehicle accident.

RCMP say Paul Puk was run over by the rear wheels of a unit on which he was riding moments earlier.

He leaves to mourn his loss: his loving wife Sophie of Inland; three daughters, Misses Gladys and Adeline Puk of Edmonton and Miss Karen Puk at home; his loving mother, Mrs. Annie Puk, of Holden; five brothers and four sisters, Bill of Camrose, John, Peter, Harry and Metro, all of Holden, Mrs. (Clara) Bilyk, Mrs. (Mary) Peter Owcher, Mrs. (Minnie) Jim Demchuk and Mrs. (Olga) John Osadchuk, all of Holden.

Prayer service was held Sunday evening at Borschiw Hall, with Requiem Mass on Monday, Oct. 9, at 10:00 a.m. at St. John the Baptist Ukrainian Catholic Church, Borschiw. Rev. O. Slobodial was the celebrant, and interment was in the church cemetery.

Tofield couple marks 60 years of marriage

A Tofield couple, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Zarski celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday, with an "open house".

Friends and relatives from many places gathered to extend congratulations to the happy pair, who had moved to Tofield three years ago.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Zarski were born in Poland, coming to this country when they were young children. After meeting, and getting married, they moved to Round Hill, where Mr Zarski was a well-known farmer. They moved to Camrose in 1952, where they remained until moving to Tofield three years ago.

The Zarskis have nine children, who have all married: Annie is Mrs. Gil Rosky of Tofield, Emma (Mrs. Louis Orcheski) of Round Hill, Stella (Mrs. Nick Kladniski) of Ontario, John in Bruce, Olga (Mrs. Joe Pewar) of Camrose, Elsie (Mrs. John Mackwood) of New Westminster, B.C., Thomas in Camrose, Mary (Mrs. Russ Collier) of Kamloops, B.C., and Les in Camrose.

In addition to their nine children, Mr. and Mrs. Zarski now have 28 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

4-H'ers plan re-organization meeting

The Tofield 4-H Beef Club re-organization meeting will be held Thursday, Oct 19th at 8 p.m. in the library. Officials hope that all members from last year's club will attend and all new members are welcome.

The pee-wee meeting will be held Saturday, Oct. 21st, at the John Moore farm at 2 p.m.

K. R. Eastlick elected ATA 'local' president

(Grace Phillips)

On Wednesday, Oct. 4, the annual meeting of the Holden local of the Alberta Teachers' Association was held in the Holden School with the president, Oleh Shykora in the chair.

In his president's report, Mr. Shykora reviewed the activities of the A.T.A. local during 1966-67.

The A. T. A. had sponsored mathematics seminars at Ryley, Viking and Holden, which were well attended by teachers of the County. A creativity and classroom discipline seminar, under the direction of of Miss Agnes Buckles, was held at Tofield.

The County sports' program was arranged by the A.T.A. Several teachers were delegates to various areas of study and of ATA business, including the internship course for co-operating teachers, the International Conference on English in Vancouver, the Teacher Welfare and Leadership Course at Banff and the ATA [illegible] to Edmonton.

Mr. Wm. Ogrodnick secretary-treasurer, gave the financial report.

Date of the next convention was announced as being February 29-March 1 in 1968. Mr. L. Cribb and Mr. R. Bell reported, respectively, on salary negotiations and the sports' events.

Mr. Shykora reported on the relative merits of the Alberta Health Plan, M.S.I. and Blue Cross.

Election for the 1967-68 officers resulted as follows. K. R. Eastlick, Tofield, president; Joel Fornal, Holden, vice-president; Wm. Ogrodnick, Holden, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Newcombe, Viking, Mr. Christie, Viking, and Miss Appleby, Holden, councillors; L. Symyrozum, Viking, board representative; L. Cribb, Tofield, Dale Lauber, Viking, and Mrs. Pearl Allan, Holden, salary committee, Mrs. [illegible], Holden, education committee.

[illegible] was served by the Holden sub-local.

See queer light at Round Hill

The George Campbells of the Round Hill - Ryley district report seeing a very strange light recently. They are sure someone else must have seen th same light and would like to know what they thought about it.

Shortly after 4 a.m. a week ago last Monday Mr. Campbell got up to move a load of grain into a shed away from the snow that was falling. He noticed a very bright light in a southwesterly direction from their farm buildings. He called his wife and they watched it from about 4:30 to 5:00 a.m., when it disappeared. In describing the light, the Campbells say it looked about the size of the sun when it is setting but the light was much brighter than the sun. They compared it to a welding torch light.

Mrs. Campbell insisted that the house lights be turned off while they were watching the phenomenon from a living room window. While watching the strange light they noticed car lights coming from the east on a road about a quarter of a mile south of their buildings. The car lights came to a road intersection, then the vehicle turned around and went east again. It is the opinion of the Campbells that the occupants of this car also must have seen the strange light.

The Campbell farm is 6 miles east and 2½ miles north of Round Hill.

Sixty years wed

Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Zarski of Tofield celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday with an 'open house' at which many friends and relatives gathered to congratulate the couple. —The Mercury Newsphoto.

Student interest

Student interest in their school is very important if the student is going to achieve a reasonable standard of education. Students who dislike attending school tend to partake of its educational facilities and other school activities in a half-hearted manner, resulting in poor marks and a total lack of interest in receiving a top education.

Student interest in Tofield seems to be remarkably high. A tour through the school recently showed students taking a [illegible] interest, whether it was a lecture, classroom demonstration, or experiments in the physics or biology laboratories. Student interest in their school is often reflected in the yearbook put out at the close of each term by the students.

Tofield's yearbook is, without a doubt, one of the best ever put out by students anywhere. Interest had to be high to put out such a booklet, and the fact that it received community support was evident from the number of businesses that contributed towards financial backing of the book.

MacDuff Ottawa report

OTTAWA — If 1967 was the year of Expo and the Centennial 1968 [illegible] undoubtedly be the year of constitutional change.

For the past few months its been growing more and more apparent here that the changes will be both major and momentous.

While the political parties in Quebec have been in a lather about associate states, two nations, confederal unions and independence the federal government has been quietly preparing its own constitutional revolution.

The stage is being carefully prepared for a major constitutional conference early next year where provincial and federal leaders will put on the table all the fundamental questions of Confederation.

These are the questions of the role of the federal government in the federation, the status of Quebec, the language and education rights of French and English speaking Canadians.

OPPOSITION FORCES TO UNITE

And now, perhaps for the first time in several months, it is possible to look forward to that conference with some degree of optimism.

The Quebec ferment stimulated by the July visit of French President de Gaulle forced public and political bodies in Quebec into taking a position.

While the ferment for awhile at least appeared to favor the separatist parties, it also had an electric effect on the parties that represent the vast majority of Quebecers.

A leading [illegible] Rene Levesque, produced his manifesto calling for a sovereign Quebec within a Canadian common market.

Liberal leader Jean Lesage without totally disavowing Mr. Levesque declared himself to be a "federalist" — a federalist who favored as much autonomy for Quebec as was compatible with a federal form of government.

and quickly. The uncertain political situation had already done some damage to the Quebec economy, according to objective [illegible].

Even so [illegible] Johnson may not have made [illegible] statement so soon had he not been discovered in his Hawaiian sanctuary by an enterprising reporter.

In any case he did issue a formal statement declaring that his government had received no mandate to build a Great Wall of China around Quebec.

He said his government has promised consistently "to work to obtain a new Canadian constitution made in Canada, by Canadians and for Canadians."

This means in effect that the government of Quebec would be working towards new constitutional forms, but that it would start from the assumption that its objectives could be reached within a Canadian confederation.

BY NO MEANS DEAD

It would be unfortunate indeed if federal [illegible] took Mr. Johnson's position to mean that they can sit back and forget about the separatists and the semi-separatists and the challenges to the British North America Act.

There are encouraging signs that Prime Minister Pearson and Quebec ministers like Manpower Minister Marchand and Justice Minister Trudeau intend to press ahead now with discussions for constitutional change.

AT THE DISCUSSION STAGE

Mr. Pearson's conference on a constitutional Bill of Rights, where all the fundamental questions can be studied in specific, will set the tone for next year.

Do your baby sitters know what to do in case of fire? It's your responsibility as a parent to inform them, the Canadian Underwriters' Association emphasized today.

The Association urged parents to:

1. Select a baby sitter who likes children and has a sense of responsibility.
2. Show her all the exits from the house or apartment.
3. Provide her a flashlight in case of a power disruption.
4. Tell her that [illegible] if fire occurs, [illegible] the children out of the house or apartment quickly. Then she should notify the fire department, or ask a neighbor to do it for her.

It should be stressed that under no circumstances should the sitter or the children re-enter a burning building.

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

A former Holden resident for several years, Roy Rabyn of 8803 - 83rd Ave., Edmonton, passed away September 27th at the age of 69 years. He leaves to mourn his loss, his loving wife, Katherine, one son, Edward, of Edmonton, one daughter, Mrs. (Mary) Mike Cedor of Vegreville, eight grandchildren; three brothers and one sister. Prayer service was held Friday evening, Sept. 29th, and Requiem Mass was Saturday morning, Sept. 30, at St. Peter and Paul's Ukrainian Catholic Church, Mundare, with Rev. V. Pidskalny, OSBM, the celebrant, and interment was in the church cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Steffan were Saturday visitors in Holden, calling on several friends around the village, then leaving for Edmonton and Ponoka to visit with relatives before starting on their return trip home.

The Pioneer Group met for their regular meeting Thursday, Oct. 5th, at the home of Mrs. Lars Olsen with 17 members and visitors present. The devotions were taken by Mrs. Earl Hardy. A further chapter of their study Book was taken by Mrs. Campbell and then discussed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Peter Jakubow, November 2nd, with Mrs. Lutz taking the devotions.

Aaron Taylor was a Monday visitor and overnight guest with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor.

Mrs. Olaf Smerlie, with Mrs. Ruby Benson of Bruce, were recent visitors with Mrs. Thoresen at Viking Lodge, Viking.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Greeland and children of Edmonton were Thanksgiving holiday weekend visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Peake and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Anderson and children of Calgary visited for the Thanksgiving weekend with Muriel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barlow. The Barlows with the Andersons, were guests for a Thanksgiving turkey family dinner at the home of their daughter, Beth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Mertz at Viking.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kashman and children were visiting during the holiday weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kashman, returning home Monday evening.

Mrs. Mike Chupka left from Nisku Airport, Sunday afternoon for Montreal where she will visit with her daughter, Patty, and husband, and take in Expo.

The marriage of Margaret Fay Caroline daughter of Mrs. Agnes Barnscher and the late Mr. Alvin Barnscher of Viking, to Charles Kelly of Holden, took place recently at a late afternoon ceremony, Sept. 23rd, at the Kirk United Church in Edmonton.

Mrs. Mary James, who was visiting with her daughter, Irene, and family at Victoria for three weeks, has been visiting for the past two weeks with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James in Vancouver. She sends word she is planning on returning home this coming week.

Tofield whips Viking in 'football' contest

Tuesday, Oct. 10, saw Tofield hosting Viking in a flag football encounter, with the local squad on the long end of a 21-7 score.

Tofield was first to score as the first half, when quarterback Ron Pushang threw to end Roland Balzer, who ran for the touchdown. Ken Dodds kicked the convert, to make it 7-0.

Viking then worked the ball to the Tofield 1-yard line, and then went over for a major count. The convert was good, and the game tied at 7-all. Tofield then got a safety catch, to make it 9-7. Later in the first half Tofield increased their lead when quarterback Ron Pushang again threw to Roland Balzer who caught the ball in the end zone. This time the convert try was unsuccessful, and the first half ended 15-7 for Tofield.

In the second half Tofield worked the ball to the Viking 1-yard line, but on the third attempt had to resort to nimble fingered Holland to make the final score 21-7.

There was a good crowd of Tofield fans to watch the game, but still not as many as turned out at Viking for their home contest.

Tofield will likely host the Rylaw boys next Tuesday; and on Thursday will probably be playing at Holden.

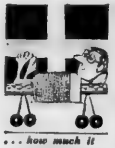
Have you ever wondered...



... how much it costs for complete hospital care in Alberta?

Five dollars the first day, and $2.50 for each day thereafter, for active treatment hospital care—that's all any Alberta resident has to pay to receive all of the services prescribed by his doctor as necessary to his recovery while in a general hospital. The remainder of the costs are paid by the Alberta Hospitalization Benefits Plan, administered by Hospital Services, Alberta Department of Health. The Plan also provides for outpatient services, paying 80 per cent of the charges, and makes auxiliary hospital care available to qualified patients for only $1.50 a day. The patient chooses his own hospital, when feasible, and if his doctor considers that he requires active treatment, there is no limit on the length of stay for which the patient is eligible. Out - of - province coverage is also provided by the Alberta Hospitalization Benefits Plan.

... what is the most important subject to Alberta's deaf school children?

Communication is the prime necessity, for, before he can begin his studies, the deaf pupil must learn to communicate with his teacher and with his fellow students. At the Alberta School for the Deaf, a branch of the Alberta Department of Education, students spend the first three years learning vocabulary, spoken and written language and sense training before they begin regular school subjects. To teach these, a combined method of instruction is used, utilizing speech, speech reading, auditory training and finger spelling. Pupils begin this preparatory course at the age of five and have the opportunity to progress to Grade X if they have the ability and the desire. For the older pupils, pre-vocational courses are offered in Home Economics, Industrial Arts and Business Education. The Alberta School for the Deaf accepts children of residents of Alberta, and Indian or Eskimo children from the North West Territories, wards of the Federal Government. The school has a capacity of 144 pupils.

... where Alberta's firemen learn their trade?

Every year, officers and potential officers from fire departments all across the province go to school . . . the Alberta Fire Training School in Vermilion. There, they take a five week course covering all aspects of their responsibilities, from actual fire-fighting to administrative work. Fire Officers Training Courses are available to all volunteer fire departments and to those professional departments which do not have their own training programs. Successful graduates receive a set of lecture notes and materials to enable them to pass along the acquired skills and knowledge to their own local fire fighters. There is no fee charged for the training and free rooms and board are provided for candidates from within Alberta. The Alberta Fire Training School is conducted by, and equipment, instructors and methods of training are all provided by, the Office of the Fire Commissioner, Alberta Provincial Secretary's Department.

... about the beautiful photographs which display Alberta to non-Albertans?

From West Germany to North Carolina, from Burma to Birmingham, people the world over are learning about Alberta from publications illustrated with life-like color photographs. The projection of this attractive image of our province is the work of the Film and Photographic Branch of the Alberta Department of Industry and Development, whose staff takes and processes those pictures used in government publications. In addition to showing Alberta to non-residents, the Film and Photo Branch also helps to keep Albertans up to date on the doings of the government, as they produce photos and film clips of newsworthy events for reproduction in newspapers and on television. Government photographs produced by the Branch are not available for direct advertising use, or to private individuals or firms for derogative purposes.

... what tops the agricultural "best seller" list in Alberta?

Actually, it's a publication called "Chemical Weed Control". Each year, 12,000 of these technical aids to farmers are distributed by the Publications and Visual Aids Branch of the Extension Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture. Next most popular is "The Alberta Farm Guide", closely followed by "The Horticultural Guide", each with a distribution of approximately 7,000 annually. Altogether, about 82,000 publications, covering all agricultural subjects from farm management to pest control, are supplied free to Alberta farmers each month, keeping them advised on new techniques and developments in food production.

Double your money with Canada Savings Bonds

One of the great things about Canada is Canada Savings Bonds, and this year's Series is the most exciting yet. Interest starts at 5¼% a year—the highest starting rate ever on a Canada Savings Bond—and goes right up to 6%. Over the 13 years to maturity the true average annual yield is 5.48%.

Best of all, Canada Savings Bonds have a wonderful compound interest feature which pays you interest on your interest. Take full advantage of it and you will double your money.

As always, Canada Savings Bonds are instant cash. They may be cashed at any time for their full face value plus accrued interest. They are easy to buy for cash or on instalments. They fit all savings budgets—from $50 up.

And, for the first time ever, Canada's most popular personal investment may now be bought by businesses, churches, charities, clubs, and other organizations. Another first: the limit per holder for this Series has been increased to $50,000.

Backed by all the resources of Canada, Canada Savings Bonds are a great way to save. Buy yours today and double your money.

Double your money with Canada Savings Bonds

One of the great things about Canada is Canada Savings Bonds, and this year's Series is the most exciting yet. Interest starts at 5¼% a year—the highest starting rate ever on a Canada Savings Bond—and goes right up to 6%. Over the 13 years to maturity the true average annual yield is 5.48%.

Best of all, Canada Savings Bonds have a wonderful compound interest feature which pays you interest on your interest. Take full advantage of it and you will double your money.

As always, Canada Savings Bonds are instant cash. They may be cashed at any time for their full face value plus accrued interest. They are easy to buy for cash or on instalments. They fit all savings budgets—from $50 up.

And, for the first time ever, Canada's most popular personal investment may now be bought by businesses, churches, charities, clubs, and other organizations. Another first: the limit per holder for this Series has been increased to $50,000.

Backed by all the resources of Canada, Canada Savings Bonds are a great way to save. Buy yours today and double your money.

Buy yours today— where you work, bank or invest!

Tofield United Church passing 70th birthday

On October 22 the Tofield United Church will celebrate its anniversary. First protestant service took place in the Cookson home in the '90's. At one time this area was served from Vegreville.

Total years of continuous service has passed the 70-year mark. Tofield was amongst the first to form what was called a Union church prior to the formation of The United Church in 1925.

On the 22nd at the morning hour the guest minister will be Dr Gerald [illegible]. He was raised at Duhamel. He is a graduate in griculture and theology, post-graduate work at Union in New York, and recently left the Thorsby - Telfordville area after 19 years of service. He chose deliberately to serve in a rural pastorate and in the grey [illegible] area.

Dr. Hutchinson comes with a fine reputation as man, pastor, thinker and in a deep conviction of the relevance of the Gospel to men living in both rural and urban settings. You are invited to hear him speak a week from Sunday, on October 22.

Following the morning hour of worship, a pot luck dinner will be shared by children, youth, adults, and by many friends of the congregation. Bring your dinner with you and [illegible] and worship with [illegible] this anniversary occasion.

Ministik news briefs

The congregation of the United Church welcomed Robert Smith who will be our student minister for the winter months.

Many from the district attended the pre-Thanksgiving turkey dinner at the Hastings Lake Hall, which was sponsored by the Ladies' Club. As usual, a most delicious dinner was enjoyed by one and all.

The men of the Community Club spent several hours Sunday morning levelling and preparing the local skating rink for ice, when that time comes.

Plans have been completed by the Community Club for their surprise bingo and raffle of a stereo-record player on Friday, the 13th.

Canvass to begin in Tofield area for Bible Society

Within a few days people will call at your door and invite you to support the work of the Canadian Bible Society. When Isaac Watts wrote the hymn, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing My Dear Redeemer's Praise", he was expressing an ideal. That ideal has been realized and surpassed, for now there are portions of the Bible written and printed in more than 1,250 dialects and tongues.

A special opportunity is available to provide one new Bible a month if you desire. Whether a canvasser calls at your door, or you hear the appeal for much-needed help at congregational or group level, please do what you can.

Those who canvass, like you, face many other worthy appeals. They are volunteers. Last year a bit more than $[illegible] was given from all groups, churches and individuals in the Tofield area. Eighty-five dollars plus was given after the Centennial Service last June.

CLC 'Homecoming' set for week-end

1967 Homecoming at Camrose Lutheran College will take place on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week, with "Going God's Way" as the theme.

The Homecoming celebration gets underway on Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock, when the students open the program, followed by the crowning of the "Homecoming Queen", and the evening coming to a close with the Alumni Tea. The contestants for Homecoming Queen, all Grade XII students, are: Ruth Anderson, Calgary; Sheri Guldenhaar, Olds; Betty Heppe, Biggar, Sask.; Shirley Olafson, Armena, and Candice Thunnell, Viking.

Saturday's program starts at 8:00 a.m. with a tournament at the Victoria Park Golf Club, followed by registration of all alumni at 9:00 o'clock. Mr. Don Starck ('39) of the Family Service Bureau, Edmonton, will address the Alumni at 11:00 a.m. on the theme topic, "Are We Going God's Way?" A business session, lunch and [illegible] will follow.

Then, at 2:30 p.m., at the Fairgrounds, the "Game of the Year" will be played when the CLC Vikings host the CCHS Trojans in a football game that is billed as the City of Camrose championship, along with being part of the regular league schedule.

Saturday's program draws to a close with a banquet at the dining hall, with entertainment provided by Bob Lang, Edmonton comedian-magician.

A continental breakfast Sunday morning will be followed with a worship service in Messiah Lutheran Church at 11:00 o'clock, with Dr. John Zimmerman, President, Western Synod of Canada, L.C.A. as guest speaker.

At 2:30 p.m. the High School Graduation is scheduled with Mrs. Velma Gooch of the University of Victoria and a former teacher at CLC, to deliver the graduation message.

The honored years at the homecoming celebrations are 1917, 1942, 1962 and 1967.

Holden Chamber hears about fire prevention

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

The regular monthly meeting of the Holden and District Chamber of Commerce was held on Tuesday, Oct. 3, in the Holden Community Hall with 22 members and visitors present. President Stan Robins was in the [illegible].

Ray Hovland was selected to be the Chamber's correspondent with the Battle River Tourist group.

Lars Olson reported on the Sports Day, and also gave a report of the Centennial Committee.

Guests attending the supper and meeting were introduced by the president, and included Rev. Fred Becker, Fred Nordstrom, Bill Glover and Charlie Mathews.

Members discussed the disposition of the balance of monies left in the Medical Centre Fund; these funds consisted of Memorial donations. After discussion, it was moved and carried that these funds be apportioned to the Cemetery Committee's fund as a memorial to those persons concerned.

William McKay of the Provincial Fire Commissioners Department, Edmonton, was the guest speaker for the evening, and was introduced by Ray Hovland. Mr McKay gave a very interesting talk on the many phases of rural and urban fire fighting and protection. He gave praise to local volunteer fire fighters, making the point that the best way to fight fire was to prevent fires from starting. He also commented on the Chamber of Commerce [illegible] procedures and the subjects discussed. In conclusion, Mr McKay extended thanks to the ladies catering for the most enjoyable Thanksgiving turkey supper.

The next meeting will be held November 7 in the Holden Community Hall. President Robins urges all members and those interested to please attend, as the Chamber is only as strong as the support given it.

Tofield student wins Gov-General's medal

(Grace Phillips)

Word has been received by Tom Christensen that he is the 1967 winner of the bronze medal awarded by the Governor-General to the student in the County of Beaver who obtained the highest marks in the Grade IX June examinations set by the Department of Education.

Tom is the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Christensen of Tofield. He has obtained all his formal education in the Tofield School system in which he has always been an excellent student. This past year, Tom has been in the homeroom of Mr. J. C. Lampett, vice-principal of the Tofield School. In the departmental examinations Tom obtained a grading of "H" in all his subjects.

Tom's chief academic interests lie in the scientific field. He is a member of the local Scout Troop and recently attended Expo in company with other Alberta [illegible].

Tom is keenly interested in most sports, and last year was a member of the Junior High basketball team.

Tom's plans for the future include attendance at University.

The award will be presented to Tom at a later date, but in the meantime he is receiving congratulations from students and staff at the Tofield School, as well as from residents of the town and district.

Grant McEwan to speak in Tofield October 24th

(Grace Phillips)

Tofield will be honored on Tuesday, October 24, by a visit from His Honor Dr Grant MacEwan, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta. Dr. MacEwan is speaking in the Tofield Community Centre under the auspices of the Tofield Historical Society.

Dr MacEwan has distinguished himself in several fields. He was born of a pioneer family in Manitoba, which moved in 1915 to a farm near Melfort, Saskatchewan. His early education completed at Melfort, he graduated in agriculture in Ontario in 1926. Later, he took up post-graduate studies in Iowa. He received an appointment at the University of Saskatchewan following the completion of post-graduate work and became head of the animal husbandry department at that institution. Altogether, he spent 18 years as a university professor in Saskatchewan and in 1946 became the dean of the faculty of agriculture at the University of Manitoba. He resigned in 1951 to divide his time between public service and writing. His writing activities included a period as agricultural editor of the Western Producer.

Dr. MacEwan was Mayor of Calgary, leader of the Liberal party in Alberta, and now, of course, is the Queen's representative in Alberta.

Dr. MacEwan is a prolific author. Some of his better known books are "Hoofprints and Hitchingposts", "Fifty Mighty [illegible]", "Blazing the Old Cattle Trail", "From Fort to Fortune", "Poking Into Politics". His "Entrusted To My Care" discusses the need for conservation of our natural resources, a topic of great interest to an agricultural community.

Dr. MacEwan is a forceful, witty speaker, and a large audience is expected to take advantage of the opportunity to hear Alberta's Lieutenant-Governor and distinguished author.

Holden OORP has October meeting

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Holden O.O.R.P. Lodge held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 10. In the absence of H R L. Irene Strilchuk, Assoc. Royal Lady Mary Semotuk was in charge of the meeting. Regular business was attended to and reports of the Holden High School graduation banquet and the Chamber of Commerce supper were given.

Plans were disussed for the rummage sale to be held on Saturday, Oct. 21, in the Masonic Hall. Suggestions for the Lodge Project for the year were given. The Trustees' report and budget for the year was received and filed. The Lodge had also been requested by the B.P.O. Elks to assist at their installation of officers with the O.O.R.P. Drill team.

Lunch hostesses were Ladies Ann Rurka and Kate Nichols.

ATA deals with agenda of events of the year

(Grace Phillips)

The Tofield sub-local of the Alberta Teachers' Association held its October meeting on Tuesday, October 17, with the president, Mrs. Carol Rurka, in the chair.

Miss P. Hoveland reported on the proposed arrangements for the teachers' annual banquet. Leo Rurka was appointed as Tofield's representative to the County sports' committee and Grace Phillips was appointed as the sub-local's public relations officer.

Lloyd Cribb reported that the induction ceremony for new teachers was planned for November 7, with Tom Reiger, former president of the A.T.A., as guest speaker. Mr. Cribb also stated the theme of the Teachers' Convention on February 29 and March 1 is to be "Evaluation of Student Achievement. Earl Kindley of Viking is president of the convention committee.

Mr. Cribb then gave a talk on Teacher Welfare, summarizing the activities of the Banff teacher welfare conference. He stressed the need for understanding and using the new techniques of teaching, such as audio-visual equipment and educational television. He stated that teacher involvement at the sub-local level in A.T.A. affairs was necessary for a progressive organization. Involvement in community affairs was recommended as being in the best interest of all con[illegible].

Swift and Klassen elected to council in Town of Tofield

Incumbent Arnold Swift, and political newcomer Art Klassen will be the two new members on the Tofield Town Council for the next two years.

Messrs. Swift and Klassen were declared elected last night by returning officer Mrs. B. M. Hunter, shortly after the polls were [illegible].

Four candidates had sought the seats for the two vacancies on the Town Council. Defeated in this election were incumbent George Boese and Bill Weins.

The final returns were as follows: George Boese 84, Art Klassen 96, Arnold Swift 107, Bill [illegible].

R. Boese wins CMBC bursary

Ronald Boese of Tofield has been declared a winner of a one hundred dollar bursary by the Canadian Mennonite Bible College in Winnipeg.

Mr Boese was awarded a CMBC Student Aid Bursary, and is one of the [illegible] winners of annual scholarships and bursaries [illegible] year by the college. Total value of the awards is $7,125.

The D. W. Friesen Memorial Scholarship and the A. J. Thiessen Research Scholarship winners will be announced later during the academic year.

Naturalist film is shown in Tofield on Oct. 25th

Residents of the Tofield area will have the opportunity shortly of seeing one of the most un[illegible] and complete films ever produced on the Canadian Arctic and high arctic regions. This color motion picture entitled "Adventure High Arctic" was filmed by well known naturalist photographer Edgar T. Jones and required five years to complete, taking him into the islands of the Arctic archipelago and the eastern arctic.

Adventure High Arctic moves north from Edmonton through Wood Buffalo Park, on to Yellowknife on the north arm of mighty Great Slave Lake where we also have a chance to go out Trout and Pike fishing. From Yellowknife we travel northward toward the arctic circle, through the Contwoyto Lake area, crossing the arctic circle and the [illegible] of Caribou moving in the Bathhurst Inlet area toward their spring 'calving grounds'. Colorful Ptarmigan dot the barrens and we move on to Ca[illegible] Bay on Victoria Island, with it's Eskimo population and colorful wildlife.

In this land of no trees, the flowers and birdlife in the arctic spring must be seen to be believed and all will come to life in Adventure High Arctic. The Lemming, the Arctic Fox and weasel, tundra shorebirds, Jaegers, hawks and owls all play a roll on the colorful tundra.

You will camp and canoe in the wilderness and travel through the eyes of a naturalist.

Maurer - Wideman vows pledged September 13

The Salem Mennonite Church was the setting on September 13, of the lovely evening ceremony which united in marriage Bonnie Wideman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Wideman of Ryley, and Mr. Dwight Maurer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maurer of Tofield.

The radiant bride entered the church on the arm of her father. Her centennial-styled gown of silk organza featured a high neckline in alecon lace and a slim-fitting waistline enhanced by three-quarter length sleeves edged with alecon lace. The soft bell-swing full skirt was highlighted by a gathered full peacock train, scalloped and edged in lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladiolus florets, centered with pink delight roses.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Noelle Sitler, and the bridesmaids were Miss Iris Ropp, Miss Louise Wideman, and Miss Linda Maurer, sister of the groom. They wore identical full length dresses of shocking pink peau de soie. The bridesmaids dresses featured pink lace jackets with short sleeves, while the matron of honor wore a long sleeved jacket of the same pink lace. The attendants carried nosegays of artificial white carnations enhanced by smaller pink flowers and wore pink gloves to match their dresses.

The groom was attended by Donald Wideman, brother of the bride, as best man, Gaylord Kauffman, Don Maurer, brother of the groom, and Graham Wideman, also the bride's brother.

Joe Wideman and Edward Bushert were the ushers.

The bride's mother chose a sheath-styled suit of rust-colored wool knit, and wore a corsage of amber pompom mums and white roses. The groom's mother wore a navy blue sheath-style dress with a corsage of white pompom mums and pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception and program were held in the Tofield Community Hall. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered round wedding cake, decorated in white and pink.

Douglas Lehman, as master of ceremonies, told several incidents about the bride and groom and a male choir sang several songs throughout the program.

For her going away suit Bonnie chose a two-piece navy blue wool suit with black shoes and purse and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Bonnie and Dwight are now making their home in Edmonton.

Have you ever wondered...

...if tomorrow will be a good day for haying or harvesting?

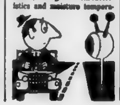
For the Alberta farmer, everything depends on the weather and knowing today what it will be like tomorrow is a great asset. Farm-slanted weather forecasts, prepared by an agriculturist working in consultation with the Dominion Public Weather Office, are issued daily to radio and TV stations and newspapers in the province by the Information Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Each forecast gives a Farm Weather Synopsis, which discusses TODAY'S weather and gives special advice on farming operations, and a Regional Forecast for tomorrow plus an outlook for the day after. The probable effect of the weather on farming operations is emphasized throughout. In addition to the agricultural weather forecasts, the Information Branch also provides information and news on farming and homemaking through "Call of the Land" farm broadcast, news releases and other methods.

...how many pictures there are in Alberta's photo album?

Twenty-five thousand square miles of Alberta, about ten per cent of the entire area of the province, have their portraits taken each year. Over 100,000 of these aerial photographs are on file at the Maps and Aerial Photographs Branch of the Alberta Department of Lands and Forests. Their purpose is far more utilitarian than ornamental because from these pictures, comes detailed information which allows the Branch to produce accurate and up-to-date maps of the province. For example, each year, maps of the recreational areas in the Rocky Mountain Forest Reserve are updated to provide hunters and fishermen with detailed information as to highways, trails and waterways. In addition, enlargements from the aerial photos are excellent tools for farm planning, oil company surveys, and water resource studies.

...about the purpose of those strange-looking instruments you sometimes see set up beside Alberta highways?

Well, it could be to measure your speed but it's just as likely to be to measure the quality of the highway you're travelling on. The Research Council of Alberta, working with the Alberta Department of Highways and the U. of A., is carrying out an extensive search for methods to improve highway construction through improved design techniques and new material specifications. In addition to laboratory studies on the materials being used, field investigations are measuring riding qualities and structural stress, sub-grade characteristics and moisture temperature factors. The purpose is to produce the formula for a highway which will give the greatest travelling comfort and the longest life at the lowest cost. This is just one facet of Research Council activities. Assistance to industry through information services, engineering and research programs and raw material investigations, studies of natural resources, developments of new products and processes using Alberta raw materials; and development of products suited to Alberta markets are all major factors in the operation of the Research Council of Alberta.



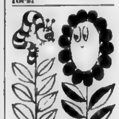
...how you can prove you were born?

If you're a native Albertan, the solution is simple. Your birth certificate is on file (along with 1,299,999 others) at the Division of Vital Statistics, Alberta Department of Health, where the records date back to the days when Alberta was still a part of the North West Territories. There is provision for recording each birth, death and marriage in the province with this Division. Today, weekly reports from 170 District Registrars and monthly reports from issuers of marriage licenses keep the records up to date. For a fee, and with proof of your identity, you can obtain a copy of your birth or marriage certificate, or a death certificate when necessary. This service is invaluable for old age pension applicants, social agencies and other areas where proof of age is needed. The Division of Vital Statistics assists in compiling the national records by providing microfilmed copies of its documents to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, and provides an international service by making its records available to all members of the United Nations.

...what procedure is followed in permitting a teacher from a foreign country to become a part of the Alberta school system?

All foreign teachers applying for a position within Alberta's educational system are screened carefully by the Teachers' Certification Branch of the Alberta Department of Education. First, it is determined if they obtained their training in an institute which maintains the standard acceptable to the province. Then, they must submit a University transcript of their study program. If their academic credentials are acceptable, they are asked to provide a tape recording of an interview with a person fluent in English. This establishes the ability of the applicant to speak the language. References as to teaching ability and personal acceptability are also required. In addition to screening foreign applicants for teaching in Alberta, the Branch also assesses foreign students for their place in the school system.

...if those strange-looking insects appearing in your garden are friends or foes?



Often, it takes the eye of an expert to distinguish between a destructive insect and a useful ally. To obtain the services of the experts in such identification, just check with your local parks department or your district agriculturist. If they can't identify the insect in question, they'll call on the Alberta Department of Agriculture Crop Clinic. There the trained staff, working in a fully-equipped laboratory, will decide whether the species should be destroyed or protected. This same service is obtainable for the identification of questionable birds, animals and plants. In addition, the Crop Clinic plant pathologist advises on the nature and treatment of diseases of plants, be they agricultural crops or ornamental shrubs. Every year, the Crop Clinic identifies the diseases of, and suggests treatment for, over 1,500 submitted samples of field, fruit, vegetable and special crops, as well as household and garden plants.

FUA makes plans for coming meetings

At the Farmers Union meeting on October 11th to organize for the coming winter it was felt that we should endeavour to get speakers on various topics, vital to the farming community.

To start off at the November 13th meeting, Corporal Murray of the RCMP is to speak on Legislation regarding the use of farm vehicles on roads, in fact anything pertaining to laws regarding the farm, in view of the controversy of this subject regarding liability this meeting will be open to all farmers.

The success or otherwise of this meeting, will determine the advisability of having other speakers in the future on subjects interesting to the farming community.

Plans for the Harvest Home Turkey supper on Wednesday, November 8th at 7 p.m. in Community Hall are progressing. President Paul Babey is to be guest speaker and the committee is lining up some good entertainment. It is hoped to have Centennial Queen Petra and citizen of the year, Bill Backschel present.

Several members are now busy selling tickets, so we have to give caterers notice of number to expect. Sales will continue up to October 25th.

If you have not yet got your tickets, you may contact Reg Caspin, phone 662-3344, as admission will be by ticket only, there be a lucky ticket draw. must be retained as there will

The suggested take over of the Rural Fire Engine by the County of Beaver is the main topic of discussion among the members, and at present it would appear not to be very popular.

Former bank accountant at Holden passes October 8th

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

A former accountant at the Royal Bank in the 1920's, Mr. Ross Carlyle Hugh of 1101 Riverdale Avenue, Calgary, passed away very suddenly at his residence at the age of 74, on Sunday, October 8. He leaves to mourn his loss: his wife, Kathleen, of Calgary; one son, Fabian, of Saskatoon, Sask.; two grandchildren; two brothers, Fabian of Cloverdale, B.C., and Bevan of White Rock, B.C., and one sister, Mrs. C. Venables, Victoria, B.C.

Mr. Hugh was born in London, England, and came to Canada as a young boy. He was employed by the Royal Bank for 40 years; after being in Holden for a few years he was manager at Standard and Camrose, and manager of Roynat from 1963 to 1966. He was also Assistant Provincial Commissioner of the Boy Scouts for several years, and was a member of the Elks B.P.O. No. 4, Calgary.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at Christ Church, Elbow Park, Calgary, the Rev. Dr F. H. W. Crabb officiating, and interment was in Queen's Park Cemetery.

Mr Hugh was in Holden during the summer of 1966, when he was relieving manager at the Royal Bank while Mr. Beveridge was on holiday, and he renewed acquaintance with several of the Holden residents whom he had known when he and Mrs. Hugh resided here.

Ladies' Club plans their fall bazaar

Mrs. J. Roddick

The October meeting of the Ministik Ladies' Club was held at the hall with 16 ladies answering the roll call, "A Current Event". Remnants were handed out for the ladies to sew, and plans made for the fall bazaar. Raffle tickets for the two gift certificates were given to members to sell. Mrs. Baden Bowerman conducted a contest for entertainment, winners being Mrs. Frank Swabey Mrs. A. Kleinschroth and Mrs Tom Jones. A most delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Keith Williams and Mrs. Verden Sears.

Ryley girls form 4-H Food Club

On Tuesday, Oct. 3, the Ryley Girls 4-H Food Club held their organization meeting. Last year's president, Judy Burnstad, brought the meeting to order. Election of club officers was held and plans for the coming year were discussed.

The club leaders are Mrs. Pepper, Mrs. Burnstad and Mrs. Stumbo.

Club officers are: Valerie Dueck, president; Loralie Magneson, vice-president; Judy Burnstad, secretary; Ellen Oslund, social convener; Janice Stumbo, club reporter; Dolores Nord and Valerie Dueck, club delegates; [redacted] Dueck, [redacted]surer.

Members are Diane Dueck, Terry Roth, Pat Henderson, Beverly Fraser, Myrtle Oslund and Paula Nordby.

All girls 12 years or over, in the Ryley district, who are interested, are welcome to join.

Tofield man wins in C-I-L contest

Ken Mazur of Tofield won a rifle in the "Shoot to Win Contest" sponsored by Canadian Industries Limited.

Mr. Mazur, one of 81 winners in the nation-wide contest, won a C-I-L model 121 single shot rim fire rifle.

Under the rules of the contest each entrant received a special target from his sporting goods dealer, on which he was required to fire a five-shot score with a .22 rim fire rifle. Each target was marked with the name and address of the dealer issuing it. Mr. Mazur received his entry from Gabriel Pittet, Tofield, who also automatically became the winner of a $10.00 cash dealer prize.

The first place winner, Robert A. Clayton of Beaurepaire, Quebec, received $1,000.00 worth of hunting equipment.

The prizes and a number of consolation prizes are now going forward to the winners.

Holden

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Larry Strilchuk, student at Victoria Composite High School, Edmonton, was home for the weekend.

Mrs. Mary Hooper entertained at a family dinner on Thanksgiving Sunday, and was unfortunate in having her leg injured by one of the cars as it was leaving. She has been a patient in Tofield Hospital the past week having the injury treated as it required a number of stitches to close the wound.

Mr [illegible] Marshall Slywka and children of Sherwood Park were visitors during the weekend with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Slywka.

Several members of the Holden Masonic Lodge attended a district meeting at Provost last Thursday evening.

Ministik news

Mrs. J. Roddick

Services at the United Church continue with student minister Robert Smith in charge. Mr Smith made his first visit to Ministik in 1961, with a group of young people who helped with the services carried on in the winter months.

The C.W.L. have completed plans for their annual fall bingo and bazaar being held at Hastings Lake Hall.

The Community Club have planned a Hallowe'en dance at the Hall on Oct. 27th. Everyone is to come in costume.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Swabey had the pleasure of a visit for a week from their grandson, David Swabey of Smith, Alta.

Michael Nazichuk spent the week with his brother and sister-in-law, the Syd Wrights of Mayerthorpe.

Mrs. Andrew Ferguson was an Edmonton shopper on Thursday and visited her sister Mrs R. Inglis, a patient in the Royal Alexandra Hospital.

Mrs. Helen Hennessy was an Edmonton shopper for two days last week, also visiting the Irvin Likness family.

Weekend guests with the Jim Roddicks were their daughter Edna and Ann McMahon.

The surprise bingo sponsored by the Community Club was a huge success, and they wish to thank all who attended. Delores Holmes won the stereo record player. Ladies of the club are busy these days sewing for the fall bazaar, to be held Nov. 3. Plans are going ahead by the convenor and her helpers.

STRAWBERRIES IN OCT.

We think this must be some sort of record for October 13, as two baskets of fresh strawberries were picked on the Alex McSporran farm on that day.

'Western Canada' has great future

... says Grant MacEwan

(Grace Phillips)

The Honorable J. Grant MacEwan, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, was the guest speaker at an evening's entertainment sponsored by the Tofield Historical Society in the Community Centre on October 24.

Harold Schultz, president of the Historical Society, as chairman, welcomed Dr MacEwan and the audience, and Piper Gordon Kyle piped Tofield's Queen Petra, escorted by Dr. MacEwan, to the stage.

After a warm welcome to Dr. MacEwan and those who had come to hear him, Queen Petra spoke of Tofield's busy Centennial year and expressed the hope that the Centennial spirit would not expire with the year.

David Balzer's Junior High School chorus, accompanied by Donna Schmidt, sang "When I Was a Lad" from HMS "Pinafore", and a Negro spiritual, "He's Got the Whole World in His Hand".

The Dunham brothers sang their "Moonshine Medley", followed by songs from the British Isles.

J. E. Stinson introduced Dr MacEwan, who spoke forcefully on the value of a knowledge of history in general and of Canadian history in particular. He stressed particularly the importance of recognizing that Western Canada has a fascinating history and that it has the possibility of a great future.

Pastor from India will speak at Baptist church

Rev. Jacob Chelli will be speaking in the Tofield Baptist Church on Friday, October 27 at 8 p.m.

Mr. Chelli is an Indian National who earned his masters degree in Commerce from Bombay University. He served for several years in high executive capacity with several firms, and entered the ministry in 1964 full time. He is the founder and manager of a Public and a High School in Hubli, India, and has been invited to minister at churches in Switzerland, France, Germany and Holland before coming to Canada and the United States. He will minister in the British Isles before returning to India.

Mr. Chelli serves on the Board of Berean Institutions, and as honorary secretary of the India Bible Christian Council and as honorary treasurer of the Fundamental Bible Society of India. He is the pastor of a church and will bring slides showing the need for gospel work in India. Everyone welcome.

Former Tofield woman appointed to Taiwan

A former Edmonton woman, Mrs. Helen Gemeroy, has been appointed a psychiatric nursing consultant in Taiwan by the World Health Organization.

Mrs. Gemeroy, widow of Dr. Alexander Gemeroy, will assess mental health and psychiatric nursing programs at the Institute of Neurology and Psychology at the University of Taiwan.

Mrs. Gemeroy has been assistant director of nursing at the Allan Memorial Institute, Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, and associate professor at the school for graduate nurses, McGill University, for the past seven years.

The appointment, her second with WHO, will likely take her to the end of the year.

A graduate of the Alberta Hospital, Ponoka, and the University of Alberta Hospital Mrs. Gemeroy has been director of nursing at the Nova Scotia Hospital in Dartmouth, and with the guidance Clinic of Alberta.

She has done post-graduate work in psychiatric nursing at the University of Toronto and in hospital administration at McGill, she has a baccalaureate degree from Sir George Williams College in Montreal and her master's degree from Teachers College, Columbia University in New York City.

Mrs. Gemeroy was formerly Miss Helen McCauley, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. H. McCauley of Tofield. She took all her public and high school in Tofield, and attended Normal School in Camrose.

After a brief interlude of teaching, she decided to take up nursing, and has had a remarkable career as a result.

100 students attend Edmonton Symphony

On Saturday, October 21, about 100 pupils of the Ryley school attended a symphony program at the Jubilee Auditorium in Edmonton. The three bus loads from Ryley were part of the County of Beaver group and were supervised by Mrs. Hammer, Mrs. Brown, and Mr. Spronk.

A most enjoyable program of music was given by the Edmonton Symphony under their conductor, Brian Priestman. Mr. Priestman explained how the various instruments contribute to the whole sound of the orchestra, and also had the pupils participate by singing "Canada" along with the music.

The auditorium was packed with young people, who enjoyed this special program.

Historical Society is seeking pictures

The Historical Society would like to secure a number of black and white pictures of this year's events for their book. They should be fairly dark and clear. If you have, they might be able to use them.

4-H Beef Club re-organizes

The re-organization meeting of the Tofield 4-H Beef Club was held at the meeting room on October 19 with 32 members present.

The main item of business was the election of officers for the coming year. They are as follows:

President, Lyle Heiberg; vice-president, Ross Cooney; secretary, Judy Moore; treasurer, Barry Mosby, club reporter, Colleen Wyllie, financial committee, Grant Cooney, Marilyn Schacher, Barry Mosby and Robert Holowaychuk.

The leader is John Moore and the adult committee consists of Don Wood, Andy Heiberg, Nick Holowaychuk and Bob Wyllie.

Anyone interested in joining the Pee Wee Club is asked to meet at the home of Charles Rude at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, October 28.

Mrs. M. Osadchuk passes, is survived by 11 children

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN. — Mrs. Marie Osadchuk passed away Sunday, Oct. 15, at the age of 80 years. She is survived by five sons and six daughters Peter of Inland, Mike of St. Albert, Martin and John of Holden, Bill of Vegreville, Mrs. (Annie) Harry Kawamiski, Mrs. (Eunice) M. Zowtuik and Mrs. (Belle) John Cashman, all of Vegreville, Mrs. (Ellen) Phillip Sherbanuk and Mrs. (Elizabeth) James Samtrock, both of Vancouver, B.C., and Mrs. (Mary) Gordon Walker of Edmonton; 14 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

Prayer service was held Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, at the Holy Trinity Ukrainian Catholic Church, Vegreville.

Requiem Mass was celebrated Wednesday, Oct. 18, at Holy Trinity Ukrainian Catholic Church, Vegreville, with Rev. D. Weleschuk, O.S.B.M., being the celebrant, and interment was in the Borschiw Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Campbell hosts Friendship meeting

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN. — The Friendship Group held their regular monthly meeting Thursday, October 19, at the home of Mrs. N. L. Campbell, with ten ladies present. Devotions were taken by Mrs Campbell.

The ladies wish to advise that they still collect used postage stamps which are shipped to one of the Missionaries to sell and the funds being used for Missionary work overseas and one of the leper colonies. The ladies also signed a "get-well" card to send to Mrs. Mary Hooper in hospital.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carrie Olson, with Mrs. Betty Keith taking the devotions.

More yearbooks available

Word has been received from the publisher of Tofield - '67 that additional copies can be made available providing that 50 or more books are ordered. The charge made for a "re-run" book will be $4.50.

Anyone wishing to place an order may do so by calling 662-3123 or sending a letter to Yearbook, Tofield Public Schools. Please do not send money. You will be notified if sufficient orders are placed.

Ryley clinches first place

(Mrs. A. Bray)

The Ryley football team clinched first place on Tuesday with a 37-12 triumph over Tofield in Tofield. The win was number 5 out of 6 for the Ryley boys this year. They will now meet either Tofield or Holden in the finals. Scoring for Ryley were: Warren Kushmir with two touchdowns, Bob Durek with 2, Lorne Lehman with 1 plus a convert and Wade Magneson with 1 touchdown. Tofield scorers were: Ron Foshaug with 1 touchdown and Brian Schultz with 1. Tofield's marksman, Roland Blaser was held scoreless.

Tofield man honored

Mr. W. A. Swift of Tofield recently received a 'Long Service Plaque' from Shell Canada Limited after being associated with them for 25 years. Other Albertans were honored for long service by Shell Canada Limited at the same time.

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

At the statutory Village meeting held Monday, Oct. 23, Lars Olson and John Semotuik were sworn in as Councillors for the next three years by R.O. Geo. H. Taylor.

Mr. Olson was elected to the office of Mayor, and will be in charge of Finance and Policing; John Semotuik in charge of Community Hall, Ambulance and Garage, Paul Babie, Water and Sewer, Bruce Budd, Fire Dept. and Public Works; Lawrence Kahamy, Health, Sanitation and Weed Control.

Holden and district news briefs

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Mr and Mrs Percy Barlow have been spending several days the past week with their daughter Beth and family, the Ernie Mortas at Viking.

Holden 4-H Beef Club are now holding their meetings the third Tuesday in each month in the Holden Community Hall.

Mr and Mrs Jack Keith returned home several days ago, after holidaying for a week with their families at Red Deer and Calgary, and driving with them to various points in the mountains for a couple of days.

Miss Elaine Olsen, R.N., who has been on the staff of the Viking Hospital for the past year, will be leaving there the middle of November and will be employed as the Health Nurse in Holden with the Vegreville Health Unit. She will be stationed in Holden, taking charge of the west half of the district and schools.

Albert Pederson of Camrose, a former Holdenite, visited with friends in the Village on Tuesday of last week.

HOME FROM EXPO

Hans Huseby returned home last week, after visiting in Montreal and at Expo for over a week, for the Edmonton and Calgary Days celebration. On their return home, the train was several hours late due to being held up by a snowfall of 16 inches east of the Prairies.

Mr. and Mrs Mike Thacyk returned home the beginning of last week, after holidaying for two weeks.

Mr and Mrs G H Taylor were last Tuesday evening visitors with their son and family Mr and Mrs Robert Taylor, of the Viking district.

Mr and Mrs. Alvin Chomie and small daughter, of Edmonton, were visitors the weekend of October 14 with Carol's parents Mr and Mrs A M Sizer.

Mr and Mrs Bud Sizer were pleasantly surprised last week on receiving a phone call from Pete Sizer of Crescent City, Calif., U.S., congratulating them on their 19th wedding anniversary and wishing Clara happy returns on her birthday October 15th.

AT FUNERALS

Mr and Mrs Hans Brekstad were in Edmonton on October 16 attending the funeral of an old family friend, Mrs Arne Nelson and later visiting with the family.

Mr and Mrs Otto Hurum and Mrs Mabel Sizer attended the funeral on Thursday afternoon of Mrs Hurum's aunt, Mrs. R Davis, in Bruce.

Mr and Mrs Charles Sizer also attended the funeral of Mrs Davis, one of the district old-timers.

Have you ever wondered...

... if you have a hidden talent just waiting to be discovered.

Everyone has a certain amount of creative ability but, in most cases, expert help is needed to realize and develop this talent. Professional help in all phases of the creative and performing arts is available to everyone in Alberta through the Cultural Development Branch of the Alberta Provincial Secretary's Department. Experts in all phases of arts and crafts, painting, sculpture and ceramics; music, both instrumental and vocal; the theatre arts, acting, directing, stage management and make-up; are available to all age groups in all parts of the province. The only requisite for obtaining this instruction is the formation of a group whose members have a common desire to develop their creative ability. The Cultural Development Branch also provides assistance in the development of libraries; organization, management and administration. Beginning with the exposure of the performing and expressive arts through tours and exhibitions, to financial aid to students in professional art careers, the Cultural Development Branch contributes greatly to the esthetic growth of our province.

... where Community Development begins?

Community Development begins with the people of the community. It is the residents who decide that social and economic problems exist and it is the residents who must take action to solve these problems. If they wish professional assistance, they may invite a Community Development Officer to help them in finding the solutions. His major task in carrying out such an assignment is to create learning situations which, in time, will provide the people of the community with increased knowledge, added skills and greater self-confidence. These attributes, in turn, will allow residents to take a more active part in making decisions which affect them and their community. The Community Development Branch will assist the people of all Alberta communities, in accordance with the province's program on Human Resources Development.

... about the standard of living enjoyed by Alberta's chickens?

Chickens, turkeys and other poultry destined for Alberta's dinner tables enjoy top level living. Poultry producers and processors are required to maintain high standards of operation, facilities and sanitation in order to be licensed by the Poultry Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

To see that these qualities are kept up, the Branch makes regular inspections of housing, ventilation, automation, feeds and feeding, disease prevention and management techniques. To assist in maintaining the standards set, the Branch provides specialized services and technical and statistical information to producers, hatchery operators, processors, feed manufacturers, and allied industries.

... how medical care is provided for the residents of Alberta's sparsely-populated northland?

In an area of 104,000 square miles, with a population density of considerably less than one person per square mile, six Municipal Nurses of the Alberta Department of Health travel by plane, train, car and foot to provide the Northern Alberta Health Service. This is a program of preventive health and emergency treatment which includes immunizing children, delivering babies and treating accident victims. Where necessary, the nurses' services are supplemented by medical specialists flown in to [illegible] to specific needs. In addition to serving the north country, there are seven other Municipal Nursing stations in the province, providing emergency treatment service, public health services and preventive medicine in areas which have no easy access to hospital or medical care. The nurses and the facilities they operate are financed by the Alberta Department of Health, although a small charge is made for treatment, and medications provided for emergency purposes are provided at cost.

... if "agriculture" and "conservation" are really totally incompatible?

Not really. They CAN live together in peace and harmony, and that's a fact that's being proven by the Conservation and Utilization Branch of the Program Development Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture. Under the Branch's Land Assembly Program, areas presently being used for agricultural purposes but which have recreational and conservational potential are being purchased from their owners and are being utilized for all these purposes. In addition, financial assistance is available to farmers who wish to develop new land under the condition that they leave designated portions in a natural state to provide a recreational area and cover for wild game. In this way, Alberta's most valuable land areas have a multiple use, contributing to both agriculture and conservation.

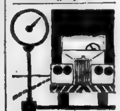
... how Alberta's highways are protected against "cracking up"?



Highways are like humans, they can only take so much pressure before going to pieces. To ensure Alberta's highways of a long and useful life, the weight and size of the vehicles using them are carefully controlled. All primary highways in the province carry a load limit established by the Highway Traffic Board of the Alberta Department of Highways. Any load exceeding these limits must have a special permit. When this is applied for, the Board considers the route selected, the size and nature of the load, number of bridges on route and traffic conditions. If all factors are agreeable, the permit is issued. If changes are necessary, the Board may require the load to be split between two or more trucks, the use of an alternate route, a controlled speed, or other revisions. Enforcement of these regulations allow Alberta motorists full enjoyment of their highways with a minimum of traffic obstruction and ensure a maximum life span for each highway.

Double your money with Canada Savings Bonds

One of the great things about Canada is Canada Savings Bonds, and this year's Series is the most exciting yet. Interest starts at 5¼% a year—the highest starting rate ever on a Canada Savings Bond—and goes right up to 6%. Over the 13 years to maturity the true average annual yield is 5.48%.

Best of all, Canada Savings Bonds have a wonderful compound interest feature which pays you interest on your interest. Take full advantage of it and you will double your money.

As always, Canada Savings Bonds are instant cash. They may be cashed at any time for their full face value plus accrued interest. They are easy to buy for cash or on instalments. They fit all savings budgets—from $50 up.

And, for the first time ever, Canada's most popular personal investment may now be bought by businesses, churches, charities, clubs, and other organizations. Another first: the limit per holder for this Series has been increased to $50,000.

Backed by all the resources of Canada, Canada Savings Bonds are a great way to save. Buy yours today and double your money.

Tourist Association sets $10,000 budget

The first budget of the Battle River Tourist Association was set at $10,000 for the coming year, at the regular meeting of the Association held Thursday night at the Smith Clinic. Dr. W. J. Siwak is the group's initial president.

The Association only has to raise one-half, or $5,000 of this amount, as the provincial government will match them dollar for dollar. The budget figure includes tourist brochures, advertising, administration, supplies and materials for one year's operation.

The Association plans to raise this money by assessing each community in its area ten cents per person for all residents. In each case, it is hoped that the local civic administration will pay the amount needed.

Using one hundred dollar contributions from both the Camrose and Wetaskiwin Chambers of Commerce, the Association opened its banking account with the Toronto Dominion Bank.

An application to become an incorporated body has been forwarded to the Registrar of Companies but, to date, no answer has been received.

It was decided that all members at the meeting should contact the civic administration bodies of all communities in their area to explain to them just what the aims of this Association are and, in this way, to try to increase the number of centers belonging to the Association.

Representatives from Camrose, Wainwright, Stettler, Forestburg, Donalda and the County of Beaver attended the meeting. The next meeting was set for Camrose on November 29th.

Tofield district farmer Joseph H. Brown passes

Funeral services were held from the Holy Trinity Church, Tofield, Monday, October 30 for Joseph H. Brown with Canon Teape officiating. Mr. Brown passed away Friday, October 27 at the age of 63 years. He was born on June 11, 1904 at Bolton, Lancashire, England and came with his parents to Tofield in 1912. On February 5, 1926, he was married to Audrey Hooper and they resided in the Lindbrook district until the time of his passing. He took a keen interest in his farm and community affairs.

Surviving are his loving wife Audrey, 4 sons, Kenneth, Howard and Ronald of Tofield and James of Vermilion, one daughter (Doreen) Mrs. L. Schacher of Tofield, his mother, Mrs. E. A. Brown of Holden, one brother Stanley and three sisters, Mrs. Annie McGinlie, Mrs. Janet Lawson of Tofield, and Miss Ethel Brown of Holden.

Honorary pallbearers were J. W. Robinson, J. Appleby, W. C. Lancaster, H. Weatherill, W. A. McHeffey and L. Lee. Active pallbearers were his four sons Kenneth, Howard, James and Ronald, Leonard Schacher and Wesley Lawson. Andrews-McLaughlin Funeral Home were in charge of arrangements.

UNICEF display at library from Nov. 14 to 21st

Children in Tofield and district and adults too, can take a trip around the world during Young Canada Book Week; and best of all, no long journey is needed. The Tofield Municipal Library invites everyone to visit an international display of arts and dolls presented by the United Nations Children's Fund.

This international exhibit underlines the message of UNICEF, the deep understanding of children by children throughout the world.

For an interesting exhibit plan to visit Tofield Municipal Library during library hours, 2:30 to 5:30 from November 14th to 21st. Proceeds will be sent to UNICEF (Children's Fund.)

Pee Wee 4-H Club names new executive October 28th

The Pee Wee members of the Tofield 4-H Beef Club held their first meeting at the home of Charles Rude on Saturday, October 28th, with twelve members present. The members elected their executive for the coming year. They are: president, Randy Jones; vice-president, Brian Rude; secretary, Debbie Miskew; treasurer, Elaine Jones.

Glenn Jones has taken over the leadership of the Pee Wees with one member of the adult committee to attend each meeting.

The Pee Wees will hold their meetings at designated homes on the Saturday following the meeting of the Beef Club.

On Thursday, November 9th, the Beef Club will hold their meeting in the library of the Community Hall. All members are urged to attend as the program for the coming year will be discussed. Members are reminded of the weighing of all 4-H calves on November 4, beginning at 1:00 o'clock at the UGG elevator.

5 TV features Laurie Byers

Laurie Byers and his feedlot operations will be featured on Channel 3 television Sunday, November 12. As well, the spotlight will turn on the other Byers operations here, the Sunny Boy plant, feed mill, and Country and Western Store. Bill Owen, formerly local broadcaster, set up the program.

Initially, it had been planned to base the program on cattle selected for entry for the Royal Fair this year, but Mr. Byers decided to sell the cattle some weeks ago when severe labor pressures made it impossible for him to meet his own rigid requirements on their care and feeding.

It is felt that hundreds of local viewers will want to "visit" with this renowned breeder when the show comes on at 4:15 p.m.

Curling Club to have rummage sale

The directors of the curling club met Friday evening to lay plans for a rummage sale to be held on Wednesday afternoon, November 15th at the curling rink. The Camrose Auction Market has offered its services free of charge for this sale. Proceeds from the sale are to be used for retiring the plywood account and operational expenses for the coming year. Anything of value will be accepted. Lloyd Ferguson, Elmer Googlein and Earl Rose are accepting listings from the country folks, while George McFadzen and Conrad Patterson will attempt to pry valuables from the town citizens.

Clifford Oslund has been engaged as ice maker. He will begin his duties on November 15th.

There will be a general meeting of the Tofield Curling Club at the curling rink on November 16th at 7:30, when plans and activities for the coming year will be decided.

All those who are planning to curl in the evenings are urged to attend this meeting.

Drainage Board meets October 27

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

The Board of the Holden Drainage District No. 1 held their regular monthly meeting on Friday afternoon, Oct. 27, with Trustees Oscar Afseth, Hans Huseby, Nick Laskosky and secretary Ray Hovland present. Regular business was attended to and accounts presented for payment and passed.

The secretary was requested by the trustees to make out an Enforcement List of Arrears of Taxes for January 1, 1968.

Culverts, which have been placed and are to be installed, were discussed, also the ditching which had been done during the year.

Hans Huseby, Nick Laskosky, Oscar Afseth and Ray Hovland were coffee guests at the home of Mrs. N. L. Campbell after the meeting.

Tourist Association sets $10,000 budget

The first budget of the Battle River Tourist Association was set at $10,000 for the coming year, at the regular meeting of the Association held Thursday night at the Smith Clinic. Dr. W. J. Siwak is the group's initial president.

The Association only has to raise one-half, or $5,000 of this amount, as the provincial government will match them dollar for dollar. The budget figure includes tourist brochures, advertising, administration, supplies and materials for one year's operation.

The Association plans to raise this money by assessing each community in its area ten cents per person for all residents. In each case, it is hoped that the local civic administration will pay the amount needed.

Using one hundred dollar contributions from both the Camrose and Wetaskiwin Chambers of Commerce, the Association opened its banking account with the Toronto Dominion Bank

An application to become an incorporated body has been forwarded to the Registrar of Companies but, to date, no answer has been received.

It was decided that all members at the meeting should contact the civic administration bodies of all communities in their area to explain to them just what the aims of this Association are and, in this way, to try to increase the number of centers belonging to the Association.

Representatives from Camrose, Wainwright, Stettler, Forestburg, Donalda and the County of Beaver attended the meeting. The next meeting was set for Camrose on November 29th.

Tofield district farmer Joseph H. Brown passes

Funeral services were held from the Holy Trinity Church, Tofield, Monday, October 30 for Joseph H. Brown with Canon Teape officiating. Mr. Brown passed away Friday, October 27 at the age of 63 years. He was born on June 11, 1904 at Bolton, Lancashire, England and came with his parents to Tofield in 1912. On February 5 ,1926, he was married to Audrey Hooper and they resided in the Lindbrook district until the time of his passing. He took a keen interest in his farm and community affairs.

Surviving are his loving wife Audrey, 4 sons, Kenneth, Howard and Ronald of Tofield and James of Vermilion, one daughter (Doreen) Mrs. L. Schacher of Tofield, his mother, Mrs. E. A. Brown of Holden, one brother Stanley and three sisters, Mrs. Annie McGinlie, Mrs. Janet Lawson of Tofield, and Miss Ethel Brown of Holden.

Honorary pallbearers were J. W. Robinson, J. Appleby, W. C. Lancaster, H. Weatherill, W. A. McHeffey and L. Lee. Active pallbearers were his four sons Kenneth, Howard, James and Ronald, Leonard Schacher and Wesley Lawson. Andrews-McLaughlin Funeral Home were in charge of arrangements.

UNICEF display at library from Nov. 14 to 21st

Children in Tofield and district and adults too, can take a trip around the world during Young Canada Book Week; and best of all, no long journey is needed. The Tofield Municipal Library invites everyone to visit an international display of arts and dolls presented by the United Nations Children's Fund.

This international exhibit underlines the message of UNICEF, the deep understanding of children by children throughout the world.

For an interesting exhibit plan to visit Tofield Municipal Library during library hours, 3:30 to 5:30 from November 14th to 21st. Proceeds will be sent to UNICEF (Children's Fund.)

Pee Wee 4-H Club names new executive October 28th

The Pee Wee members of the Tofield 4-H Beef Club held their first meeting at the home of Charles Rude on Saturday, October 28th, with twelve members present. The members elected their executive for the coming year. They are: president, Randy Jones; vice-president, Brian Rude; secretary, Debbie Miskew; treasurer, Elaine Jones.

Glenn Jones has taken over the leadership of the Pee Wees with one member of the adult committee to attend each meeting.

The Pee Wees will hold their meetings at designated homes on the Saturday following the meeting of the Beef Club.

On Thursday, November 9th, the Beef Club will hold their meeting in the library of the Community Hall. All members are urged to attend as the program for the coming year will be discussed. Members are reminded of the weighing of all 4-H calves on November 4, beginning at 1:00 o'clock at the UGG elevator.

5 TV features Laurie Byers

Laurie Byers and his feedlot operations will be featured on Channel 5 television Sunday, November 12. As well, the spotlight will turn on the other Byers operations here, the Sunny Boy plant, feed mill, and Country and Western Store. Bill Owen, formerly local broadcaster, set up the program.

Initially, it had been planned to base the program on cattle selected for entry for the Royal Fair this year, but Mr. Byers deided to sell the cattle some weeks ago when severe labor pressures made it impossible for him to meet his own rigid requirements on their care and feeding.

It is felt that hundreds of local viewers will want to "visit" with this renowned breeder when the show comes on at 4:15 p.m.

Curling Club to have rummage sale

The directors of the curling club met Friday evening to lay plans for a rummage sale to be held on Wednesday afternoon, November 15th at the curling rink. The Camrose Auction Market has offered its services free of charge for this sale. Proceeds from the sale are to be used for retiring the plywood account and operational expenses for the coming year. Anything of value will be accepted. Lloyd Ferguson, Elmer Geoglein and Earl Rose are accepting listings from the country folks, while George McFadzen and Conrad Patterson will attempt to pry valuables from the town citizens.

Clifford Oslund has been engaged as ice maker. He will begin his duties on November 15th.

There will be a general meeting of the Tofield Curling Club at the curling rink on November 16th at 7:30, when plans and activities for the coming year will be decided.

All those who are planning to curl in the evenings are urged to attend this meeting.

Drainage Board meets October 27

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

The Board of the Holden Drainage District No. 1 held their regular monthly meeting on Friday afternoon, Oct. 27, with Trustees Oscar Afseth, Hans Huseby, Nick Laskosky and secretary Ray Hovland present. Regular business was attended to and accounts presented for payment and passed.

The secretary was requested by the trustees to make out an Enforcement List of Arrears of Taxes for January 1, 1968.

Culverts, which have been placed and are to be installed, were discussed, also the ditching which had been done during the year.

Hans Huseby, Nick Laskosky, Oscar Afseth and Ray Hovland were coffee guests at the home of Mrs. N. L. Campbell after the meeting.

George wins award

Provincial Fire Commissioner Austin Bridges attended the annual meeting of the Alberta Weekly Newspapers Association to present awards to editors who contributed most to the 1966 Fire Prevention Week Campaign. Flanking the fire commissioner are George Meyer (left) of the Taber Times (former editor of The Mercury), and L. H. Drouin of the St. Paul Journal. A third award went to L. J. Rushka of the Sundre Roundup who was not on hand for the presentation.

Action slow in tourism

The Battle River Tourist Association meetings finally had a representative from this area when the County of Beaver sent a delegate to the meeting held in Camrose last week. Although having a representative from the County of Beaver can do much to promote tourist development in this area, much more could be done if such centers as Tofield, Ryley and Holden were to be represented.

These centers have apparently expressed interest to the Tourist Association, but, the time for expressions has come and gone, for the time for action is now here. It would certainly be a shame if this area would be left out of all tourist advertising when the association prints its brochures in the spring, or late winter. The tourist industry is a major one in this province, although it must be admit d that it is low as far as the income bracket of this area is concerned This can and will be changed by a properly functioning tourist development plan.

Everyone must benefit fr m tourists entering an area. The benefit can come directly or indirectly. Merchants, restaurants, service stations, hotels, motels, stores, and other businesses will feel the direct impact of an influx of tourists to an area. The farmers, on the other hand, would feel the profits in an indirect manner. Farmers supply produce for human consumption in all outlets, and the more outlets use, the more the farmer must supply, and consequently, the more his income must increase.

A tourist association must have members in order to succeed. Money is another necessity. The Battle River Tourist Association plans on assessing each community at the rate of ten cents per head. This is about as small an investment as anyone could ever be asked to contribute. The provincial government feels strongly enough about developing the tourist industry that they will match, dollar for dollar all monies raised by these tourist associations. We cannot help but wonder what further incentive could be needed.

All communities in the Battle River Zone will be contacted in the next few weeks and strongly urged to join. Now is the time to take the necessary steps to get behind this project, and then attend the next meeting, which, by the way, is November 29th and give the association your one hundred per cent support.

New benchmark

It would seem that Walter Reuther and the Ford Motor Company have established a new benchmark in the world of industry, whereby a man will be guaranteed almost as much for not working as he will be for holding down a job. The guaranteed annual income was a target of the auto workers for years, but probably no-one dreamed of it at this level before.

Now GM and Chrysler will have to toe the mark, although if the former balks for any length of time, the cost to the union of the resultant strike might well-nigh bankrupt it. And even though parity for Canadian workers was not obtained, isn't it interesting to note that wage talks start next month at Ford of Canada? Will parity become important here? Will a guaranteed annual wage?

MacDuff Ottawa report

OTTAWA — Expo, the biggest, greatest birthday party any country on earth ever threw for itself and its friends, is ended.

The last of 50 state visitors has been deafened by the roar of a 21-gun salute on Parliament Hill. The red carpet, which had its weather many a shower and withstand the fading effect of the long, hot summer sun, has been sent to the cleaners. And the official welcoming date where Prime Minister Pearson spent many hours shaking hands and making speeches has gone to the wreckers.

It's back to business as usual in the House of Commons. And but for a few tail-end events still to come, the giant national fiesta is now only a happy memory.

Even the Centennial commissioner, John Fisher, who planned and supervised the thousand-and-one events that made it a coast-to-coast success, has landed another job as a small-time newspaper publisher. He's still on the government payroll until year-end, but his duties are finished.

STUDY THE RESULTS

It's a time for assessment, for a spoonful of salts to ease the hangover, and to prepare to pay the bills.

By any standard, the Centennial bash had to be the greatest, far surpassing the most ambitious hopes of its planners.

It put Canada on the news pages all over the world. Thousands of feet of film, and millions of words, went out on television and radio to every corner of the globe

Not all the news was happy. President de Gaulle stomped off with the freshly as our most ungracious guest. The Cubans used their Expo pavilion to make crude anti-American propaganda, and Nationalist China made known its displeasure with our policy of seeking a seat in the United Nations Security Council for Red Peking.

Montreal's transit workers did their bit to make things unpleasant by staging a month-long strike that all but crippled Expo in its final weeks. It finally took a big stick beating by the government of Quebec to force them back to work.

NOT ALL AT EXPO

There were some interesting political sideshows all across the land to pique the interest of the voters.

The big one was in Toronto where Conservative President Dalton Camp completed his Centennial project by toppling John Diefenbaker from the party's throne and installing Robert Stanfield in his place.

Fortunes were squandered by a small army of rival candidates for the party leadership. Eleven went to the platform at Maple Leaf Gardens to make their pitch for when the final ballot votes were counted, seven of them including the defiant old Chieftain were quickly shown to be out of the running. Stanfield led from the start, and steadily increased his vote until he trounced fellow Premier Duff Roblin on the final ballot.

BEFORE ABERHART

Out in the provinces, five governments kept their democratic five with the electors and survived to ride again. Alberta stayed with Social Credit, a political love affair that has lasted longer than a generation (some of this year's new voters weren't even born when Bible Bill Aberhart came to power). Saskatchewan and New Brunswick liked the Liberals, and Nova Scotia and Ontario stayed true to the Tories.

Quebec made news throughout the year without the bother of an election. Expo served to keep it on a constant plane of publicity, the news museum of separatist sympathizers made full use of the opportunity to be heard.

The crisis of Confederation, as it came to be known, threatened for a time to upset the party But—perhaps thanks to the ill-mannered interference of General de Gaulle — the heat was taken out of it to some extent when political leaders of both major parties put themselves on record as believers in one Canada

The Liberals went further in a test of strength forced on a provincial convention by ex cabinet minister Rene Levesque, they rejected the latter's call for separatism and cast Mr Levesque and a handful of followers packing.

Where Mr. Levesque goes from here is unknown. But for the present he lacks a power base to pronounce his separatist cause—and his leadership in some minds has been discredited—at least for the moment.

ANOTHER JOB OPENING?

Back in Ottawa, Prime Minister Pearson added no new inches to his waistline assurance that 1968 official retirement date received when to claim the luxury of political retirement.

The betting caution in the year was that he would be gone by the end of the year—perhaps as early as October.

But Centennial activities a heavy list of top-priority legislation and the worry over brewing Quebec in the federal family kept him on the job.

Perhaps, now that the festivities are all but over, Parliament is hard at work again and Quebec seems set on a course even course for the immediate future, he will begin to think again.

An ambitious group of cabinet ministers, led by Finance Minister Sharp, Transport Minister Paul Hellyer and old pro Paul Martin of external affairs, are waiting in the wings.

No one in the Liberal party wants to hurry Mr. Pearson along His standing still with his followers despite massive opposition in the public polls.

But Canada is entering a new era as the birthday candles sputter and die The Tories have their new leader and are ready to face the future with confidence and the Liberals have a choice.

After the wine-ding he's been through as chief host to the Centennial, he's definitely in the peace and quiet, and well-deserved relaxation.

BUSINESS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

In regards to fire protection, motion 312 67, the Secretary-Treasurer stated that he had, on October 3rd request-ed the Saskatoon Fire Engine Co. Ltd. to appraise the existing equipment within the County boundaries and he had also writt n the Fire Commissioner advising that the County was contemplating fire protection for the whole County and asked for any recommendations that the Fire Commissioner's Office might have. Cr. Weatherill reported that the Board of Directors of the Tofield Rural Fire Protection Assoc. Ltd. were agreeable to having their pumper and equipment appraised. They appeared to be of the opinion that if the Local Government was taking over the operation the cost would increase. Reference had been made also to a number of persons in the M.D. of Lamont, County of Strathcona, and County of Camrose, who were shareholders in the Association and they had inquired how these people could be looked after. Following considerable discussion, it was moved and carried that the report be tabled pending the results of the appra sal.

The matter of a sh d for the pumper to be stationed in the Hamlet of Bruce was discussed and it was suggested that an addition could be made to the trailer shed. It was moved that the Buildiwr Committee, consisting of Cr Roddick, Kropielnicki and Johnston, together with Cr. Davis and the Supervisor of buildings, investigate the feasability of adding to the present grader shed for storage of the fire pumper and that the Committee be given power to act in this matter. Carried.

In regards to the Amisk Creek Flood Control Scheme and Erosion Control, Cr. Knudsen presented a number of "Release and Discharges" and Preliminary Agreements in this matter. They appeared to be in order and it was moved and seconded that the Reeve and the Secretary-Treasurer be authorized to sign the Preliminary Agreements be approved.

In regards to the Bruce water and sewer system, motion 546/67, the Secretary-Treasurer advised that By-Laws Nos. 247 & 248, re-committee debenture borrowings, had been approved by the Municipal Authorities Board and that notice to that effect had been posted on October 2nd. Moved and carried that the re-

As invoice from Canadian Good Roads Association concerning the membership dues in the amount of $50 for the year ending Dec. 30, 1968 was referred to Council. Moved and carried the account be paid.

Letter from the Canada Dept. of Agriculture Soloestic Soil Sub-Station indicated that for the past several years studies at Vegreville had been conducted on deep plowing of Solonetzic soils. In 1966 experiments had been conducted at Carnation, Kavanagh, Viking, Lamont and Chipman. The letter stated that the Station's budget was very restricted and the Officer in Charge wondered if the County would be interested in providing a few hours of crawler-tractor time in the operation of the plots. Experiments in 1966 had been conducted at Mr. Don Klein's farm at Viking and Cr. Roddick had discussed the matter with Mr. Klein. The latter had stated that approximately two acres had been plowed 18 to 20 inches deep last year and in his opinion it was too early to assess the benefits At this time he could see very little difference Mr Klein had stated that he would be prepared to use his tractor, a 903 Case for further experiments. The Council felt that it would not be possible to use any of the County's own equipment and that if Mr Klein was prepared to use his tractor for this purpose the County should pay for the tractor time

Moved that the Sub-station at Vegreville be advised that Mr. to use his tractor fo. further experiments and that the County is prepared to pay for 2 or 3 2 acre test plots. Carried.

In regards to the Assessment Appeal, which had been requested at the last annual meeting the Council was informed that 1500 of these maps would cost $350.00 and the Secretary-Treasurer inquired how the Council wished to handle these maps. At the annual meeting it had been suggested that a small fee be charged. Some of the Councillors, however, felt that the best was to enclose the map with the financial statements, and it was moved and carried that an order be placed for 2500 assessment maps and that they be mailed with the 1967 Financial Statements.

Letter from the Secretary-Treasurer of the Town of Vermilion, advising that a Regional Meeting of the councillors of Towns and Villages, Counties and Municipal Districts would be held at Vermilion on Today, October 19th at 2:00 p.m. was referred to the Council. It was moved that Crs. Roddick and Gibson attend this meeting. Carried unanimously.

In rev.ew to the impounding of a stallion at the pound of Ed. Thomsen, dealt with by motion 533 67, the Secretary-Treasurer advised that he had, as provided in Sec. 39 of the Domestic Animals Act, notified Mr. Earl Gibson, the impounder, of the re-consideration of the Committee that had investigated the damage claim. The 21 days allowed for an appeal was up on this date. It was moved that Crs. Roddick

THRESHING BY "STEAMER"

Mr. and Mrs. George Kleinschroth and family motored to the Glen Crandall farm northwest of Ponoka last Sunday where they attended the yearly event of threshing 25 acres of grain with an old steam engine. Rowracks were horse-drawn and many elderly farmers wouldn't bear just watching the threshing took off their coats, grabbed a fork and pitched a few bundles into the separator.

Even some young fellows, intrigued by the old method, helped with the threshing. Plowing was also done with the steam engine. This event was enjoyed by all in attendance, and plans are to have another such event in another fall.

Quebec made news throughout the year without the banner of Premier Jean Lesage to keep it flying over the provincial parliament buildings. Premier Daniel Johnson found the Quebec seat of government a comfortable one.

There is no known explanation for a time to avoid the battle. But—perhaps the stir in the air mustered interference of General de Gaulle — the host was taken out of it to some extent when political leaders of both major parties put themselves on record as believers in one Canada.

Back in Ottawa Prime Minister Pearson added a few inches to his waistline and more than 100 official luncheons and dinners which to claim the luxury of political retirement.

The betting caution in the year was five to one he goes by the end of the year—perhaps as early as tomorrow.

But Centennial activities, a heavy list of top-priority legislation and the worry over keeping Quebec in the federal family kept him on the job.

Perhaps now that the festivities are all but over, Parliament is hard at it again and Quebec seems set on a constitutional course for the immediate future, he will begin to think again.

An ambitious group of cabinet ministers, led by Finance Minister Sharp, Transport Minister Paul Hellyer and Labor Boss Fred Martin of external affairs, are waiting in the wings.

No one in the Liberal party wants to hurry Mr. Pearson along. His stocks still high with his followers despite meteoric Conservative gains in the public polls.

But Canada is entering a new era as the birthday candles out after the Tories have their new leader and are ready to face the future with confidence and Mr. Pearson is ready to retire.

After the wing-ding has been through as chief host, Mr. Pearson, himself, he's going home peace and quiet, and unrivalled relaxation.

County Council meets Oct. 11

Wednesday, Oct. 11th.

BUSINESS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

In regards to fire protection, motion 513/67, the Secretary-Treasurer stated that he had, on October 3rd request of the Saskatoon Fire Engine Co. Ltd. to appraise the existing equipment within the County boundaries and he had also written the Fire Commissioner advising that the County was contemplating fire protection for the whole County and asked for any recommendations that the Fire Commissioner's Office might have. Cr. Weatherill reported that the Board of Directors of the Tofield Rural Fire Protection Assoc. Ltd. were agreeable to having their pumper and equipment appraised. They appeared to be of the opinion that if the Local Government was taking over the operation the cost would increase. Reference had been made also to a number of persons in the M.D. of Lamont, County of Strathcona, and County of Camrose, who were shareholders in the Association and they had inquired how these people could be looked after. Following considerable discussion, it was moved and carried that the report be tabled pending the results of the appraisal.

The matter of a shed for the pumper to be stationed in the Hamlet of Bruce was discussed and it was suggested that an addition could be made to the trader shed. It was moved that the Building Committee, consisting of Crs. Roddick, Krogsrud and Johnston, together with Cr. Davis and the Supervisor of buildings, investigate the feasability of adding to the present grader shed for storage of the fire pumper and that the Committee be given power to act in this matter. Carried.

In regards to Amisk Creek Flood Control Scheme and Erosion Control, Cr. Kostaluck presented a number of "Release and Discharges" and Preliminary Agreements in this matter. They appeared to be in order and it was moved and carried that the Releases and the Preliminary Agreements be approved.

In regards to the Bruce water and sewer system, motion 546/67, the Secretary-Treasurer advised that By-Laws Nos. 247 & 251 concerning debenture borrowings, had been approved by the Local Authorities Board and that notice to that effect had been posted on October 2nd. Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

An invoice from Canadian Good Roads Association concerning the membership dues in the amount of $50 for the year ending December 31, 1968 was referred to Council. Moved and carried that the account be paid.

Letter from the Canada Dept of Agriculture Holometric Soil Sub-Station indicated that for the past year soil tests on the Vegreville land have been conducted on deep plowing of Solonetzic soils. In 1966 experiments had been conducted at Carvadale, Kavanagh, Viking, Lamont and Chipman. The letter stated that the Station's budget was very restricted and the Officer in Charge wondered if the County would be interested in providing a few hours of crawler-tractor time in the operation of the plow. Experiments in 1966 had been conducted at Mr. Dan Klein's farm at Viking and Cr. Roddick had discussed the matter with Mr. Klein. The latter had stated that approximately two acres had been plowed 18 to 20 inches deep last year and in his opinion it was too early to assess the benefits. At this time he could see very little difference. Mr. Klein had stated that he would be prepared to use his tractor, a 903 Case, for further experiments. The Council felt that it would not be possible to use any of the County's own equipment and that if Mr. Klein was prepared to use his tractor for this purpose the County should pay for the tractor time.

Moved that the Sub-Station at Vegreville be advised that Mr. to use his tractor for further experiments and that the County is prepared to pay for 2 or 2-2 acre test plots. Carried.

In regards to the Assessment maps, which had been requested at the last annual meeting, the Council was informed that 1500 of these maps would cost $350.00 and the Secretary-Treasurer inquired how the Council wished to handle these maps. At the annual meeting it had been suggested that a small fee be charged. Some of the Councillors, however, felt that the best way to enclose the map with the financial statements and it was moved and carried that an order be placed for 2500 assessment maps and that they be mailed with the 1967 Financial Statements.

Letter from the Secretary-Treasurer of the Town of Vermilion, advising that a Regional Meeting of the councillors of Towns and Villages, Counties and Municipal Districts would be held at Vermilion on Tuesday, October 18th at 7:00 p.m. was referred to the Council. It was moved that Crs. Roddick and Gibson attend this meeting. Carried unanimously.

In regards to the impounding of a stallion at the pound of Ed. Thomsen, dealt with by motion 533/67, the Secretary-Treasurer advised that he had, as provided in Sec. 29 of the Domestic Animals Act, notified Mr. Karl Gibson, the impounder, of the recommendation of the Committee that land investigated the damage claim. The 21 days allowed for an appeal was up on this date. It was moved that Cr. Roddick

THRESHING BY "STEAMER"

Mr. and Mrs. George Kleinschroth and family motored to the Glen Glen Ranch farm northwest of Ponoka last Sunday where they attended the yearly event of threshing 25 acres o' grain with an old steam engin Hayracks were horse-drawn and many elderly farmers w couldn't bear just watching the threshing took off their coats, grabbed a fork and pitched a few bundles into the separator.

Even some young fellows, intrigued by the old method, helped with the threshing. Plowing was also done with the steam engine. This event was enjoyed by all in attendance, and plans are to have another such event in another fall.

County School Committee meets October 16

Friday, October 16th.

BUSINESS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

In regards to Lamont School Division and the Sagmoen child, the Secretary-Treasurer reported that he had been in contact with the Secretary-Treasurer of the Lamont S.D. who had indicated that he would bring the matter of a reciprocal transportation agreement to his Board which was meeting today. It appeared that an agreement might be arranged. It was moved and carried that the report be accepted

In regard to the sale of Bruce teacherage, motion 346/'67, the Committee was advised that a second tender in the amount of $102 had been received from John Winczura and that this tender had been accepted by the Council, the building to be removed by Dec. 1. Moved and carried that the report be accepted and action concurred in. In regards to tenders for school buses, motion 353/67, the following tenders had been received: Ron Hisey for bus #29, $100; Stan Fornal of Viking for bus #5, $80; E. L. Wilson of Tofield for bus #5, $132, and for bus #20, $176. It was moved that the tender submitted by E. L. Wilson of Tofield for the two buses in an amount of $308 be accepted. Carried unanimously.

In regards to the A.S.T.A. Convention, the Sec.-Treas. reported that he had forwarded the registration to the A.S.T.A. office and had as in former years designated Cr. J. H. Roddick as voting delegate and Cr. Kropeinicki as alternate voting delegate. Moved that the action be concurred in. Carried.

In regards to the School Design Workshop, motion 359/67, it was moved that Crs. Roddick and Kropielnicki represent the School Committee at this Workshop, together with the Supervisor of Buildings, Nick Shihinski and the Superintendent of Schools, M. S. Bruce. Carried.

Mr. T. Groves, Architect with the firm of Aberdeen Groves and Hodgson, attended the meeting at this time in connection with the proposed addition to the County office. Mr. Groves had visited the office at an earlier date and had discussed the requirements with the Sec.-Treas., and the Supt. of Schools. At this time Mr. Groves outlined to some extent what could be done with the present building and the situation was quite fully discussed while Mr. Groves was present and after he had retired. It was finally moved and carried that consideration be given to an addition to the County office with renovation of the present building.

Moved and carried that the firm of Aberdeen Groves and Hodgson, Architects, be appointed for the proposed work on the County office and that they be requested to draw preliminary sketch plans and estimates for presentation to the School Committee.

Due to the number of meetings and conventions slated for the month of November, it would not be possible to hold the School Committee meeting on the regular meeting day and it was moved and carried that the November School Committee meeting be held on Nov. 10.

It was moved and carried that letters of appreciation from Blaine Greenwood of Kinsella for having been chosen to take part in the Centennial Youth Travel Program last summer and from Tofield and Ryley Lions Clubs for the buses that had been sold to the clubs at a nominal cost, be received and filed

It was also moved and carried that information from the Workmen's Compensation Board that the County had earned a merit rebate in the amount of $1,035.19 be received and filed

A letter from the Alberta School Trustees Association to Mr A R Cross Assistant Sec.-Treas. of the County, inviting him to serve as a member of the administrator group on the Economic Council of the Association was referred to the Committee. It was moved that the information be accepted and Mr Cross's acceptance to act on the Economic Council be concurred in. Carried

Information from the Alberta School Trustees Association advising that a Conference with representatives of management and labour to be held on Oct 30, 31 and Nov 1 in Edmonton to review the Alberta Labour Act was referred to the Committee. It was noted that Mr Cross would be attending at least part of the Conference, as the Conference concerned school administration. It was moved and carried that information be received and filed.

The Municipal Inspector's Report, concerning an inspection made on August 16, 1967, was referred to the Committee and it was moved and carried that the report be received and filed

It was moved that the following bursary applications be approved: Elizabeth Jane Klein — elementary — first year; Joe Pozerniuk secondary (Ind. Arts) first year; Victor Petruk — secondary - second year; Barbara Ann McArthur — secondary second year; George Claude McArthur — secondary, third year. Carried unanimously

The Committee was advised that Mr Kevin P Lees who would obtain his B Ed degree this year, had applied for a bursary. Mr. Dieter Gruenberg an architect going into Ind Arts, applied for a first year bursary, and Mr. Von Stackleberg also applied for a bursary. It was moved that Kevin P. Lees' bursary application be approved in principle, that Mr. Gruenberg's application be refused and that the Supervisor of Instruction interview Mr. Von Stackleberg before final decision is made in regards to his bursary application. Carried

It was moved and carried that Wm Ozendnick and Joseph Fornal of Holden be aproved with their cars for emergency use.

The Superintendent's report indicated that the Building Supervisor required a Wet Vacuum Cleaner at Kinsella, and a Dry Vacuum Cleaner at Tofield. It was moved that the required vacuum cleaners be purchased. Carried unanimously.

The report referred to a proposed census of pre-school age children which was necessary to assist with educational planning, particularly as it relates to the school building programs. Moved and carried that the Supt. of Schools be directed to carry out a census of pre-school age children using the services available to each school, such census to be taken at the end of October.

The Committee was advised that, in regards to the Confederation Caravan that would be visiting Viking on Oct 12th, arrangements were made to have all the pupils in the County's schools visit this Caravan and that the Bus Supervisor had prepared a schedule which appeared to be quite satisfactory. In some instances, some students might be 10 to 15 minutes late in leaving their home school in the afternoon; however, it was not considered that this would be objectional.

Mr Bruce referred to a Canadian Centennial Medal 1967 to be awarded to one outstanding educator in the County, one nomination to be allowed. A Committee consisting of one representative from the School Committee and one from the Local A.T.A., together with the Superintendent would meet to deal with this matter. It was moved that Cr. Roddick be appointed to this Committee and that the Committee meets Oct. 10th at 9:00 a.m. in the County office.

Cr. Gibson referred to the west bus garage at Holden and stated that a new roof was required. He also suggested that a cement floor should be put in two stalls that, at the present time have only a dirt floor. It was moved and carried that the work be done.

Art and Irlene Trent and son Tommy were Monday supper guests at the home of Howard and Mae Ferguson.

Mrs. Joe Brown and other members of the Brown family are extended sympathy on the death of her husband Joe Brown on the past weekend. Funeral services were held on Monday from the Anglican Church in Tofield with burial in the Tofield Cemetery.

Carl and Mavis Jacobsen and little daughter Karen and Mavis's father Julius Jacobson of Edmonton were on a four-day motor trip to Banff leaving home on Saturday, October 21st. They motored to Calgary and were Saturday overnight guests at the home of Lina and Jim Carveth. While there Lina's father and brother, Eric Anderson and son Roy called in the evening. Mr. Anderson and family were former McKenzie district residents and Lina and Eric were school friends of Mavis and Carl.

Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of John and Mary Wood were John's sister Esther and Joe Majakey. Mary's nephew Harold Bechel; John's cousin Mrs. Mabel Hannan; Billie Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, all of Edmonton were also visitors there.

Sunday visitors and supper guests at the home of Mrs. Ellen Eaton were her son Leroy and Shirley and children Marvie and Ronnie of Leduc and Ken Ross of Tofield. Leroy and Shirley were enroute home from visiting her mother Mrs. Vera Raper at Lavoy.

Clarice Jacobsen of the Royal Alexandra nursing staff spent the weekend of October 21st at the home of her parents Carl and Mavis Jacobsen, doing chores while they were on a motor trip to Banff and Calgary.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

On Sunday, Carl and Mavis Jacobsen entertained Carl's parents, Hans and Martha Jacobsen and Mavis's father Julius Jacobson, all of Edmonton at a birthday dinner and late afternoon luncheon in honor of their daughter Karen's birthday. Also home for the day was their daughter Donna.

Julius and Martha Jacobsen of Edmonton were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of their son Morley and Marjorie Jacobsen and family.

Mrs. Mavis Jacobsen helped her daughter Karen celebrate her birthday by entertaining seven of her girl friends Monday evening at a birthday party with birthday cake and other treats.

Mrs. Martha Tiedemann accompanied her daughter Yvonne and Peter Brown to Edmonton on Thursday of last week. While there they visited Mrs. Edward Brice, wife of the late Edward Brice, who was a lawyer and visited Tofield every week, later on every second week, for several years.

Emil Tiedemann became a patient in the Tofield Hospital on Sunday, where he will have treatment on a cut on his hand, which hasn't healed after some time, and also have a check-up following a severe cold or flu.

Modern etiquette

Q. May one properly phone one's acknowledgement of a gift?

A. This is better than no acknowledgement at all. But on the other hand, a nice, personally-written note of thanks seems to convey more interest and more sincere appreciation of the gift.

Q. How much jewelry should a bride wear?

A. This should be limited either to that which is functional, such as a pin needed to hold the dress together, to a strand of pearls, perhaps small gold or pearl earrings. A watch or bracelet should not be worn. The engagement ring may be worn on the RIGHT hand, or left at home until after the ceremony.

County School Committee meets October 16

Friday, October 16th

BUSINESS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

In regards to Lamont School Division and the Sagmoen child the Secretary-Treasurer reported that he had been in contact with the Secretary-Treasurer of the Lamont S.D. who had indicated that he would bring the matter of a reciprocal transportation agreement to his Board which was meeting today. It appeared that an agreement might be arranged. It was moved and carried that the report be accepted.

In regard to the sale of Bruce teacherage, motion 346 67, the Committee was advised that a second tender in the amount of $102 had been received from John Wincrura and that this tender had been accepted by the Council, the building to be removed by Dec. 1. Moved and carried that the report be accepted and action concurred in. In regards to tenders for school buses, motion 353/67, the following tenders had been received: Ron Hisey for bus #29, $100; Stan Fornal of Viking for bus #5, $80; E. L. Wilson of Tofield for bus #5, $132, and for bus #20, $178. It was moved that the tender submitted by E. L. Wilson of Tofield for the two buses in an amount of $306 be accepted. Carried unanimously.

In regards to the A.S.T.A Convention, the Sec.-Treas. reported that he had forwarded the registration to the A.S.T.A office and had as in former years designated Cr. J. H. Roddick as voting delegate and Cr. Kropelnicki as alternate voting delegate. Moved that the action be concurred in. Carried.

In regards to the School Design Workshop, motion 350/67, it was moved that Crs. Roddick and Kropelnicki represent the School Committee at this Workshop, together with the Supervisor of Buildings, Nick Shihinski and the Superintendent of Schools, M. S. Bruce. Carried.

Mr. T. Groves, Architect with the firm of Aberdeen Groves and Hodgson, attended the meeting at this time in connection with the proposed addition to the County office. Mr. Groves had visited the office at an earlier date and had discussed the requirements with the Sec.-Treas., and the Supt. of Schools. At this time Mr. Groves outlined to some extent what could be done with the present building and the situation was quite fully discussed while Mr. Groves was present and after he had retired. It was finally moved and carried that consideration be given to an addition to the County office with renovation of the present building.

Moved and carried that the firm of Aberdeen Groves and Hodgson, Architects, be appointed for the proposed work in the County office and that they be requested to draw preliminary sketch plans and estimates for presentation to the School Committee.

Due to the number of meetings and conventions slated for the month of November, it would not be possible to hold the School Committee meeting on the regular meeting day and it was moved and carried that the November School Committee meeting be held on Nov. 10.

It was moved and carried that letters of appreciation from Blaine Greenwood of Kinsella for having been chosen to take part in the Centennial Youth Travel Program last summer and from Tofield and Ryley Lions Clubs for the buses that had been sold to the clubs at a nominal cost, be received and filed.

It was also moved and carried that information from the Workmen's Compensation Board that the County had earned a merit rebate in the amount of $1 035 19 be received and filed.

A letter from the Alberta School Trustees Association to Mr. A. R. Cruss Assistant Sec.-Treas. of the County, inviting him to serve as a member of the administrator group on the Economic Council of the Association was referred to the Committee. It was moved that the information be accepted and Mr. Cruss's acceptance to act on the Economic Council be concurred in. Carried.

Information from the Alberta School Trustees Association, advising that a Conference with representatives of management and labour to be held on Oct 30, 31 and Nov. 1 in Edmonton, to review the Alberta Labour Act, was referred to the Committee. It was noted that Mr Cross would be attending at least part of the Conference, as the Conference concerned school administration. It was moved and carried that information be received and filed.

The Municipal Inspector's Report, concerning an inspection made on August 16, 1967, was referred to the Committee and it was moved and carried that the report be received and filed.

It was moved that the following bursary applications be approved: Elizabeth Jane Klein—elementary- first year; Joe Pozerniuk secondary (Ind. Arts) first year; Victor Petruk—secondary second year; Barbara Ann McArthur—secondary—second year; George Claude McArthur secondary, third year. Carried unanimously.

The Committee was advised that Mr Kevin P Lees who would obtain his B Ed. degree this year, had applied for a bursary. Mr. Dieter Gruenberg an architect going into Ind Arts, applied for a first year bursary, and Mr. Von Stackleberg also applied for a bursary. It was moved that Kevin P Lees' bursary application be approved in principle, that Mr. Gruenberg's application be refused and that the Supervisor of Instruction interview Mr. Von Stackleberg before final decision is made in regards to his bursary application. Carried.

It was moved and carried that Wm Ozrodnick and Joseph Fornal of Holden be aproved with their cars for emergency ...

The Superintendent's report indicated that the Building Supervisor required a Wet Vacuum Cleaner at Kinsella, and a Dry Vacuum Cleaner at Tofield. It was moved that the required vacuum cleaners be purchased. Carried unanimously.

The report referred to a proposed census of pre-school age children which was necessary to assist with educational planning, particularly as it relates to the school building programs. Moved and carried that the Supt. of Schools be directed to carry out a census of pre-school age children using the services available to each school, such census to be taken at the end of October.

The Committee was advised that, in regards to the Confederation Caravan that would be visiting Viking on Oct 12th, arrangements were made to have all the pupils in the County's schools visit this Caravan and that the Bus Supervisor had prepared a schedule which appeared to be quite satisfactory. In some instances, some students might be 10 to 15 minutes late in leaving their home school in the afternoon; however, it was not considered that this would be objectional.

Mr Bruce referred to a Canadian Centennial Medal 1967 to be awarded to one outstanding educator in the County, one nomination to be allowed. A Committee consisting of one representative from the School Committee and one from the Local A.T.A., together with the Superintendent would meet to deal with this matter. It was moved that Cr. Roddick be appointed to this Committee and that the Committee meets Oct. 10th at 9:00 a.m. in the County office.

Cr. Gibson referred to the west bus garage at Holden and stated that a new roof was required. He also suggested that a cement floor should be put in two stalls that, at the present time have only a dirt floor. It was moved and carried that the work be done.

Modern etiquette

Q. May one properly phone one's acknowledgement of a gift?

A. This is better than no acknowledgement at all. But on the other hand, a nice personally-written note of thanks seems to convey more interest and more sincere appreciation of the gift.

Q. How much jewelry should a bride wear?

A. This should be limited either to that which is functional, such as a pin needed to hold the dress together, to a strand of pearls, perhaps small gold or pearl earrings. A watch or bracelet should not be worn. The engagement ring may be worn on the RIGHT hand, or left at home until after the ceremony.

Thirty years ago

Lawrence Brausen, Camrose with a fine team of horses and cutter, taken over 30 years ago on the family homestead at Spring Lake, 40 miles southeast of the city. Mr. Brausen lived for 62 years on the same farm and experienced many changes in living and farming conditions during that time.

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

Life in the early days and changes experienced in 62 years on a farm

From sod house to log house to a frame dwelling and from breaking ground with oxen, then horses and finally with tractor power. These are changes that have taken place in the lifetime of Lawrence Brausen, 67, of Camrose. Other farmers will have experienced them, but he went through all of them while living on the same original homestead for 62 years.

In 1904, Lawrence was brought by his parents with their family of four more boys and four sisters from Buckland, Minn. They settled at Spring Lake, 40 miles southeast of Camrose. The nearest post office is now at Ackerton. When he was eight years old, Lawrence was driving the four oxen while his Dad held the walking breaking plow. His father had brought horses, some cattle, wagons, sleighs and hardwood lumber from the U.S. as well as machinery such as the walking plow, "foot burner" as it was fondly termed", gang plow, 6-ft. binder, two sections of harrows and a grinder. The horses were not acclimatized. The imported mares can reacted swamp fever and died from eating swamp grass so the Brausens broke Shorthorn steers and bulls to do the work. This was not always easy as proved by an incident and an ingenious remedy.

CATS MOVE OXEN

A couple of oxen being broken decided they'd had enough. They lay down in a slough and refused to move. Finally one of the family fetched a couple of farm cats and set them on the oxen's backs. The cats preferred to stay there rather than risk the alternative of jumping into the water. A little bit of cat-tail-pulling and their claws dug into the backs of the reluctant ruminants. They promptly got up to get rid of them!

Lawrence was the youngest son and he remembers driving with two sisters to the East Lynne school, four miles from their home, in a "road cart" pulled by a single ox.

The imported grinder was operated by a pair of men walking in a circle to grind the feed. Neighboring homesteaders often took grain to the Brausen place for that purpose.

The Brausens gradually acquired a sufficient number of horses to take the place of oxen. There were calves that had become accustomed to the environment and others purchased as horses became more powerful in the area. They sold the oxen and Lance now remembers a team of oxen as the most valuable for $300 — a high price in the day.

TOUGH TRIP

And so the early days were like Lawrence said. Maybe it was a little tougher. But in the finish, it all seemed enough. Crops, stock and family. Life, on a good health even if he will admit, when rain stops the soil will stop. All specific hail to be hauled from Wetaskiwin. If, for example Mr Brausen Sr., and his older sons left the homestead with a couple of wagons on a Monday, they were lucky if they got back by the Saturday. The trail meandered around sloughs. Pipestone Creek had to be negotiated even in flood without any bridges across it and temperatures of 35, 30 and 40 below for weeks on end were experienced. Fortunately, for heating purposes, it was possible then to dig their own coal about six miles from the homestead on the shoreline of the Battle River.

HALF-WAY HOUSE

It is interesting that, originally in the sod house days, the Brausen home became known as the "Half-way House". People travelling, perhaps freighting goods from Wetaskiwin to Hastings Condor, often spend the night there, maybe live at a time walking down on the floor.

When they began to get sufficient crops of oats and barley to sell some, the Brausens took them first to Daysland an, in 1908 a track was laid to that point from Wetaskiwin. The grain was loaded off a scale on a platform into the railroad cars. Later, when the CNR passed through Asserton, they were able to load grain there until soon afterwards, an elevator was erected.

From the age of 13, Lawrence farmed with his father and on the latter's passing in 1927, took over the south half of 19-43-18. Before the tractor era, he would

Have you ever wondered...

... how it is determined who receives how much welfare assistance from the Province of Alberta?

To ensure that Alberta families truly in need receive the financial assistance required to provide them with an adequate living income, their requirements are judged on the "budget deficit" system. This method balances the cost of such basic requirements as food, shelter, clothing, utilities and medicines against the family assets and income. If the results show a deficit, the Alberta Department of Public Welfare supplements the income to raise it to a pre-determined "adequate" level, based on present living costs. In this way, all Albertans are assured of sufficient income to maintain health and decency for themselves and their families.

... what the recipe is for good growing soil?

As in all recipes, the main concern is the proper amount of the correct ingredients. Alberta farmers can learn if the soil in their field contains the proper proportions of plant nutrients by asking the Soils Branch of the Plant Industry Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture. For a small fee, they can have a sample of soil laboratory-tested for fertility level, fertilizer requirements, acidity, alkalinity, salinity and organic matter. A report is then issued, based on the results of the analysis and on the cropping history of the land, recommending to the farmer the proper fertilizer needs, or the cultural practice adjustments necessary for the most efficient crop production. The same service is offered Albertans who wish advice on the soil of their vegetable or flower gardens, or lawns. The Soils Branch also issues regularly, general recommendations for the use of fertilizer with various types of soil.

... what steps are being taken to prevent mental health problems in Alberta?

Trained personnel teams consisting of psychiatrists, psychologists and social workers travel the provinces from Guidance Clinic headquarters in major population centres to assess and diagnose mental problems and to recommend solutions. This assistance in the management of emotional and behavior problems of children and adults is provided by the Mental Health Division of the Alberta Department of Health and is available to schools, parents and doctors, without charge. Appointments can be made through school superintendents, doctors or local health units. The Division maintains residential treatment centres for disturbed children where rehabilitation training and recreation are provided by a professional staff, and operates out-patient clinics at the Guidance Clinics. The Mental Health Division also administers the pan under which patients in mental hospitals are provided with hospital and medical care at a cost of $1 to $1.50 per day.

... what it takes, besides "a heap-o-livin'", to make a house a home?

Every homemaker knows that the house she is building, remodelling, or occupying, should be designed to suit her conveniences, decorated to please her taste, and managed to the best of her ability. To be sure that all three objectives are achieved, Alberta is major population centres to assess and diagnose mental problems and to recommend solutions. ... how far ahead you must be able to see to plan Alberta's power requirements?

At least six years into the future, because it takes about five years to progress from "decision-to-build" to "power-producing-plant". Planning several years ahead of time for new power plants and the major transmission lines that connect them with the existing system is vital to providing sufficient power to meet the needs of Alberta's growing industry. This "electrical forecasting" is done by the Alberta Power Commission, a section of the Alberta Department of Industry and Development. Not only must the Commission decide when and where new plants are to be built but it must also coordinate the efforts of the various private industrial corporations which share in installing new power sources. The over-all supervision of the Alberta Power Commission eliminates duplication of effort and equipment and encourages the interchange of power between companies, thus keeping the cost of power as low as possible.

... who bears today's responsibility for Alberta's tomorrow?

Alberta's future depends on the people who live in our province right now. It is their potential and their development which are the basic raw materials from which tomorrow must be constructed. The responsibility for providing every Albertan with the opportunity to develop his personal potential to the fullest lies with three newly-created agencies of the Province of Alberta. The intention of the Human Resources Research Council is to undertake social, educational and economic research so that new and improved programs may provide this opportunity to individuals and communities throughout the province. The Alberta Advisory Council, formed of Alberta citizens whose interests include both the economic and social aspects of life in the province, will act as a sounding board for new ideas and will assess the value of present programs. The co-ordinating body for the project is the Human Resources Development Authority. Together, these three bodies form an organization whose firm intention is to create the greatest possible opportunity for the personal potential development of every Albertan.

give your heating system a safety check-up!

Normally, your natural gas appliances and heating system operate with little care or maintenance. However, an annual check-up will ensure full efficient operation and complete comfort. To help you inspect your heating system, use this handy guide.

CHECK YOUR CHIMNEY:
Loose mortar, soot, and other debris may accumulate at the base of the chimney obstructing free passage of the products of combustion. Watch that ice and snow on top of the chimney do not cause blockage.

RANGES SHOULD NOT BE USED TO HEAT A ROOM
Do not use your kitchen range to heat a room. Use a proper heater designed for the purpose

CHECK ALL VENT PIPES:
Examine all appliance vent pipes to be sure vent connections are tight and that pipes are free from obstruction

BE ALERT TO DANGER SIGNALS:
Smarting of the eyes, nose irritation and unpleasant odors are indications of fumes in your home.

FRESH AIR SOURCE:
Be sure there is a source of fresh air in your home. Do not make your house "air-tight". Your gas appliances, like you, need air.

Mrs. Ronning passes Friday

Surrounded by her husband, Dr. C. A. Ronning, and all their six children, Mrs. Inga Ronning passed away quietly on Friday at St. Mary's Hospital. She was 73 years at the time of her death, making a colorful life she had lived in many of the countries of the world with her husband.

Born in Niteville, Minnesota, to Anton Horte and Ingrid Ingebretson on June 2, 1893, Inga Horte came to Canada with her parents in 1898, settling in the Dovrede district, where her father started the first general store. In 1902 the family moved to Barde and Kingston, where Mr. Horte again started the first general store. Married in 1914 they moved to Valhalla to conduct a similar business.

Inga was married to Valhalla to Chester Ronning in 1913 and, after his discharge from the Royal Flying Corps at the end of World War I, the couple resided in Edmonton for three years, where Mr. Ronning taught school. Moving to China, he was engaged in Education work until 1927, when they came to Camrose where he became president of the Camrose Lutheran College until 1946. For three years Mr. Ronning was with the Canadian Air Force Intelligence Service, after which he and his wife were elected for twenty years, living during that time in Norway (where he was Canadian Ambassador), China (where he was Charge d'Affairs), India (where he was High Commissioner), and Geneva and New York City (with the United Nations).

Dr. Ronning retired in 1961, and he and his wife returned to their home in Camrose, where they have been members of Mosvick Lutheran Church (formerly Camrose Lutheran) for 25 years. Mrs. Ronning's favourite hobby was painting, and their home has many of her paintings, including some from India.

Mrs. Ronning leaves to mourn: her husband; six children, Sylvia (Mrs. Harry Cassidy) teacher in Camrose, Alton, RCAF Pilot stationed in Edmonton, Bernice (Helma) whose husband, David Westlund, is in the United States Navy in Rockville, Maryland, Audrey (Mrs. Seymour Topping) with the New York Times in New York City, Karyn (Mrs. Thomas Ronneng), Hegal Norwegian Embassy, at Washington, D.C., and Harmon, Pilot in Air Canada, living in Vancouver. There are 22 grandchildren; two brothers, Chris Horte of Bellamy Home and Harry Horte in Valhalla.

Funeral Services were held Monday, October 30, at Messiah Lutheran Church, with Rev. Carl Kong, cast officiating, and interment in the Camrose Cemetery. Jacobsen's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

have as many as 100 head of Hereford beef cattle and about 25 horses. There is plenty free range country there, both helped along with some re ed land.

HOMESTEAD STILL OWNED

Although Lawrence sold his livestock and land, all but a half section, and came to live in Camrose in 1946, he still retains or to grow a crop of timothy hay. The frame house built in 1909 by Charlie Smith is still there, as his wife, the former Arabella MacPherson of Asbestos, will go to the farm and "put in a garden".

Lawrence complains "There's nothing to do in the city", and he hasn't taken to travel, only once having been out of Alberta into the neighboring province of Saskatchewan.

Holden K of C hosts huge Centennial party

Holden Community Hall was the scene of a most colorful and successful event, Friday, Nov. 3, when the Knights of Columbus Lodge held a Centennial Dance and Raffle, with a large crowd in attendance.

The dance was opened when Holden's Centennial Queen Bess and her Princesses, Misses Veronica Kaluzny and Colleen Appleby, all in their lovely Centennial gowns and tiaras were escorted to the stage by Harry Christian, who introduced them with appropriate words to the assembly.

Queen Bess, in her gracious and friendly manner, very warmly thanked the hosts for having the pleasure of attending the party, saying that it looked as though it might be one of the nicest "get-togethers" in this Centennial year, and she also thanked all for the kindness shown her during the year's activities.

She remarked that "the warmth and friendliness of a small town is such a beautiful God-like thing, something you seldom find in a large city, and the fellowship and warm ties in one's churches and lodges are so much closer and sincere . . . we get to really know each other, and that is one of the greatest privileges of a small town I understand the four principles of your Lodge are 'Unity, Charity, Fraternity and Patriotism'—noble qualities, indeed".

Princess Veronica thanked all for the pleasure of being able to assist in opening the dance, and of being Centennial Princess; also the honor of representing the K. of C. during Centennial year.

Princess Colleen thanked the hosts for the pleasure of being able to attend, and of being a Centennial Princess, which she had greatly enjoyed

Queen Bess was then presented with a beautiful bouquet of red roses and fern, and the Princesses with lovely pink carnations and fern bouquets.

The dance then commenced, and it was a most pleasant sight, the Hall still having the lovely Centennial decorations from the opening Centennial celebration, and most of the ladies wearing beautiful and colorful Centennial gowns.

Before the supper hour, Queen Bess was again escorted to the stage and drew the winning ticket on the raffle of a Portable T-V. This was won by Mr. Mathews, a teacher at Holden School, who was not present for the draw.

Doll raffle to aid Tofield junior sports

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

The joint committee formed by various adult organizations in Tofield, to support junior sports, is sponsoring a raffle for the Centennial Doll, complete with Centennial costumes made by Mrs. Boyles.

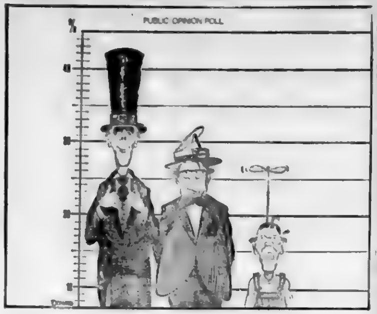
This doll has adorned Robinson's window since early spring and may still be seen there

You may be too old, or of the wrong sex, to play with dolls, but a lucky ticket will supply you with a wonderful Christmas present for some little girl.

The boys will soon be around with the tickets. Support them and, thus, support Junior Sports.

Message by a queen

Queen Bess of Holden voices the thanks of herself and members of her Royal Family, for the exciting year that they have had, to the Knights of Columbus and their guests, at a K of C Centennial Party in Holden last week. With Queen Bess are Princesses Veronica Kaluzny (left) and Colleen Appleby (right). —The Mercury Newsphoto.



In remembrance

Remembrance Day services will be held all across the land on Saturday, as people from all walks of life gather to pay tribute to the brave men who died in two World Wars, so that we can today, live in a free and democratic country.

War is a horrible tragedy, as these men learned, as did the people living in the nations where the battles raged. Scenes of some of those battles are shown every year in movies and on television to bring to everyone the grim reminder that death is the close companion of every soldier in every war. [illegible]

[illegible] sire the power of absolute rule. Already, because of this warped desire, we have already had two major conflicts that threatened to destroy the world, and unless man learns to live in peace with his neighbor, the horror could be repeated for a third, and possibly fatal time.

On Saturday, when we bow our heads in prayer of thanksgiving to these heroic men whose lives were forfeit in the cause of freedom, we should all vow that peace must become our way of life. That never again, will families weep because a husband, father or son will never return. Let every person work and pray, that someday in the not too distant future, the world will live in friendship and harmony. In this way our loved ones will not have died in vain.

Muscular Dystrophy

Since his early days, man has known disease, and has fought to learn how to control his many illnesses. With every passing day more and more of these dreaded killers and maimers of men are brought under control, and somewhere in the future man may live without pain or fear of death because of disease.

Many illnesses and diseases do not strike until late in life, but unfortunately, [illegible] can strike the very young. [illegible] Muscular Dystrophy [illegible] starved and waste away, and suddenly cease to function. MD is a disease in which you can watch the approach of death and know that it must and will happen. At the present time death cannot be avoided.

Research into this awful disease continues every day and hopefully a complete cure may someday be forthcoming. But research costs money and money sometimes [illegible]

Each year at this time, members of fire departments across the [illegible] fund raising drives to raise the money for research [illegible] dreaded disease. Everyone should contribute [illegible]

MacDuff Ottawa report

OTTAWA — Quebec [illegible] Daniel Johnson, with his recent cabinet changes, has taken another step in the elaborate ritual folk dance of French-English relations in Canada.

The Premier had already committed his Government to work for a greater Quebec within a greater Canada, and this removed some of the uncertainty and uneasiness about Quebec.

Now he has disappointed a tough businessman Marcel Faribault as his Cabinet's chief adviser on economic and constitutional affairs. This step is being almost universally interpreted as a further attempt to reassure English-Canada about the basic stability of Quebec and of Mr. Johnson's National Union Government.

At the same time Mr. Johnson appears to have suppressed some of the more extremist ministers in his Cabinet, at least for the time being. There is strong evidence also that his Cabinet changes were made after at least indirect consultation with Prime Minister Pearson.

It is still rather difficult to determine whether this ritual dance is a dance of war or a dance of love. But it is encouraging to note that practically all the gestures made recently by the Quebec and Federal Governments have been conciliatory, rather than hostile.

Mr. Faribault, for his part, says he hopes to work for an economy "that is Canadian and North American". He promises fewer slogans and ultimatums from Quebec.

At the same time, he notes with satisfaction that "more and more Federal politicians tend to recognize the need for profound changes in the Constitution".

Mr. Faribault is right when he suggests that the Quebec government has not been participating in a solo dance. In the past six months Federal movements, while perhaps not as graceful as they might be, have certainly been expressive.

A Bill of Rights Conference which six months ago Mr. Pearson suggested would be a rather [illegible] affair, has now blossomed [illegible] constitutional conference.

When it takes place in January [illegible] premiers in [illegible] deal with any [illegible]

Further [illegible] the Federal Government [illegible] come to the conference [illegible] with a carefully [illegible]

[illegible] Department. A special task force under Mr. Goldenberg has been working for months on a federal constitutional position to be presented to the provinces in concrete terms next year.

The Federal Government evidently intends to propose a new initiative to create a national [illegible] commission in Ottawa, and stronger efforts to promote a bilingual public service.

Specifically, there will be a draft Bill of Rights which the Federal Government will ask all provinces to adopt. This Bill of Rights would guarantee civil liberties and individual rights, and hopefully would entrench the language and education rights all across Canada of French and English-speaking Canadians.

Civil liberties, education and language rights, are main areas of provincial supremacy. The Federal Government's ambitious plans in these areas depend almost entirely on what the provinces are prepared to do.

At the moment we don't really know what the provinces individually or collectively are prepared to do. All we've had are impatient demands from Quebec, grand but general proposals from Ottawa, some cautious comments from premiers.

The Roberts' Conference hopefully will bring the first breath of realism into what until now has been a sometimes engaging and sometimes exasperating dance of the deux nations.

Barney Halpin, editor of Rimbey's first newspaper, The Pioneer, looks back on the old days and recalls the [illegible] which caused him to leave town. He ran an advertisement in one issue which listed property for sale in the area now known as the "new townsite" and this found disfavour with the [illegible] townspeople who thought he was advocating moving the townsite, got fired up one evening and wrecked his print shop. It was shortly after this that he gave up on Rimbey and left to publish a newspaper in another town.

Dunamel may have the marks of a U.F.O., as reported some time ago, but several residents of Hanna report seeing an unidentified flying object a couple of weeks later. The [illegible] is [illegible] to have been streaking across the sky from a southwest to northeasterly direction. It was a bluish color, and of course disappeared in a matter of seconds. Here again nobody has been able to come up with a logical answer as to the object's identity.

And while we are talking about U.F.O.'s, the best description of one must go to a Lacombe resident. It was reported in the Lacombe Globe, but unfortunately the clipping went astray and so I will have to rely on memory for details. As I remember it, the U.F.O. was sighted outskirts of Lacombe by a resident who was riding a bicycle along a road. It followed him for quite some distance and while [illegible] the [illegible] The U.F.O. eventually took off [illegible] disappearing at very high speed.

25TH ANNIVERSARY

The Polska Hall, south Holden district, was the scene of a reception and banquet on Saturday, Oct. 21, in honor of Mr. and Mrs John Kawaljak, who were happily celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. The hall was filled to capacity with relatives, friends and neighbours from far and near to wish them many more years of happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Wawaliak received many beautiful gifts, and they both very graciously thanked all for the gifts, kindness and well-wishes. The evening was spent in dancing, with music supplied by the John Bilyk orchestra.

PIONEER GROUP MEETING

The Pioneer Group held their regular monthly meeting Thursday, Nov. 2, at the home of Mrs. Peter Jakabow, with 16 ladies, members and guests, present. They were also pleased to have Mrs. Doris Story of Edmonton, one of the old-time members, present. Devotions were taken by Mrs. Reinhold Lutz, and a chapter in the study book was taken and discussed. Sewing materials were also given out to members. Next meeting will be held at the home of Miss June Clark, with Mrs Mary Zwierschke taking the devotions.

Dr. and Mrs. Jan Stefanicik of Vegreville were among out-of-town guests attending the K. of C. Centennial Dance, held Friday evening in the Holden Community Hall.

VISITOR FROM B.C.

Ed Knudson of the south Ryley district was in the Village on Wednesday of last week, and an afternoon visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols. Along with him was his wife's mother, Mrs. Bergman of Vancouver, who is visiting her family. Mrs. Bergman and her family were neighbors of Mr. Nichols and family in Saskatchewan and they enjoyed talking over olden times. Mrs. Bergman visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nichols for a few days, Roy taking her over to the Ed Knudson home on Saturday afternoon.

Several ladies from Holden and district attended the shower held in Bruce a week ago for Miss Gail Fredricks, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Irvin Fredricks, whose wedding to Gordon Chamulke takes place November 18th.

Mrs. Olive Good and her aunt, Mrs. Ella Bryan of Winnipeg, who is visiting with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Ritland, were Thursday afternoon visitors in Edmonton, and guests with Mr. and Mrs. David Good and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols visited for the day, Sunday, with their family, Mr and Mrs. Ralph Gorrie and children, at Lac La Biche.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barlow were Saturday afternoon guests with Mrs Campbell. Mrs. Barlow had been confined to her home for the past week with a severe attack of influenza.

Lots of people know a good thing the minute the other fellow sees it.

Hastings Lake

(Mrs. B. Gladue)

HASTINGS LAKE — The Social Credit group met at the home of Mrs. R. Peterson on Wednesday, November 1st, when they decided to begin the whist drives on November 18th.

The Hall Board met on October 30th, when a report was given on the cash bingo held October 28th. Final plans were made for the annual Christmas grocery bingo to be held December 1st, at which time the 50-50 raffle will be drawn for. Tickets may be obtained from hall board members.

Several families attended the bazaar at Ministik, and reported a fine time. Mrs. A. Rowland was one of the lucky winners of a grocery hamper.

Proudly Introducing
Your Alberta Junior Citizens of the Centennial Year!

Calgary Power is proud to present this year's winners of Junior Citizen of the Year awards. Any act of courage, initiative or merit qualifies a young person or a group for this award. To be named a winner is a true achievement!

The six individuals and one group chosen this year were outstanding among the many boys and girls nominated. During this Centennial year, it is especially gratifying to see so many people working together to give enterprising young Albertans the recognition they deserve!

GROUP AWARD:
Winners of the group award were members of Class 91, Sherwood Heights School. They displayed good citizenship in undertaking 'Project MacDonald' to commemorate our Centennial year.

Calgary Power gratefully acknowledges the help and active participation of Alberta's newspaper editors who promote, organize and select the winners of this award. We also thank the many responsible men and women of our Alberta who sent in Junior Citizen of the Year nominations.
The Junior Citizen of the Year program is sponsored by Alberta's investor-owned electric utility companies.

Muscular Dystrophy

David Martin is one of the thousands of victims of muscular dystrophy, a mysterious disease that is wasting away his leg and arm muscles. There is no cure for MD yet, but The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada has spent more than three million dollars since 1951 to help medical science find a way to cure or prevent the disease. David has many friends also among Canada's firefighters, who will be calling on their neighbors this November during the "March for Muscular Dystrophy" asking them to help give David Martin and others like him a brighter future. —Photo: Lutz Dille.

Spilstead news briefs

Gertie Fairbrother fell and sprained her wrist quite badly on Wednesday.

Debbie Sware and Marilyn Fairbrother spent a very enjoyable Hallowe'en night in town with their little school chum, Beth Klassen.

The Trueman Fairbrother family moved into their new home last weekend.

Although the house is not quite finished, they are enjoying living in the finished part of the house and are continuing work on the unfinished area.

Spilstead ladies cancel fall sale

(Mrs. T. W. Fairbrother)

The regular monthly meeting of Spilstead Ladies Society was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Belcourt on November 1st.

As the renovations to the hall are still unfinished, it was decided to cancel the regular fall sale for this year and have a cash bingo instead. There will be a table of knitted items for sale at this time. The date set for this bingo is December 2nd and will be held at the hall. All efforts will be made to finish the hall by that date. Lunch will be served.

The next meeting of the Spilstead Ladies Society will be held at the home of Mrs. T. W. Fairbrother on Wednesday, December 6th.

League activities rife in fall and winter season

(Mrs. G. Phillips)

An unusually large attendance featured the regular November meeting of the Tofield Community League, Nov. 7, in the Tofield Community Centre, with president Jack Lampitt in the chair.

It was reported that repairs to the roof of the Centre have been completed, at a cost to the League of $990. The next project concerned with the care of the Centre is an interior painting job. This may be combined with a cleaning "bee".

A Variety Bingo will be sponsored by the League, under the direction of Bert Everett and Jack Whyte on November 15. This is one of the regular monthly bingos being held by the League; the following one will be December 6.

Jack Hardy and Hans Christensen have consented to remain as the League's representatives to the group sponsoring the Boy Scouts in Tofield. The League is a co-sponsor of this international youth group.

"CHARITABLE" STATUS

The League has been granted status as a charitable organization by the Federal Government. This enables anyone making a donation to the League to use his donation as in income tax deduction. To attain this status the League was required to provide information about the services it has rendered to the community and to pass a bylaw which states that "on dissolution of the League, all its net assets shall become the property of the Town of Tofield". This bylaw was passed unanimously.

Hans Christensen, treasurer, gave the financial report for October and also stated that 23 persons were taking advantage of the Bookkeeping Course sponsored by the League and given by the Adult Education division of the Department of Extension.

SANTA'S VISIT

The younger section of Tofield's population will be interested in the fact that arrangements are being made to have Santa Claus come to Tofield to meet his little friends on December 2 at the Community Centre. This was reported by John Beergen and Chick Blacklock, who requested the League's permission to use the hall and the usual donation towards expenses. Both requests were granted.

Tofield's Annual Christmas Carol Festival will again be organized by George and Mildred McFadzean, and will be held in the Community Centre on December 14.

The president reported that a Teen-dance will be held in the Centre on November 17, beginning at 10:15, an Edmonton orchestra will provide the music.

At either the League's annual meeting, on January 15, or at its regular December 5 meeting, it is hoped to have a speaker from the Department of Extension to speak on Community projects and Leadership.

The nominating committee for a slate of officers for 1968 will consist of Bill Christensen, Arnold Swift and Alan Warner.

Jack Whyte, chairman of the Theatre committee, reported that attendance at the shows had shown a slight improvement during October, and that about $30 per show had been cleared.

The president noted that the Centre had been in more frequent use lately, and hoped the trend continued. Tofield is fortunate to have such a large, well-equipped Community Centre.

Muscular Dystrophy

David Martin is one of the thousands of victims of muscular dystrophy, a mysterious disease that is wasting away his leg and arm muscles. There is no cure for MD yet, but The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada has spent more than three million dollars since 1951 to help medical science find a way to cure or prevent the disease. David has many friends also among Canada's firefighters, who will be calling on their neighbors this November during the "March for Muscular Dystrophy" asking them to help give David Martin and others like him a brighter future. – Photo: Lutz Dille.

Spilstead news briefs

(Mrs. T. W. Fairbrother)

Mrs. Des Brown and two girls of Mission, B.C. recently visited her aunts, Mrs. Art Hoflin and Mrs. Louisa Winder. While she was here, they all spent an evening at the Willie Bjorgum home.

Little Marcy Erickson visited the grade 1 class at Kingman School on Monday.

Louisa Winder and Brian and Claudette Winder and Larry, visited Tillie Winder recently.

Sherry and Gi-gi Belcourt and Doreen and Larry Mitchell spent a day with Ernest and Bertha Belcourt and boys.

Gertie Fairbrother fell and sprained her wrist quite badly on Wednesday.

Debbie Sware and Marilyn Fairbrother spent a very enjoyable Hallowe'en night in town with their little school chum, Beth Klassen.

The Trueman Fairbrother family moved into their new home last weekend.

Although the house is not quite finished, they are enjoying living in the finished part of the house and are continuing work on the unfinished area.

Spilstead ladies cancel fall sale

(Mrs. T. W. Fairbrother)

The regular monthly meeting of Spilstead Ladies Society was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Belcourt on November 1st.

As the renovations to the hall are still unfinished, it was decided to cancel the regular fall sale for this year and have a cash bingo instead. There will be a table of knitted items for sale at this time. The date set for this bingo is December 2nd and will be held at the hall. All efforts will be made to finish the hall by that date. Lunch will be served.

The next meeting of the Spilstead Ladies Society will be held at the home of Mrs. T. W. Fairbrother on Wednesday, December 6th.

The annual fall bazaar sponsored by the Ministik Ladies' Club was once again a huge success. Mrs. Andrew Ferguson, the convenor was most pleased at the good attendance and for all the help she received. The $15 gift certificate was won by Miss Ann McMahon of Edmonton, and the $10 one by Mrs. Mae McIntyre of the local store. Food hamper winners were Mrs. Arthur Rowland, Mrs. Claude Leach and Mrs. Greta Sulser, the latter from Edmonton.

LAKESHORE - McKENZIE — The Lakeshore UCW will hold their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Glen (Theone) Jones on Wednesday afternoon November 15th at 2:30 p.m. Talent money should all be paid in this month so all reports can be sent in for this year.

25TH ANNIVERSARY

George and Ida Niemetz and Art and Irlene Trent from this district were among some 80 guests attending the 25th wedding anniversary of Johnny and Stella Kosak at their home in Edmonton. Both Johnny and Stella were former residents of this district. Johnny was a student at the Lakeshore school and Stella attended the McKenzie school.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs Ethel Wood and Mrs Mary Wood went to Edmonton Tuesday morning where they attended the funeral of Ethel's sister-in-law, Fran Baine's father, Mr. Chaplin, who passed away during the weekend. Ethel returned home Tuesday evening, while Mary stayed and was an overnight guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vic (Evis) Halwa.

Leroy and Shirley Eaton and Margie, of Leduc were Sunday supper guests at the home of Leroy's mother, Mrs Ellen Eaton, enroute home from visiting relatives at Lavoy.

Mrs Irlene Sieb, Mrs. Mabel Hauer, Mrs Mae Ferguson, Mrs Doris Schacher, Mrs. Lil Van-Buskirk, Mrs Bernie Schacher and her daughter, Mrs Joyce Hardy, all gathered at the home of Mrs Mickey Niemetz on Monday afternoon helping celebrate Mickey and Mabel's birthdays.

Charlie and Mickey Niemetz were Saturday evening visitors at the home of Mickey's sister, Helen and Joe Martin.

Mrs. Ellen Eaton was a Tuesday evening visitor at the home of George and Ida Niemetz.

Earl and Ann Jones and two children were Sunday guests at the home of Lorne and Marg Berrecloth. Later in the evening, Johnny and Lillian Warwa and little son were also visitors there.

Hans and Martha Jacobsen of Edmonton were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their son Morley and Marjorie Jacobsen.

Emil Tiedemann returned home from the hospital on Saturday, feeling much better. His finger is now healing, although quite slowly.

Robert Goubault and daughter Judy of Drayton Valley were Wednesday dinner guests at the home of Robert's sister, Martha and Emil Tiedemann.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wiese of Pibroch were visitors at the home of Elmer and Vi Geoglein from Sunday to Wednesday of this week.

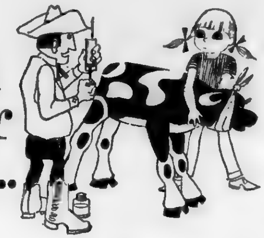
Have you ever wondered...



. . . where Alberta students can learn the "art" of hospitality?

During the summers, hundreds of Alberta students obtain employment in city stores, resort hotels, gas stations, golf courses, areas where they are bound to meet and serve the province's visitors. To prepare these young people for their responsibilities as representatives of the province to the tourist, a training in tourism course is sponsored each year by the Alberta Department of Youth. The Alberta School of Tourism provides a short course to help students improve their employability, increase their knowledge of the tourist industry and Alberta, and to aid them in promoting Alberta as a tourist area. Courses are offered in hospitality, professional ethics, tourism in Canada and public relations. Many a tourist from another province or another country has returned home highly impressed by the young Albertans who wear the pin which identifies graduates of the School of Tourism.

. . . how the Alberta farmer keeps up-to-date on modern agricultural techniques?

There are many links in the communication chain extending from the agricultural research laboratory, where new ideas are developed, to the working farmer, who puts them to practical use. One of the most important is the District Agriculturist. A respected member of the community he serves, the D.A. is a professional consultant whose years of training and experience are backed by the facilities of the University, the Canada Department of Agriculture and the Extension Division of the Alberta Department of Agriculture. He is an adviser not only on the techniques of more efficient farm production but also on the management of the farm as a family business. The D.A.'s office is a distribution center for information on newly-developed farming methods which are passed along to the farmer by means of personal contact, demonstration, short courses and clinics. Alberta farmers know that, if they need professional advice or assistance, it is no farther away than the office of the nearest D.A.

. . . what are the most important weapons in Alberta's war against tuberculosis?

The incidence of TB in our province is being controlled through early detection, adequate treatment and continuing contact, the three main functions of the Tuberculosis Division of the Alberta Department of Health. Early discovery of the disease is obtained through reports from family doctors, testing in schools and hospitals, and from two mobile X-ray units. Purchased by the Alberta TB Association and operated by the TB Division, these units provide a screening program throughout the province. If the X-rays show signs of TB or related diseases, further tests are made. Adequate treatment is given without charge to those suffering from the disease at the two provincial sanatoria. Patients are kept only as long as isolation is required, an average of five and a half months, then are returned home and continue their treatment as out-patients at the sanatoria or one of the 16 clinics at various locations in Alberta. A Central TB Registry fulfills the final function by keeping the Tuberculosis Division in contact with former patients to ensure they are continuing treatment if required.

. . . how the girls of Alberta are being taught to appreciate the great outdoors?

Any Alberta girl between the ages of 10 and 16 is eligible to learn forest conservation and wilderness survival as a member of the Girl Forest Guards. Similar in aims to the Junior Forest Warden Association, the Guards have now been transferred from the Department of Lands and Forests, to the Department of Youth. Presently there are five such clubs in the province with a total of 65 members. Under the leadership of local volunteers, the girls study the theory of conservation and resource management throughout the winter; undertake local beautification projects in the spring with tree, shrub and flower planting; and swing into even more practical instruction at a five-day camp during the summer. Attendance at the camp is an award for high achievement in the club. All expenses, with the exception of a $5 registration fee, are paid for by the Department of Youth, and resource people from the government act as lecturers and instructors. Forest biology, bush survival, use of map and compass, and fire fighting are a few of the subjects taught.

. . . what steps are being taken to assure a proper education for Alberta's blind children?

Although Alberta itself has no school for the blind, the province's blind children are assured of a complete education by the Special Educational Services of the Alberta Department of Education. Arrangements are made for those children applying to attend the Jericho Hill School for the Blind and Deaf, in Vancouver, or the Ontario School for the Blind in Brantford. Room, board, and tuition are all paid, and the children receive escorted transportation to school and home at the beginning and end of the term, and for the Christmas holidays. Where academic ability and personality make it possible, blind students are being removed from the special classes and enrolled in their own local schools, making it possible for them to live at home. Special teaching materials such as tape recordings and textbooks transcribed into Braille are provided by the Branch, which also assists teachers to assess the capabilities of their sightless students. In addition to aiding the blind gain an education, the Special Educational Services Branch also supervises and finances classes for the hard of hearing, those who have suffered partial loss of sight, and for all handicapped children in the prov-

. . . what is the most important step in the development of Alberta's natural resources?

The most important is that long, long step that joins the actual location of the resources with the areas in which they can be put to the best use. A natural resource is not an asset until it is developed and transportation is a vital aspect of this development. Formerly inaccessible areas of Alberta, rich in such resources as coking coal, gypsum, pulpwood, petroleum, natural gas and sulphur, are now being opened up by the construction of the Alberta Resources Railway. Being built by the Canadian National Railway and financed by the Alberta Resources Railway Corporation, a crown corporation of the province, the A.R.R. joins Solomon on the south with Grande Prairie on the north. The southern link with the C.N.R. mainline provides access not only to inland markets of Canada and the United States, but also to overseas markets through the west coast ports of Prince Rupert and Vancouver. The northern terminus at Grande Prairie will bring the rich agricultural area of the Peace River District 400 miles closer to west coast ports. Once complete, the A.R.R. will be leased and operated by the C.N.R. who may purchase the line at their option.

New Bardo church to be dedicated Nov. 19

Construction of the Bardo Lutheran Church of Tofield, located in the northeastern section of town is nearing completion. Work which began on June 12th, has been progressing favorably and it is planned to have the church ready for dedication on Sunday, November 19th.

Two or three carpenters have been on the job most of the time together with about five volunteer helpers. All that remains now is some of the interior finishing, floor coverings and painting. At present, the women are coming out in force and are doing the painting and the wood finishing.

As soon as the church is finished, the congregation will show its appreciation and rejoicing by opening the new house of worship with a series of meetings beginning Friday evening at 7:30. At the service, the key will be presented, a youth rally will be held Saturday evening, but the highlite will come on Sunday afternoon, when Dr. S. T. Jacobson of Saskatoon will dedicate the new church.

Ryley wins championship for 4th consecutive year

Ryley defeated Holden 20-0 on October 26th in the second game of a two-game total point series to win the County football championship for the fourth consecutive year.

The first game was tied 27-27 on October 24th. Scoring for Ryley in their victory game were Lorne Lehman with a touchdown and two conversions and Warren Kushnir and Donald Widman each with a touchdown. The defence as well as the offence of Ryley played a very strong game.

The three top scorers for Ryley this year were Lorne Lehman, Warren Kushnir and Bob Dueck with 64, 54 and 40 points each respectively. The Ryley players would like to thank all the teachers who refereed for the games this year. A special vote of thanks for coaches, Mr. Stashko, and Mr. Lysio.

Modern etiquette

Q. Some of my friends, upon seeing the announcement of my engagement in the newspaper, have written me notes of good wishes. Am I supposed to reply to these?

A. While not absolutely necessary to write notes, it would be nice if you phoned these friends and thanked them for their kindness.

Q. Is it considered poor form for a woman, at her second marriage, to have three or four bridesmaids?

A. Yes. The second marriage should be as simple and informal as possible, and the bride should have only one attendant.

Q. Must a guest at a christening bring a gift for the new baby?

A. Not obligatory—but customary.

Q. When eating prunes, should the fruit be cut from the pit in the dish, or may the whole prune be taken into the mouth, and then the pit removed from the mouth to the saucer with the spoon?

A. It is better to cut the prune in half, and leave the pit on the plate.

Remembrance Day observed in Holden, Ryley and Tofield

Remembrance Day services were held on Saturday at Holden, Ryley and Tofield despite adverse weather conditions. There was about an inch of snow on the ground, the weather was cool, and snow fell in widely scattered flurries in all three communities.

RYLEY

Remembrance Day services were held at the Cenotaph and the Ryley Community Hall on Saturday morning.

Veterans of both world wars paraded to the Cenotaph under the direction of Parade Marshall Bob Westmacott, where wreaths were laid by Elmer Anderson, representing World War I Veterans, and by Mrs. Elmer Anderson, representing the veterans of World War II. Last Post and Reveille was sounded by bugler Lorne Booth.

Walter Stewart was in charge of the Color Party, which was composed of John Campbell, Grant Brimstead, Mrs. Julia Anderson and Mrs Mildred Stenhurf.

After the services at the Cenotaph members of the parade, along with other members of the community went to the Ryley Community Hall for services held under the direction of Pastor Stanley Rude.

Following the services, the community were guests of the Legion at a buffet luncheon at the Legion Hall.

HOLDEN

Remembrance Day was observed by members of the Holden Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion and Ladies Auxiliary, members with the Sea Cadets, Boy Scouts and Cubs, Girl Guides and Brownies taking part in the parade.

Four Sea Cadets comprised the Guard of Honor at the Cenotaph.

Laying wreaths in the memory of those departed ones were: for the Legion, past president Comrade Hans Brekstad; Legion Ladies Auxiliary, past president Mrs. Hazel Armstrong; provincial government, Mr. Earl Hardy; village of Holden, deputy mayor John Semeniuk; BPO Elks, DDGER Lyle Grouland; Holden District Sea Cadets, Lt. William Taylor.

Gerald Ruskenveld played the Last Post and then the Reveille assisted by the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bilyk, Grand playing the trumpet and Gregory the drum for the march to the Community Hall where the Remembrance Day service was held.

The Prayer of Remembrance was given by Mr. R. Bateman with Father Lesyusky giving the scripture reading and Rev. F. Becker delivering the address.

A choir from the United Church led in singing the hymns Father Adams then giving the benediction and the service closing with "God Save the Queen."

Bardo church erected; dedication this Sunday

The Bardo Lutheran Church congregation have been busy constructing their new church in the south-eastern section of town these past six months, and are now busy in another phase as they are planning their dedication festivities.

The doors of the new church will be opened Friday evening, Nov. 17, at 7:30, when Building superintendent Ed Hoffman of Camrose will turn the keys over to the president, Lester Severson, after which Pastor Henry Hinners, a former pastor of the congregation and presently Chaplain of Bethany Home at Camrose, will be giving the message.

Saturday evening has been set aside for Youth, when Pastor Raymond Olson of St. Albert will be giving the message at the Youth Rally, to begin at 7:30.

Sunday, Nov. 19, will be the highlight of dedication week. Morning worship will begin at 10:45, with Pastor Gordon Hendrickson in charge of the Congregation, having reached here until he entered seminary.

At 11:45 the official cornerstone laying ceremonies will be observed, with Dr. S. T. Jacobson, V.P. of ELCC, of Saskatoon, officiating.

After this the local LCW are prepared to serve dinner to all who have come to help celebrate dedication.

The afternoon service will begin at 2:30, with Dr S. T. Jacobson, V.P. of ELCC, of Saskatoon, officiating.

Hutterite colony to be established near Holden??

There is a strong possibility that a new Hutterite Community will be established near Holden in the near future.

Hutterites have taken out options on 4,400 acres of land located one mile south and one mile west of the town, and have applied to the Communal Property Board for permission to purchase the land.

In many instances, Hutterite colonies are not established peacefully. Many citizens raise storms of protest, and exert all efforts to prevent their formation. Already, the pros and cons of the situation are flying through the entire area.

The Holden Chamber of Commerce has called a public meeting in the Holden Community Hall for Thursday, Nov. 23, beginning at 8:00 p.m. The decision of the Communal Property Board is expected to be in attendance at this meeting.

Bess becomes authoress

Holden's Centennial Queen, Bess Campbell, is no one to rest on her laurels, making public appearance and, in general, leading the sort of life that one usually accustoms to members of royalty.

On the contrary, Queen Bess, as a centennial project, has written a book entitled "Memories of Yesteryear", which is a history of the United Church in Holden from its beginning right up to the present day.

In addition to the history of the United Church, much of the social history of the beginning of Holden, and the story of the area down through the years is contained in the book, which has a total of twenty chapters.

The book has a free flowing style, as if the writer was sitting down and talking to you, rather than the detailed clinic manner in which many books of a historical nature are written.

The book is prefaced by foreward notes by Raymond Hovland, Don Allan, Audre Giebelhaus and Rene Taylor.

Mrs. Campbell, now 75 years young, had the book printed at her own expense, and to date has sold enough copies to have recovered all her cash outlay. In the future, all revenue recovered by the publication will be turned over to the United Church in Holden.

Mrs. Campbell is acting as her own agent and retail outlet, as all copies of the book may be purchased at her home. The book retails for $2.00 a copy.

County gets grant of $15,500 for drainage project

The County of Beaver has received a provincial government grant of $15,500 to be used in drainage and flood control programs.

The County is wasting no time in putting this money to good use. Work has already started on a large drainage project just east of Kinsmen that will cost a total of $21,000. In cases such as this, the province pays 50% of the cost, with the other 50% being absorbed by the County.

Work on the Kinsman project started last month, and could be finished in the near future, depending on the weather. Some concrete must be poured, and this will necessitate good weather.

AT HOLDEN SCHOOL

Remembrance Day was observed Friday, November 10th at Holden School. Mrs. Pearl Allen was the principal speaker for the High School grades.

The Elementary grades from 1 to 7 had Mrs. Campbell attending their service as guest speaker, with the program as follows. The service was opened by "O Canada" followed by a recitation "Flanders Fields"; hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past." Hymn being followed by a reading on peace.

Mrs. Campbell then spoke to the pupils for 15 minutes on the meaning of Remembrance Day and what must be sought to keep "the peace", also stressing that wars are fought to keep our way of life but not sought for until a tyrant appears, then we have to arm.

TOFIELD

The parade formed at the Cenotaph for services, with the Last Post and Reveille being sounded by Rex Boyles.

Wreaths were laid by Mrs. George Christensen, W. C. Lancaster, Jim Tiedemann and Jim Williams.

Following ceremonies at the Cenotaph, the parade, under the direction of Parade Marshal Lee Whitford, marched to the Tofield Community Centre for services, with Rev. W. H. McDonnell officiating, assisted by Harold Dunham - war veterans.

A good turn-out of veterans and citizens was on hand for both services, at the Cenotaph and the Community Centre.

Slave auction in Tofield on Saturday

The Tofield High School is holding a slave auction Saturday, Nov. 18, in front of the Legion Hall. Proceeds from the auction will go towards the payment of debts incurred by the local graduation exercises held this fall, as well as those resulting from the production of the Centennial Yearbook. They will also be used to sponsors further activities for the Tofield Students' Union.

Now is your chance to get your revenge on the town-upset of Tofield. (Remember those eggs Halloween nights?!!!)

The slaves, including exchange and teachers of the Tofield High School, will be sold between at 10:30 a.m. by Mr. Irwin auctioneer. They will work until 4:00 o'clock Saturday evening.

It promises to be an entertaining morning, and your support could make it a helpful one as well.

Have you ever wondered...

. . . how an English-speaking Alberta producer communicates with a French-speaking Quebec customer?

It's easy. He merely asks the bilingual staff of the Government of Alberta office in Montreal to interpret for him. In addition to breaching the language barrier, the Montreal representative of the Industrial Development Branch, Alberta Department of Industry and Development, assists in seeking out markets for Alberta products all over eastern Canada, from Ontario to the Maritimes. They also help visitors from home enjoy their stay in "la belle province" and provide premises where industrial commissioners and representatives from Alberta cities and towns can conduct business. These same services are available in the southern California area from the Government of Alberta office in Los Angeles.

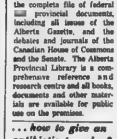
. . . what is meant by the phrase "living history"?

Living history is the story of the past as told by the men who lived it. Alberta's history is brought to life by the writings of the men who actually explored and developed our province. Their first-hand accounts tell of the establishment of law and order in the wilderness, of the beginnings of agriculture, industry and government.

You can read the stories these men have to tell, in their own words, in the Alberta Provincial Library in the Legislative Building. This collection of Western Canadiana describing Alberta's formative years is supplemented by documents which trace the province's history since inauguration. The lives of the pioneers are recorded in the file of Alberta newspapers which have existed since 1906 and which is virtually complete. The story of government in Canada and in Alberta is traced through the complete file of federal and provincial documents, including all issues of the Alberta Gazette, and the debates and journals of the Canadian House of Commons and the Senate. The Alberta Provincial Library is a comprehensive reference and research centre and all books, documents and other materials are available for public use on the premises.

. . . how to give an antibiotic to a bee?

Mix it with icing sugar and dust it into the colony. The bees' habit of passing food from one to the other will ensure that each bee gets his share of the treatment. That's the advice given to Alberta apiarists by the Agriculture Branch of the Plant Industry Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture. The recommendation of methods of disease control is just one of the personal services the Branch provides to the province's bee keepers. It also [illegible] problems, keeps apiarists aware of new developments and trends in techniques through regular news letters and personal visits. Agricultural personnel make regular inspections of all bee colonies in Alberta and offer expert advice on specific problems.



. . . how the efficiency of a community's water supply is assured before the pipes are laid?

Discovering that a water supply system isn't adequate for a community's needs, AFTER the system is installed, is an expensive mistake. To assist municipalities in avoiding this error, design plans for all new and extended water systems must be submitted, for review and assessment, to the Environmental Health Division of the Alberta Department of Health.

This method assures that the finished system will deliver a continuous supply of wholesome water at an adequate rate . . . and does it while the plans are still in the design stage. Water supply is just one of the areas in which this division contributes to the health of Albertans. It also formulates regulations and carries out a preventive maintenance program in the fields of air and water pollution, swimming pools, sewage systems, food processing plants, plumbing inspection and industrial radiation hazards. In addition, the Environmental Health Division provides an inspection service to those areas of the province not served by local health agencies, and a consultative service to Health Units and City Boards of Health.

. . . if there is a challenge left for modern youth to face?

In Alberta there is, and it lies in one of the most rewarding of all areas of service, in working with people who want to improve their own lot in life. This is the challenge offered to members of the Alberta Bureau Corps, a Division of the Alberta Department of Youth, formed of University and College students who want to share in the development of the human resources of our province. Volunteers are trained and assigned to areas in which they are interested, in which they are needed, and where their particular abilities can best be used. This may be with the mentally ill, on Indian reserves, in blighted urban areas, with migrant or seasonal laborers, or with a medical corps, providing a health program in remote communities. The pay is not great. Each member of the Alberta Service Corps receives a living allowance during his term of service, as well as a bonus on returning to school. The greatest reward lies in the satisfaction of knowing they have helped their fellow

. . . what is the source of trained technical staff for Alberta's smaller hospitals?

Whatever its size or location, a hospital requires X-ray and laboratory services to operate efficiently and these services must be performed by trained technical workers. The need for these people is great and, to meet it, the Alberta Department of Health operates the Laboratory and X-ray School in Edmonton. Here, a seven-month course equips graduates to carry out a number of procedures in both laboratory and X-ray fields and to perform the technical work necessary in a rural hospital.

There is no charge for instruction and students receive a monthly allowance of $78, but entrance qualifications are high and such aptitude is required to spend at least one year in the Alberta rural hospital field working as a hospital technician. This reserves a constant supply of trained technical workers to render a reliable and efficient service to rural hospitals in the laboratory and X-ray fields.

Holden news briefs

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

The Marshall Slywkas of Sherwood Park were last Wednesday visitors with his mother, Mrs. Wm. Slywka, and other relatives.

Mr and Mrs. Geoffrey Mealing of Edmonton, former Holdenites, were Sunday guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sorensen. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Liden.

SERIOUS ILLNESS

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barlow were visitors with Mrs. Campbell the same day. At about 12:30 noon Mrs. Barlow became ill, having to be taken to Viking Hospital in the ambulance, where it was found she had suffered a severe stroke. She has lapsed into a coma and is in serious condition.

Mr and Mrs. Barlow's daughter Muriel, Mrs. Ted Anderson and two youngest children motored here from Calgary and spent three days with her sister and family, the Ernie Mertas, to be at her mother's bedside, and were Wednesday visitors with Mrs. Campbell on their way back to Calgary. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and children drove up from Calgary again at the weekend, being overnight visitors at her parents' home in the village, then going on to Viking to be near her mother, who is still in a coma and on the critical list.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDougall and family of Spirit River were visiting during the weekend with Connie's mother, Mrs. Barlow, at the Viking Hospital, and with Mr. Barlow. Driving from there in the bad snowstorm, the trip took them eleven hours.

Mr and Mrs. Earl Hardy were visitors the weekend of November 4 with their daughter Sharon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mason Jr., in Calgary.

Karen, the little daughter of Mr and Mrs. Eugene Ewasiuk, who had been very ill in hospital for the past three or four weeks, has made a good recovery from her illness, and her parents brought her home from Edmonton on November 5.

Reuben Hovland with his father, Chris Hovland, were Wednesday visitors and overnight guests, last week, with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hovland and family at Hillsdown, near Red Deer.

AT CONVENTION

Nestor Semotuik attended the three-day Alberta School Trustees Association Annual Convention, held in Edmonton at the Chateau Lacombe last week. Mr. Semotuik is the Village of Holden representative on the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee.

IN EDMONTON HOSPITAL

Jack Keith, who has been a hospital patient in Viking for the past two weeks, was taken to the Royal Alexandra Hospital in Edmonton last Thursday for further treatment and possible surgery. Mrs. Keith went to Edmonton on Sunday to spend a few days there, to be near her husband.

Proudly introducing
Alberta Junior Citizens of the Centennial Year!

Class 91, Sherwood Heights School Winners of the Group Award

Class 91 campaigned to have the birthday of Sir John A. MacDonald (January 11) declared a national holiday. Over a thousand letters were sent to government officials, news media, schools and other organizations across Canada. The students contacted all major Canadian television and radio stations with ideas for special programs to commemorate the occasion. True, the holiday was not declared, but Class 91 received telegrams from Rt. Hon. L. B. Pearson, Hon. J. LaMarsh, Hon. John Robarts, Rt. Hon. J. Diefenbaker and others. Class 91's January 11 celebration was seen on national television.

We congratulate Class 91 of Sherwood Heights School and thank Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors for their active participation in the Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year program, sponsored by Alberta's investor-owned electric utility companies.

This is one of a series of Junior Citizen Award announcements. Our special thanks to the group's nominator, Mr. A. Schindeler.

Modern etiquette

Q. Different members of our family received a number of notes and cards of condolence following the passing of a loved one. Should these be acknowledged by us?

A. Personal notes of aknowledgment are in order, although it is understandable that they be brief, even to close friends.

Tofield FUA hosts harvest home supper

The Farmer's Union of Alberta, Tofield Local had a very successful and entertaining evening at their Harvest Home Supper, Wednesday President Ronnie Geoglein as master of ceremonies welcomed guests from Viking and Holden locals and guests of honor, Mayor and Mrs Freebury, Queen Petra and Citizen of the Year, Mr. and Mrs Backschadt.

Mayor Freebury welcomed the farmers to town and mentioned that is was something new to him to see them all together, it was usually in ones and twos. Musical numbers given by Keith Appleby, Mrs. Wall and Mrs. Regher were very much enjoyed by all. These were interspersed by humorous ancedotes

Dan Sharon from Innisfree urged members to attend the annual convention December 11th to 13th and said there was great need for young blood in the organization.

Harold Schultz paid tribute to the older members of this organization and as Reg Crispin had refused any token of appreciation his wife was presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers

George Rife, executive assistant, gave many reasons why farmers should be members of the FUA and stressed co-operation to make the union a success. The organization is handicapped because only 50 per cent of the farmers belong to the Union. The lucky draw for a box of chocolates was won by Paul Kallal.

A hearty vote of thanks is to be given to the ladies of the Mennonite Bretheren Church for the excellent meal and the efficient manner in which it was served.

Those who have not sent in their dues are reminded to do so immediately as without your membership the union is handicapped in what it can do for you.

Holden and district news items

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Mrs. Francis Laskosky and Mrs. Hazel Zadorozny left by train Monday of last week for Vancouver, B.C., to attend the wedding of a relative of the Laskoskys. The girls are staying with the Sens while Mrs. Zadorozny is away. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Laskosky, Elvira and Ernie, left Thursday to attend the wedding.

Joe Keith, a patient in the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Edmonton, has a former Holdenite Allan Owen of Edmonton, as the other patient in his room. Mr. Owen was injured in an accident November 3, when he and two other men, one of them an employee of A.G.T., had gone down a manhole to see if there was room for new telephone ducts, when an explosion took place. Allen received burns to his face, hands and arms, but is making satisfactory progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sorensen were visitors with friends in Edmonton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Budd left last Thursday evening for Brandon, Manitoba, to visit for a few days with Bruce's mother, and other [illegible].

Mrs. John Lemko, who is under the doctor's supervision, was taken to Viking Hospital early Friday morning.

Mrs. Alvin Chomic and baby daughter of Edmonton were visitors for the holiday weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sizer, and attended the Remembrance Day service and social afternoon at the Legion Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vallen of Calgary, former Holden district farmers, were visitors during the holiday weekend with Mrs. Valen's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sizer. Other weekend visitors at the Sizer home were [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Harry Korrall, and Mr. and Mrs. Wickland all of Edmonton. They were all callers at the Legion Hall on Saturday afternoon, where Mr. and Mrs. Valen met several old-time friends.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Corliss over the holiday weekend were Millie's aunt and uncle from Wainwright, who also attended the 25th wedding anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Corliss, held in the Community Hall on Friday evening.

80TH BIRTHDAY

Lars Ritland was visiting for the day on Sunday at Innisfail, driving there with relatives from Viking. They were attending the 80th birthday party of Lars' sister, Mrs. Carrie Bratrud, who now lives there with her daughter Thelma and family (Mr. and Mrs. Dorin) since her husband Tom passed away. A large number of relatives came from far and near to honor Mrs. Bratrud and offer their well-wishes to her for more years of happiness with her family.

The late Thomas Bratrud and Mrs. Bradford were pioneers and and farmed for many years in the South Holden district.

Laying the cornerstone

Lester Severson, president of the Bardo Lutheran Congregation puts the cornerstone into place during special services in Tofield on Sunday, to mark the official opening of the new Bardo Lutheran Church. Looking on is S. T. Jacobsen of Saskatoon, who conducted the service. —The Mercury Newsphoto.

Dedicate Bardo church with Sunday ceremony

The new Bardo Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tofield was formally dedicated with special ceremonies on Sunday with an overflow crowd of people in attendance.

The ceremonies opened with a special service conducted by Pastor Gordon Hendrickson of Lamond, a former Tofield resident, which was followed by a cornerstone laying ceremony conducted by Dr. S. T. Jacobson, vice-president of the ELCC from Saskatoon, assisted by Lester Severson, president of the Tofield congregation.

Placed in the cornerstone were: a Norwegian Bible History from the cornerstone of the former church, a copy of the New Testament, a booklet of the 50th Anniversary held in 19[illegible], a booklet outlining the Dedication Services, a copy of The Shepherd (the church paper), a list of the members of the congregation as of November 1[illegible], and the two latest copies of The Mercury.

The new edifice was actually opened for services on Friday evening when Building Superintendent Ed Hoffman turned the keys of the church over to Lester Severson, and then Pastor Henry Haugen of Camrose conducted the first service.

On Saturday, a Youth Rally was held with Pastor Raymond Olson of St. Albert giving the message.

The new church had become a necessity when the old structure had been struck by lightning and burned to the ground on August 25, 1965. Since then, services had been held in the Bardo Community Centre.

Then, in September 1966, the congregation decided that a new church was of prime importance and went to work making arrangements and plans for its erection. A groundbreaking ceremony was held on May 28 of this year, and actual construction began June 12.

The new church measures 70' by 34', and is of arch rib construction with a brick front and stucco on the sides. A large auditorium is contained in the basement, along with a kitchen, rest rooms and a classroom.

Following the dedication ceremony, a meal was served to those in attendance by the local LCW.

Musical selections at the different services were rendered by the Senior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Lester Severson; the Junior Choir directed by Mrs. Thelma Erickson; the Grande Prairie Senior Choir; violin selections by Eric Dalen of Grande Prairie, and the singing of the Lord's Prayer by LeRoy Pinseth.

Dedication services continued from Monday to Wednesday of this week, conducted by Pastors C. Kopperud of Camrose, M. Aadland of Wetaskiwin, and Arnold Hagen of CLBI.

Ryley drama night is being prepared

Ryley Junior High School's drama club are busy making plans to hold a drama night and shellcraft rug raffle draw on December 16.

The rug was a centennial project of the Junior High School students, and before being raffled off, it will be displayed in Ryley, Tofield and Holden. All the proceeds from the sale of the rug will go towards the purchase of a public address system for the school, along with helping to support a Korean orphan, that had been adopted earlier by the students.

The drama night and the rug raffle is being sponsored by the Ryley Junior High School Students' Council.

Ryley officer retires with 11 years' service

On Sunday, Nov. 12, the Legion Hall in Ryley was filled with [illegible] who [illegible] gathered there to honor Thomas Harris who, after 11 years of service to the Village of Ryley as Town Constable, retired in September.

He was always ready to give assistance to [illegible] who needed it, and his cheerful ways will ever be remembered by old and young.

Seated at [illegible] at the party were the honored guest, [illegible] Harris, and Mrs. Harris, and Mr. R. Cross, Mayor of the Village of Ryley, and Mrs. Cross.

Words of appreciation for the steadfast work Mr. Harris had given to the town were given by Mr. Cross. Following this, Neda Dyer and Judy Burnstad sang a duet, accompanied by Miss Linda Cross.

The Philippino [illegible] Corrales, Cely [illegible] and Jean Marquez, accompanied by Miss Terry Encarnation, sang a song especially for the guest of honor.

Following a duet by Margaret and Linda Cross, Mr. Lloyd Wickstrom rendered two songs, accompanied by Mrs. Wickstrom.

Mr. Cross then presented the guest of honor with a leather Lazy Boy Recliner chair.

Mr. Harris thanked everyone for their presence, and for the gift. Mrs. Harris also spoke, and with a few appropriate remarks thanked the people of Ryley for the honor and respect they had bestowed on her husband.

Concluding the program, a buffet lunch was served to all present.

Garnet Burnstad acted as master of ceremonies.

Navy Cadets have parade

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN. — RCSCC "Nootka" held a parade in the Holden Community Hall on November 15, with 25 cadets and four officers participating. Also attending was Petty Officer First Class L. McLaren, RCN, from Canadian Forces Base, Edmonton, who was inspecting the Corps. Lt. W. R. Taylor of Viking was appointed Commanding Officer of RCSCC "Nootka" for the coming training year.

The following cadets received promotions from qualified to rating: Garth Fleming, John Jensen and Robert Taylor, to Petty Officer First Class; Gary Bilyk, to Petty Officer Second Class; David Golka, Larry Bilyk, Marvin Samotulk, Robert Stecyk, Brian Strilchuk and Lorrie Zowtulk, to Leading Cadet.

On conclusion of the parade, Petty Officer First Class L. McLaren, RCN, gave a talk on rifle competitions to be held this winter, and hoped to see RCSCC "Nootka" enter all competitions.

Tofield man is highway fatality

Sixty-eight year old John Albert Murray of R.R. No. 3, Tofield, was killed last night when he was struck by a car on Highway 14, approximately two miles west of Ryley.

The accident occurred at approximately 8.30 p.m.

Coroner Dr. W. H. Freebury of Tofield has ordered an autopsy, and a decision on an inquest has not been made.

The accident is being investigated by the Tofield Detachment of the RCMP.

Santa comes calling in Tofield on Dec. 2

([illegible])

It may be Grey Cup Day and Election Day, but for Tofield's youngsters, December 2 will be Santa Claus Day. Word has been received from good St. Nick that he will be arriving at the Tofield Exhibition Grounds at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 2.

Santa Claus is such a busy person that he has to use a helicopter for his visits to make sure that his reindeer won't be too tired for their traditional Christmas Eve journey.

The business men of Tofield, who compose the Chamber of Commerce are anxious to help Santa. Under the direction of Ed Watson, president of the Chamber, who received the telegram announcing Santa's arrival, this group will sponsor the attendance of radio station CFCW announcers and entertainers to coincide with Santa Claus' visit.

CFCW will be broadcasting from Tofield, beginning at 1:00 p.m. Christmas music will be played to get everyone in the proper mood for Santa's arrival. This will be an actuality broadcast, and it is hoped some Tofield businessmen will be interviewed.

In the Community Centre, treats will be given to the children. These treats are being provided by local service clubs, as in past years.

Again, CFCW will be on hand. Perhaps Santa will be interviewed by the announcers. Certainly any child who wishes to whisper his Christmas wishes to Santa will be welcomed by the good Saint!

This is the Children's Day, sponsored by the local businessmen.

Election signs growing

Whether we want to or not, and whether the country can afford it or not, we could be facing a federel election before the winter is over . . . at least, that's what some of the so-called political experts are telling us.

If such an election should occur, the possibilities that the Progressive-Conservatives would take over the reins of power are great. The Liberal party has not exerted a strong force in recent months, and the Medicare issue now before the house will probably break them, no matter which way it goes.

The Liberal party of recent weeks is beginning to show huge chinks in its 'togetherness' as they cannot agree even among themselves over the issue. Undercurrents of discontent are evident in the differences in opinion over the CBC management between Prime Minister Pearson and Judy LaMarsh. Other cabinet ministers are showing signs of discontent, and ideas of taking over leadership, although none of them publicly admit to this.

The signs are growing more evident each day, that an election is imminent, and the results of such an election also seem quite apparent. But, parliament is a tricky place, and it could be quite a while before the government goes to the people.

More on Hippies

Apparently a recent editorial gave the impression that we totally opposed the hippies. This is not quite true. In many instances, we agree with their ideas and opinions, and feel, like them, that changes should be made. What we do disagree with, and very strongly so, is the manner in which they present their arguments.

They do NOT request or ask for changes, they DEMAND, and we feel quite strongly that in almost all cases of persons who are hippies, that they have never done anything constructive in their entire lives to give them the right to demand anything. Few, and very few at that, have contributed anything to society, and maybe they should, before they should try to unconform our society as it exists today.

They object to many things, and say they are non-conformists. That is quite untrue. They are more conformists than anyone else. They are all dirty and unkempt, ragged and tattered, and all wear the same type of 'uniform'. They all talk the same language, and do the same things. That is conforming.

Letters to the Editor

Differences in opinions on various topics can often be quite enlightening. Many people find ways and means of expressing their opinions and ideas about various things in many different ways, such as public meetings, radio, television and so on.

One method that can prove very popular when people take advantage is the 'Letters to the Editor' column in your local newspaper. It is unfortunate that most people fail to take advantage of this opportunity.

The Mercury will publish letters to the editor on all topics, provided a couple of easy conditions are met. One is that all letters must be signed. You may use a nom de plume in having a letter published but, for our benefit and protection, the letter must be signed.

The other condition is that the letter be not libellous or slanderous. The Mercury extends an invitation to anyone with ideas and opinions to express, to use this column.

ABC's curling column revives old memories

A column entitled "What Did A.B.C. See Behind The Hog" should bring back memories to some residents of the Tofield area.

The column used to be a regular feature during the curling season, and was written by A. B. Clutterham, now retired at 87 years and a resident of Vancouver, B.C., is a former resident of Tofield.

While residing in Tofield, Mr. Clutterham had served on the Town Council for five years and had been Mayor of Tofield for four years. He was a life-member of the Curling Club, the Community League and a Charter Member of the Royal Canadian Legion, after acting as secretary-treasurer for 22 years. He was also a Past-Master of the Masonic Lodge and Past-Patron of the Order of Eastern Star.

Following is one of the many curling columns that used to be published in The Mercury:

Not much news this week, as we are in on the Bonspiel with 15 other rinks, 10 local and 6 from outside. May give you a flash on results to date.

* * *

Optimists and Pessimists in the [illegible].

The Pres. sees all the Sunshine,
The Sec'y sees all the Gloom,
The visitors see the Starlight,
And the Locals see no Broom;
Some see just the Beauty,
Some see just the Smudge,
The Gallery sees the Craftsmen,
And the Curlers see the Drudge;
The Kids, they see the Progress,
The Old Boys see Retreat,
The Club sees some Achievement,
But I only see Defeat.

Some of our curlers are always giving themselves away. . . . Unfortunately, we have a full rink at present.

* * *

Never take your troubles home from the 'Spiel. Mine's usually there waiting for me. I have to work. I used to like to play, but now I'm getting old.

* * *

Most self-made Curlers stop construction too soon. They are still rough just above the shoulders.

* * *

You may be king of your own [illegible],
And Ace high with the pack;
But if you want a gorgeous Queen
You got to have the Jack.

* * *

He was a wholesome curler . . . he holds some six pints.

* * *

So here's my sheaf of well worn verse,
And some is bad and some is [illegible].
And if at times I race a bit,
You need not read that part of it;
For through it all the rocks they run,
And curlers have a lot of fun,
As through the house we make them hum.
In 12 full ends, and then we're [illegible].

* * *

This week's brain wave: "Curlers can preserve most anything in alcohol—Except their Dignity".

* * *

(Editor's Note: Time may pass on, but some things never change. Much of what was contained in the above column is still quite applicable today).

Holden news briefs

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Pete Jakabow has returned home, after being away over a month.

Hans Huseby visited for a few days over the weekend in Edmonton, attending a Scandinavian Centennial dinner on Friday, and visiting his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Lefsrud, in the city.

FRIENDSHIP GROUP MEETS

The Friendship Group held their regular meeting on November 16 at the home of Mrs. Carrie Olson with ten ladies present. Devotions and prayer were taken by Mrs. Dorothy Bateman. The ladies decided to send a further sum of money to their small protege, a little girl in Hong Kong, toward her schooling and clothing. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Coates on Thursday, Dec. 21. The collection will be added to the money being sent to the little protege.

FRACTURES LEG

Mrs. Mary Pokraka had the misfortune to fracture her leg in two places on Sunday morning, [illegible]. She was taken to Tofield Hospital in the ambulance and on Monday afternoon was transferred to an Edmonton hospital.

Mrs. Carrie Olson and Mrs. [illegible] were Tuesday guests at the home of Mrs. Mary James.

Rev. Geeson visited his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible], over the weekend. Rev. Geeson has sold his house in Edmonton and is soon going to [illegible] to make his future home.

Mr. and Mrs. David Good and family of Edmonton were visiting at the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Lars Rutland and Mr. Rutland, also at the Hooper home and with Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Mary Hooper, in Tofield Hospital.

Mrs. Anne Black visited with Mrs. Lemko in Viking hospital Thursday evening of last week and called in to see Mrs. Barlow.

Mrs. Hazel Zadorozny is home after spending several days in Vancouver, where she attended the funeral of a niece.

Felix Slonopas of Edmonton was visiting in the district at the week-end and called on his mother Mrs. Mary Slonopas at Tofield Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Armitage and children of Peace River were week-end guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arms[illegible].

Roy Nichols with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Teideman were visitors in Edmonton, Monday.

Aaron Taylor was a Sunday afternoon visitor with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and little daughter were Sunday evening callers with his parents and picked up their small son.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Starnbaugh of Edmonton were Sunday visitors here, attending the wedding reception for miss Gail Fredricks and Gordon Chamulke.

101st BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Budd who recently visited with his mother at Brandon, also called on Mrs. Stewart Sr., mother of W. R. Stewart, former Holden postmaster. Mrs. Stewart is in the same nursing home as Mrs. Budd and is the good age of 101 years, keeping in good health. Reta and Ray visited with her during last summer to help her celebrate her birthday.

Mrs. Mary Hooper who has been a patient in Tofield hospital for the past seven weeks has had the cast off her leg for two weeks. She is beginning to walk around much better, hoping to be able to get home the end of the week.

Tofield 4-H Beef Club has interesting meeting

The regular meeting of the Tofield 4-H Beef Club was held Thursday, November 9 in the meeting room. The roll call was answered with weight and breed of calf. A total of 88 calves were weighed in at the 4-H Weigh in, held November 4-5. Eight of these heifers were for the breeding club.

The 4-H members decided to buy materials to build a bench to be put in Queen Petra's Park as the club's contribution to Tofield's Centennial.

The main item of business was the discussion of ideas for raising money, brought forth by the financial committee.

John Moore, club leader, gave an interesting account of his activities at the recent 4-H Leader's conference held at Lake Isle, a camp 80 miles west of Edmonton from November 6 to 8th. The theme of this conference was "The Role of the Volunteer Leader."

Marj Moore concluded the meeting by telling of her experiences while on a student exchange trip from the County of Beaver to Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

The Pee Wees held their meeting on November 11 at the [illegible] of Glenn Jones.

Guest speaker was Terry Moore, who related her experiences at Expo this past summer.

Days of Yore

Taken from the files of The Canadian — thirty years ago.

There was 13 inches of snow on the ground.

Wheat, $1.11 per bushel; eggs, [illegible].

Tofield residents will recall the severe storm in November 1942 when 20 inches of snow fell, although no high wind prevailed to cause drifting.

The 1968 Ford. Quiet. Strong. Beautiful.
A great road car.

The 1968 Ford: the newest expression of the Fords that showed themselves astoundingly strong, wonderfully quiet—test after test, drive after drive. Back in 1965, Ford showed itself even quieter than a Rolls Royce . . . in 1966, Ford showed its quiet strength against the finest European luxury cars . . . in 1967, Ford showed its rugged durability conquering the steep steps of the Los Angeles Coliseum. Now in 1968, the new generation Ford is, more than ever, a great road car.

Every one's a beauty too: the formal, elegant 2-and 4-door LTD'S. The racy convertibles. Luxurious wagons. A spirited new fastback that seats six. And behind the good looks, better ideas: power disc brakes, rear window defogger, 7 position tilt steering wheel, "no headlight" headlights (neatest disappearing trick of the year), AM Radio-StereoSonic tape system and lots more. So many features, in fact that your '68 Ford is almost custom outfitted for you.

Ford's new improved SelectShift transmission (works both manually and automatically) puts three speeds into action, for greater flexibility and livelier performance with Ford's new V-8 engines. V-8's from a brand new 302 CID powerplant . . . all the way up to the rugged 428. For snappy performance plus six-cylinder thrift, there's the 240 cu. in. Big Six.

Try the 1968 Fords. Quieter because they're stronger. Stronger because they're better built. And beautiful. Great road cars.

Holden and district news items

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Mrs. Mary Slonopas is a patient in Tofield Hospital, taken there Sunday of last week in the ambulance. She is having treatments and a check up.

Mrs. N. L. Campbell visited with Mrs. Hay in Ryley on Wednesday afternoon, driving there with Mrs. Dorothy Bateman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemko were receiving congratulations on the birth of a son November 17, at the Viking Hospital. Mrs. Lemko has been a patient there for over a week and mother and son are doing well.

Fred Doran of Camrose, former Talbot district farmer, was a caller in the village on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Dorothy Bateman and her daughter were in Viking on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Campbell also went along to see her sister, Mrs. Percy Barlow, who is seriously ill in Viking Hospital. Mrs. Barlow suffered a stroke November 3 and is still in a semi-coma.

The Joe Komarnizkys were visitors for the Remembrance holiday weekend with the Walter and Ernie Hewrish families at Spirit River.

The Holden Ladies' Curling Club held a re-organization meeting recently, with Stella Komarnisky elected as president and Mrs. Mildred Corliss as secretary. The ladies set the date of February 10 and 11 for their annual bonspiel.

Percy Barlow and his brother Alex were dinner guests with Mrs. Campbell last Tuesday, then driving to see Mrs. Barlow at Viking Hospital. Alex was a Wednesday overnight visitor with his brother, going home the following morning.

Holden Men's and Ladies' Curling Clubs have already commenced curling, with several games of mixed rinks being played the past two weeks.

The Holden U.C.W. are holding their Annual Tea and Bazaar on Saturday, November 25, in the church parlors. They have many articles of sewing and novelties for sale, which will make good Christmas gifts. There will also be a table of home-baking, Christmas puddings, cookies and home-made marmalade, and their usual apron selection.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Chapka entertained a number of relatives and friends on Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, who helped Kay celebrate her birthday.

Aaron Taylor was a Friday afternoon and overnight visitor with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Harris and family of Edmonton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Hans Brekstad during the Remembrance holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Olson entertained teachers on the staff of Holden school, their wives and husbands, at their home for a steak supper on November 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Laskoski and family returned the early part of last week, after being in Vancouver for a few days, attending the wedding of a relative.

Last rites for Mrs. B. Locke

Mrs. Bertha Locke was born June 18, 1890, at Lillehammer, Norway. She immigrated to the U.S.A. in 1908, and there married Ole Kirkelund in 1914. To this union were born five children. The family immigrated to Alberta in 1920, and in 1928 they moved to Ryley. Her husband, Ole Kirkelund, passed away in 1949, and in 1958 she remarried Harry Locke, who predeceased her in March of this year. Mrs. Locke passed away in Camrose on September 4, at the age of 78 years.

She leaves to mourn her passing: five children, Bernie Kirkelund of Dawson Creek, B.C., Olga (Mrs. Arthur Annebo) of Edmonton, Olaf Kirkelund of Vancouver, Helen (Mrs. Peter Runkle) of Pouce Coupe, B.C., and Gladys (Mrs. Vern Carlisle) of Edmonton; also five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the Ryley Lutheran Church, with Pastor Stanley Rude officiating. Interment followed in the Ryley cemetery. Burgar Funeral Home, Camrose, was in charge of arrangements.

Proudly introducing

Another Alberta Junior Citizen of the Centennial Year!

PATRICIA ANNE ZEMANEK, Viking

While Patricia's parents were away at a funeral she suddenly smelled smoke. The lawn grass was ablaze! She fought the fire with wet rags but soon realized this to be futile. Hustling her small brother and sister into the farm truck, this brave 14-year-old girl drove it to a neighbours'. There, the truck stalled, so she took the neighbours' truck and drove to yet another farm. Upon arrival she phoned the fire department. A tractor, a shed and some farm items were lost in the fire, but Patricia had saved the farm!

We congratulate Patricia Zemanek and thank Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors for their active participation in the Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year program, sponsored by Alberta's investor-owned electric utility companies.

This is one of a series of Junior Citizen Award announcements. Our special thanks to Robert Thunnell, Editor of the Viking News and to Patricia's nominator, Mr. H. A. Willens.

Lakeshore - McKenzie news items

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

Judy Gonbault of Drayton Valley was a Sunday overnight guest of her cousin Mary at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Martha Tiedemann.

Mrs. Ruth Wickenberg of Tofield returned to Edmonton from Lacombe on Saturday to spend the weekend at the home of her daughter Mrs. Norm (Vivian) Jones after having spent the past week visiting with her three sisters. All were Tuesday overnight guests at the home of her sister Mrs. Ada Keason at Alix. On Wednesday her sisters Sybil Nelson and Nettie Thomas and Ruth visited friends at Rimbey. The remainder of the week was spent visiting friends and relatives at Lacombe before Ruth left for Edmonton. Roy Wickenberg motored to Edmonton with their daughter Janet on Sunday where he joined the rest of the family for Sunday dinner at the home of Vivian and Norman Jones and son Donald. Also there for dinner were Roy and Ruth's grandson Kenny and Jerry Wickenberg and two children and their granddaughter Mrs. Audrey Jacobs and two children. Roy and Ruth returned to Tofield on Monday evening with their grandson Donald Jones, who later returned to the city.

Hans and Martha Jacobsen of Edmonton were Sunday visitors and dinner and supper guests, also overnight visitors at the home of their son Morley and Marjorie Jacobsen. During Sunday afternoon they visited Martha's sister Margaret and Jack Miller in Tofield.

Art Redway and son Wayne of Edmonton were Saturday visitors at the home of Wayne's grandfather Jack Johnston.

Julius Jacobsen and granddaughter Clarice Jacobsen spent the weekend at the home of Clarice's parents and Julius' daughter Mavis and Carl Jacobsen. On Sunday they all attended the official opening of the new Bardo Lutheran Church in Tofield.

Glen Bailey of Golden Spike, who was renewing acquaintances in the Tofield district was a Saturday evening visitor with Roy Wickenberg in Tofield. They were near neighbors when they both lived on farms in the McKenzie district.

Mrs. Tillie Yurkowski of Tofield, who has been a patient in the Lamont Hospital for the past week, returned home Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunther Kummetat of Edmonton were Sunday guests at the home of Morley and Marjorie Jacobsen.

Several people are suffering from stomach 'flu and colds. The changeable weather of the past month does not help as one day it is quite warm and then cold. The earlier snow fall of the past week had disappeared and the roads were dry again until Sunday night when rain fell, followed by snow on Monday, leaving highways and side roads quite slippery.

Marjorie and Morley Jacobsen attended the annual supper party held for Elk Island Park employees and their families in the Chipman Hall on Friday evening.

Final plans have been made for the annual Christmas grocery bingo to be held in the hall on December 1st.

Ministik news

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK — At the United Church on Sunday, those attending had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Smith and small daughter Lynn, who accompanied Robert Smith, who is the student minister on this field for the winter.

WIN AWARDS

On November 1, at Ardrossan High School merit awards were given to Donna Leach and Lori Schwuchow, for Grade eight. Ann Paterson received an honors award in Grade ten, which requires 80 per cent or over average. All the girls are from this district.

Bauen Bowerman spent the long weekend with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ferguson and wee Ronnie are enjoying their own home, situated on the Archie Ferguson farm.

LOTS OF TURKEYS

The Bruno Jeskes have shipped out the last of their large flock of 11,000 turkeys.

Les Whitford completed sanding and varnishing the community hall floor, making a big improvement and could be called a centennial project.

Mrs. Helen Hennessy spent three days last week at the Irvin Liknes home and attended the Winnifred Stewart School for Retarded Childrens' annual open-house and bazaar. Her niece, Mrs. Liknes was convenor of this affair.

Leave the wife a tip.

A penny tip? Unheard of! But this is no ordinary penny. It's a power penny! The only penny that has doubled its value in the past 20 years. While the cost of living has gone up, the cost of electrical living has come down. Here are a few good "power penny" tips. Tell the wife!

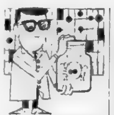
CALGARY POWER LTD.
Serving Albertans for over half a century

Have you ever wondered...



. . . what has proved the most effective weapon in the war against disease-carrying insects?

It's research. Research to identify those insects which transmit disease from animal carriers to man, to discover methods of control and to develop preventive measures. Field work on such research in our province is carried out by the Entomology and Vector Control Branch of the Alberta Department of Health. When a disease is reported these teams trace the source of the infection, determine the area involved, then institute a control program. While this research is being carried out, warnings are posted throughout the area and residents are advised on preventive measures to be taken. Another service provided by the Branch is the identification of household insects. Any Albertan can learn the nature of and control methods for an insect infestation in his home by sending a specimen of the invaders to his city Health Department or local Health Unit. These agencies are equipped with insect control sheets issued by the Branch but, if they are not able to make identification from this information, they will forward the specimen directly to the Entomology and Vector Control Branch for positive identification and [illegible]

. . . who supplies the "lady in the grey cap" to Alberta hospitals?

The lady in the grey and white uniform and cap is a Nursing Aide, trained and qualified to provide personal nursing care to patients in hospitals, institutions and homes. Her vocation is service and her duties include many of those which were formerly assumed by the trained nurse. To meet the demand for this valuable member of the nursing team, the Alberta Department of Health maintains two Schools for Nursing Aides, one in Calgary, one in Edmonton. To gain admittance to the school, an applicant must meet certain scholastic requirements, be in good health and of good character, with a pleasing personality. She must be well-groomed, be interested in people and have a strong sense of duty. Her training consists of a 40 week course of which the first 19 weeks include lectures on such subjects as anatomy, physiology, nutrition, nursing procedures, bandaging and emergency nursing, child care and development, care of mother and child, administration of medicine and geriatrics. Practical instruction and actual experience in bedside nursing are gained through twenty weeks' work in hospitals. The final week of the course is devoted to examinations. The lady in the grey cap is a quality product, fully qualified to assist in protecting the health of Albertans through her training at the School for Nursing Aides.

. . . what happens to Alberta government wards who are unable to adjust to foster home care?

Some children under government care find it impossible to fit into the regular system of foster homes. This once meant they were moved from home to home in an attempt to find the right environment with the result that the children suffered personally, academically and socially from such moves. The Homes and Institutions Branch of the Alberta Department of Public Welfare today maintains a variety of outlets for these youngsters, the latest of which is the Diagnosis and Treatment Centre in Edmonton. The first complete unit of its kind in Canada, the Centre houses twenty boys and twenty girls in two dormitories which provide complete living accommodation [illegible] thirty more children in three cottages each with room for ten. The administration building contains special [illegible] is staffed by selected teachers and the Centre will be completely self-contained with the addition of recreational facilities to provide an outlet for the children's energy. Group Homes are another recently-developed method of housing government wards. In these a housemother and a housefather provide a home environment for six to eight children living in a regular house in a regular neighborhood. Children who cannot be fitted into any of these areas are often assigned to special foster homes specifically chosen by the Homes and Institutions Branch to suit the child's personality.

. . . who teaches the people who teach people to have fun?

Each year, a group of young men and women from all over Alberta gather in Drumheller for the specific purpose of learning how to teach people to have fun. These are candidates who have been nominated by their local recreation authorities or other responsible community organizations to attend the Recreation Leadership School held annually by the Recreation Branch of the Alberta Department of Youth. The purpose of the School is to provide persons interested in leading recreation activities with the opportunity to develop their leadership skills. Required subjects during the first year course are recreation leadership, anatomy and first aid, group games, square and round dancing and community singing, with such options as gymnastics, drama, sports and crafts. Second year students take recreation and arts workshops and social dancing, with such options as tennis, archery, swimming and outdoor recreation. On graduation from the Recreation Leadership School, the candidates are qualified to return to their communities to act as activity leaders in local recreational programs.

. . . how many candidates write "departmentals" each year in Alberta?

Last spring, approximately 50,000 hopefuls attempted Grade 9 and Grade 12 exams, which meant over a quarter of a million examination papers had to be finalized, distributed and marked by the Examinations Branch of the Special Services Branch, Alberta Department of Education. All examinations were prepared one year in advance by Alberta teachers. These were reviewed and, where necessary, revised by the Department with the assistance of teachers and people of the University of Alberta, then distributed to the schools where they were administered. The completed papers were returned to the Examinations Branch for scoring. The massive task of marking the exams required over 600 people, 330 of whom were examiners and the remainder clerks. With the assistance of the provincial data computer centre, result cards were mailed to the candidates for Grade 12 by the end of July, for Grade 9 by mid-August. In addition to handling departmental exams, the Examinations Branch also evaluates documents from other provinces to assess new pupils' positions in the Alberta School system.

Impressive ceremony marks Holden Elk's installation

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Sunday evening, Nov. 12, Holden Lodge B P O. Elks held an open Installation of Officers, with members of Holden Lodge O.O.R.P. present; Elks' wives, members from Wainwright, Irma, Kinsella, Viking and Vegreville B.P.O.E. and O.O.R.P. Lodges also attended. Bro. Dr. N J Kuzyk of Vegreville, Provincial President, was an honored guest.

D.D.G.E.R. Lyle Grosland was in charge of the installation ceremonies, with Conductress Lady Stella Sorensen as Assistant Installing Officer, and a Drill Team of eight members of Holden O.O.R.P. assisting in the ceremony, and Lady Blanche Olson as pianist.

The following slate of officers were installed: Exalted Ruler, Bro. Joseph Lindberg; Past E.R., William Kelly; Leading Knight, Eugene Bilyk; Loyal Knight, Don Manchur; Lecturing Knight, Ed Faryna; Sec'y-Treas., John Semchuk; Historian, Lars Olson; Chaplin, (Otto Herum) proxy for Stan Rohms, Esquire, Paul Shtokal; Inner Guard, Don Cpuru; Tyler, Dave Faryna; 3-year Trustee and Publicity Director, Zane Bilyk; Organist, Earl Hardy.

At the conclusion of installation, H.R.L. Irene Strilchuk, Assistant R.L. Mary Semotuik, Loyal Lady Helen Bilyk and Lec. Lady Kathleen Herum exemplified the Pansy Ceremony, with P.H.R.L. Irene Taylor as soloist.

E.R. Bro. Lindberg thanked the Lodge for the honor of his station, the ladies of the O.O.R.P. Drill team and pianist for their assistance and all those who attended.

A very interesting talk was then given by Orest Lesyshky, who spoke on the procedures and the various debates held at the United Nations Seminar held in Banff the past summer, which he had attended, sponsored by the Holden B.P.O. Elks. Those attending had been put into groups, each one representing a different country, speaking of that country and its possible ideas of the debate. He had found it most interesting and enlightening, receiving information of the workings of the U.N. Assembly and the lectures being involved with the organization. He thanked the Elks for the opportunity of being able to attend.

Provincial President Bro. Kuzyk then spoke, bringing greetings from the Provincial Lodge, also thanking the ladies of the O.O.R.P. for their assistance, and Orest for his informative talk.

Greetings and wishes for a successful year's activities were given by the lodges attending.
